We hope you all had a wonderful Thanksgiving with loved ones. Our public meeting schedule adjourns only for the month of December. We will return in January and will run through June. Our January, February and March calendars are already on our website.

CITY OF NEW YORK
DEPARTMENT OF SANITATION
SNOW LABORERS

While I am not hoping for a heavy snow season, we must prepare. The City of New York Department of Sanitation is hiring snow laborers. Register now at <https://www.nyc.gov/site/dsny/careers/civilians/emergency-snow-shovelers.page> to become an Emergency Snow Shoveler. You will earn $19.14/hour. You must be at least 18 years old and able to perform heavy physical labor.

DID YOU KNOW?

According to constituents that are contacting our office, there is alleged license plate theft in our community. As always, please be sure to lock your car doors. Do not leave your car running with the keys inside. Always check the front and back of your vehicles to make sure your license plates are still affixed to your car. This is disappointing news to share. We know already that residents are reporting that their wheels, airbags and catalytic converters are stolen overnight. If you need assistance reaching out to the 45th Precinct's sector offices, kindly contact me. Lastly, please make sure that city streetlights are working properly. Lighting is our best deterrent. Call 311 immediately if the streetlight near your home is off.
