Laurel JA gives Mason Park playground a facelift

By Linda Cranford
 A ribbon cutting ceremony was held at the Mason Park playground, Tuesday, April 5, signifying the completion of the Laurel Junior Auxiliary's year-long playground refurbishment project.
 The playground was originally a dream of LJA, the Laurel City Council and former Mayor Susan Vincent in 2001. The dream became a reality in September of 2002, and for the past 13 years has been a favorite spot for children throughout Laurel and Jones County.
 "This has been a labor of love, especially for me," exclaimed LJA Parkside Playground Chair Rebekah Simpson. "My family loves this park. We have had several of my sons' birthday parties here."

Simpson said the LJA volunteers with the help of Elvin Ulmer and the city of Laurel have worked tirelessly throughout the year (2015-2016) making improvements and refreshing the playground after 13 years of use. Some of the enhancements include replacement of the broken slide and sand digger, rebuilding and painting the horse and carriage, creating two rock wall lanes, adding fresh mulch throughout the entire playground, touch-up painting, and the repair of many smaller items.
 Simpson pointed out that the playground, in its own little setting, depicts the history of Laurel and Jones County. There are sections depicting St. Johns Day School, the Lauren Rogers Museum and Sanderson Farms, to name a few.

Students prepare to enter the business world

By Linda Cranford

Over 200 junior and senior students from schools throughout the Pine Belt and other areas of the state attended the annual Pine Belt Area Career Prep Fair held at the Ronald Whitehead Advanced Technology Center in Ellisville on Tuesday, April 5. The event is sponsored each year by the Jones County School District and the Ability Works of Laurel Advisory Council.

Participants included students from Northeast Jones, South Jones, West Jones, Laurel, Ability Works, Smith County, Wayne County, Petal, Lamar County, Bassfield, Prentiss, East Jasper, Lawrence County, Quitman and Greenville.

Volunteers from many of the area businesses and agencies participated in the fair giving the students an opportunity to be critiqued on employment applications, participate in mock interviews, attend an employability skills presentation, be instructed on dressing for success, and learn more about area businesses.

Ailrick Young and Felicia Jackson are helping students with the interview process.

JCJC offering ACT Prep Camp

By Teresa McCreery

High school students entering their sophomore year and older next fall are encouraged to participate in an opportunity for academic enhancement through Jones County Junior College's ACT Prep Camp. The three-day camp, which will be held June 6 through 8, includes instruction from 9 a.m. until 4 p.m. and is prior to the national ACT test on June 11.

The cost for the ACT Prep Camp is $150 and includes a copy of the book, "The Princeton Review" ACT prep book, test taking strategies, 15-hours of instruction in four content areas and lunch. The goal of the camp is to provide a variety of learning activities that will enhance educational goals.

The deadline to register for the ACT test is May 6, and the deadline to register for the ACT Prep Camp at JCJC is May 20. To request an ACT camp registration form, call Jamie Williams at 601-477-4030 or email her at: jamie.williams@jcjc.edu.

Lindy Callahan Scholar Athletes named for 2016

Submitted

Congratulations to the 16 seniors from across the state who have been selected as Lindy Callahan Scholar-Athletes for 2016. The honorees — one boy and one girl from high schools in each of the MHSAA's eight geographical districts — were chosen for their academic accomplishments as well as their participation in high school athletics and extracurricular activities. Each winner received a $1,500 college scholarship through the support of MHSAA partners like BankPlus, C Spire, Mississippi Power and Mississippi Sports Medicine. The 16 scholar-athletes were honored April 4 in Jackson at the 21st annual banquet.

Stringer's Kailey Ready has been named a winner in this year's Lindy Callahan Scholarship competition — the first ever Stringer student to achieve this prestigious honor. Athletic Director Jody Rowell said, "Kailey Ready has done an outstanding job of representing Stringer and bringing recognition to both athletics and academics to our school."

