ARIES (March 21 to April 19) Try to be patient as a troubling matter at work is dealt with a step at a time. Progress toward a resolution might seem slow, but it's sure and steady.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) Be careful not to let misplaced loyalty to a friend cloud your usually good judgment. Be true to your principles — they won't ever let you down.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) A seeming inability to make a decision can sometimes work to your advantage. Use the time to reassess the situation, then act on the facts you uncover.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) Good news! A personal matter you thought would never improve suddenly takes on a more positive aspect. Things brighten up at your workplace as well.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) Don't huddle alone in your den to nurse those hurt feelings. Instead, get out and enjoy the company of family and friends. Remember, lions thrive in a pride!

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) An old health problem recurs, but quick attention soon puts everything right. Meanwhile, plans for the upcoming holidays might need to be changed. Stay flexible!

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) A project you started earlier this year begins to be noticed by the "right people." Expect to get some heartening news by year's end!

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) It's relationship repair time for both single and married Scorpions. Patch up the weak spots and renew your commitment to your partner or spouse.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) Love and marriage aspects are strong for both paired and single Archers. The latter can expect romantic overtures from a loving Leo.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) Expect news about a business deal you weren't sure about. In your personal life, a dispute with your spouse or partner is soon cleared up.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) You have a tendency to overdo it, especially at this time of the year. Ease up on those grand plans for the holidays and take more time for yourself.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) Someone from your romantic past might want to renew your old relationship. While this might be what you were hoping for, weigh your decision carefully.

BORN THIS WEEK: You have a strong sense of truth and duty. You love to learn, and you love to teach. You make friends slowly, but your friendships last.

Piedmont Pets

November 21, 2024 By Paulette Dean

Almost everyone who has ever loved and been loved by an animal will tell you that they not only believe, but know, that that animal is an emotional, sentient being. We know that animals have emotions; however, it is difficult to gauge, or even know, how deep animals' emotions are. It is even hard for us to completely understand what another human is feeling because of our different spheres of reference. Since we cannot communicate orally with animals, and their natural behaviors and characteristics may not be like ours, we simply cannot know the depth of their emotions. Perhaps their happiness or their sadness isn't on the same level as ours. However, we do any animal a grave disservice when we assume that since we do not understand their emotions, the emotions do not exist. After Hurricane Katrina in 2005, we received several animals that had been sheltered in Louisiana. We went to a city about two hours away to get them. We saw a dog that had no hair, probably because of stress and standing in the germ-infested flooded areas. She exhibited signs of emotional trauma and we expressed willingness to take her, but we were told that a potential adoptive home had been found for her. A couple of days later, we were asked by the rescue group if we would still like to have her. The foster home had decided she was too ugly for them. A board member and I once again drove for two hours to pick her up. We put her in a cage in the back of the SUV. On the way back to Danville, it started to rain and she started shaking and whining. Her fear was evident. She was like that all the way back to Danville. When we arrived back at the shelter, we learned that it had been raining in Danville for hours. We saw that all of the hurricane animals (even the cats in the cat room with no view of the outside) were shaking, cowering in their cages, and making pitiful noises. We had no idea what trauma they had experienced, but there was no denying they had deep feelings associated with their time in the hurricane. Recently, my three cockatiels stayed in my shelter office during my time away for surgery. When I went into my office after being gone for two weeks, all three of them flew to the side of the cage where I was standing and sang to me. When I sat at my desk, they changed sides and got as close as they could to me. I was touched that they were so happy to see me. We humans must be careful making decisions about and for animals. We make the decisions, and they usually bear the consequences.

OBITUARIES

"For whether we live, we live unto the Lord; and whether we die, we die unto the Lord: whether we live therefore, or die, we are the Lord's." - Romans 14:8

JJoyce Ann Hancock

January 18, 1947 ~ November 12, 2024 (age 77)

Joyce Ann Layne Hancock of 2284 Old US Hwy 29 Pelham, NC 27311 went to be with her lord and savior on Tuesday night, Nov. 12th, 2024 at 77yrs old, after being in declining health.

She came into this world Jan. 18th, 1947. Joyce was the daughter of Kathleen Lewis & Henry Layne Sr. whom she was predeceased by. Joyce worked at Crateton sewing factory for 30+years until she couldn't work anymore. She was a homemaker and she loved her grandbabies, they were her world! Joyce was predeceased by children Rita Martin Bullins, Paul Martin Jr., Brian Worley Sr. as well as her sister Kathy Layne Poole & brother Jimmy Layne. She is also predeceased by her granddaughter Cierra Worley & Grandson Gary Worley Jr.

