JILL KOHUT

Watercolors in Bloom

Watercolorist Jill Kohut specializes in painting flowers, and this exhibition fills the wall of the Thaler Gallery with beautiful blooms. Jill is a signature member of the National Watercolor Society, a recipient of a Lifetime Achievement Award from the Pennsylvania Watercolor Society, and exhibits throughout the East Coast. She is also an educator, teaching drawing, painting, photography, and graphic design to students of all ages.

MICHEL DEMANCHE

The Yellow King ... Residuum

This exhibition presents residuum of hope or delusion through acknowledgement of the many layers of meaning presented in The Yellow King and The Yellow King 2.0. What we live in at present, another new reality. Residuum ~ Something that remains after a reaction or process has taken place – normally a substance remaining after a physical or chemical reaction. Delusion - As a false opinion about a matter of fact which need not necessarily involve, though it often does involve, false perceptions of sensible things.

IMPACT OF THE ARTS

Dear Friends and Supporters,

The summer is upon us, and we are excited to share our recently completed economic impact report that highlights the vital role our organization plays in the community and the local economy.

The report illustrates that the Art League not only provides a platform for artists and art enthusiasts but also generates substantial economic benefits. Our programs, exhibitions, and events attract thousands of visitors, which in turn supports local businesses. The findings show that the Art League has an economic return on investment of $100 for every dollar that has been invested.

Moreover, we are proud to note that our educational programs including after school enrichment and summer camp reach a broad and diverse audience, allowing us to reach kids and adults who may not have had prior access to the arts. Being artists ourselves, we know how important it is to find a community that empowers people to find their creative purpose.

As we embrace the summer season, we are reaching out with a heartfelt appeal for your support. Your donations are crucial in sustaining our programs and expanding our outreach efforts. Every contribution, no matter the size, makes a difference in our ability to provide art education, host exhibits, and organize events like Originals Only and Clay-a-palooza that inspire and enrich lives.

Please consider making a donation to the Art League of Ocean City's Impact of the Arts Campaign. Your generosity will ensure that we continue to thrive and provide a nurturing environment for artists and art lovers alike.

Thank you for being an integral part of our community. Together, we can continue to cultivate creativity and make a lasting impact on Ocean City and the surrounding areas.

Rina Thaler
Executive Director
