Household Budget

Mother had decided to trim her household budget wherever possible, so instead of having a dress dry-cleaned she washed it by hand. Proud of her savings, she boasted to my father, "Just think, Fred, we are five dollars richer because I washed this dress by hand."

"Good," my dad quickly replied. "Wash it again!"

Salome's Stars

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) A previous misunderstanding continues to taint the atmosphere to some extent during the early part of the week. But cooler heads prevail, and the situation eases by the week's end.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) While the artistic aspect of the Divine Bovine is well-served this week, your practical side is also getting the sort of recognition that could lead to a new and well-deserved opportunity.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) With home-related matters taking on more importance this week, now could be the time to make some long-deferred purchases. But shop carefully for the best quality at the best price.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) Congratulations! While a family problem might still rankle, it should be easing, thanks to your efforts to calm the waters. Also, a workplace situation seems to be moving in your favor.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) The Big Cat's energy levels should be rather high these days, and you might do well to tackle any tasks that still need doing. This will clear the way for any upcoming projects.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) Someone's criticism might not be as negative as you perceive. Actually, it could be helpful. Discuss the matter with your critic, and you both could learn something valuable.

LIBRA (September 23 to October

22) A business matter could cause some friction among your colleagues. But once again, that logical mind of yours comes to the rescue. And the sooner it does, the better!

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) There still might be some heated temper flare-ups out there. But your sensible self should advise you to stay out of these situations until things cool down and calm is restored.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) Changing your mind could be the right thing to do if you can't resolve your doubts. You might want to discuss the matter with someone whose advice you trust.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) The Sea Goat's merrier side dominates this week, and this means that despite your usual busy schedule, you'll be able to squeeze in parties and all sorts of fabulously fun times.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) An educational opportunity could offer a lead to something other than what you had planned. But keep an open mind, and before you decide to turn it down, check it out.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) The Piscean wit and wisdom you have helps you work through a situation that might have been accidentally, or even deliberately, obscured. What you unravel could prove to be very revealing.

BORN THIS WEEK: Loyalty is important to you. You demand it, but you also give it generously and lovingly.

Even Exchange by Donna Pettman

Each numbered row contains two clues and two 6-letter answers. The two answers differ from each other by only one letter, which has already been inserted. For example, if you exchange the A from MASTER for an I, you get MISTER. Do not change the order of the letters.

Piedmont Pets

August 15, 2024 By Paulette Dean

In the fall of 2002, we received a complaint about an address where birds were allegedly being neglected. When we arrived, we saw many birds being kept in large aviaries outside. Although the conditions were not ideal, most of the birds looked adequate. There was an injured female and the owner opted to release that cockatiel to us.

Cockatiels, I believe, are the comedian birds of the bird world. They can talk, love toys, thrive on drama, and generally love their humans. I decided to adopt her. I had been introduced to the wonderful benefits of sharing my life with a cockatiel years before and felt my home could use some songs and drama. She was over a year old.

Because I like naming my birds with names ending in "y," I for some forgotten reason decided to name her "Georgy." People thought she was beautiful. She was a cinnamon cockatiel and had softly muted orange spots on her cheeks with a light yellow crest. She was stunning.

Georgy came to work each day with my dog, Katey, and me. She loved looking out the window, but I could never get her interested in actually speaking or even singing wonderful tunes. Her world revolved around food. And lots of it.

After a few months, I decided she needed a 'tiel friend and adopted Charlotte, a boy that was already named. He and Georgy instantly bonded. Charlotte sang beautiful songs to his girlfriend. Where one was, the other was not far away.

996 South Boston Rd.,
Danville, VA 24540
Phone: (434) 799-0843

Davey and Pearly eventually joined the flock of cockatiels, but Georgy's heart belonged to her Charlotte. She would have cheerfully followed him into the depths of darkness; she trusted and loved him that much. She weighed more than any of her male friends, but they never criticized her. Take note, men!

Twenty-two years passed in the blink of an eye and I noticed last Tuesday that Georgy did not seem to be interested in food the way she normally was. By Wednesday morning, she was back to eating with gusto.

However, when I went home that evening, I found Georgy had died. Charlotte and Davey, her cage mates, were very quiet, Pearly was quiet in his cage, and even Danny the cat did vigil by the cage that evening. We miss her. What a lesson about the little things in life being so important to us.

Georgy lived life quietly and simply. I am grateful for my testimony that heaven has lots of blue sky.

KOVELS® Antiques & Collecting

Artistic Lamps

Before the use of electric lights, lamps were designed to cast as much light as possible. With the introduction of electric light bulbs, invented in 1879, lamps took on new forms and functions. In some cases, lampshades had to soften the light instead of amplifying or directing it.

