Baroda's Lakeshore Die Cast acquires Tigmaster

Baroda-based Tigmaster Company is changing hands. The longstanding provider of welding, fabrication, and machining services has been purchased by Lakeshore Die Cast owner Adam Schaller of Baroda.

According to the sale announcement, Tigmaster Co. was founded in 1981 by Jeff Sukupchak and began as a small welding service provider to the local tool and die industry. Over the decades, the company expanded its capabilities to include welding, fabrication, precision sheet metal, custom cutting, and machining.

They moved to their current location in 1985 and have since added on six times. They are currently a 42,800 square foot modern fabrication house equipped with a full range of CNC-programmable equipment.

With more than 40 employees, Tigmaster is seen as a cornerstone of the Baroda business community.

Schaller is currently the owner of Lakeshore Die Cast, a local leader in aluminum and zinc die casting. Lakeshore Die Cast was founded in 1959 by Oscar Zilke. Company control transitioned to the Schaller family in 1979.

The acquisition of Tigmaster is said to add to Lakeshore Die Cast's capabilities and solidify its position as a key player in the region's manufacturing sector.

Calder Capital served as the exclusive M&A Advisor to Tigmaster Co. Legal counsel for the seller was provided by Charlie Grandy of Jennings Law Office, while the buyer was represented by Steve Pierangeli of Passaro, Kahne, Taylor, DeFrancesco & Thompson Law Offices, P.L.L.C. The seller's CPA was Josh Nitz of Plante Moran.

Celebrating 45 Years of Community: St. Joe Today and Savor the Shoreline

For 45 years, St. Joe Today has been a driving force behind the vibrant atmosphere that makes our town so special. Whether through our events, promotion of our members, or a smiling face at the welcome center, our organization has consistently promoted St. Joseph as a special place by the lake.

Although my tenure has been brief, I am humbled by the milestone. I'm so grateful for the unwavering dedication of our volunteers, the passion of our staff, and the steadfast support of our local businesses. It's their collective efforts that have transformed St. Joe Today into the dynamic entity it is today. We've witnessed our community grow, and flourish over the past 45 years, and we're immensely proud to have played a pivotal role in that journey.

St. Joe Today's mission to showcase St. Joseph as a premier destination has been realized through our cherished events such as the Brown Bag concerts, Reindog Parade, the Ice Festival, and Farmers Market, all of which have become beloved traditions. The organization has also been a strong advocate for local businesses, recognizing their crucial role in the city's economic and cultural vitality, ensuring that St. Joseph remains a place where lasting memories are created.

This year, as we commemorate our 45th anniversary, we wanted to create a truly special experience that would highlight the unique character of St. Joseph and the Benton Harbor Arts District. We sought to craft an event that would not only celebrate our milestone but also showcase the exceptional culinary talent of our region. That's why we're thrilled to introduce Savor the Shoreline, a month-long celebration of St. Joe Today and our incredible local restaurants.

Savor the Shoreline is an invitation to explore the diverse flavors of our community. Participating restaurants will be offering specially crafted menus, exclusive deals, and unique dining experiences that showcase their culinary artistry. It's a perfect opportunity to rediscover beloved local establishments, sample new and exciting dishes, and support the talented chefs and restaurateurs who make our community so vibrant.

To enhance your experience, we've put together a culinary passport. Pick one up at participating restaurants or in the St. Joe Today Welcome Center. As you dine, collect stamps from each location. Once you've been to five participating restaurants, you'll be entered into a giveaway! The grand prizes include a gift basket sponsored by Sturgis Bank filled with local goodies and gift cards to our participating restaurants or a luxurious "staycation" package at the Inn at Harbor Shores. It's our way of saying thank you for supporting our local culinary scene and celebrating 45 years of St. Joe Today.

Through the years, St. Joe Today has become more than just an organization; it's a symbol of community spirit, a testament to the power of collaboration, and a reflection of the enduring charm of St. Joseph and the surrounding communities. We're deeply grateful for the trust and support we've received over the past 45 years

As we look ahead to the future, we remain committed to promoting St. Joseph and fostering a strong, thriving community. We are excited to continue collaborating with our valued partners, dedicated businesses, and passionate residents to create even more memorable experiences. We believe that St. Joseph's best days are yet to come!

