5 FAMOUS MONUMENTS DEDICATED TO VETERANS

Several famous monuments have been dedicated to U.S. war veterans. They're powerful reminders of the valor of these brave people. Here are five.

1. Pearl Harbor National Memorial. This memorial commemorates the 1941 attack on Oahu, paying tribute to the 1,102 sailors and 1,177 marines who lost their lives. Built over the wreckage of the USS Arizona, the memorial is a 184-foot structure with a deliberate sag in the middle, symbolizing defeat and eventual triumph.

2. National D-Day Memorial. This memorial in Bedford, Virginia, honors the U.S. soldiers and Allied forces who participated in the D-Day landings on the French coastline. Featuring an arch overlooking a memorial pool, along with water fountains and bronze statues of soldiers, it's designed to emulate the experience of storming the beaches.

3. African American Civil War Memorial. This memorial in Washington, D.C., commemorates the 19th-century heroes who fought in the Civil War. It features a bronze statue titled "The Spirit of Freedom" and a curved wall inscribed with the names of the men who served in the war.

4. Vietnam Veterans Memorial. Situated on the National Mall in Washington, D.C., this memorial consists of a massive wall inscribed with the names of over 58,000 servicemen and women who lost their lives during the Vietnam War. It includes the Three Servicemen statue, the Vietnam Women's Memorial, the In Memory plaque and a flagpole.

5. Korean War Veterans Memorial. Positioned near the Lincoln Memorial on the National Mall in Washington, D.C., this memorial was dedicated on July 27, 1995. It pays tribute to the 5.8 million Americans who served in the U.S. armed services during the Korean War.

On November 11, visit a veteran memorial to honor the sacrifices made by those who served in the military.
