When you ask a cardiac nurse to hang the Christmas garland

Salome's Stars

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) I know, dear Lamb, that you don't like anyone trying to take charge of your projects, but try to be a bit more flexible. A new idea could help hasten a positive result.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) I'm sure, being the time-thrifty Taurus you are, that you've done much of your holiday shopping. But don't relax yet! Wrap those gifts now to save yourself lots of unwanted pressure.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) Be receptive when a family member or friend asks to confide in you. Your positive reaction could ensure that they have a happy holiday experience.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) Don't be rushed into wrapping up a workplace problem. Consider leaving it be until after the holidays. This way, you'll have the facts you need to reach the right resolution.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) You'll get news that will make you glow brighter than the lights of the holiday season! Be sure to use what you learn both carefully and kindly in order to avoid giving the wrong impression.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) A frayed relationship could be mended in time for the holidays if you were more flexible. Give a little, and you could get back a lot more than you imagined.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) Things might not seem to be setting down as quickly as you would prefer, but it might just be a little "holiday time flutter." You'll soon get news that will lead to more stability.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) Stop getting so involved in everyone's personal problems that you lose precious time with loved ones. Remember, even the Supreme Court closes for the holidays.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) All signs point to a bright holiday, with all of those pesky problems finally resolved in your favor. Share the good times with people you love and who, of course, love you.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) Your plans should not be set in stone and cemented over. Leave some openings in case you need to make changes. Meanwhile, spend the holidays with your nearest and dearest.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) Surprise! This holiday finds you on the receiving end of generosity from those who are usually the recipients of what you give so freely and lovingly.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) A piece of good news assures that you'll be swimming in clearer, calmer waters this holiday season. There might be a storm or two ahead, but you'll weather it all in fine style.

BORN THIS WEEK: You have a flair for seeing things as you'd like them to be, as well as a gift for turning your perceptions into realities. Manifestation is your superpower.

Piedmont Pets

December 19, 2024 By Paulette Dean

Dear Santa Claus:

It's me, Buddy, the Best Shelter Mascot Bird in the world. I have been a good boy this year (well, there were a couple of incidents, but that's all in the past), and I am writing to give you my wish list for Christmas.

First of all, Santa, this year will you have room in your bag for lots of animals? I'm asking because I know of lots of animals that need your help, and would have a much better home with you and Mrs. Claus. You seem to be such nice people, and I think you could really help them. If you think you'll have room in your bag, I'll spread the word for them to be ready to leave on Christmas Eve. You may have to help some of the dogs get off their chains, but I know they will lick your hands in gratitude.

If the answer is "yes," please look in the yards as you fly over them. Dogs that are chained with no shelter, and cats that are left to fend for themselves really need to be the first ones that you put in your bag. And please remember to look at dumpsters very carefully. The animals that have been abandoned there may be too weak and scared to be readily seen. Some of them are probably huddled together, trying to get warm. Please, please, pick them up. They would love to sleep by your fireplace, and they promise not to be much trouble.

Second, Santa, is there any way you could make sure all the animals are warm and have full stomachs on Christmas Eve? I know that's a big task, but sometimes it's hard to sleep at night thinking about the animals that are cold and hungry. I have such a nice, soft place at the shelter and I stay warm.

Third, I wish there were some way to make all pet owners actually love their animals. The law can make people provide food, water, and shelter for their pets, but the law can't make them love their pets. Animals can be lonely, afraid, and so unhappy. Can you make humans realize that? Then, maybe their hands would be gentle and their words kind.

The last item on my wish list is for one you probably can't fulfill easily, but if you only could, all my wishes would be granted. I wish that all human hearts could be kind, and then cruelty would cease. Wouldn't that be wonderful?

Thank you, Santa, for considering my wishes. I promise to be a very good boy in 2025.

1. "You're the One That I Want" was released in which musical film?
2. Name the all-girl group that released "I Met Him on a Sunday."
3. Which artist released "The Wanderer"?
4. Who released "People Got to Be Free"?
5. Name the song that contains this lyric: "Sometimes the love rhymes that fill that afternoon, Lose all their meaning with the rising moon."

