A RANCH HOME BECOMES A FAMILY MUSEUM

Tumbleweed Smith

Laurie Churchwell's parents died last year and were buried on the family ranch east of Big Spring. Laurie wanted to preserve their memory so she and other members of her family started turning her parents' ranch house into a museum and art gallery. Laurie's mother, Joyce Choate, was an established artist.

Tumbleweed Smith "I started gathering up paintings my mother had given to nieces and nephews and others and photographed them. I have a very large painting of hers hanging on a wall. There is a QR code in the corner of it and if you hold your phone camera up to the QR code over 100 of her paintings will show up on your phone screen."

Laurie's dad, Carroll Choate, was a great story teller and Laurie recorded some of his stories. "As you can imagine I have a lot of stories with photographs of him doing various things in various places. I decided to pull it all together and put a QR code on each photo. All you have to do is go to a photo with your phone, point it at the QR code and there's my dad on video telling the story of each photo."

Laurie started taping her dad when she saw other people laughing at his stories and enjoying being around him. "I just got a little cassette recorder, put it in his pickup and boy did he ever take hold of that. He'd be driving along in his pickup and when he remembered something he'd start the cassette recorder and start telling a story. I also videotaped him."

Her dad's lariat, saddle, hats and other family artifacts are on display throughout the home. There are shelves full of photos and recordings. Her parents loved to dance and Laurie often plays their favorite tunes at the ranch.

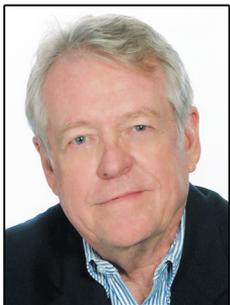

"I feel like I have a real special family and want to preserve their memory and honor their legacy. This ranch house is a way we can do that. This ranch will be here forever and more memorabilia can always be added."

The Choate family has been recognized as one of 100 families who owned land when Texas became a state.

"We are a first family of Texas by two ancestors. I managed to get photos of some of them. Then I created the ancestor wall and had their closest living relative tell the story of their grandfather or grandmother so we can hear about our ancestors. It's awesome because when we have the younger ones in the family that kind of glaze over when it comes time to hear family stories, they've all got cell phones and it's a game to them. They'll go over to a photo with a QR code and they think it's real cool."

Laurie and Tommy love to go to the ranch and sit outside on the deck in the early evenings.

"You can see Moss Creek Lake, Signal Peak, Saddleback and Twin Sisters mountains. Sometimes we get to hear coyotes sing to us."

Janet Wheeler

A funeral services for Janet Wheeler of Sulphur Springs was held at 10:00 a.m., Tuesday, April 29, 2025 at West Oaks Funeral Home Chapel with Bro. Pete McNabb officiating. Interment followed at Sulphur Springs City Cemetery. A visitation was held one hour prior to the service at 9:00 a.m., at West Oaks Funeral Home.

Janet Wheeler was born on January 8, 1935 in Sulphur Springs, Hopkins County, Texas to Earl Perkins and Bernese Sewell Perkins. She married Joe Don Wheeler on June 11, 1954 in Sulphur Springs. He preceded her in death November 19, 2022. She is survived by a daughter Jeannie Kay Taylor and husband Richard, Allen, TX., and son Terry Joe Wheeler, Sulphur Springs, TX., three grandchildren, Lindsey Kay Honeycutt, Colton Ryan Wheeler, Victoria Faith Wheeler. She is also survived by a sister, Martha Kate Chapman of Sulphur Springs and one sister-in-law, Mary Ann Mathews, Beaumont, TX, and four nieces and three nephews.

After graduation from Sulphur Springs High School, she continued her education at East Texas State University, Southern Methodist University and Baylor University.

She started her career at Rockwell Valves, Inc. in Sulphur Springs, TX as secretary to the General Manager. Then she went to work for Peoples National Bank in Sulphur Springs as secretary to the President. She went through three transitions in that bank from Peoples National Bank to Heritage National Bank, Tyler, TX and then BancTEXAS Dallas.

After a twenty-five year career in banking, she retired as Director and Senior Vice President of BancTEXAS Dallas.

She was a member and Director of many organizations and committees both at First United Methodist Church and the community. She was a member of FUMC and the Messengers Sunday School Class for over 50 years. She was instrumental in organizing the Minute Managers Business and Professional Women's Club in Sulphur Springs. She was a member of the National Association of Bank Women, Dial Study Club, Jr. Waverly Club and United Methodist Women.

After Retirement she enjoyed spending time with her family, reading, traveling, and game days with her friends.

Words that best describe her are: she was loyal, trustworthy and loved God, her husband, and her family and friends with all her heart.

In lieu of flowers the family request that donations be made to the First United Methodist Church or the Kidney Foundation.

