ARIES (March 21 to April 19) Professional relationships grow stronger, but you still might need to ease some problems with someone in your personal life. One way could be to try to be less rigid in your views.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) You might be too close to a perplexing personal situation to even attempt to make a rational decision about it right now. Stepping back could help you gain a wider perspective.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) Being asked to choose between the positions of two friends is an unfair imposition on you. It's best to reject the demand and insist that they try harder to work things out on their own.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) A change of mind about a workplace decision might be called for, once you hear more arguments — pro and con. A personal event suddenly takes an unexpected (but pleasant!) turn.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) Romance once again looms large for single Leos and Leonas, with Cupid favoring Taurus and Libra to inspire those warm and fuzzy Leonine feelings. Meanwhile, expect another workplace change.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) A surprise gift with no strings attached could happily come just when you need it to avoid a delay in getting your project done. Expect education to dominate the week.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) Someone close to you might ask for your support as they face a demanding personal challenge. Offer it, by all means, but be careful that you don't neglect your own needs at this time.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) An unexpected development could put your relationship with a partner or spouse to an emotionally demanding test. But your determination to get to the truth should save the day!

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) A recent agreement appears to be coming apart over the surfacing of unexpected complications. You might need to get expert advice on how to resolve the situation.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) Your keen business sense helps you get to the truth about a suspicious business deal. Expect to have many colleagues rally to support your efforts in this important matter.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) Someone who once moved in and out of your life through the years might now want to come back in on a more permanent basis. Give yourself a lot of time to weigh your decision.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) Showing frustration over a delayed workplace decision might get someone's attention — but not necessarily make them move any sooner. The best advice would be to be patient and wait it out.

BORN THIS WEEK: You are drawn to excitement and thrilling adventures. You also enjoy fast tempo music — the more brass, the better.

Fun Fact

Sharks do not have bones. Their cartilaginous skeletons are lighter than true bone, and their livers contain low-density oils; this helps sharks to be buoyant. But even though they don't have bones, sharks can still fossilize. The dried jaws of a shark appear and feel heavy and solid, much like bone.

April 3, 2025 By Paulette Dean

Occasionally, people get offended when they are releasing an animal to us and we ask the question, "Has this animal ever bitten?" We ask the question not because we are discriminating against specific breeds of dogs, but it is required of us to ask.

The Virginia Alliance for Animal Shelters and the Virginia Animal Control Association worked together on a bill during the 2018 General Assembly session that passed both the House of Delegates and the Senate unanimously. SB 571 requires all releasing agencies (public shelters, private shelters, home-based rescues, etc.), animal control officers, law-enforcement officers, and humane investigators to ask and document if it is known that the dog or cat has bitten a person or other animal. The circumstances and date of the bite also need to be documented. Then, when dog or cat is adopted, returned to the rightful owner, or transferred to another agency, the documented information must be disclosed. The violation of such requirements is a Class 3 misdemeanor. The bill became law on July 1st, 2018.

Sharon Adams, chair of the Virginia Alliance for Animal Shelters, said in testimony in the General Assembly, "While all shelters and rescues want to adopt all of the wonderful animals coming into our care, we also share the additional responsibility to do so with attention to the best interests of the community at large."

Several years ago, our records on a certain dog were subpoenaed during a civil lawsuit because a person was bitten by a dog they believed had been adopted from us. What kept us from being sued was that the dog had not been adopted by us, but had been picked up as a stray and returned to the owner. We have a policy that we do not adopt out animals that we believe are aggressive.

We have also received dogs that have been adopted from other shelters, sometimes more than once, and have been returned because the dog has bitten the adopter.

We believe that the ease with which the bill worked its way through the legislative branch of the Commonwealth government sends a message that organizations that deal with animals have a responsibility to help protect public safety.

Even Exchange by Donna Pettman

Each numbered row contains two clues and two 6-letter answers. The two answers differ from each other by only one letter, which has already been inserted. For example, if you exchange the A from MASTER for an I, you get MISTER. Do not change the order of the letters.

Q: I know that Donnie Wahlberg is an actor on a successful TV series, but whatever happened to his fellow boy band member Joey McIntyre? Is he still acting? — K.W.