Answers

1. "Grease," in 1978. The duet was performed by Olivia Newton-John and John Travolta. The song hadn't been used in the stage version of the musical and was written especially for the film. More recently the song was used in the superhero film "Deadpool & Wolverine."
2. The Shirelles, in 1958. The four friends formed a group and wrote the song before performing in their high school talent show.
3. Dion, in 1961. He recorded the song as a b-side single, but it became the more popular of the two songs.
4. The Rascals, in 1968.
5. "Do You Wanna Make Love," by Peter McCann, in 1977. McCann was well known as a songwriter, producing chart-topping music for a long list of artists across the genres, including pop and country, and was active for decades lobbying for the rights of songwriters.

KOVELS Antiques & Collecting

By Terry and Kim Kovel

Holiday Glass

According to some traditions and a certain famous song, Christmas lasts for 12 days. And, at least in the song, with each day comes extravagant gifts; the first of which is repeated every verse: a partridge in a pear tree.

It's clearly the inspiration for this glass pear figurine with a tiny 18k gold partridge perching in a tree inside, which sold for $2,520, passing its high estimate, at Rago Arts & Auction Center. The figure was made for Steuben Glass Works of Corning, New York.

While their early iridescent and colored glass is sought by collectors, they were making mostly colorless crystal by the 1930s. Designer Lloyd Atkins joined the staff in 1948. He is known for his figurines, often animals; like this pear and partridge, which was first made in 1968. Steuben, now owned by the Corning Museum of Glass, still makes and sells pieces based on designs by Atkins, as well as some holiday-themed figures, but this is not one of them.

Q: I have three similar lamps. They are figurines minted on bases which were made to match. They are at least 70 years old. Can you tell who might have made them?

A: Unfortunately, we would need to see a mark to identify the maker. It is difficult to tell from a picture, but the figurines on your lamp base look like they are made of painted metal, probably spelter. Spelter is a zinc alloy that has been used in decorative arts since the 1860s. It can resemble bronze, but is softer and scratches more easily. It was often used for smaller, inexpensive replicas of bronze sculptures. Not many makers are known. Lamps with human figures on the bases were popular as late as the 1950s, which fits with your estimate of "at least 70 years old." Lamp bases with similar human figures have sold for about $100 to $150.

TIP: Clean a clock face as seldom as possible. The brass trim may be coated with colored lacquer, and brass polish will remove the color.

Today, most people would probably prefer a decorative glass pear with a gold partridge to a real-life partridge in a pear tree.

by Dana Jackson

Q. Is it true that former "Bachelorette" Jenn Tran is dating her partner from "Dancing with the Stars"? I hope so; they were so cute together. — K.S.

A. While Jenn Tran and dance pro Sasha Farber haven't confirmed that they're a couple, it certainly appears so. If anything, they're great friends who recently attended the premiere of the movie "Wicked" together, as well as a Taylor Swift concert in Vancouver, Canada.

They both deserve some happiness. Tran had her heart broken when her fiancé from "The Bachelorette" ended their engagement right before she was cast on "DWTS," while Farber's marriage to fellow dance pro Emma Slater was dissolved in 2023.

Q. Whatever happened to actor Denis Leary? I loved his firefighter drama series but haven't seen him in anything since. — L.W.

A. Denis Leary's best known work as "Rescue Me," which he co-created with Peter Tolan and starred in as troubled 9/11 first responder Tommy Gavin, ended in 2011. Since this time, he's kept busy with many other projects both in front of and behind the camera — and also behind the mic voicing Diego the saber-tooth tiger in the animated "Ice Age" movies.

His next series on FX was "Sex & Drugs & Rock & Roll," in which he played an aging rock singer who recruits his daughter for his new band. After this, he starred in the short-lived Fox sitcom "The Moodys," which followed a dysfunctional family, before landing a stint as a detective on "Law & Order: Organized Crime." He followed it with a role on the gritty family crime drama "Animal Kingdom."