In the early 20th century, designers created lamps with new materials and previously unseen shapes. Fulper Pottery, established in New Jersey in 1860, started its artware line, Vasekraft, about this time. Its Vasekraft lamps had pottery shades and bases decorated with Fulper's famous glazes. The shades had inset panels of stained glass to let the light through.

These aren't the only lamps that Fulper made, however. This parrot-shaped pottery lamp with tilted head, slightly open beak and colorful plumage was made by Fulper. It sold for $375 at an auction by Dennis Auction Service, Inc. There is a socket for a light bulb concealed in the base; the entire parrot and the top of its perch detaches and acts as the shade.

Q: I'm downsizing and am interested in selling my Wedgwood Orange Florentine demitasse and saucer collection. I checked eBay and other sites but am unable to come up with a selling price. Can you please help me out?

A: Wedgwood pottery started in Burslem, England, in 1759. Florentine pattern was designed in 1931. The ornate border with mystical dragon-like creatures was made in many different colors. Pieces were made with or without center decorations. Recent prices for Florentine demitasse sets with no center decoration range from about $20 to $48. A demitasse set with Coral border and floral center was listed for $70. Orange seems to be rarer than other colors and may sell for more. Wedgwood is still in business and currently makes Florentine in Turquoise. It also includes some Florentine accent pieces in its Renaissance collection.

Polly wanna light? Fulper Pottery was known for more traditional lamp shades but also made some unusual ones like this figural parrot lamp.

The company lists a Florentine Turquoise cup and saucer for $140.

TIP: If there are two handles on a drawer, open the drawer using both handles. It lessens the strain on the joints.

Laidback Golf Tour holds Rain Make-up Tournament at Stoney Creek Golf Club

Nine members of the Laidback Golf Tour battled the high humidity, 85 degree temperature, and very high thick rough in their rain delayed make-up Major held at Stoney Creek Golf Club in Whitsett N.C. on Monday August 12th following Tropical Storm Debbie's passing through the area. In their 2023 outing here there was twenty-three participants with two rounds in the seventies and fourteen birdies made during the event. This time the nine player group was able to still place two rounds in the seventies with six birdies being carded. Both of the seventies rounds were made from B Flight players today. Robbie Revis; playing in the B Flight led all scorers for the day with his three birdie round of 76. This was ten strokes better than his score here last season. Revis also collected the overall low net prize for the day with a net score of 62 and his third win of the season. Only three strokes back was another B Flight player; Brian Glaze who had one birdie and finished at 79. Both B-Flight players will be moved up to A-Flight for their next tournament.

In A-Flight Allen Revis who is the son of Robbie Revis; was able to overcome a four stroke lead by Fran Hensley at the turn to capture his third 1st place finish of the season with his round of 80. Meanwhile Jody Myers; a C-Flight player claimed his fifth win of the year in the combined C & D Flight division today with his score of 92. The win puts Myers leading the Tour in wins and money winnings so far for the season. Fran Hensley and Willard Vicks won the two closest to the pin prizes today. There were no Honey Hole winners in either flight group today so the $110 prize money in each flight will carry-over to the Deep Springs event next Wednesday, August 21st. The Deep Springs tournament will begin at 10am and the entry fee is $80 for Tour members. Registration is required by noon Saturday August 17th. Register by emailing : golftripman@yahoo.com.

Also we are still looking for a two-some or two more people interested in going on our golf trip to Florence, SC October 10-13. We will be playing Hartsville Country Club, Country Club of SC, Traces, and Cheraw State Park. We lodge 3 nights at Country Inn and Suites in Florence. Package includes 4 rounds of golf (carts & greens fees), 3 nights lodging and daily golf prize pools. Cost is $450 for double room (two in a room /2 beds) or $600 if single room is desired. First 20 people to sign-up and pay get to go ; others placed on a waiting list in case of emergency cancellations. All payments have to be in to Kenny Powell by Saturday September 7th. If interested contact me at golftripman@yahoo.com right away.

HOLLYWOOD
by Tony Rizzo

HOLLYWOOD — Glen Powell's "Twisters" grossed $134 million during its first weekend, and his rom-com "Anyone but You" grossed $220 million from a $25 million cost. Now that Paramount merged with Skydance, they're now planning a "Top Gun" threequel. The last sequel, "Top Gun: Maverick," grossed $1.496 billion.

Glen Powell in "Twisters"

Powell's schedule is tight, but the threequel news comes from Powell, who confirmed that he has a date to start shooting "Top Gun 3." The plan's to reunite him with Tom Cruise and Miles Teller. "There is going to be some fun stuff being announced soon," Powell teased.