A. Yes, Donnie Wahlberg and Joey McIntyre have both made a successful transition into acting since their days of singing and dancing with New Kids on the Block, a wildly successful boy band from the '90s. Wahlberg made the leap to film and TV with small roles in "The Sixth Sense" and "The Practice" before landing his big break, the critically acclaimed HBO miniseries "Band of Brothers."

He later appeared in the horror movie "Saw II" and two of its sequels before being cast in the hit CBS police drama "Blue Bloods," which ended last year after 14 seasons. The network has a lot of faith in him and his character, Danny Reagan, because they're building a spinoff series around his character. "Boston Blue" will launch during the 2025 fall TV season.

As for McIntyre, he starred in the short-lived CBS sitcom "The McCarthys" a decade ago and has worked steadily ever since, mostly in TV movies like "V.C. Andrews' Dawn" and the recent Roku Christmas movie "Jingle Bell Love."

Don't write off New Kids on the Block, however. Four of the five original band members, including McIntyre, will be performing in their very own Las Vegas residency called "The Right Stuff" beginning this June. Visit NKOTB.com for more info.

Q: Is it true that Meryl Streep is dating Martin Short? I thought they were just friends, but apparently they're in love? — S.J.

A. Yes, the two stars became an item after their on-screen love on the Hulu series "Only Murders in the Building" turned into an off-screen courtship. Short was left heartbroken after losing his wife Nancy to ovarian cancer in 2010, while Streep has been separated from her husband, Don, since 2017.

Since their "OMITB" characters, Loretta and Oliver, tied the knot last season, Streep will likely be featured in the upcoming fifth season of the hit whodunit series. Streep joined the show in season 3 as a recurring character. The new season, which is currently in production, will feature guest stars Tea Leoni ("Madame Secretary," Keegan-Michael Key ("Wonka") and two-time Oscar winner Christoph Waltz.

Actress Meryl Streep is dating on-screen love interest.

Q: I read that Gwyneth Paltrow is going to be in something with Timothée Chalamet. I thought she retired from acting to focus on her lifestyle website. What happened? — J.A.

A. In 2017, Gwyneth Paltrow announced that she was taking a break from acting to focus on her business, Goop, but she didn't close the door completely. Her last major role was in the Netflix series "The Politician," which starred Ben Platt ("Dear Evan Hansen") and was co-produced by her husband, Brad Falchuk. That was back in 2020.

She's been selective about her next projects, which she has the luxury of doing. She's back on the set in 2025 with not one but two films, both comedies. First up is "The Miracle on 74th Street" with Drew Barrymore and Christine Taylor, and then "Marty Supreme," which she's currently filming with Timothée Chalamet and Sandra Bernhard.

Grace Clark Earns Her 1st Degree Black Belt

Congratulations to Grace Clark for earning her 1st Degree Black Belt. Grace is the daughter of Eric and Clover Clark of Cascade, VA.. Grace has trained at Jeff McGregor's American Karate School for 6 years. Grace is a wonderful student and has pushed through obstacles in her life to achieve her Black Belt. She earned the nickname

"Amazing Grace" for being courageous and very brave. We are so very proud of Grace and hope that she will continue to train and become a great student instructor for us at Jeff McGregor's.

Danville wins national sustainability award for PLAN Danville

The City of Danville has been recognized as a winner in the American Planning Association's 12th Annual Awards for Excellence in Sustainability. The city received the Community Award for its initiative, PLAN Danville | A Comprehensive Guide to the Future.

Renee Burton, division director of planning for the City of Danville's Community Development Department, said, "This award is a recognition of the efforts of the residents, city staff and community ambassadors to ensure our Comprehensive Plan is a representation of all as we developed a guide for the future development of our home and how we engage."

Below is the press release...

OBITUARIES

"For whether we live, we live unto the Lord; and whether we die, we die unto the Lord: whether we live therefore, or die, we are the Lord's." - Romans 14:8

Lorine (DeLong) Monk

February 24, 1935 ~ March 27, 2025 (age 90)

Our precious mother, Lorine DeLong Monk, 90, of Westover Hills, Danville, Virginia, died Thursday, March 27, 2025, in Blairs, Virginia, after struggling the last two years with Lewy body dementia. We fully believe she is walking the golden streets of heaven with her children, friends, and former students.

