AN EXECUTIVE COACHING BLOG
TONY THIEL

Dear Tony,
I've been told I should "step up and be a leader." But honestly, leadership feels overwhelming. What does it really take to lead?

That's a powerful question—and one I've wrestled with myself. Too often, we confuse leadership with a title, a corner office, or a nameplate on the door. But the truth is, leadership has little to do with position. It has everything to do with action.

Real leadership begins long before anyone else is watching. It begins with how you lead yourself.

I learned this lesson the hard way in my early career. I was eager to move up, make decisions, and have influence. But I quickly discovered that if I couldn't manage my own time, handle stress with grace, or admit when I was wrong, I wasn't ready to lead others. Self-leadership is the training ground for every other kind of leadership.

And it's not easy.

Leaders face criticism. Sometimes fair, sometimes not. You can't please everyone, and you shouldn't try. You'll face ambiguity. The answers aren't always clear, and waiting for perfect information usually means you're already late. Decision-making becomes part art, part courage. Innovation demands risk—often with no guarantee of success. These challenges aren't exceptions; they are the very fabric of leadership.

But here's the paradox: it's in those challenges that leadership becomes most meaningful.

- The coach who steadies a team after a heartbreaking loss.
- The neighbor who organizes a food drive when the pantry shelves run bare.
- The frontline worker who offers ideas to make things safer, faster, or better—and speaks up even when it's risky.

None of these people waited for a title. They simply acted. Humans need leaders—not perfect ones, but real ones. Leaders who listen. Leaders who collaborate. Leaders who see more in others than those people see in themselves. We need leaders in our communities, in our companies, and in our homes. And we need leaders who can talk to each other across differences, lift one another up, and remind us that progress is never a solo act.

So, if you're asking what it takes to lead, I'd say start small. Lead yourself first:

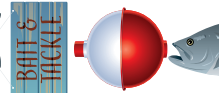

- Keep your promises, especially the ones you make to yourself.
- Take responsibility when things go wrong.
- Stay curious when the path isn't clear.
- Practice gratitude when criticism comes.

And remember: you don't have to change the world overnight. Sometimes leadership is simply showing up, again and again, in ways that matter. Sometimes it's asking a hard question in a meeting. Sometimes it's approaching someone in private. Sometimes it's offering encouragement to someone who thinks they've failed. Sometimes it's quietly making a decision others are afraid to make.

Leadership isn't glamorous. It's not always comfortable. But it is desperately needed. And the truth is, you may already be someone's leader without even knowing it.

So to the person who asked: don't be afraid of leadership. Embrace the challenge fully understanding that it's a hot kitchen to operate in. But if you lead with humility and courage, you won't just shape outcomes. You'll shape people. And that's the kind of legacy worth leaving.

View From The Bench

by John Adams, Jr.

This Country Needs Jesus and Sports

It sure seems like portions of our country have definitely lost their way, especially on extreme fringes. This has been sadly showcased recently with the assassination this summer in the Minneapolis area of Minnesota House Democratic caucus leader Melissa Hortman and her husband Mark; earlier that morning Democrat senator John Hoffman and his wife, Yvette, were also shot in their house by the same shooter but fortunately survived. Then on August 27th a mass shooting occurred at the Church of the Annunciation, also in Minneapolis, during a scheduled school-wide Mass attended by students and faculty of Annunciation Catholic School. Two children, Fletcher Merkel and Harper Moyski tragically died in the shooting while 21 others were injured, including 18 other students. Then, on September 10th, right-winged political activist Charlie Kirk was assassinated while speaking at a Turning Point USA event at Utah Valley State University. We also have had many other senseless acts of violence occur that are sadly far too many to mention in one article, these are the three that have really garnered the most national headlines.

These tragedies don't define a country, how you respond to them does, and sadly how the fringes of both political parties have responded has been despicable. Instead of trying to come together for a solution to why these senseless acts of violence continue to happen, we just want to point fingers at the other political party and blame them. With the Charlie Kirk shooting, the far left sadly did a victory lap when it was found out the shooter came from a conservative Mormon family who had guns in the house; later the far right did a victory lap when it was discovered the shooter held liberal beliefs and was romantically involved with a male who is transitioning to become a female. I ask the question, what does it matter? All that matters is that Charlie Kirk's wife and two children have to bury their husband and father this week. The same finger pointing happened in the Church shooting in Minneapolis, and I asked then, what does it matter? All that mattered was that those parents in Minneapolis had to bury their children several weeks ago, something a parent should never have to do, and those kids who survived have to live with that trauma the rest of their lives. The same goes with the shooters of the aforementioned tragedies, it doesn't matter their political beliefs, there are no damn winners in this when the end result is innocent people are dying. If we want to keep playing the blame game instead of coming up with a solution, these kinds of attacks are going to continue to happen.