"Twisters," which is projected to land half a billion dollars, will have a sequel with the same cast. This explains why they left the story open-ended. Meanwhile, Powell's currently shooting a black comedy called "Huntington," with Margaret Qualley and Ed Harris. Teller shot the musical drama "Michael" with Colman Domingo, which is due on April 2025. Teller also has two rom-coms coming up — Apple TV+'s "The Gorge" with Anya Taylor-Joy and Sigourney Weaver and A24's "Eternity" with Elizabeth Olsen and Da'Vine Joy Randolph.

Keanu Reeves, who turns 60 on Sept. 2, was shooting Aziz Ansari's "Good Fortune," with Seth Rogen, Keke Palmer and Sandra Oh, when he fractured his knee. It wasn't from doing a stunt, like in "The Matrix" franchise, but from tripping on a rug in his trailer. He used a crutch on set, except while filming, but a salsa dancing scene had to wait until he fully recovered.

Reeves finally wrapped "John Wick Presents: Ballerina," with Ana de Armas, Anjelica Huston, Gabriel Byrne, Norman Reedus and Ian McShane, for a June 2025 release. He is currently shooting Jonah Hill's "Outcome," a black comedy for Apple TV+ that co-stars Hill, Cameron Diaz, Matt Bomer, Susan Lucci, David Spade and Laverne Cox.

Robert Pattinson and Jennifer Lawrence are set to star in the thriller "Die My Love." Pattinson had a string of eight movies that flopped between 2015-2019. It was Christopher Nolan's "Tenet" that led him to "The Batman," which grossed $772 million and renewed his career. Pattinson's $150-million sci-fi film "Mickey 17," with Steven Yeun, Toni Collette and Mark Ruffalo, is set for release on Jan. 31, 2025.

"The Whale" Oscar winner Brendan Fraser has completed three films this year. The first is Amazon MGM Studios' "Brothers," an action-comedy film with Josh Brolin, Peter Dinklage and Glenn Close. The second film, "Rental Family," was filmed in Japan with a Japanese cast. The third film, "Sacrifice," is about a radical group that attacks a charity event to steal a mystical artifact, and it co-stars Anya Taylor-Joy, Chris Evans, and Salma Hayek.

Fraser's also set to portray President Dwight D. Eisenhower in the 72 hours leading up to the D-Day invasion. It'll take a "Whale" of a performance for him to pull that off!

Extend grace but you may have to walk away
 Dr. Glenn Mollette

We live in an age of addiction and dysfunctional personalities. Lives and families are shattered every day by drug addiction, gambling addictions, pornography, alcoholism and more. Some people have anger issues and live daily lashing out at people and loved ones. Many people have serious mental issues and need help and often refuse to get help. All of these issues and many more can be impactful on friendships and relationships. It takes a lot of patience and work to survive such a relationship.

Sometimes we hang in there because we feel it's the noble thing to do. We try to stick with our kids and be there when they need us. We try to hang tight with our parents in their golden years just in case they need us. We stick with a spouse or significant other out of love or a commitment to see life through to the end.

Most of the time we don't give in unless someone becomes very bad, mean, evil, or is totally wrecking our lives. When this happens then we have to make a decision. How do we stay in relationship with this person? The individual could be a friend, spouse, significant other or a relative. Most people try for a long time but there comes a point if someone is totally wrecking your life then you have to have a serious discussion with the person. If this doesn't work then you have to go a different direction. You have to make a new plan Stan, as Paul Simon said in a song.

Often making a decision to cut ties with a friend or relative is difficult and painful, but there comes a time when mental sanity requires that you make the difficult decision. Once you have made it then there is usually a feeling of relief. Some guilt may follow but not likely if you tried to be a good and fair person and extend as much grace as possible.

No one goes into marriage thinking about divorce but on occasion the battle to make it work is like saving the Titanic from sinking. It's not going to happen.

This happens with friends, children, and even parents. I agree, "Nothing is Impossible with God." Keep in mind that you aren't God and while you may be committed to him in faith, it takes two people to make a relationship work.

It's true that winners never quit and quitters never win but winners don't beat their heads on a fence post either. Try hard. Work hard. Forgive multiple times. Extend grace. Pray. Look to the Bible for guidance. Get counsel. Have long talks. Cry. Try begging. If your life is still swirling downward because of the negativity involving "whoever" the other person is then, "hop on the bus Gus, and drop off the key Lee," as Simon also said.

As a Christian, I know God doesn't give up on us and we don't give up on people. This doesn't mean we have to be in union with them or continue to be abused personally by their actions.