She is survived by her daughter Kimberly Carswell (Tom) of Pelham, two step sons, Gary Worley Sr. & Ronnie (peanut) Worley Jr. (Tammy) as well as her grandbabies she truly adored, Adrianna Carswell (Alex), Carolyn Carswell (Autumn) both of Pelham, Alexandria Pryor of Eden, Brian Worley Jr of Pelham, Heather Hall and Mary Beth. Joyce is also survived by her great-grandchildren, Kashton Hamlett, Na'Kyra Hamlett, Jace Pryor & Jaxon Pryor, and Paxton and Parker Smith; as well as her lifetime partner and friend Ronnie Worley Sr. Whether they were together or not they still loved one another no matter what.

She was loved by so many and was good to everyone. She never met a stranger and greeted anyone with a smile and a warm meal. She took anyone in that needed a home. She will be truly missed by her family and loved ones.

Memorial services will be conducted at Swicegood funeral home on Tuesday, November 19th at 2 pm, the family will receive visitors 1hr prior to the service. Family will also be receiving visitors at the home address

Swicegood Funeral Service is respectfully serving the Hancock family.

Even Exchange by Donna Pettman

Each numbered row contains two clues and two 6-letter answers. The two answers differ from each other by only one letter, which has already been inserted. For example, if you exchange the A from MASTER for an I, you get MISTER. Do not change the order of the letters.

Make Turkey Salad From Thanksgiving Leftovers

Hosting the Thanksgiving feast usually means a variety of leftovers get tucked away in the refrigerator for building pile-high sandwiches. If you're ambitious, you might even make soup or a casserole with the good and seasoned food.

Here's another tasty option that will please your family and weekend guests: Make a big, savory, crunchy, nutrient-packed turkey main-dish salad and serve it at a weekend brunch with croissants and fresh fruit on the side.

If you are like me and contribute dishes to the Thursday feast but don't host the gathering, no worries about not having turkey leftovers. Just put a fresh turkey breast in the oven on Friday and roast it for this seasonal recipe. I look for a brined turkey breast at my local market in all-natural seasoned flavors, like apple cider and fresh herbs.

When I stir the salad together, I remember that my kids aren't mayo-lovers, so I compromise with half mayo, half Greek yogurt for the dressing. I use dried cranberries without added sugar. If the spirit moves me, this recipe is also delicious with a crisp, chopped local apple added just before serving.

Enjoy it topped over mixed greens, or spoon it between a halved croissant for a delectable sandwich.

TURKEY SALAD

- Serves 8
- 4 cups cubed, baked turkey
 - 1 tablespoon chopped red onion
 - 1/2 teaspoon salt
 - 1/2 teaspoon ground black pepper
 - 1/2 cup mayonnaise
 - 1/2 cup Greek yogurt
 - 1 cup chopped celery
 - 1 1/2 cups seedless red or green grapes, halved
 - 1/2 cup dried cranberries
 - 1/2 cup roasted pecans, loosely chopped
 - 1/2 crisp apple, chopped (optional)
 - 1/2 fresh lemon

In a large bowl, combine turkey, onion, salt, pepper, mayonnaise and yogurt. Add and stir together celery, grapes, cranberries and pecans. Add apple, if you wish, and a few squeezes of lemon juice just before serving.

FLASH BACK
POP ROCK & SOUL TRIVIA BY MICK HARPER

1. Who wrote and released "Stuck in the Middle With You" in 1973?
2. What were the names of Bob Seger's three bands over the years?
3. Mr. Mister had two songs that went to No. 1 on the charts. What were they?
4. "Every Rose Has Its Thorn" was a chart topper for which group?
5. Name the song that contains this lyric: "Well, you can rock it, you can roll it, Do the stomp and even stroll it."

