A STEAM TRAIN IN THE PINEY WOODS

Tumbleweed Smith

Tumbleweed Smith

Ben Campbell is a Palestine historian. His father and grandfather both worked for the railroad.

"We lived fairly close to downtown," he says. "The railroad came through here and I loved to hear the steam engines coming through."

Apparently those early memories had a big influence on him. He maintained his interest in trains and wrote a book titled TWO RAILROADS TWO TOWNS about the train coming to Palestine.

Ben is president of the railroad authority that operates the steam train between Palestine and Rusk. It is a popular destination for train lovers and it has been featured in several movies and tv shows. The TV show YELLOWSTONE recently spent a few weeks filming the train. I have ridden the train a few times and every time it has been filled with fun people ready to tell stories of their railroading experiences. It is a relaxing time.

"We have various and sundry special trains for different purposes that have been very popular," says Ben. "We have a wine tasting train, a beer train, several lunch and dinner trains, Mother's Day and Father's Day trains; we even have a prom train. We invite people who may have missed going to a prom in high school. They ride on the train, listen to big band music and dance in the aisles."

Of course, October has a spook train full of goblins and witches. The big event is the Polar Express around Christmas time. Kids wear pajamas and get hot chocolate.

"The little kids have stars in their eyes when they ride the Polar Express. We give each child a bell like the reindeer wear. The joy and the sparkle in those kids' eyes is just impossible to explain. Santa is on the train. One year I dressed up as Santa and I'll never forget the experience."

There were several railroad failures in both Palestine and Rusk. Finally, Palestine got a train that went south and Rusk got a train that went north. In 1909, the 28 miles between the two cities were joined by railroad tracks.

"Passengers could get on at night and have a sleeping car that would take them to Rusk. Then it would go north to the Texas and Pacific railroad. The next morning you would be in Dallas. I think it cost a dollar to go from Palestine to Dallas at that time. In about 1972, after the line was dormant, the Texas legislature decided they would turn it over to Parks and Wildlife and have a tourist railroad. It started off in 1976 and named it THE TEXAS STATE RAILROAD."

The rail line actually started in the 1880s to replace the mules and wagons prisoners were using to haul iron ore and timber from mines and woods near Rusk. The train ran from the countryside to the prison at Rusk where prisoners made cast iron.

WEST OAKS FUNERAL HOME

500 Hillcrest Dr., Sulphur Springs, Tx. 75482

<http://www.westoaksfuneralhome.com>

Walter "Keith" St. Clair

Memorial Service for Walter Keith St. Clair will be at 11:00 a.m. on Friday, June 13, 2025, at West Oaks Funeral Home. Keith passed away on June 3, 2025, at his home in Sulphur Springs, Texas.

Walter Keith St. Clair-known to most as Keith, Steve Mann and to a lucky few as "Pop"- has officially clocked out of this wild ride we call life, leaving behind a legacy of laughter, love, and more Hot Wheels than a small toy store.

He is survived by his loving wife and best friend of 10 years, Melinda St. Clair, who somehow managed to laugh at all his inappropriate jokes (and probably rolled her eyes more than she'll admit). He also leaves behind three daughters who inherited his sharp wit and sharp side-eye: Tosha Utt (Chris), Heather Myers (it's complicated), and Marissa Boyte (Jay). They will miss their dad's off-key serenades, spontaneous gift-giving, and the way he could turn even the most boring Tuesday into a comedy show.

He was the proud and playful Pop to five grandchildren: Aidyn, Rylan, and Easton Utt, Wednesday and Regan Myers-each of whom inherited a little spark of his mischief and a big piece of his heart.

Also mourning his loss (and possibly left in charge of his extensive collection of over 3,000 Hot Wheels and 200+ bobbleheads) are a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, and his faithful dog Penny, who always knew who to go to for snacks and secrets.

Keith was preceded in death by his parents, Morris Dean and Lynda Sue (Green) St. Clair, as well as his brothers, Gregory Lloyd and Robert Dean, and his sister Debra Sue. No doubt they greeted him with a hug and a "What took you so long?"-followed by a round of laughter.

A devoted employee at Grocery Supply Company for 30 years, Keith's coworkers could always count on him for hard work, good stories, and probably a few jokes that pushed the limits of the company handbook.

Keith loved music-all things rock, and all things loud-and he could carry a tune better than most karaoke stars. He was also a sucker for a good underdog story, a firm believer in the paranormal (you know, just in case), and a devout fan of The Andy Griffith Show. He was hilariously funny, famously generous, and oddly obsessed with bobbleheads, Hot Wheels, and buying gifts that made people laugh-or raise an eyebrow. Whether he was building a soapbox derby car with Aidyn or sneaking candy to the grandkids, Keith gave his family memories wrapped in laughter and unconditional love.

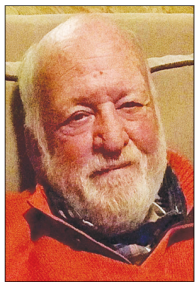

Linda Joyce (Wise) Maeker

BUSINESS SERVICES

The business services industry is a very broad industry encompassing many different categories of business operations; all of them provide some sort of non-financial service to other companies. These services include advertising, marketing, consultation, logistics (including travel and facilities services), waste handling, staffing services, shipping, administration, and security services to name a few. Nearly every business in operation has need for at least one of the different kinds of service offered by the industry. Marketing companies are responsible for increasing the sales of a client company by helping the company gain new customers as well as keep current ones. Legal services are needed to deal with business transactions, as well as for litigation purposes. Logistics and shipping companies are responsible for connecting businesses to other businesses or consumers by collecting, storing, transporting, and delivering products. Staffing companies match people in need of jobs, temporary or permanent, with companies in need of qualified employees. Leasing companies fill a client's need for certain items without requiring full purchase. Security companies are responsible for keeping a company's assets secure. Consulting companies are in the business of fulfilling needs for expertise that clients cannot fulfill themselves. These companies may offer professional, scientific, or technical consulting, management or strategy consulting, or human resources consulting.

Happy
FATHER'S DAY

Father's Day, in the United States, holiday (third Sunday in June) to honour fathers. Credit for originating the holiday is generally given to Sonora Smart Dodd of Spokane, Washington, whose father, a Civil War veteran, raised her and her five siblings after their mother died in childbirth. She is said to have had the idea in 1909 while listening to a sermon on Mother's Day, which at the time was becoming established as a holiday. Local religious leaders supported the idea, and the first Father's Day was celebrated on June 19, 1910, the month of the birthday of Dodd's father. In 1924 U.S. Pres. Calvin Coolidge gave his support to the observance, and in 1966 Pres. Lyndon B. Johnson issued a proclamation that recognized the day. It became a national holiday in 1972, when Pres. Richard Nixon signed legislation designating the third Sunday of June as Father's Day.