Ready has attended school at Stringer from Pre-K to graduation. She has been involved in multiple extracurricular clubs and organizations such as Beta Club, Mu Alpha Theta, Spanish Honors Society, FBLA, Red Cross Club, Student Council, Yearbook Staff and Peer Council. Kailey is also heavily involved with community service. She started Cute Caps for Chemo Kids in 2010. Cute Caps collects and distributes new hats and caps to pediatric oncology and hematology wards in Mississippi and Alabama. She works over 70 hours a year on her personal philanthropy alone. She has also volunteered at Spirit Girls through Forrest General Hospital, the Semi-Annual Alpaca Festival, Center Ridge Autism Camp, the blood drive, and various other groups. Kailey has also served as a pee-wee cheer coach for two years.

Kailey has been a cheerleader since she was in the seventh grade at Stringer. She started cheering for the varsity squad her freshman year, and her junior year she was elected to serve as co-captain. During her senior year Kailey was selected as a UCA All-American Cheerleader and Dancing Diva. Kailey was also a member of the Stringer varsity golf team her freshman, sophomore and junior years. During her junior year she was selected as the only female to represent Stringer at the Dixie Tournament.

In addition to her sports and leadership activities, Ready has worked to achieve and maintain a 4.418 GPA and scored 33 on the ACT exam. She is dual enrolled through Jones County Junior College and takes AP classes online through Mississippi Virtual School. In the summers, Kailey has attended leadership seminars and takes summer classes through the Trent Lott Institute at the University of Mississippi, Summer Academy at the University of Mississippi, Mississippi Governor's School at Mississippi University for Women, Girl's State at Mississippi State University, and ASAP Accounting Program at Mississippi State University.

The experience of playing high school sports was an important one for Kailey Ready. "Being a scholar athlete in high school teaches you a very important value — perspective. It teaches you to rationalize and prioritize. I had to learn to understand what was most important and to not take on too much at once."

Along with her school activities, Ready is a member of Edon Baptist Church. She is the daughter of Clay and Sonya Ready and has one sister, Lily Ready.

Principal Jay Arrington noted, "Kailey Ready is a well-rounded individual who is on track to be a very successful and productive member of our society. From academics to cheer to golf to volunteer work, Kailey strives to be her very best. Her compassion for others and her natural intellect have helped mold her into an outstanding citizen and leader."

Do I have to forgive people that have hurt me?

By Dr. Bill Myers

“But Jesus was saying, Father, forgive them; for they do not know what they are doing” Luke 23:34. What love and forgiveness! I’m amazed how Jesus chose to forgive even when He knew all along He would have to suffer and die. He knew at the Lord’s Supper as he comforted his disciples that Judas would betray Him and Peter would even deny knowing Him . . . but He chose to forgive.

“If you forgive men when they sin against you, your heavenly Father will also forgive you.” Matthew 5:7. None of us have ever suffered and been betrayed like Jesus. Through it all, He forgave. How silly of us to get so upset at those who say an unkind word about us or one of our family members. We can get so “worked up” and angry, wanting to retaliate and get even. We should stop, look in the mirror and question ourselves, “Is it really worth it?” “Does this situation even compare to what Jesus experienced?” He chose to forgive, shouldn’t I?

Forgiveness calms our emotions and heart, allowing us to move forward with our lives. Forgiveness breaks the chains that try to bind and hold us in the “unforgiveness prison.” Friends, wherever we go and whatever we do, we will always experience some verbal attacks and personality clashes, only because people think differently than we do. We must recognize that the enemy, Satan, enjoys getting us upset over what someone said or did against us. Today, let’s be like Jesus and rise above the verbal and emotional attacks, choosing to walk in forgiveness and love. Choosing to forgive makes us stronger, not weaker.

When we choose to make forgiveness a lifestyle, we will experience more joy in our daily lives and sleep better at night. We will be able to get along with co-workers, family members and friends much better. Peace will reign in our lives and will be a testimony to others of God’s love and forgiveness. “But I tell you who hear me: Love your enemies, do ‘good’ to those who hate you, bless those who curse you, pray for those who mistreat you.” Luke 6: 27-28.

Forgiveness . . . a lifestyle of love (God). If you are going to have a successful relationship with Jesus, you must choose to forgive and let the hurts go. Remember, staying mad at someone with an attitude of unforgiveness keeps your attention and focus on yourself and not on Jesus. “Let it go” and forgive.

Dr. Bill Myers is the Show Choir director at Northeast Jones High School, is a frequent contributor to publications in south Mississippi, and has recently released a book, “Surviving the Storms of Life.”