Thank you for being a part of our story. Here's to 45 years of community, and to many more years of shared success and celebration!

Glen & Shelly Head

Glen: TJ's Baroda Tap has quickly carved out a loyal fan base since owners Joe Matthews and Greg Borr reopened the iconic corner pub at Lemon Creek Road and 1st Street in downtown Baroda. While the building has seen a few name changes and owners over the years, this latest incarnation is clearly hitting the sweet spot with its mix of comfort food classics, creative specials, and a staff that treats you like family.

Though the menu shares some greatest hits with its sister location—TJ's Sports Bar & Grill on M-140 in Watervliet—there's plenty that's unique to Baroda, and locals are eating it up.

"We wanted to bring the success of our Watervliet spot here, but also add a few twists," Matthews said. He and his wife, Tara, have owned the original location for over 15 years, where it's become a staple for both locals and visitors to the Sister Lakes.

Our first dish was the towering Classic Smashburger. Two 4oz patties brought the beefy flavor, and they were seared for crisp caramelization but stayed juicy inside. American cheese, shaved lettuce, tomato, pickles, grilled onions, and a creamy house-made "smash sauce" turned this burger into a two-handed, napkin-requiring masterpiece. It's messy in the best way possible—don't even try to eat it pretty. We paired it with their thick-cut Sea Shore Fries—skin-on, seasoned with sea salt, black pepper, and garlic. You can also opt for Crinkle Cut or Zesty French Fries if that's more your vibe.

In the kitchen, David Sean Pates loaded up Crinkle Cut Fries into our Bluegill Basket, which is my "go-to" at the Watervliet location. I love the flaky, tender, and mild-tasting bluegill flesh with subtle sweet notes. The light dusting of seasoning in their mix really accentuates the sweetness of the bluegill. I catch and cook bluegill often and have tried without success to duplicate their seasoning blend.

"We don't use pre-breaded fillets," said Borr. "Those bluegills are hand-dredged right before hitting the fryer. We do as much from scratch as we can—even hand-cutting our steaks and only using never-frozen meats."

Then came The Hammer. And wow—this sandwich doesn't play around. Picture a full pound of hot shaved ham, stacked with melting American cheese, lettuce, tomato, and mayo, all tucked between thick slices of locally-made sourdough that's grilled just enough to hold it all together. It's smoky, salty, juicy, and completely over the top. The fries were the Zesty variety this time, which were thinner but nicely seasoned. Pro tip: If you can't finish The Hammer in one sitting, don't worry—it makes a great breakfast, too.

"Very few people finish it," Borr laughed. "I'm pretty sure we lead the county in to-go boxes."

Heather Schmaltz, our server, sealed the deal, with the Loaded Nachos. The photo doesn't do its mammoth size justice—this mountain of chips comes smothered in taco meat, cheese, lettuce, tomato, onions, olives, and jalapeños. You can upgrade to chicken, steak, pulled pork, or brisket for just a few bucks more. It's so massive they send leftovers home in a pizza box. (True story: Shelly and I took ours to my parents, and they got three more meals out of it!)

Speaking of pizza boxes, keep your eye on TJ's Baroda Tap—they're gearing up to offer pizza soon, just like their Watervliet location.

The bar itself is warm and inviting, centered around a horseshoe-shaped setup with a solid beer tap list—what Greg jokingly calls "Baroda-Soda." It's the kind of place where you're just as likely to make a new friend as you are to find your new favorite comfort food.

Shelly: When I come back, I'm getting the Smoked Brisket Mac & Cheese.

or potassium, especially in sandy areas near the lake. Based on the results, apply a balanced fertilizer (like 10-10-10) or lime if pH needs adjusting. Spread it evenly with a broadcast spreader and water it in lightly to avoid burning the grass.

