KOVELS® Antiques & Collecting
By Terry and Kim Kovel

Italian furniture

With its carved giltwood trim and rich velvet upholstery, this sofa would look right at home among the opulent Baroque and extravagant Rococo styles of the 18th century. It was made much more recently, in fact, by Jumbo Collection, a contemporary Italian furniture company that was founded in 1985. It sold for $1,188 at a Hindman auction.

Contemporary Italian furniture may be associated with postmodern, avant-garde trends like Radical Design, Studio Alchimia and Memphis, but older styles are always coming back. Rococo style was revived, like many other past design styles, in the 19th century, and came back into fashion once more in the early 20th century. Today's design may tend towards minimalism; the simple, functional mid-century modern look is popular, but the pendulum always swings back; decorations like elaborate carving, gilded trim and lush fabrics may come back again before we know it!

Q: I was given this medicine cabinet by a dentist many years ago. Any idea on what it would be worth?

A: Medical and dental equipment, including cabinets, are popular with collectors. Value depends on their size, condition, material and unusual features like rotating cases or other movable parts. Your cabinet is by Clark & Roberts, a company that made dental cabinets, exam tables and other medical furniture in the early 20th century. A cabinet by Clark & Roberts sold at auction a few years ago for about $500. More recently, similar cabinets by other or unknown manufacturers have sold for about $200 to $700. Having the label with the maker's name increases the value. Asking prices online can go from about $400 to over $1,000. An auction house or dealer who specializes in medical or dental collectibles may be able to give you a more precise estimate.

Sometimes the newest fashions repeat what came before — lucky for antique collectors! Decorations on this contemporary sofa suggest the ornate design styles of the 18th century.

TIP: Don't retouch gold leaf picture frames or other gold trim with anything but real gold leaf.

Q. Why did Disney+ cancel "The Acolyte"? I thought it was supposed to be the next big thing. — A.O.

A. You're correct in that there was a lot of buzz surrounding the newest series in the "Star Wars" universe, but unfortunately, it didn't translate into ratings. The people who did watch the show praised it, especially Manny Jacinto's performance as the Stranger. Alas, the finale of the first season became its last when the numbers just weren't up to Disney's expectations.

Q. When does the new "Matlock" series that stars Kathy Bates release? Also, is her character related to the original Matlock, played by Andy Griffith? — C.U.

A. In the original series, Andy Griffith played a sharp criminal defense attorney named Ben Matlock. The upcoming series of the same name, starring Kathy Bates, is a reboot with a twist. Her character, also an attorney, is named Madeline Matlock, but there's no relation to Griffith's character.

According to USA Today, the show's executive producer Jennie Snyder Urman ("Jane the Virgin") says that she wanted to "write about how older women are overlooked in society." She explained, "I wanted the audience to enjoy being shocked by the underestimation."

Also similar to the "Matlock" we loved back in the '80s, the 2024 series features a new case that keeps you guessing the whole week. Madeline Matlock is "a fish out of water [and] a mastermind," according to Snyder Urman. "Just because you're older doesn't mean you can't be a bad b*tch," she emphasized.

Supporting Bates is a stellar cast that includes Beau Bridges ("Lessons in Chemistry"), Skye P. Marshall ("Good Sam"), and Jason Ritter ("A Million Little Things"). "Matlock" will have a sneak preview of its first episode on Sept. 22 on CBS and will continue on in its regular time slot of Thursdays at 10 p.m. ET, beginning Oct. 17.

Q. When is the last episode of "The Talk"? I thought it was canceled, but I heard it's coming back this fall with new episodes. — S.I.

Manny Jacinto as the Stranger in "The Acolyte"

A. Yes, CBS announced that the daytime talk show was being canceled after 15 years, but fortunately, it will include one last season of new episodes this fall before its "celebratory send-off" in December. These new live shows will air weekdays, beginning Sept. 9, with returning hosts Sheryl Underwood, Natalie Morales, Jerry O'Connell, Akbar Gbajabamila and Amanda Kloots. The show was created in 2010 by Sara Gilbert ("Roseanne"), and she hosted along with Leah Remini, Holly Robinson Peete, Julie Chen Moonves, and Sharon Osbourne.

In a surprising turn of events, it's reported that a new daytime soap will take over the show's time slot next January. ("The Talk" originally took the place of the long-running CBS soap "As the World Turns" after it was canceled in 2009.) Created by Michele Val Jean (who has written for "The Bold and the Beautiful"), "The Gates" will center around an upper-class African-American family living in a gated community.

Create a Family-Friendly Grazing Board

(Family Features) A beautifully designed charcuterie board may feel more like a grown-up treat, but with the right ingredients, delicious grazing boards can provide fun and nutrition for the whole family.