What is the solution you ask? While I certainly don't have the answer, I know the best starting point is Jesus Christ. If we all would get back to trying to live like Jesus lived this world would be such a better place. While I know we can't be perfect like Jesus was, we certainly can try to love one another like Jesus loved us, and we certainly can give grace and forgiveness to one another like Jesus gives us daily. As John 15:12 says, "This is my command: Love one another as I have loved you." Notice it doesn't say to love only those who look, think and act just like you! Another great Bible verse to remember when you are having a hard time letting something go that someone has done to you, or when you come across something you don't agree with is Ephesians 4:32, "Be kind and compassionate to one another, forgiving each other, just as in Christ God forgave you."

Another great example for people to learn from comes from sports. I loved what Oregon head football coach Dan Lanning had to say after their game on Saturday night, "The US could learn a lot from our locker room, I think the people of this world could learn a lot from our locker room. You walk into that locker room and you got guys from different races, different backgrounds, different religions and you got a team that loves each other.... And I think we're missing some of that in our country." Lanning hit it on the head later in his press conference when he said, "life matters, and I think we've lost sight of that." He also went on to say that some people will disagree with him because he said too much about the topic, and some people will disagree with him because he didn't say enough about it, but if you disagree with him or even hate him, he still loves you and life matters. If we can come together and cheer for our favorite sports teams and not care at a game what the views are of the person next to us are, why can't we do that with the rest of our lives?

One last thing that I believe would help that many of these shooters have in common is that they spend a lot of time on social media and the internet in a "dark internet" culture that feeds into their extremism. Social media can be a cancer that continues to grow if you allow it to, as it just feeds the things that you already believe, and enforces your views even stronger. Use social media for good, follow people who are positive and bring good energy, and try to limit your screen time. If you are a parent, be sure to limit your child's screen time, and if they are gaming, be sure you know what they are playing and who they are playing with. I've gotten a little long-winded with this article, but felt like a lot of this needed to be written and hopefully heard. While I am so far from perfect, and so far from being Christ-like, I know that trying each day to live that way, while I may fail, will at least make those around me better; and if we all do that, slowly but surely, this country will change, one community at a time!

Spirit Lake K of C Tootsie Roll® Drive Nets Thousands for Persons with Intellectual Disabilities

The results are in and those Tootsie Rolls you might have received at Jennings Tow and Repair, Fareway, Wal-Mart, The Barefoot Bar or Bomgaars were part of a great cause. The local Knights of Columbus again distributed the sweet treats, with goodwill offerings benefiting persons with intellectual disabilities. Brian Nogleby, Knights of Columbus, accepts a donation from a young visitor at Wal Mart on Spirit Lake Labor Day Week-end.

The Knights of Columbus Tootsie Roll Drive is held annually, with most of the donations distributed to Hope Haven in Spirit Lake and Estherville. The funds will assist with the Hope Haven mission, including: "As followers of Christ, we unleash potential in people through work and life skills so that they may enjoy a productive life in their community." In addition, nearly a third of the funds were designated specifically for Special Olympics.

Iowa Great Lakes Council 5043 is one of the most active in Iowa, in the past few years contributing more than $30,000 to local community needs, including Hope Haven, Iowa Helping Hands Fund, American Wheelchair Mission, the Grotto of the Redemption, Cherish House, Guatemala Mission, Women of the Well Project, Prison Ministries, as well as to local family, community, and parish needs. Local Knights sponsor annual youth events including the Free Throw Competition, Spelling Bee, Coats for Kids, and the Keep Christ in Christmas Poster Contest.