Seeding or overseeding comes next. For Southwest Michigan, cool-season grasses like Kentucky bluegrass, fescue, or perennial ryegrass thrive. Spring is prime time to fill bare spots or thicken your lawn. Spread the seed with a drop spreader, rake it lightly into the soil, and keep it moist (not drenched) for germination. With average highs creeping into the 70s by May, you'll see sprouts in a couple of weeks.

Don't skip mowing prep. Sharpen your mower blades—dull ones tear grass, inviting disease. Set your blade height to 3 inches; cutting shorter stresses the grass as summer heat builds. Watering matters too. Our region gets decent rainfall, but during dry spells, aim for an inch per week, ideally in the morning to minimize evaporation and fungal issues.

Finally, tackle weeds early. Dandelions and crabgrass love our climate. Spot-treat with a broadleaf herbicide or pull them by hand if you're chemical-averse. Pre-emergent herbicides in late April can stop crabgrass before it starts—just don't apply if you've overseeded, as it'll kill new grass too.

By late spring, your lawn will be ready to handle Southwest Michigan's summer—think picnics, bare feet, and fireflies. A little effort now means a yard that's the envy of the block come July. Happy prepping!

Lest We Forget focusing on Iraq, Afghanistan this year

Lest We Forget is gearing up for its annual reenactment weekend, scheduled for June 21 and 22, and there will be a bit of a difference in the program this year.

The group's Larry Wozniak tells us the focus for 2025 is on America's various wars in the desert, titled The Sandbox Wars. They'll be talking about Desert Storm, Iraqi Freedom, and the Afghanistan war. However, it's unlikely there will be any battle reenactments this time around.

"We were looking for some reenactors, but there aren't any," Wozniak said. "The guys who are involved in these wars aren't doing anything, and the other people are more interested in World War II and those kinds of things, Korea. There's a little bit of Vietnam reenactment out there, but nothing for this. So, we had to find another way to teach the people about the era."

That's why Lest We Forget is planning to host a speaker series featuring local veterans leading up to the June event. The first speaker engagement will be April 15.

"We've got a lot of people in our area who served during those times, and we wanted to give them a chance to tell their story. So, we're starting with Desert Storm, and Lee Scherwitz, who was the airport manager for 15 years and in the Air Force for 26 years."

Senior Master Sergeant Scherwitz will talk about Air Force operations in Desert Storm. Subsequent engagements will focus on Iraqi Freedom and Afghanistan, on April 22 and April 29 on into May. All engagements will be at Lake Michigan College at 7 p.m.

Wozniak says the Lest We Forget main program, on June 21 and 22, will feature a Gold Star Tribute Wall for those who died in the Sandbox Wars. It'll be stationed on the banks of the St. Joseph River off Upton Drive in St. Joseph. Iraq War POW Shoshana Johnson will be the guest speaker.

In anticipation of the event, the public is invited to attend six Tuesday evening sessions at Lake Michigan College, Benton Harbor Campus, Room D-112, to hear from local veterans who served there. The sessions begin on April 15, 2025.

Small modular reactor legislation clears State House Committee

A package of legislation intended to spur the development of small modular nuclear reactors in Michigan while attracting workers in the nuclear field has been approved by a state House committee.

State Representative Pauline Wendzel, chair of the House Energy Committee, tells us the package creates a research and development tax credit for SMRs. She says the committee vote on Tuesday to advance the package was bipartisan.

"We've got the great American Nuclear Renaissance, is what it's been coined here," Wendzel said. "There's a lot of talk around nuclear, but today we had a bipartisan vote, which is great, and we're showing that Michigan is not just going to embrace these technologies, but we are really going to truly be the leaders."

Wendzel says the legislation also funds a new higher education grant to help colleges train nuclear workers and creates a tax credit for those workers.

"Then it provides support for the workers who do complete these programs to commit them to staying and working in Michigan, which is a really important part of it. Instead of going all over the country and the world, they're training here and they're staying here."

Wendzel says the legislation is built around the idea that if Michigan wants to lead the world in nuclear energy, then it needs to invest in the industry. She tells us most of the bills in the package got unanimous support in the committee.

The package now goes on to the full Michigan House.