Live in peace, joy and harmony with all people, as much as possible and all times, if possible, Just realize that maybe pushing a rope is not easy. Changing the course of the Mississippi River might be easier and some people you simply have to release to God and walk away.

Finding senior discounts

There are more senior discounts available than we might have expected. We only have to find them!

Check AARP if you are a member. This is where I discovered that the Walmart Plus membership I use for delivery of groceries could be had for $20 less per year, because of my AARP membership.

Look through the AARP list by putting discounts in the search box. You'll get over 2,300 results. Use the dropdown menu on the left side and click the ones that apply to you. Look for 50% off at LensCrafters and discounts at The UPS Store.

Elsewhere online, go to The Senior List (www.theseniorlist.com/senior-discounts) and scroll through the offerings, which includes grocery stores, retail, restaurants and more.

Amazon Prime (amazon.com) can be had for 50% off if you receive government assistance such as Medicaid and SSI.

Check the National Park Service (www.nps.gov) for a $20 senior annual pass or the $80 senior lifetime pass.

Look at Goodwill for weekly discount days that can save as much as 25% off your purchase.

See T-Mobile for their 55+ two-line phone plans.

Living on the Cheap (livingonthecheap.com) has several categories for reduced-price shopping, travel, entertainment and more. Check their listings by state.

Don't forget free goodies on your birthday! "Birthday freebies" are available in many places, such as a scoop of ice cream from Baskin-Robbins, a Grand Slam breakfast at Denny's and pancakes at IHOP.

Do a search for "senior discounts 2024," and you'll find hundreds of possibilities. Add the name of your state to narrow it down even more. Look for discounts on travel, cellphone plans, restaurants, movie theaters, groceries, pet supplies -- everything you need or want. You never know what you'll find!

Call before you go to any location to be sure the expected discount is still being offered.

NO-BAKE PEACHES AND CREAM SENSATION

INGREDIENTS

Crust:

- 3 cups (280 g) graham cracker crumbs
- 2-3 tablespoons granulated sugar
- ¾ cup (170 g) butter, melted

Creamy Filling:

- 1 ½ cups (171 g) powdered sugar
- 8 ounces (227 g) cream cheese, softened to room temperature
- ½ teaspoon vanilla extract
- 2 cups cold heavy whipping cream (see note)
- 5-6 medium fresh peaches, peeled, pitted and sliced thinly

INSTRUCTIONS

In a medium bowl, stir together the graham cracker crumbs and granulated sugar. Stir in the melted butter until the crumbs are evenly moistened. Remove 1/3 cup of the crumbs and set aside for later.

Press the remaining crumb mixture on the bottom of a 9X13-inch pan. Refrigerate the crust while preparing the rest of the dessert.

In a large bowl using an electric handheld mixer or in the bowl of an electric stand mixer, mix the powdered sugar and cream cheese together until light and smooth, 1-2 minutes. Mix in the vanilla.

Pour in the cold heavy cream and mix on low (to avoid splatters) until the mixture starts to come together. Increase the speed to medium-high and mix until the mixture is thick and fluffy.

Spread a little less than half of the cream filling over the chilled crust. Layer the sliced peaches over the top of the cream. Dollop the remaining cream over the top of the peaches in large spoonfuls and spread carefully to the edges of the pan cover the peaches completely. Sprinkle the reserved graham cracker mixture over the top. Cover with plastic wrap and chill for at least 2 hours or up to 12 hours before serving.

* Repair enlarged screw holes with a wooden golf tee. Use a hack saw to saw it flush, sand and finish!

* Punch holes in paint can rims with a nail so the paint that gets sloshed on the rim will drain back into the can. To seal the can, wipe the rim with a damp cloth, and rub it with a little petroleum jelly and cover with a piece of plastic wrap and tap the lid back into place.

* Here’s a back-to-flu-season tip: If you have a fever over 100.4, a sore throat without cough or congestion, if you’re sick for more than a week, have one-sided facial pain or dark-colored mucus or any nausea or vomiting, you should not only stay home from work or school (so you don’t infect your friends), but also consider making an appointment with your doc or urgent care facility.

* “Keep baby wipes at your bedside table for those nights when you are just too tired to take your makeup off properly. A little is better than nothing. If you’re guilty of this more than you care to admit, invest in a packet of eye makeup remover wipes.” -- E.S.D. in Texas

* Sun protection shouldn’t stop when the summer is over; the sun is still shining! If you have trouble putting sunscreen on your face, try this trick: Spray or smear it on a paper towel, then apply to your face. Use twice as much as you think you should, as some will get lost in the paper towel.