In 1882, Blessed Michael McGivney, a young parish priest in New Haven, Connecticut, founded the Knights of Columbus to serve the needs of a largely immigrant Catholic community. What began as a small fraternal benefit society has since grown into one of the world's leading international charitable organizations, with more than 1.9 million members in over 16,000 local councils. In the past year Knights provided 285,000 children with winter coats, brought 243 U.S. service members to Lourdes on pilgrimage, and gave more than $325,000 to the formation of men and women pursuing a religious vocation.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

The publisher does not necessarily share the views/opinions stated in the "Letters to the Editor" published in The Lakes News Shopper.

Letter:

It is disheartening to learn of summer spikes in bacteria at 2/3's of Iowa's state beaches. Iowa is falling far short of managing our nutrient load including nitrite and phosphate runoff from our land and into our waterways. Not to mention, the eroding loss of our topsoil. Iowa's economic engine and the black gold among our natural resources.

Iowa's first in the nation per capita cancer mortality rate (and rising cancer trends) coupled with communities across the State having drinking water perpetually at risk are bad for business and a detriment to recruiting the skilled workforce Iowa needs to be competitive in the world marketplace.

The rhetoric and lack of urgency to address Iowa's water quality remains unchanged since the 1990s. Touting volunteer efforts and collaboration with farmers, landowners and partners conjure up the appearance that we are addressing water quality concerns with vigor. Yet, the water quality crisis continues with lackluster outcomes.

Every Iowan, on or off the farm, has a hand in the water quality problem and a role in the solution. That said, fertilizer, manure and agriculture contamination remain the biggest threats as noted by Sarah Howe of the Iowa Environmental Council.

Speaking as a farmer and landowner and without pointing fingers or playing the blame game, there are simple strategic adjustments that we can implement with our agriculture which will make a material improvement to our water and soil quality.

Cover crops, no-till, prairie strips, buffer strips along our waterways, precision agriculture, converting marginal-unprofitable crop acres to grass and grazing, restoring wetlands all lend to improving water and soil quality. Moreover, there is government funding to support these stewardship practices.

In short, a key component of Iowa's water quality fix is a simple statewide adjustment to our farming practices. We can no longer kick the can down the road...or float it downstream.

As Ben Franklin once noted, "when the well is dry, we know the worth of water." The same could be said if the well were poisoned.

Lakes Area Farmers Market News

Lakes Area Farmers Market is still open until the end of September. At that time, the marina starts moving boats into the building for winter storage. But some vendors will remain outside into October with a selection of vegetables and other items. Lots of fall vegetables are available at the Farmers Market. Now is the time to get some for use over the winter. Potatoes store for several months in a cool, dry place (not the refrigerator). Winter squash, such as acorn, butternut, and buttercup, also can be stored for several months. Tomatoes can be canned or frozen. Clean and freeze peppers or onions or, store onions in a cool, dry place. Carrots should be refrigerated. Besides vegetables, there is excellent sourdough bread, quick breads and bars, pickles and salsa, jelly, and honey. The farmers Market is located on the fairgrounds in Spirit Lake and is open Wednesday 3:30 to 7:00 PM and Saturday 7:30 AM to 12:00 noon. We hope to see you there.

Final Closure of Spencer and Lakes
Regional Oral and Maxillofacial Surgery

Spencer and Lakes Regional Oral and Maxillofacial Surgery is closing permanently. The office in Spirit Lake, Iowa, located at 3401 US HWY 71, will become unavailable as the practice prepares for its final closure. The Worthington, Minnesota, office at 507 S Shore Dr, will cease patient care after September 30, 2025.

Patients who wish to retrieve their records can do so by calling (712) 339-6008 or emailing info@slralsurgery.com. For future oral surgery needs, patients are advised to contact their dentist. In the event of a medical emergency, individuals should seek care at their local emergency department or call 911.

Dr. Karen K. Potaczek extended her gratitude to all patients for their trust over the past 11.5 years.

LRH Offers Free Guidance to Medicare Recipients

Help is available by appointment

It can cost you money not to review your Medicare Part D drug coverage annually. In one hour a Senior Health Insurance Information Program (SHIIP) counselor can complete a review and let you know if you can save money and make sure you have access to the medications you need.