Leary started his career as a stand-up comedian before landing his breakout role in the comedy film "The Ref" in 1994. He's returning to his comedic roots early next year in a new comedy series on Fox, opposite Catherine Tate ("The Office") and Danny Pudi ("Community"). It sounds like he's perfectly cast as a "loud-mouth Army colonel" who is sent to a base in the Netherlands

Jenn Tran ("The Bachelorette" and "Dancing with the Stars")

"with no real purpose." "Going Dutch" premieres on Jan. 2, 2025, as part of a comedy block with Joel McHale's sitcom "Animal Control."

Q. Who is the man with the gray hair in the new Charles Schwab commercials who gets angry every time the company is mentioned? He looks so familiar. — D.D.

A. Salvator Xuereb plays "Carl the Broker" in a series of commercials that are currently airing for the financial services company Charles Schwab. He's a character actor who has guest-starred in numerous television series, most recently as a smarmy doctor in "9-1-1," a CIA officer in "NCIS: Los Angeles," and Mr. Stewart in "Teen Wolf."

He's also appeared in movies like "Captain America: The Winter Soldier," but his TV credits far exceed his movie credits. Perhaps you recognize him as part of the cast from the series "Pensacola: Wings of Gold," in which he played a demolitions expert nicknamed Buddha.

RIGHT BEFORE THE CLOCK STRIKES MIDNIGHT ON DECEMBER 31...

MAKE SURE YOU RAISE YOUR LEFT LEG. THAT WAY YOU WILL START THE YEAR OFF ON THE RIGHT FOOT.

Did you know that the chopping down of the Christmas tree represents the death of Christ and putting it back up represents the resurrection of Christ.

Did you know the wreaths we hang are never ending circles, that represent eternity? Candy canes were made to look like shepherd hooks and the colors red, Jesus' blood and white for purity.

The gifts, represent the 3 gifts the wise men brought for Jesus. So when you're running around trying to find the "perfect gift" stop yourself, take a deep breath & remember we all have been given the most perfect gift, Jesus Christ was given to us to remove all of our sins.

Christmas Morning CASSEROLE

INGREDIENTS

- 9 eggs
- 3 cups milk
- 2 teaspoons Dijon mustard
- 1 pound diced ham
- 1 onion diced
- 1 green bell pepper diced, divided
- 1 red bell pepper diced, divided
- 9 slices white bread torn into pieces
- 1 cup shredded sharp cheddar cheese
- 1 cup shredded pepper jack cheese
- Green onions for garnish

INSTRUCTIONS

- Whisk together your eggs, milk, and Dijon mustard in a medium bowl.
- 9 eggs, 3 cups milk, 2 teaspoons Dijon mustard
- Reserve a quarter of your diced red and green bell pepper.
- 1 green bell pepper, 1 red bell pepper
- Add ham, onion, peppers, and bread to the egg mixture.
- 1 pound diced ham, 1 onion, 9 slices white bread
- Butter or spray a 9x13 casserole dish. Pour in the mixture.
- Top the casserole with the cheeses and the reserved bell peppers.
- 1 cup shredded sharp cheddar cheese, 1 cup shredded pepper jack cheese
- Cover with plastic wrap and place in the fridge overnight or up to 12 hours.
- When ready to bake, preheat oven to 350 degrees. Let the casserole sit on the counter for 30 minutes to take the chill off while the oven preheats.
- Bake the casserole at 350 for 55-60 minutes. If it begins to brown too quickly, cover it with foil.
- Green onions for garnish

Notes

- Store leftovers in the fridge for up to 5 days.
- You can swap out the meat in this dish; try it with breakfast sausage or bacon!
- You can spice this up by adding diced jalapenos or green chiles.
- Use whatever cheese you like. Swiss also works well.
- I use sandwich bread, but any bread would work.
- Try croissants, Italian bread, or brioche, or add more than one kind of bread!
