Junction - An Auto Family

The Junction Auto Family is located at the intersection, or "Junction", of Route 44 and Mayfield in Chardon.

People may not use words like Junction today-but they sure did when the Babcocks started doing business in Geauga County. The dealership has been in the Babcock family since 1931 when Tracy Spencer and Clifford Babcock jumped into the auto sales business. The second floor of the original building was made of concrete so the building could be converted if this car thing didn't work out. The goal was to sell 12 cars that first year; after plenty of sleepless nights not knowing if they would make it..luckily they did!

Junction continued to grow from that original 12 cars a year in both sales, and family involvement-from Tracy and Cliff, to Warren in 1949, Ed Babcock in the seventies, and Cliff in the early 2000's (or earlier if you count Cliff's two little handprints in the concrete of Junctions truck shop, put there as a child when that building was built) When you come to Junction, you'll see the same faces and work with the same people - that's the goal.

Today, Junction is a full-service auto-family offering new Chrysler, Dodge, Jeep, Ram, Buick, and GMC vehicles, every brand of pre-owned vehicles, and a full-service body shop which is needed all too often with Geauga County deer and ice (The new body shop that was just built has little footprints in the concrete of the newly arrived sixth generation, Warren). If it's automotive related-the Junction Auto Family can help.