SHIIP counselors Robert Emgarten, Dr. Brian Ford, Donna Gray, Barry Orness, and Betsy Tonsfeldt are available to help anyone newly eligible for Medicare or already on Medicare:

- Check current Part D or Medicare Advantage plans to make sure medications are covered at the lowest cost and with the least amount of restrictions
- Review employer drug coverage and compare to other Medicare options
- Check eligibility for Part D Extra Help
- Understand options if currently not enrolled in a drug plan

This is a great opportunity for people on Medicare to review and choose what coverage they want for 2026. Every year Medicare Part D and Medicare Advantage plans can change their premiums, deductibles, co-payments, benefits, and the drugs they cover. To avoid costly surprises on January 1, a free, confidential counseling appointment with a SHIIP volunteer may be beneficial. Appointments are being held at Lakes Regional Healthcare. Those with SHIIP appointments are encouraged to enter the hospital through Door A, which is the main door on the west side of the hospital off Highway 71.

Although counseling services are available year-round, the open enrollment period for Part D drug coverage and Medicare Advantage plans runs from October 15 through December 7. Those interested in scheduling an appointment can call 712-336-6698 and leave a message. A SHIIP Scheduler will then return the call to schedule an appointment.

Community Gathering to Honor the Life of Charles James Kirk

Arnolds Park, IA—On Thursday, September 18, 2025, friends, family, and community members will gather at Preservation Plaza in Arnolds Park for a special Public Remembering of Charlie Kirk. The event begins at 6:30 p.m. and will celebrate Charlie's life, message, and the legacy he started.

The evening program will include prayer, music, candle lighting, and reflections on Charlie's life. There will be biblical remarks, with the community being invited to join together in an open prayer to close the service.

"Charlie wasn't just mentor— he was a light in our community," said Leo Kinnetz, Turning Point USA member. "He had a way of bringing people together, no matter who you were. His message was simple: love God, love others, and live with purpose."

Kinnetz also added, "When I think of Charlie, I think of someone who stood firm in his faith and values, but still found time to laugh, encourage others, and live fully. That's the legacy he leaves with us."

Event Details:

- What: Public Remembering of Charles James Kirk
- When: Thursday, September 18, 2025 – 6:30 p.m.
- Where: Preservation Plaza, Arnolds Park, IA
- (Rain location will be the Majestic Pavilion)

The community is encouraged to attend, light a candle, and join in honoring the life and legacy of Charles James Kirk. We have rented a space at Arnolds Park, it keeps us as simply a host.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

The publisher does not necessarily share the views/opinions stated in the "Letters to the Editor" published in The Lakes News Shopper.

To the Editor:

It is Wednesday the 10th; as I am watching news coverage of Charlie Kirk's assassination. Charlie stood for all that is good. He loved his Saviour, he loved his family, and he had a passionate love for his country. I am in deep mourning not only for Charlie's death, but for the demise of this country. Charlie was an advocate for free speech and devoted his time on college campuses willingly having discourse with any student who wanted to question him. He epitomized "Come let us reason together." He was bold enough to stand up for the values this country was built on. For this he was killed. Fear is the enemy that silences truth. Have we become a country that no longer wants to hear truth? There is an element of poison in this beloved nation that will destroy us if we do not stand up against it. It is up to me and you to do something about it. The killer meant this for evil, but God will use it in a mighty way for good.

Spirit Lake Library News

Doin' The Shelf Shuffle
by Jill Jennings

The next time you stop by the Spirit Lake Public Library, don't get discouraged if you struggle to find an author or a series in the place where you last remember seeing them. To make room for new items and to organize the library a little better we have been shuffling things around. Some books might be just down a shelf, and others might be in an entirely new section.

One of the places we recently did a little rearranging is in the Large Print section. In order to make it easier to find the large print non-fiction books that we have in our collection, we have pulled them out of the adult non-fiction, and created a new large print non-fiction section within the Large Print area. Those books are now located where the Cozy Mysteries used to live. Everything along that south wall has shifted to the left: Cozy Mystery, Christian Mystery, Historical, and Christian. On the east wall, you will find Amish and Western. Heads up if you are a Louis L'Amour fan: those books are now shelved in the regular print adult fiction section. Look for the spine label LAM. If you need assistance you can always ask for help from one of the friendly staff at the SLPL.

Another area that has been shuffled a bit is the Juvenile Graphic Novels. We keep adding more titles, so the collection now wraps around the second bookcase. Again, if you need help finding a book, just let us know!

Did you know that we have puzzles that you can borrow or exchange? We have shifted the adult non-fiction books to make room for a designated puzzle section. This will make it so much easier to see the different designs because they will be all in one place!