Answers

1. Stealers Wheel. The Scottish rock group was only together for three years before disbanding. They reunited in 2008 long enough to begin producing a music video for the song.
2. Bob Seger and the Last Heard, The Bob Seger System and The Silver Bullet Band. His first real break came when "Katmandu" was used in Cher's 1985 film "Mask."
3. "Broken Wings" and "Kyrie," both in 1985. The group netted Grammy noms in 1986 and 1987.
4. Poison, in 1988.
5. "At the Hop," by Danny & The Juniors, in 1957. The Juniors, originally called The Juvenairs, were introduced to the song when it was known as "Do the Bop." Concerned that The Bop dance craze was fading, the song was changed to "The Hop."

Thanksgiving Letter From Grandma!

Dear Family.....Living is still important to me. If being in my Last Will and Testament is important to you, then you might consider being with me for my favorite holiday. Dinner is at 2:00. Not 2:15. Not 2:05. Two. 2:00! Arrive late and you get what's left over.

Last year, that moron Marshall fried a turkey in one of those cntrap-tions and practically burned the deck off the house. This year, the only peanut oil used to make the meal will be from the secret scoop of peanut butter I add to the carrot soup.

Jonathan, your last new wife was an idiot. You don't arrive at someone's house on Thanksgiving needing to use the oven and the stove. Honest to God, I thought you might have learned after two wives - date them longer and save us all the agony of another divorce.

Now, the house rules are slightly different This year because I have decided that 47% of you don't know how to take care of nice things. Paper plates and red Solo cups might be bad for the environment, but I'll be gone soon and that will be your problem to deal with.

House Rules:

1. The University of Texas no longer plays Texas A&M. The television stays off during the meal.
2. The "no cans for kids" rule still exists. We are using 2-liter bottles because your children still open a third can before finishing the first two. Parents can fill a child's cup when it is empty. All of the cups have names on them and I'll be paying close attention to refills.
3. Chloe, last year we were at Trudy's house and I looked the other way when your Jell-O salad showed up. This year, if Jell-O salad comes in the front door it will go right back out the back door with the garbage. Save yourself some time, honey. You've never been a good cook and you shouldn't bring something that wiggles more than you. Buy something from the bakery.
4. Grandmothers give grandchildren cookies and candy. That is a fact of life. Your children can eat healthily at your home. At my home, they can eat whatever they like as long as they finish it.
5. I cook with bacon and bacon grease. That's nothing new. Your being a vegetarian doesn't change the fact that stuffing without bacon is like egg salad without eggs. Even the green bean casserole has a little bacon grease in it. That's why it tastes so good. Not eating bacon is just not natural. And as far as being healthy... look at me. I've outlived almost everyone I know.
6. Salad at Thanksgiving is a waste of space.
7. I do not like cell phones. Leave them in the car.
8. I do not like video cameras. There will be 32 people here. I am sure you can capture lots of memories without the camera pointed at me.
9. Being a mother means you have to actually pay attention to the kids. I have nice things and I don't put them away just because the company is coming over. Mary, watch your kids and I'll watch my things.
10. Rhonda, a cat that requires a shot twice a day is a cat that has lived too many lives. I think staying home to care for the cat is your way of letting me know that I have lived too many lives too. I can live with that. Can you?
11. Words mean things. I say what I mean. Let me repeat: You don't need to bring anything means you don't need to bring anything. And if I did tell you to bring something, bring it in the quantity I said. Really, this doesn't have to be difficult.
12. Domino's and cards are better than anything that requires a battery or an on/off switch. That was true when you were kids and it's true now that you have kids.
13. Showing up for Thanksgiving guarantees presents at Christmas. Not showing up guarantees a card that may or may not be signed.

Love You, Grandma

SENIOR NEWS LINE

by Matilda Charles

Saving money in 2025

In a few weeks, those of us on Social Security will be getting approximately 50 extra dollars in our monthly benefit. Minus the $10 increase in Medicare Part B, that brings the average increase down to $40 per month.

How shall we spend our windfall?

If food prices are going to come down after the recent election, it won't be instantly. We need to continue to shop carefully and get the best possible deals for our dollar. Look for senior discount days, coupons, loyalty perks and, yes, the food bank.

If you can spring for a Walmart+ membership ($98 per year, minus $20 if you're also an AARP member), each time you shop you can end up with rewards dollars added to your account for buying certain products. Look for other benefits such as free shipping, discounts on fuel if your local store has a gas station, access to the TV streaming service Paramount+, prescription delivery and a lot more.

