Gardening Tips

by Jackie Kubiak #12

October is Here... still more to do!

Take care of your leaves

Accumulating fallen leaves can damage your lawn, and present a slip hazard for your walkways, deck, and driveway.

Collect them with a rake, cut them into small pieces with a leaf vacuum or lawn mower, and then use them in your compost pile or as a mulch.

Planting spring bulbs

Mid-October is a great time to begin planting bulbs that will flower in the spring. You can keep this up until the middle of November (or later if the ground isn't frozen).

Putting hoses away for the season

Make sure you drain the water from them before they freeze, then coil them up and store them in a shed, garage or basement during the winter. You should also drain your outdoor faucets and close their shut-off valves.

Plant shrubs and trees during this time of year

Their roots will grow until the ground begins to freeze. Unless you're in the midst of a fall drought, cut back on watering your landscape plants. If rains are scarce, then you'll naturally want to keep to your watering schedule.

Continue to mow the lawn as long as the grass keeps growing, but with the mower blades at their highest level.

Mums, pumpkins and gourds are abundant right now buy them early. Please Shop Local, see ya next month! Happy Halloween.

Here's what's Cookin'

By Phyllis Hays, #11 with Trixie

Spinach Balls

- Makes about a dozen
- 1 10-ounce box frozen chopped spinach
  - 3 eggs, beaten
  - 1 tablespoon extra virgin olive oil
  - 1 cup shredded sharp cheddar cheese
  - 2/3 cup gluten-free breadcrumbs
  - 1/4 teaspoon salt
  - 1/2 teaspoon pepper
  - 1 teaspoon dried parsley
  - 1/4 to 1/2 teaspoon garlic powder
  - 6 shakes Tabasco sauce (6 shakes more if you like it hotter!)

1. Place the spinach box in the microwave for 2-3 minutes until defrosted. Set aside to cool.
2. In a large bowl mix together the cheese, bread crumbs, salt, pepper, parsley, and garlic powder.
3. Squeeze excess water out of the spinach. Place the spinach into the cheese mixture. Mix.
4. Add oil, eggs and Tabasco sauce.
5. Form into balls and place on a parchment-lined baking sheet.
6. Bake at 375 F for 18 to 22 minutes.
7. Serve with garlic aioli.

Outdoor Observations

by Tom Berg

The Subterranean Crawfish Frog

Of all the different frog species in North America, one of the most unusual and interesting is the Crawfish Frog. These shy frogs spend most of their lives underground, so few people ever see them. Their populations have been decreasing in many areas, too, so they are even harder to find. In fact, crawfish frogs are on the endangered species list in Indiana.

Crawfish frogs are relatively small, ranging in size from 2-4 inches in length. They are a brownish-tan color, with a complex pattern of dark spots and splotches with light-colored outlines. They have a white belly and a large head and mouth which allows them to eat fairly large prey. They eat mostly insects and arthropods like beetles, millipedes and spiders, but they also eat small crayfish and juvenile reptiles and amphibians.

Crawfish frogs live in grasslands and meadows in the central and south-central USA. In Indiana they only live in the southern part of the state. They also only live in grasslands where upland crayfish burrows are present. Burrowing crayfish are essential to the survival of crawfish frogs, since the frogs spend most of their lives (10-11 months of the year) underground in crayfish burrows. During the spring, the frogs emerge from their burrows and make their way to temporary wetlands to mate and lay their eggs.

After the breeding season they return to their home burrows and stay there or very close to it for most of the rest of the year. Once they find a crayfish burrow that fits their body, they usually keep using it for the rest of their life. These home burrows help them escape predators like owls, herons, foxes and raccoons, and they are even safe from prairie grass fires while underground. They are real survivors!

My office will be hosting our 32nd Annual "Share for Care" community food drive from October 1st to November 10, 2024. Current patients of mine are asked to bring in $10 worth of non-perishable food items on November 11th in exchange for a FREE spinal adjustment. New patients are asked to bring in $25 worth of non-perishable food items in exchange for a FREE examination as well as 2 x-rays (if needed) that can be scheduled anytime through the end of November, 2024. This is a great opportunity to experience the best Chiropractic Health Care and at the same time be an enormous blessing to others.

When you schedule your new patient appointment between now and the end of November, you will receive your initial visit for $25 in "Share for Care" non-perishable food items. That's with two x-rays if necessary. This initial visit could cost you $250 elsewhere. Further care is very affordable and you'll be happy to know that I have affordable family plans.

Thank you for considering my offer.
I look forward to meeting you!

~Dr. John S. Jordan

P.S. Because of the popularity of our offer, space is very limited.

Apple Monkey Bread

3 tubes (7.5 oz) of refrigerator biscuits
1 medium granny smith apple; peeled, cored and diced.
1 cup granulated sugar

1 tablespoon pumpkin pie or apple pie spice
1 stick (1/2 cup) butter
1/2 cup brown sugar
2 tablespoons honey
1 teaspoon vanilla extract

Preheat oven to 400 degrees. Spray a bundt pan with non-stick cooking spray and set aside.
In a large Ziploc bag, combine the sugar and the pumpkin or apple pie spice. Set aside.
Carefully remove the biscuits from the cans and, using a sharp knife, cut the biscuits into fourths.
Carefully separate the biscuit pieces and place them in the Ziploc bag. Seal the bag and shake until coated. Add the diced apple and shake until the spiced sugar mixture has evenly coated everything. Transfer the mixture to the bundt pan and set aside.
Place the butter, brown sugar, and honey in a 4-cup glass measuring cup. Microwave 1 minute at a time, stirring well after each minute, until the mixture is combined and easy to stir (about 3 minutes.)
Add the vanilla, stir to combine, and pour the mixture evenly over the biscuit/apple mixture.
Bake for 20-25 minutes or until the top is evenly browned. Remove from oven and cool for at least 5 minutes before inverting onto a plate to serve.