Follow Closely

Join together in following my example, brothers and sisters, and just as you have us as a model, keep your eyes on those who live as we do.
Philippians 3:17

When was the last time you needed to follow closely behind someone to arrive at your destination? That was sometimes necessary in the "olden days" because most maps didn't provide street-level detail. So, if your group was too large to fit into one car, the driver who knew where he was going would carefully lead the other driver to their destination. If you were following, you needed to stay close, so you didn't get separated and lost. But with the advent of cell phones and GPS technology, finding your way to unknown locations is now a snap. Your phone tells you where to turn and when. Following someone closely is unnecessary.

But have you ever asked your phone to give you directions to heaven? It doesn't work; I've tried. If you and I can't get to heaven by asking our phones the way, how can we ever get there? By closely following others who know how to get there.

There was a time in the apostle Paul's life when he was totally lost. He thought he knew how to get to heaven. Simple; follow the rules, he thought. But then he discovered God doesn't just require us to try our best or be better than the next person. No, to enter the gates of heaven, we need to be perfect. No missed turns, no sin, ever. Like us, Paul couldn't manage that. He was lost.

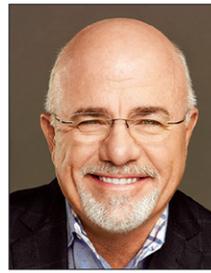

But then Jesus found and rescued him. As the world's Savior, Jesus did what we could never do. He's perfect! More than that, he freely forgives our sins and gives us his perfection as a gift. Through faith in him and by following him closely, our destination is certain. We're on the road to heaven, everlasting life!

Paul learned to follow Jesus closely in faith. Now, he urges us to follow his example and do the same. If we try to get to heaven on our own, we'll never arrive. But by placing our faith in Jesus and following his life-giving direction closely, we'll show up safe and sound. Forever.

Prayer: Dear Jesus, help me follow you in faith to my heavenly home. Amen.

Dave Says
Wealth Magnifies What's Already There

Dear Dave,

My wife and I started out broke when we married. Since then, we've been very blessed in our work and investments. We're currently looking at retiring early in a few years, with a nest egg of somewhere between $8 million and $12 million. Our four daughters, all between the ages of 7 and 12, have been raised in the church, and we've tried our best to teach them to love God, not money. Is there a certain limit we should look at in terms of how much we leave them as an inheritance?

Mark

Dear Mark,

First off, wow! You two have done an incredible job managing your money. I'm so proud of you and what you've been able to accomplish.

Honestly, I don't look at things like this in terms of an amount, but as a principle. You aren't obligated, biblically or otherwise, to leave your money to your kids. At the same time, I think it's wrong to assume that leaving them your money will damage them in some way. Wealth always magnifies the character of the person holding it. That includes both their positive and negative traits. You said you're raising your girls to love God and understand that the church is important. I believe those are great first steps toward teaching children to have good, strong character.

One of the first things we taught our kids about, aside from God, was how they were not entitled to anything just because they hit the gene pool lottery. Another thing we taught them was that in order to be qualified to manage the Ramsey wealth, they had to understand they didn't own it — God did. Every bit of it. Their job was to manage it wisely. Once you understand that concept, you also begin to realize why the Bible has so many warnings about wealth. It's a heavy thing to carry in a wise manner.

The Bible tells us that a good man leaves an inheritance to his children's children (Proverbs 13:22). But at the same time, you don't want your hard-earned money going to fund a cocaine habit for some here today, gone tomorrow reality television star on the back of a yacht. It sounds to me like you and your wife are doing a great job — not only with your money but also with raising your girls to know right from wrong and to have a sound, biblically based moral compass.

Finally, Mark, one thing I want you to avoid falling for is the thread running through some of our Christian churches that says money is a bad thing. It's not. Money is a tool, one that's not inherently good or bad. It can be used responsibly or irresponsibly, depending on the holder, and it exposes the morals and character of the people it touches.

Your job as parents is to raise kids who grow into adults with the morals and character to manage this huge financial legacy wisely for the Lord. If you do your job well (and I think you're off to a good start), the wealth you leave them will truly be a blessing.

— Dave