For the first time in 15 years, the membership cost of AARP is going up in 2025. The new price of $20 will take effect after your current membership expires. If you extend your membership now, it will be at the current rate. Meanwhile, take advantage of AARP's savings and discounts on a wide variety of products and services, ranging from dining out; insurance; travel, including car rental and vacation packages; gym memberships; and so much more.

Ask your cable and internet provider for a reduced fee. It could be that by dropping down one plan level, you could save considerable money by cutting out the channels you never watch anyway.

Investigate Low-Income Home Energy Assistance Program (LIHEAP) for help with fuel and heating costs, one of our biggest expenses. Start by calling the Community Action Agency in your state or the Area Agency on Aging.

Easy Strawberry Pound Cake

INGREDIENTS

For the Cake
16 oz. boxed white cake mix
3 Tbs. flour
3 large eggs
3/4 cup water
1/2 cup vegetable or canola oil
1- 3 oz. pkg. strawberry flavored gelatin may use sugar-free gelatin, if preferred
1 cup chopped fresh strawberries may use frozen strawberries, if preferred
2-3 Tbs. finely chopped strawberries for garnish, optional

For the Glaze, optional but delicious

3 Tbs. butter, melted
1 cup powdered sugar
3 Tbs. milk
1 tsp. vanilla extract
tiny pinch of kosher salt

INSTRUCTIONS

Prepare and Bake the Cake
Preheat the oven to 350 degrees F. Spray a 10-inch angel food cake pan or Bundt pan with nonstick cooking spray; reserve. FTR, I usually use a Bundt pan, because I think the finished cake turns out prettier.
In large mixing bowl, combine all the cake ingredients, including the chopped strawberries. Using an electric mixer on low speed, beat the ingredients just until combined, then beat on high speed for 2 minutes; pour the batter into the prepared pan.
Bake, uncovered, on the center oven rack for 35-40 minutes or until toothpick inserted into the center comes out clean.
Remove the baked cake from the oven; cover the cake pan tightly with aluminum foil. Place the covered cake pan onto a cooling rack; allow the cake to cool completely in the pan.
Once the pound cake is completely cooled in the pan, use a butter knife (or any knife that has a rounded tip) to loosen the cake by sliding the knife down the side between the cake and the pan, all the way around the outer edge of the cake. Also be sure to loosen the cake around the center of the pan using the same technique.
Place a cake platter over the opening of the cake pan.
Using two hands, flip the cake pan over keeping the platter tightly secured against the pan until the cake pan is fully inverted.
At this point, the cake should slip out of the pan and onto the platter so that it is now right-side-up on the platter. Voila!

Prepare the Glaze

While cake is baking and cooling, make the glaze by combining the butter, powdered sugar, salt, and vanilla in a medium mixing bowl, adding the milk as needed, to get the consistency you desire for the glaze, whisking until smooth.

Glaze the Cake

Drizzle the prepared glaze over the top of the pound cake, then garnish with chopped strawberries, if desired, allowing some of the strawberries to fall down onto the cake platter around the cake. Serve at once or allow the glaze to set up a bit before serving.

* Need a quick batch of cookies? Keep a box mix of cake on hand. Instead of the listed ingredients, add two eggs and a half-cup of oil to the mix. Mix and shape, then bake at 350 degrees for 10 minutes. They are really good, and you can get pretty creative.

* Inexpensive gift idea: A cute holiday coffee mug with a bar of chocolate, a packet of hot cocoa or instant coffee, a peppermint stick and a holiday pick. Place inside a gallon-size zipper-top bag, tie with a ribbon, then trim off the zipper-top, leaving just the plastic. Looks nice.

* Instead of going out and buying extra items to have on hand for guests, just borrow from your neighbors. Extra towels, place settings, silverware, kitchen appliances: It's a pretty good bet that someone on your street has it for you to borrow. If you don't know your neighbors well enough to ask, maybe you should start planning a get-to-know-you party right now.

* Inexpensive gift idea: On the front of an empty photo album or scrapbook, print out and arrange color photos of your recipient in a collage. Glue the photos to the front of the album and cover with a decoupage glaze, like Mod Podge. Let dry and glaze again. You've just made a one-of-a-kind gift!

* When holiday cookie time comes, I keep a plastic pitcher of hot water in the sink. I toss cookie cutters into it when I am done with them, so the corners are soaking. They really seem to only need a rinse and a quick brush-off afterward. Mine don't get caked up with dough.