She was born February 24, 1935, in Whitewood, Virginia, and was the baby daughter of John Wallace DeLong and Myrtle Clifton DeLong, whom she adored. Preceding her in death were her husband, Lewis Monk Sr., daughter, Dana Davis, an infant child, and two sons, John Monk and Doug Monk. Sadly, she also lost a great-grandson, Wyatt Monk. She was also preceded by six brothers, Pershing DeLong, Wallace DeLong, Maurice DeLong, Warren DeLong, Wendell DeLong, and Cecil DeLong, and three sisters, Walsie DeLong Wheeler, Lola Ann DeLong, and Allegra DeLong. Our mother grieved her whole life for the losses she faced. John 14:14 was the verse that helped her through many dark days after losing her children.

Surviving is her son, Robert Monk Sr. and wife Danna of Blairs, Va., daughter Mauriah Smith and husband Jerry of Providence, N.C., nine grandchildren, Scott Davis (Susan), Brad Davis (Sarah), Chip Monk (Amanda), Josh Monk (Justine), Jacob Monk, Hilary Bourne (Chris), LoriLee Davis, Will Smith (Cara), and Molly Smith. She was lucky enough to have great-grandchildren, Lee Dooley, Vincent Davis, Jace Monk, Ridge Monk, Kayden Davis, and Salem Smith, and she loved being in their presence.

She was a proud graduate of Whitewood High School and Radford University. She taught in Northern Virginia, Langley Air Force Base in Hampton, Va., Whitewood, Va., Yanceyville, N.C., and Pittsylvania County, Va. After 37 years of teaching, she retired and often told stories about her former coworkers and students with laughter and joy.

Our mother loved Jesus, music, Elvis, her neighbors, flowers, birds, kids, laughing, singing, poetry, writing, chocolate, coffee, politics, the ocean, talking on the phone, having her nails painted, the color purple, and most of all, her friends and family. She believed onions could cure all ailments and that if you spoke the truth, you would be set free. Her home was rarely quiet as she was always whistling. She thought of others and would go without if it meant helping someone else. She would defend us even when we didn't deserve it and loved us like no other. She was spirited and fierce and was our matriarch. She left us with more love than we knew we could hold, and we know there will never be another "memother".

We would like to thank the staff at Chatham Rehabilitation for the kindness shown to our mother over the past week. You treated her with love and respect, and we are forever grateful.

Swicegood Funeral Home is handling the arrangements, and a graveside service will be held on Wednesday, April 2, 2025 at 1pm at Danville Memorial Gardens. The family will be at the home of Mauriah and Jerry Smith in Providence on Wednesday after 3:00, and all are welcome to visit.

Jennifer Moorefield

November 10, 1950 ~ March 25, 2025 (age 74)

Jennifer was born on November 10th, 1950, in Danville, to the late Folger William Moorefield and Mildred Cox Moorefield.

Jennifer worked as a benefits coordinator in the office of Congressman Virgil Goode. She was a member of Trinity Methodist Church and loved to read.

She is survived by her longtime friend and dedicated caregiver, Betty Craig; special cousins, Connie Clark and Wanda Guill; her cat, and faithful companion, Lily Rose; and many cousins that were as special as nieces and nephews to her. She was the "aunt" to the entire family.

In addition to her parents, Jennifer was predeceased by cousins Nancy Burnette and Shirley Stone, who were like sisters.

Funeral services will be conducted April 5th, 2025 at Swicegood Funeral Chapel at 12pm. The family will receive visitors from 11am until the service. Interment will follow at Highland Burial Park.

Swicegood Funeral Service is respectfully serving Ms. Moorefield's family.

In lieu of flowers, donations welcome to Puppets Place cat sanctuary. Run by Cherrystone Vet in Chatham.

Julius "JL" Lee Woods

August 27, 1935 ~ March 22, 2025 (age 89)

Mr. Julius Lee "JL" Woods, age 89, of Danville, passed away on March 22, 2025, at his home, surrounded by his family, whom he cherished.

He was born on August 27, 1935, in Greensboro, to the late Silas and Bessie Woods.

JL was the proud operator of his own drywall business for over 50 years and was of the Christian faith. He was an Army veteran who served in the Korean Conflict and was a Golden Gloves boxer.