Fit & Healthy Family Guide

Benefits of Cycling, Plus Safety Tips

Cycling is an enjoyable way to stay healthy, including helping you lose weight, lower your cholesterol and strengthen your legs.

Cycling is a low impact aerobic exercise that offers a wealth of benefits. It also varies in intensity, so it's suitable for all levels. You can cycle as a mode of transportation, for casual activity, or as an intense, competitive endeavor.

Cycling is a wonderful workout that keeps you active. It can help shape a healthy lifestyle, both physically and mentally. Cycling will help strengthen your legs

Cycling improves overall function in your lower body and strengthens your leg muscles without overstressing your joints. It targets your quads, glutes, hamstrings, and calves.

Cycling may lower cholesterol
The health-enhancing effects of cycling may help improve cholesterol levels, which can boost your cardiovascular health and lower your chances of stroke and heart attack.

Cycling boosts mental health and brain power It can ease feelings of stress, depression, or anxiety. Focusing on the road or your cadence when cycling can help you develop concentration and awareness of the present moment. This may help take your focus away from the mental chatter of your day.

Cycling can help people with cancer

Cycling is a fantastic addition to your care plan if you have or are recovering from cancer. However, many cancer patients experience low energy and pain during treatment, so be sure to work with your care team, listen to your body, and exercise only if you're up for it.

Cycling may reduce the risk of cardiovascular disease

Cycling is a fantastic way to raise your heart rate, improve cardiovascular function, and enhance your overall fitness level.

Cycling is a low impact option

Cycling is easy on your body, providing a gentle, low impact option for people who want an intense workout without stressing their joints and is a great option for people who have joint concerns or overall stiffness, especially in the lower body.

Cycling drawbacks and safety

There are a few drawbacks to cycling to consider. These mainly apply to outdoor cycling, which involves variables outside your control.

When possible, ride in lanes reserved for cyclists or on neighborhood streets.

Benefits of Cycling,
Plus Safety Tips

Cycling drawbacks and safety cont

Always follow traffic laws. Use caution while going through intersections and busy areas, even if you have the right of way. Invest in a quality helmet and any other protective gear you may need.

Avoid wearing any loose clothing that could get caught in your bike chains. Use bike lights and reflective gear for nighttime cycling or early morning cycling before the sun comes up.

If bike-commuting a long way to work, consider bringing a change of clothes to freshen up. Inclement weather can also be an obstacle. On days when it's not possible to cycle outside, you can ride a stationary bike or choose another activity.

If cycling is your mode of transportation, invest in rain and cold weather gear and have a backup transportation plan for when conditions are unsafe for riding.

For extended daytime rides, use sunscreen on all exposed skin. Reapply every 2 hours, especially if you're sweating. Wear UV-protective sunglasses and a hat. Consider investing in UV-protective clothing.

Cycling is an enjoyable way to stay healthy and in touch with the world around you!

"The Aisle Seat"

by Tim Fealy

"Heels" is my latest must watch, binge worthy tv series that is currently streaming on Netflix. The story follows a small independent wrestling association in Georgia. After the father commits suicide, older brother Jake steps into run the family business. In wrestling, there are heroes, or "faces", and villains, who are called heels. But, the character you are in the ring does not always match the person you are outside the ring. The story lines are all pre-determined and "fake," but they affect the real lives of their characters and their families. This series is incredibly well-written and will leave you thinking about its themes. Crystal is a valet (an assistant) who dreams of being taken seriously as a wrestler. A fellow wrestler tells her to not let anyone else write her script or determine her future but herself. We could all use advice like this. You do not have to be a fan of wrestling to thoroughly enjoy and identify with this story. Like any family business, they struggle to make ends meet, balance work & family life, and face the challenges of keeping their audience engaged while fending off local competition. "Heels" will have you in a choke hold in the best way and, on my scale as to what I would pay to watch this series, Heels gets $8.

My choice for Halloween is a fun bit of escape for fans of horror and suspense. In "Ready or Not," available on Hulu, a new bride marries into a wealthy family. The family fortune, made from selling popular board games, is the result of a devil's pact which states that, on her wedding night, the new bride must play a game with the family as part of an initiation. The game is chosen at random and can range from checkers to "Old Maid." Unfortunately for the bride, she chooses "Hide & Seek." In this version, she hides as the rest of the family tries to find and kill her. If they cannot find and kill her by morning, the whole family might die. This dark comedy is full of twists and surprises. This movie grabs your attention and keeps it until the final scene. On my scale, "Ready or Not" receives $8.

The Only Hope For Our Troubled World

Everyone asks, "What is this world coming to?" For centuries mankind has struggled to find solutions to the world's problems. But, even with increased knowledge, situations are too complex to solve the heartaches of wars, hunger, hatred, drugs, etc. Who can fix it?

Our only hope can be in God's wisdom and power to correct ALL man's ills. He WILL fulfill His gracious restitution promises. Contact us for your free English or Spanish bilingual copy, or visit our website to read God's answer to What Is This World Coming To?