SLPL staff reading spotlight: Breanna is listening to Verse and Vengeance by Amanda Flower on Libby, and reading Broken Beta by Caliope Stewart.

Jane Louise Joens, daughter of Donald and Doris (Wedeking) Cother, was born on April 22, 1947, in Estherville, Iowa. She was raised in Estherville and Pasadena, California, and later moved back to the area, where she dedicated her life to caring for others as a home health aide.

Jane made her home in Iowa for much of her life and was a faithful member of the Baptist Church. Obituary

Judy Kay Gerard
November 28, 1943 – January 28, 2025

Judy Kay Gerard, a devoted wife, loving mother and grandmother, cherished sister, and treasured friend, passed away peacefully on January 28, 2025, in San Jose, California, at the age of 81.

Born in Spencer, Iowa, on November 28, 1943, daughter of James and Jenny (James) Olson, her early childhood was spent on a farm southeast of Milford. Judy was known from a young age for her warmth, curiosity, and deep caring for others. She started attending Milford Community School in 1949, graduating with the class of 1962, with whom she kept in touch and helped reunite through helping to organize many class reunions. Judy attended the University of Iowa, where she earned her degree in Business and Accounting in 1967. It was there she met her future husband, Evan Gerard.

After graduating, Judy moved to California and was employed by GRT, General Recording Technology. Evan was employed in Germany, and when Judy joined Evan there, they were married..... twice on November 23, 1970.

Later that same year, Judy and Evan moved to California to begin their life together. They were then blessed with two sons, Jamie and Jason. Evan's employment called the family back to West Berlin, Germany. Judy would often share about living in West Germany before The Wall was taken down. Whether for Evan's work or simply for the joy of travel, the two shared a life rich in experience, culture and an adventurous nature they passed on to their sons and granddaughter.

In their Campbell, California, home, Judy was active with the boys' activities in school and sports and was an avid "soccer mom." She was employed with the local school system as a Language Testing Technician for a number of years. Every summer, Judy would hear her Iowa Roots calling her home. She and Evan would spend time in Iowa, visiting family and friends, working on the family genealogy, and making wonderful memories.

Judy was a woman of many talents and deep passions. Her hobbies included scrapbooking, oil painting, gardening, cooking, reading, genealogy, and cheering on her favorite sports teams. She was definitely an Iowa Hawkeye Fan and loved Bing candy bars. She had a unique gift for turning everyday moments into meaningful memories. Her creativity and warmth left a lasting mark on everyone around her.

Above all, Judy will be remembered for her genuine kindness, her empathy, and her unwavering love for her family. She inspired those around her to live fully, to love deeply, and to lead with compassion.

Left to remember her with love are her beloved husband, Evan Gerard; their sons, Jamie (Adrianna) Gerard and Jason (Maria) Gerard; her granddaughter, Freia Gerard; and her siblings, Jean Roberts, Leann Groth-Olson, Mick (Dorothy Ann) Olson, and nephews. Her memory will live on in their hearts and in the countless lives she touched with her grace and generosity.

She lived a beautiful life, full of love, light, and laughter, and will be deeply missed.

Family and friends are invited to attend a Celebration of Life to honor Judy Olson Gerard to be held Saturday, September 20, 2025, at Faith Community Church Memorial Room from 2-4 pm with a program scheduled at 2:30 pm. Judy passed away on January 28, 2025, in San Jose, California.

A Celebration of Life for Donna Muilenburg will be held on Saturday, September 20, from 4 to 7 pm at Annabelle's Tea Room, located inside Donna's Gift Shop at The Wash House in West Okoboji.

Obituary

Donna Lorraine Muilenburg, age 89, of West Okoboji, passed away July 10, 2025. Donna was the daughter of John and Lorena (Gilson) Obman. She was the middle child and was born in the old Carroll, Iowa, hospital on February 28, 1936. She was baptized March 22, 1936, at Peace Lutheran Church in Wall Lake, Iowa. As a child, Donna's family lived on a farm near Albert City, where she attended Lincoln Lee School. The family moved to a farm near Sulphur Springs before finally settling in Rembrandt, Iowa, when Donna was in 6th grade. She was confirmed at St. John Lutheran Church in Storm Lake, Iowa, on June 18, 1950. Donna graduated from Rembrandt High School in 1954. She attended Buena Vista College in Storm Lake, Iowa, and received her two-year teaching degree.