He is survived by his son, Jason Woods with wife, Megan; sister, Gilda of Lynchburg; grandchildren, Jasmine Meadows, Jackson Woods, Layla Woods, Landon Fry, Jayce Woods, Willow Woods, Joey Woods, Jacob Woods, Jesse Woods, and Josh Woods; great grandchildren, Callie Meadows and Jaxon Woods; and future great granddaughter, Charli Grace Meadows.

In addition to his parents, JL was preceded in death by his beloved wife, Linda, who he adored; his son, Joey Lee Woods, six brothers, and five sisters.

The family will receive guests on Saturday, March 29th, 2025 at 11am at Swicegood Funeral Home. A graveside service will follow at Gammon Family Cemetery.

Swicegood Funeral Service is respectfully serving the Woods family.

Hip and Leg Pain Persist Ever Since an Active Trip to France

DEAR DR. ROACH: In 2022, I took a trip to France to visit friends and sightsee. My hip/leg pain started after I spent my days walking around and climbing stairs in Paris. (I walked 16 miles one day!) I rested during the evening and took ibuprofen before going to bed. I did not stop my activities because this was a special trip.

Later during my vacation, I hiked trails in the Alps. There are stairs everywhere in France with very little adjustments for those who have mobility issues. It was very debilitating. When I came home, my doctor ordered an X-ray, then diagnosed me with hip bursitis on both sides.

I was in physical therapy for many weeks. Every now and then, if I pursue activities like hiking or long walks, I can feel some pain. I don't like limiting my activities because I am relatively healthy.

Now I am 60 years old and returning to France. What can I do to prevent this pain from happening again without restricting my activities? Or what can I do to alleviate the pain if it occurs? I don't want to become sedentary. — J.M.C.

ANSWER: Greater trochanteric pain syndrome is still mostly called "trochanteric bursitis," despite the fact that the hip bursa really isn't inflamed. But this condition does sound like your diagnosis. It is caused by the overuse of the muscles and tendons in the hip, particularly those of the gluteus medius and minimus muscles.

Stair and hill-climbing are the activities that are most likely to cause a recurrence of your symptoms. However, you may be able to prevent symptoms from recurring. The muscles you want to strengthen are your hip abductors (those that move your leg away from the midline of your body).

By strengthening these muscles, the abnormal forces on your gluteal muscles and tendons can be avoided. Your physical therapist can show you how to do this, either with a spring-resisted sliding platform or an elastic resistance band. This should prevent the recurrence of GTPS.

DEAR DR. ROACH: My 84-year-old husband takes 10 mg of amitriptyline at bedtime and 100 mg of sertraline in the morning. I'm concerned about these drugs. Alzheimer's runs in his family, and he's beginning to have issues with his memory.

Are amitriptyline or sertraline used for other health issues? I don't understand why he's on antidepressants, and I am concerned about his mental health. What are your thoughts on these? — C.W.

ANSWER: Amitriptyline can be taken as an antidepressant, but your husband is not taking it as one. The antidepressant dose of amitriptyline is usually 300-600 mg. A 10-mg dose is most commonly used for chronic pain, although there are other uses.

Sertraline (Zoloft) is commonly used for depression, and 100 mg is the typical dose. But it can also be used for anxiety, obsessive-compulsive disorder, panic disorder, post-traumatic stress disorder, and other reasons.

The memory issue is complex. It is possible for medicines like sertraline and amitriptyline to bring on memory issues, which sounds like a major (and reasonable) concern for you. However, depression can cause symptoms that look exactly like early dementia. It's possible that his doctor is treating underlying depression, and this treatment may help, rather than hurt, his mental health.

As you see, the situation is potentially complex. If it's OK with your husband, you might go with him to visit the doctor who is prescribing these medications.

Dr. Roach regrets that he is unable to answer individual questions, but will incorporate them in the column whenever possible. Readers may email questions to ToYourGoodHealth@med.cornell.edu.

* A garden manicure is what my mother calls it: When working with plants and dirt, rake your nails across a bar of soap. The soap prevents dirt particles from lodging under nails, and the soap washes away easily when you are finished. Happy gardening!

* If the string on your trimmer is always breaking or jamming, try this old trick: Give the coiled string a spray with vegetable oil before you thread it. It lubricates the line, making it less likely to pull and less likely to break.