Mary Alice (McDonald) Koon

A funeral service for Mary Alice (McDonald) Koon, age 96, of Brashear, was held at 10:00 a.m. Tuesday, April 29, 2025, at First Baptist Church in Sulphur Springs with Dr. David Hardage, Dr. Jeff Gravens, and Tommy Johnston officiating. Interment followed at Sherley Cemetery with Daron DeWitt, Kody Koon, Kyle Koon, Kory Koon, Koyt Koon, Joshua Holland, John Holland, Kade Koon, Chase Koon, Michael Lawrence, and Casey Emerine serving as pallbearers. Visitation was held from 6:00-8:00 p.m. on Monday, April 28, 2025, at Murray-Orwosky Funeral Home. Mrs. Koon passed away peacefully at Baylor Hospital in Dallas on Thursday, April 24, 2025 surrounded by her loving family.

Mary Koon was born on September 13, 1928 in Brashear, TX, to Phil McDonald, Sr. and Mildred (Starrett) McDonald. She was one of four children. She graduated from Sulphur Springs High School in 1944. Mary married the love of her life, Brody Lee Koon, at the First Baptist Church in Sulphur Springs, Texas on June 7, 1950. Mary and Brody were partners in life. She worked alongside him, helping to provide the very best for their family. She was content to work behind the scenes when it came to their Registered Jersey Farm. She was chief cook and bottle washer, Gofer and Taxi Driver, Nurse and Counselor, and secretary, taking countless messages from potential cattle buyers. She cooked many a meal for classifiers, cattle buyers, workers, and of course, Brody!

The most important job for Mary was being a wife and mother, taking care of her family and home. Mary's family was her life. She was an exceptional wife, mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother. She loved her children with her whole heart. She and Brody worked together to make sure their children knew Jesus. She continued to pray they would remain faithful to God, always trust in Him, and meet her in Heaven.

Mary was known for her Hopkins County Stew, chicken and dressing, lemon meringue pie, and her award-winning peach ice cream. She loved to host and celebrate all the holidays. Her Grands and Great-Grands always looked forward to her popcorn balls when trick-or-treating and Easter egg hunts. The highlight of every family Christmas was Granny Mary's "Sharing the Story of Jesus' Birth." Mary enjoyed planting a garden and caring for her flowers and plants. She loved sharing her home-grown vegetables, figs, pears, and musky dime preserves with friends and family.

Mary was a long-time member of First Baptist Church for 81 years, since 1944. She was a vital part of the children's ministry at FBC. She served faithfully as Sunday School director and third-grade teacher for 26 years. She also directed and taught Vacation Bible School each summer. She professed her most fulfilling moments in teaching were leading someone to the saving knowledge of Jesus Christ. She was also a member of Silverstone Choir, the Diamond Set 55 Plus ministry, and Women Mission Union. Mary and Brody served on the Baptism, Lord's Supper, and Hospitality committees for numerous years. She attended many youth camps as a sponsor and cook. Brody often made early milk runs to the store because Mary couldn't say no to after-church Cookies-n-Milk for those growing boys. Aside from the church, Mary was very involved with the Reilly Springs Cemetery Association. She served in various capacities as an officer and a member.

Mary had a special love for children and youth, and she was known as "Granny" to them all. She touched the lives of the people she met by taking time to listen, showing them she truly cared. She had a true servant's heart. Mary shared her faith in God and His Love not only in words, but by the way she lived every day.

Mary is survived by her four children, Randy Koon (Sheila), Jana DeWitt (Weldon), Karman Holland (Brad), Kris Koon (Miki) all of Brashear, Texas; grandchildren, Daron DeWitt, Jandi Lawrence (Michael), Kody Koon (Breanna), Kyle Koon, Kory Koon (Katie), Koyt Koon (Kylie), Daron DeWitt, Jandi Lawrence (Michael), Joshua Holland (Tanna), Emily Emerine (Casey), John Holland (Andrea), Kade Koon, and Chase Koon; and great-grandchildren, Ayden Koon, Addyson Koon, Kynslee Koon, Kaydence Koon, Kase Saucier, Emerson Koon, Brody Koon, Sawyer Koon, Sage Koon, Landri Lawrence, Sam Lawrence, Addie Emerine, Gentry Emerine, Colter Holland, Lane Holland, Jenna Holland, and Emma Holland; and numerous nieces and nephews.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Phil and Mildred McDonald; husband, Brody Koon; brothers, Joe McDonald, Luther McDonald, Phil McDonald, Jr.; daughter-in-law, Terri Jordan Koon; and grandson, Jace DeWitt.

In lieu of flowers, the family asks that you consider a donation to the First Baptist Church – Youth & Children's Ministry at 116 Oak Ave, Sulphur Springs, TX 75482.

Arrangements are under the direction of Murray-Orwosky Funeral Home.
