The Dutch Heritage Boosters would like to say Hartelijk Bedankt!
(Thank You!)

Thank you to all the volunteers who helped this past year for Sinterklaas Dag, Poffertjes Mix Day, the Century Home, the Little White Store, the Parade of Flags, the Heritage Walk and the Puppet Show.

Over 700 volunteer hours have been dedicated to the various jobs of cleaning, measuring, mixing, packing, grilling, buttering, sugaring, marching, riding, walking, repairing, decorating and preparing.

We want to thank you all for giving of your time, talents, and financial gifts.

If you would like to help with any of the above activities in the future, please contact us on our Facebook page: www.facebook.com/dutchheritageboosters

The DHB organized in 1986 to promote and maintain the Dutch heritage early settlers of Orange City brought to the town. The group maintains The Little White Store, The Century Home and a library of authentic Dutch costume patterns. They also sponsor Sinterklaas Dag each December, as well as the Dutch Heritage Walk and parade of flags during Tulip Festival. The volunteer group may best be known for the poffertjes they make and serve from The Little White Store each Tulip Festival and on other special occasions.

AREA SCHOOLS DISCUSS CELL PHONE BANS
BY MADIE SCHWACH
Contributor

ORANGE CITY — In the age of modern technology, the digital world is everywhere. For students, it's a double-edged sword. While it offers endless opportunities for learning and communication, it also presents significant challenges. One of the most prominent issues is the use of cell phones in schools. Many schools have implemented bans or strict guidelines on cell phone use during school hours. The reasons for these bans are varied, ranging from distraction to cyberbullying and the potential for inappropriate use. Some schools argue that cell phones are a distraction from learning, while others worry about the safety of students if they are using phones during class. The debate continues as technology advances, with schools and parents seeking the best way to manage this issue.

PROMISING SEASON AHEAD
BY MADIE SCHWACH
Contributor

ORANGE CITY — As the 2024-2025 season begins, many are looking forward to a promising year. The season ahead is filled with opportunities for growth and achievement. In sports, teams are looking to build on their successes from the previous year. In academics, students are eager to take on new challenges. The community is also looking forward to a year of collaboration and support. With the right mindset and effort, a promising season is ahead.

Introducing the new hires at the Sioux County ISU Extension Office
BY DANNY SCOTT
Contributor

SIoux County — The Sioux County ISU Extension Office is pleased to announce the arrival of new staff members. These new hires bring with them a wealth of experience and expertise in their respective fields. The office is committed to providing high-quality services to the community, and these new team members will be instrumental in achieving that goal. We welcome everyone to join the team and work together to make a difference in our community.

RAIDERS POLL HIGH IN SEASON START
BY DANNY SCOTT
Contributor

SIoux County — The Raiders are looking to start their season on a high note. The team has been practicing hard and is confident in their abilities. The coaches are looking for a strong performance in the first game. The fans are also looking forward to a great start. The Raiders are ready to take on any challenge and are looking to establish themselves as a top team in the league.

JOB OPENINGS

Assistant Groundskeeper

Northwestern College is seeking applications for a full-time assistant groundskeeper. Duties include keeping the exterior of campus clean and safe, moving, trimming, spraying and assisting the grounds supervisor as well as managing part-time workers and student employees.

Administrative Assistant

Northwestern College is seeking applications for an individual who will assist in the marketing & communications office's efforts to advance the college's brand broadly and deeply through a variety of projects. This is a full-time, 12-month position, but applicants seeking a flexible or part-time schedule will be considered. Responsibilities include posting news releases and job openings on the website, cataloging images in Northwestern's photo database, and disseminating news releases to media outlets.

Director of Discipleship

Northwestern College seeks a highly motivated full-time director of discipleship to begin as early as July 1. The director of discipleship will lead men and women into a Christ-centered, biblically grounded, theologically integrated, culturally competent and mission-oriented Christian leadership. This person will intentionally recruit, train, equip and commission student leaders as effective and inspired disciples of Jesus who raise up other disciples who do the same. Mobilizing both individuals and teams into effective discipleship ministry will happen through small group ministries, biblical teaching, prayer gatherings, spiritual discipline training, retreats, justice and service initiatives, reconciliation efforts, local church and ministry partnerships, and mentoring opportunities.

Successful candidates will have an authentic Christian faith and a commitment to Northwestern's mission.