On November 25, 1956, Donna was united in marriage to Melvin Charles Rossiter at St. John Lutheran Church. Donna and Melvin settled in the Spencer, Iowa, area to farm. Two children, Lisa and Randy, were born to this union. In November 1959, Donna was widowed at the age of 23 with a two-year-old and a four-month-old after Melvin died in a farm accident. Donna and the children moved back to her parent's farm in Rembrandt, where she continued to take college courses to finish her four-year teaching degree.

In April 1966, Donna was introduced by mutual friends to Earl Lee Muilenburg of Hartley, Iowa. This blind date turned out to be a success. Donna and Earl were married on September 18, 1966, at Faith Lutheran Church in Sioux Rapids, Iowa. They purchased the Muilenburg farm from Earl's parents and began their life together. Michael was born in 1969, and four years later the family was complete with the arrival of Ann.

Donna kept busy running the household and helping out on the farm. In 1978 she decided to open a small gift shop on the farm in her mother-in-law's old washhouse building. A friend once told her every hobby should make a profit, and she took that to heart. Due to Donna's talent and determination, the shop on the farm was successful, and she decided that she needed to expand. She moved her business to the Lakes area in the mid 1980s. After renting for a short time, she decided that she needed to buy something. The opportunity arose when the old White Oaks bait shop in West Okoboji came up for sale, and she bought it.

Donna always enjoyed doing big projects, and at age 60 she decided to expand her business again by moving the old Milford hospital and renovating it to be her gift shop. She also added a tea room. Ten years later she moved an 1870s farmhouse to create the Okoboji County Inn. The last step was to move the original Muilenburg farmhouse to West Okoboji. She enjoyed living the last 19 years here and being close to her businesses.

Donna was active in Altar Guild and Bible study as well as being a 4th grade Sunday school teacher for many years at St. Paul's Lutheran church in Hartley. After moving to the West Okoboji area, she became a member of Immanuel Lutheran Church in Spirit Lake.

Donna enjoyed playing the card game Golf and somehow ended up with the most aces and kings. Sequence was another favorite game, and she was always team yellow. She was an excellent cook and loved to try new recipes and was known for her cinnamon rolls, homemade noodle soup, quiches, and cold strawberry soup. Donna was the best hostess and loved interacting with her customers and guests. Her greatest joy was visiting Sanibel Island, Florida, with family every spring. She loved the beach and could sit there for hours.

Donna's life is honored and celebrated by her children: Lisa, Randy (Sarah), Michael (Karen), and Ann; her grandchildren: Chelsey and Jason Rossiter, and Makayla and Jacob Muilenburg; her great-grandsons: Easton and Jack; and her brothers: Kenneth and Richard (Eloise). She was also a beloved aunt to many nieces and nephews, and she always appreciated their visits and phone calls. She will also be so missed by her spoiled 19-year-old cat, Henry.

Donna was preceded in death by her first husband, Melvin; her husband of 50 years, Earl; her parents, John and Lorena; her sister, Phyllis (Don) Thayer; her brother, Dale Obman; sisters-in-law, Joan and Jean Obman; father-in-law and mother-in-law, Isaac and Alice Muilenburg; mother-in-law, Helen Rossiter; and niece, Julie Obman.

If you want to pay tribute or honor Donna's memory, support your local small businesses, especially if they are woman-owned. A celebration of life for Donna Muilenburg will be held on Saturday, September 20, from 4 to 7 pm at Annabelle's Tea Room, located inside Donna's gift shop at The Wash House, in West Okoboji. A private family burial will be held at a later date at Pleasant View Cemetery in Hartley, Iowa.

2 tablespoons dried dill

Preheat oven to lowest temperature. Pour 1 inch oil into a large cast-iron or other thick-bottomed skillet. Turn heat to medium low. Place the flour in a shallow pan. Sprinkle half the steak seasoning over flour, and mix together. Cut steak into 1-inch strips. Add the rest of the steak seasoning, rubbing into each piece. Turn heat to medium on skillet. Place each strip in the flour mix, then into the milk and egg mix, then back into the flour. Shake off excess and place each strip on a plate. Repeat until all strips are coated. Sprinkle a few drops flour over oil. If it sizzles, it's ready to fry. Using tongs or a fork, place strips side by side in hot oil. Don't crowd the pan, or it will cool the oil. After about 2 to 3 minutes, when strips start to brown on bottom, turn over. When second side is brown, remove and place on a cooling rack that has been set on a cookie sheet. Set the sheet in the preheated oven. Repeat until all fingers are cooked. In a bowl, whisk together all dipping sauce ingredients.

