Plymouth County Attorney's Office Legal Assistant
 The Plymouth County Attorney's Office is an equal opportunity employer and is seeking a qualified legal assistant. The Plymouth County Attorney's Office prosecutes all State criminal offenses, handles all juvenile court cases, mental health and substance abuse committals, serves as general legal counsel to Plymouth County, provides advocacy on behalf of victims, and works to protect the public's rights and provide justice.
 Well qualified candidates would have one or more of the following qualifications: some law office experience; a legal assistant or paralegal degree; a four-year degree in criminal justice, business administration, or a related field; or substantial experience in a related office environment.
 A legal assistant in the Plymouth County Attorney's office will work in a professional work environment and interact with attorneys, the public, law enforcement, Judges, court staff and other justice partners. Knowledge and proficiency with Microsoft Word, Outlook, and document templates is required. Experience working with Microsoft Excel and with electronic records management systems and/or data bases is preferred. A legal assistant will spend a majority of their time drafting legal documents, electronically filing documents, working with documents in a database, and preparing cases for prosecution. Legal assistants also work with staff attorneys directly on cases, interact with victims, and witnesses, and occasionally attend court proceedings with the prosecuting attorneys. Starting salary will be between $42,000 and $52,000 per year depending on qualifications and experience. Benefits include health insurance, IPERS pension plan, paid vacation, and sick leave.
 Qualified candidates should submit a resume and letter of application as soon as possible to Darin J. Raymond, Plymouth County Attorney, 215 4th Ave SE, Le Mars, Iowa, 51031. This position will remain open until filled.