No matter what you call it, charcuterie boards, grazing boards and snack platters are all basically the same thing. The boards make a trendy addition to an entertaining menu, but a platter or kid-friendly board can be equally pleasing.

What you serve on a grazing board is entirely up to you. Most include a selection of meats and cheeses, and many incorporate nuts, crackers, dips and jams. Some also incorporate fresh fruits and vegetables. Creating your own board means there really are no rules; you can add just about anything you want.

To build a successful board, keep these tips in mind:

Build your board around a theme to add an extra element of fun. Use mini cookie cutters to make fun, kid-friendly shapes out of cheese and meats. Be mindful of colors; a rainbow platter is vibrant and appealing, and colorful fruits and veggies offer a strong mix of nutrients.

Remember it doesn't have to be elaborate. Classic favorites are all you need. Even kid favorites like sections of mandarin oranges, carrot sticks and chocolate chips are fair game for a family-friendly board.

Even Exchange by Donna Pettman

Each numbered row contains two clues and two 6-letter answers. The two answers differ from each other by only one letter, which has already been inserted. For example, if you exchange the A from MASTER for an I, you get MISTER. Do not change the order of the letters.

* To fix a hole in drywall that requires a healthy helping of joint compound, you can cut a piece of screen slightly bigger than the hole and tack it to the inside of the drywall. You also can wad up a piece of aluminum foil and shove it in the hole, pressing it in a bit to create a recess for the compound. The foil will keep the compound at the site of the hole, allowing it to set up instead of fall down.

* "I recently did a little work on my car, and afterward I washed and waxed it. My tools got pretty grimy, so I cleaned them too. Since I had the wax out, I used it on several of them to keep them from rusting in storage." -- via email

* Add a softener sheet to your vacuum bag or canister when you change it. While you clean, you will distribute the good smell throughout your home. You also can use a cotton ball scented with your favorite essential oil or even perfume.

* If you have trouble threading needles, try spritzing some hairspray on your finger, and twist the end of the thread. It will keep the fibers together and stiffen it enough to be easily threaded.

* It is possible to save a bit of money on car maintenance if you can't change your own oil. Learn common add-ons you will be offered at oil and lube places. Air filters are surprisingly easy to replace on your own, and so are windshield wipers. Very often, the staff of auto-supply chains will lend you tools or even assist you right in the parking lot.

* Got bug bites? Try these for some relief from the itching of insect bites: apple cider vinegar; a paste of baking soda and water, allowed to dry on the bite; a similar paste of meat tenderizer and water; or antiperspirant.

Long-winded Visiting Minister

A visiting minister was very long-winded. Worse, every time he would make a good point during his sermon and a member of the congregation responded with "Amen" or "That's right, preacher" he would get wound up even more and launch into another lengthy discourse.

Finally, the host pastor started responding to every few sentences with "Amen, Pharaoh!" The guest minister wasn't sure what that meant, but after several more "Amen, Pharaohs" he finally concluded his very lengthy sermon.

After the service concluded and the congregation had left, the visiting minister turned to his host and asked, "What exactly did you mean when you said "Amen, Pharaoh?"

His host replied, "I was telling you to let my people go!"

Cinnamon Roll Cake

INGREDIENTS
Cake:
2 cups (284 g) all-purpose flour
1 1/2 cups (318 g) granulated sugar
1/2 teaspoon baking soda
2 teaspoons baking powder
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 1/3 cups (302 g) light or regular sour cream
2/3 cup (151 g) salted butter, softened
1 teaspoon vanilla
3 large eggs

Cinnamon Swirl:
3/4 cup (170 g) salted butter, very soft (but not melted)
3/4 cup (159 g) light brown sugar
1 tablespoon flour
1 tablespoon ground cinnamon

Glaze:
2 cups (228 g) powdered sugar
4-5 tablespoons milk
1/2 teaspoon vanilla

INSTRUCTIONS
Preheat oven to 350 degrees F. Lightly grease a 9X13-inch baking pan with nonstick cooking spray and set aside.
For the cake, in a large bowl, combine all the cake batter ingredients and mix well. Spread the batter evenly in the prepared pan.
For the swirl, in a medium bowl, stir together the butter, light brown sugar, flour and cinnamon until well-mixed and smooth. Dollop the cinnamon swirl mixture by heaping spoonfuls over the cake batter.
Use a butter knife to swirl the cinnamon mixture into the TOP of the cake batter (don't press the knife all the way to the bottom of the pan - swirl just into the top half of the cake batter). Try not to over swirl or over mix. A few generous loops through the batter should be just fine.
Bake the cake for 30-32 minutes until the top springs back lightly to the touch and a toothpick inserted in the center comes out clean or with a few moist crumbs.
For the glaze, whisk together the powdered sugar, milk and vanilla until smooth. Pour the glaze evenly over the warm cake.
Serve the cake warm or at room temperature.