IOWA LAKES CORRIDOR DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION

New Laborshed Details Regional Labor Pool

The Iowa Lakes Corridor Development Corporation (Corridor) and Iowa Workforce Development announced the updated “Laborshed” reports for Buena Vista, Clay, Dickinson, and Emmet Counties for 2025.

Conducted every three years, the “Laborshed” study provides detailed information about workforce availability, occupations, wages, benefits and commuting patterns. Iowa Workforce Development estimates that there are 121,803 workers in the Corridor “Laborshed,” defined as the area or region from which an employment center draws its commuting workers. This is an increase of 5,000 over the 2022 estimate. Data is based on mail surveys of businesses in the region and phone call surveys of residents.

“Workforce data and commuting patterns from the Iowa Workforce Development Laborshed reports are important to both existing businesses and potential industry in the Iowa Lakes Corridor Region,” said Corridor President & CEO Curt Strouth. “In our Business Retention & Expansion visits and other conversations with business leadership, workforce is always a topic. Being able to put numbers to these conversations is helpful as we support business and community growth and develop local programming.”

Businesses in the Iowa Lakes Corridor Region draw workers from as far as Brunsville in the west, Fort Dodge in the east, Windom, Minn. to the north and Wall Lake to the south. The employed are currently commuting an average of 12 minutes one way.

Wholesale & Retail Trade is the largest employer industry in the region. Approximately 19,549 people (16.5 percent of the workforce) are employed in Wholesale & Retail Trade, consistent with 16.4 percent reported in 2022. In comparison, the percentage of people employed in healthcare increased from 12.7 percent to 15.8 percent. Other major industries are Manufacturing (11.4 percent of the workforce) and Transportation (8.1 percent).

Among survey respondents, 7.4 percent described themselves as unemployed. This is different than the amount published by the U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics, which applies to a stricter definition for unemployment. 63.1 percent of these individuals are likely to accept an employment opportunity, and 1 in 4 employed people say they would be willing to change employment for the right opportunity.

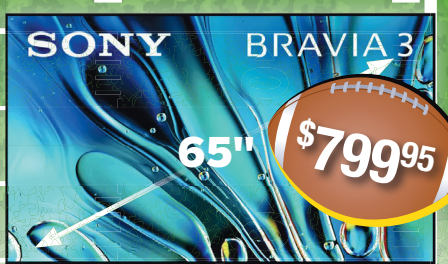

Laborshed reports for the region and the communities of Estherville, Spencer, Spirit Lake and Storm Lake are available on the Iowa Lakes Corridor Development Corporation website, <http://lakescorridor.com/>, or by email at info@lakescorridor.com.

The TOPS program on September 19 will be given by Ruth Ann Van Donslear by TOPS Reporter, Colleen M. Lemkuil, Nurse and Health Educator.

The group will meet at 10 AM for the pledge, roll call, and then the program will be given by Ruth Ann Van Donslear, a KOPS member of the Spirit Lake Chapter. KOPS means Keeping Off Pounds Sensibly. Ruth Ann attends the weekly meetings to maintain her weight and has not gained weight in 20 years. She believes we need to be drinking 6 to 8 glasses of water a day for good health. 8-8 ounces of water is needed daily. Take care of your water daily.
Weigh-in will start at 9 AM. Leader Betty Sangel will greet you at the United Methodist Church of Spirit Lake, Iowa. The address is 1812 Gary Ave., which is one block east of the Dickinson County Courthouse. New members are welcome. Call Betty Sangel at 712-320-4458. For more information, go to www.tops.org.
Earlier this month, the lesson taught by Colleen Lemkuil and Ruth Ann Van Donslear was on exercise. The Yes, yes for September is to do the TOPS magazine exercises called “Frightfully Fit: Fantastic Moves for Bone Health”. We will also be participating in the Family Fun Bingo all month of September. The picture is of Colleen Lemkuil riding her bike for 30 minutes and 3 miles on the bike trail west of West Okoboji. We have wonderful bike trails in our area. Walk or ride a bike on our great trails. Some of our members walk dogs. Some play pickleball and others do water exercise at Cutty's Resort on the west side of West Okoboji. Exercise is important for weight loss and good health.

