For the first time, chondroitin sulfate has been more successful than celecoxib in reducing the long-term progression of knee osteoarthritis (OA), according to new research findings presented at the American College of Rheumatology Annual Meeting in San Francisco. Osteoarthritis is a slowly progressive disease in which joint cartilage breaks down. Normally, cartilage on the ends of bones allows smooth, pain-free joint movements. In OA, cartilage becomes thin and irregular, resulting in symptoms of joint pain and stiffness. Grinding or cracking sensations may occur. Joints that are under high stress due to repeated activity or weight bearing are most susceptible to OA. The hips, knees, hands and spine are commonly affected. OA becomes more common with aging.

The U.S. food and Drug Administration has approved Zurampic (lesinurad) to treat high levels of uric acid in the blood (hyperuricemia) associated with gout, when used in combination with a xanthine oxidase inhibitor (XOI), a type of drug approved to reduce the production of uric acid in the body. Gout is a painful form of arthritis caused by the buildup of too much uric acid in the body, and usually appears first as redness, soreness, and swelling in the big toe. Uric acid in the blood is produced by the breakdown of substances called purines, which are found in all the body's tissues. Uric acid usually dissolves in the blood then passes through the kidneys and out of the body in urine. Uric acid can build up in the blood, a condition called hyperuricemia. This occurs when the body increases the amount of uric acid it makes, the kidneys do not get rid of enough uric acid, or a person eats too many foods high in purines. Most people with hyperuricemia do not develop gout, but if uric acid forms crystals in the body, gout can develop.

BLUE TAG SPECIALS:

We have HUNDREDS of non-advertised items marked down throughout our entire store. More savings passed on to our customers. Just look for blue tags on the shelves.

NO LIMITS:

Our competitors also have advertised specials. The difference is, in most cases, they have a limit on how many of an item you can buy at the sale price...we don't have any limits to family shoppers.

Polly Mauldin

December 29, 1941 ~ April 15, 2015

If we could visit heaven, even for a day, Maybe for a moment the pain would go away, We would put our arms around you and whisper words so true, that living life without you is the hardest thing to do. No matter how we spend our days, no matter what we do, no morning dawns or evening falls, when we don't think of you.

We love and miss you,
Your Family

In Memory of Chad Speegle

To Those Who I Love and Those Who Love Me

When I am gone, release me, let me go –
I have so many things to see and do.
You mustn't tie yourself to me with tears,
Be thankful for our beautiful years.
I gave you my love, you can only guess,
How much you gave to me in happiness...
I thank you for the love you each have shown,
But now it's time I traveled on along.
So, grieve a while for me, if grieve you must,
Then let your grief be comforted by trust.
It's only for a time we must part,
So bless the memories within your heart.
I won't be far away, for life goes on,
So if you need me, call and I will come.
Though you can't see or touch me, I'll be near.
And if you listen with your heart you will hear,
All my love around you soft and clear.
An then, when you must come this way alone,
I'll greet you with a smile and say
Welcome Home. (Author Unknown)

Love, Chad's Family

Psychological warfare is used by the beast and the false prophet against The Word of The Holy Father by using propaganda to reach the goal to change times and laws (Gen 3:1-5, Dan 7:25, Mt 25:25-46, Rev 19:20, 20:10, 22:14-19)! Some with different life styles say they were born that way and their God loves them! The KJV calls it from abomination (Lev 18:22) unto reprobate minds (Rom 1:18-32)! The dictionary shows this as something shameful, and someone immoral! Many claim to be born again Christians (2Cor 5:17), yet do not obey what Christ (The Truth) saith (Mt 5:17-19)! They chose false over Truth (2Cor 11:13-15)! So Be It! Ron & Jeri