* "If you have a spade with a long handle, you can transfer common measurements to the handle. Just lay a tape measure alongside the handle, and use a black marker to note common spacing, like feet and inches. Then, when you put in plants, you can check quickly whether they are spaced correctly. Very handy!" -- P.E. in Arkansas

* Boiling potatoes? Plants love starch. Let your cooking water cool, then use it to water the plants in your garden.

* Here's a recipe for a quickie bird feeder or bath: Flip over a nice-size flower pot, and place the pot's tray on the top. Fill with seed or water. The birds will thank you -- maybe even by eating some nuisance bugs along with the seed.

* "Garden tool storage doesn't have to be hard. Fill a wide-mouth bucket with clean sand. Add a half quart of motor oil and stir. Then use the sand to clean and store your garden tools like shovels, rakes or hoes. The sand/oil mixture helps clean the metal surfaces, and the heaviness of the container lets you stick them in the sand without fear of everything falling down, like it would if you leaned them along a wall." -- E. in North Carolina

Hawaiian Chicken and Veggie Teriyaki Bowl

INGREDIENTS

Chicken + Marinade:

- 1½ to 2 pounds boneless, skinless chicken breasts, tenders or thighs
- 1 cup low-sodium soy sauce
- 1 cup pineapple juice
- ½ cup lightly packed light brown sugar
- 1/3 cup unseasoned rice vinegar
- 1 tablespoon finely grated ginger (see note)
- 1 tablespoon finely minced fresh garlic (see note)
- Veggies + Rice:

- 1 small pineapple, peeled and cut into wedges or thick spears
- 2 to 3 medium zucchini, cut into spears
- 2 medium bell peppers, any color, cored and cut into thick strips
- 3 cups hot, cooked rice (see note)
- Other: diced avocados, fresh or pickled onions, toasted sesame seeds, fresh lime wedges, extra teriyaki sauce.

INSTRUCTIONS

Place the chicken in a shallow dish. Combine all the marinade ingredients and whisk until the sugar is mostly dissolved. Pour half of the marinade into a container to use later; cover and refrigerate. Pour the remaining marinade over the chicken. Toss to coat evenly. Cover and refrigerate for at least an hour or up to 24 hours.

Preheat an outdoor grill, indoor grill pan, air fryer, or oven broiler to medium or medium-high heat. I use a pellet grill and preheat to 375 degrees F. Cook the chicken until cooked through, flipping once and brushing with reserved marinade the last 1-2 minutes of cooking (discard the marinade used for the chicken). Exact cooking times will vary based on the thickness/type of chicken used; an instant-read thermometer should read 165 degrees F when inserted at the thickest part of the chicken. Remove the chicken, tent with foil, and let rest for 10 minutes while cooking the veggies.

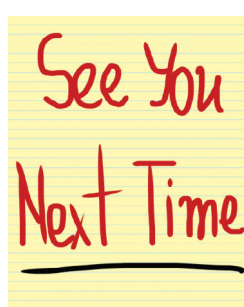

Add the pineapple, zucchini, and bell peppers to the grill (can also use a grill pan or any of the aforementioned cooking methods in step #2). Brush with reserved marinade. Cook for 2-3 minutes, flip, brush with marinade, and continue cooking until crisp-tender, another 3-5 minutes. Remove to a pan.

If desired, pour the remaining marinade (that was used for brushing the chicken, pineapple and veggies) into a small saucepan and simmer for a couple of minutes until reduced slightly.

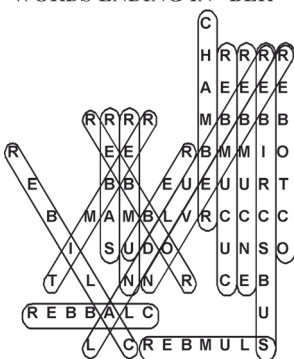

To serve, slice the chicken into strips. Chop the pineapple, bell peppers and zucchini into bite-size pieces.

Add a scoop of rice to a serving plate or bowl followed by chicken slices, pineapple, bell peppers, zucchini, and any other add-ins like diced avocados, red onion slices, fresh lime wedges.

Drizzle with remaining teriyaki marinade/sauce and toasted sesame seeds, if desired. Serve immediately.