Community Health Center of Spencer Welcomes Dr. Daniel S. Garner, DMD, to Expanding Dental Team

Community Health Center of Spencer is pleased to announce the addition of Dr. Daniel S. Garner, DMD to its growing dental team. Dr. Garner brings a wealth of experience in general dentistry and a deep commitment to community-based care, and he is now accepting new patients.
A 1997 graduate of the University of Pittsburgh School of Dental Medicine, Dr. Garner has been practicing dentistry for over 25 years, offering a comprehensive range of services with a focus on preventive care and promoting lifelong oral health for patients of all ages.
In addition to his long-standing private practice in Pittsburgh, PA, Dr. Garner has dedicated much of his career to serving underserved populations. He helped establish the Hilltop Community Healthcare Center in Pittsburgh, has provided free dental care through the Donated Dental Services program in Western Pennsylvania, and supported global missions by helping launch dental care services in some of the most impoverished regions of Haiti through Heaven's Family Missions. He currently volunteers with the AFICF Free Clinic.
Dr. Garner's dedication to accessible, high-quality dental care aligns with the mission of Community Health Center of Spencer, where he will be offering a wide range of services—from routine checkups and cleanings to restorative treatments and patient education.
“We are thrilled to welcome Dr. Garner to our team,” said Renae Kruckenberg, CEO of Community Health Center. “His experience and heart for service will be a tremendous asset to our patients and our community.”
Community Health Center of Spencer is a federally qualified health center operating under the umbrella of Community Health Center of Fort Dodge, Inc. They provide comprehensive medical, dental, and behavioral health services to individuals and families, regardless of insurance status. They accept Medicare, Medicaid, most major insurance and offer a sliding-fee scale to those who qualify based on income and household size.
Appointments with Dr. Garner are currently being accepted by calling 712-232-4300

2025 Clay County Fair by the Numbers

Spencer, Iowa — Over the nine days of the 2025 Clay County Fair, powered by SMU, thousands of visitors once again filled the fairgrounds, making memories that will last a lifetime. Fairgoers from across the region came together to enjoy everything from thrilling grandstand entertainment to one-of-a-kind food creations, livestock competitions, and hands-on agricultural exhibits.
“Each year, the Clay County Fair showcases an incredible variety of talent, and our open class exhibitors were a shining example of that in 2025,” said CEO Jason Brockshus. “From the dedication of our exhibitors to the enthusiasm of our Grandstand crowds, it's always rewarding to see our community and visitors come together to create something truly memorable.”
The 2025 Clay County Fair's success can be seen in several key areas:
Youth Involvement
· 774 4-H and FFA exhibitors from 53 counties across Iowa, Minnesota, and South Dakota showcased their hard work in livestock and human sciences events.
· Approximately 1,145 third- and fourth-grade students from 15 regional schools took part in the Fair's educational opportunities through the AgCiting and SciCiting field trip programs, coordinated by ISU Extension and Outreach — Clay County.
Exhibitor Participation
· 457 unique commercial exhibitors, concessionaires, and vendors from 36 states were part of this year's Fair, including 150 agriculture-specific exhibitors. This helped the Clay County Fair maintain its title as the largest farm machinery and ag equipment show at any fair in the United States.
· Of these, 51 were new vendors, adding fresh variety and excitement to the Fairgrounds.
· 1,248 exhibitors entered open-class livestock and non-livestock competitions, with a combined 10,399 total entries, highlighting the depth of talent and dedication in the open-class divisions.
Attendance
· Grandstand shows drew 15,540 attendees, with highlights including Jeff Dunham, All-Star Monster Trucks, and Bulls & Broncs, which brought in some of the largest crowds of the week.
· Total Fair attendance for 2025 reached 316,242. Please note this figure is an early estimate, as the Fair is still awaiting reports from a few advance admission ticket locations.
As the 2025 Clay County Fair wraps up, the organization would like to extend heartfelt thanks to everyone who made this year's Fair possible. From volunteers and program directors to exhibitors, vendors, and sponsors—your dedication and hard work brought the Fair to life. The Clay County Fair looks forward to welcoming even more visitors and creating lasting memories in the years to come.
