GET YOUR AIR DUCTS CLEANED

Air Duct Cleaning by Ron Cochran of Stanley Steemer

Furnace cleaning is invaluable to the way your home breathes and performs. NADCA recommends you should clean your air ducts every 3-5 years. Depending on the situation of your home, that number can change. Air ducts are the lungs of your home - whatever they breathe in, you breathe in too. If you're not convinced air duct cleaning is necessary, check out these 5 reasons why the investment is worth it.

1. It also gets rid of dirt, dust mites and allergens.
2. Reduces air pollution in your home.
3. Helps increase the efficiency of your HVAC system.
4. Refreshes a home you may be buying, selling or renovating.
5. Helps save money on repairs and utility expenses.

Winter is a great time for tree care

Northwest Indiana-I spent a lot of time this past spring and summer watching one of the regions top residential tree service at work. Day in and day out they were booked with many customers to service sometimes even taking 3 to 4 weeks to get them to the top of the schedule. While its a good thing to be in high demand and very busy, but it can have its draw backs too. I thought to myself, why do so many people fail to consider trimming and removing trees in the wintertime when the prices are lower and the trees are dormant. At least when you go to the doctor and have a procedure done they give you some sort of "anesthetic" to numb the pain. This makes me think of trimming and cutting the trees in the spring and summer when the tree has no kind of "anesthetic" and its wounds just sit open prone to insects and infections. This is why I am a firm believer in wintertime is the best time. When you trim the trees while they are dormant you have a much better result in the spring when it's growth is in full swing. Not to mention the costs will be less in the winter as opposed to the other 3 seasons. Equipment can do a significant less amount of damage to the yard when the ground is frozen and the clean up can be easier too. It makes much more sense to have your trees removed and trimmed in the winter.

Priced-Rite Tree Service is Northwest Indiana's highest rated tree service according to the many sites on the web. They provide complete and professional tree care services in the winter and offer free estimates 6 days a week.

"It makes much more sense to have your trees removed and trimmed in the winter."

A Few Techniques for Trimming Trees in the Winter

Crown Thinning-by removing branches within the crown this will provide a better shape and increase the trees overall health by providing more light and air movement. Dead and weak branches will be removed. Younger trees respond to this technique very well in the winter when it is dormant.

Crown Raising-by removing low branches of the tree this allows more height clearance under the tree.

Crown Cleaning-by carefully selecting and removing of the dead, dying and diseased branches from the trees crown you will have a healthier, stronger, safer and all around better looking tree.

The Best Houseplants for Air Purification

Eight Houseplants for Indoor Air Quality

The snake plant is a low-maintenance houseplant with thick, sword-shaped leaves in a striking banded pattern.

The rubber tree absorbs and neutralizes airborne chemicals like trichloroethylene, formaldehyde, carbon monoxide, and benzene in your home. Even better, it thrives in bright indirect light, making it perfect near a window.

The schefflera tree brings lush, dense green foliage with oval-shaped leaves in overlapping patterns to your room corners.

The areca palm is a large houseplant that grows upright and then spreads outward from the base. It has arching fronds, bowing stems, and pinnate leaves that move beautifully with the slightest breeze.

The ZZ plant has shiny dark green leaves that grow on slender stems into a zig-zag pattern, catching the light in interesting ways throughout the day.

The fiddle leaf fig tree if you want a huge houseplant for air purification, you can't beat this. It can grow up to 10 feet indoors with a relatively narrow spread, so it'll reach your ceiling without encroaching into your usable living space.

Dracaena plants have a tropical, tree-like appearance with spiky, ruffled leaves and narrow stems that move gracefully with a breeze.

Monstera deliciosa is a stunning tropical houseplant with large, glossy leaves and distinctive natural leaf holes called fenestrations.

The Shellfish-Loving American Oystercatcher

The American Oystercatcher is a strange-looking, but very cool bird. It is a fairly large shorebird, and it lives most of its life along saltwater beaches and shorelines – so you won't see it here in Indiana. It has a jet black head, neck and breast, and its wings and back are a dark brown color. It has a bright white belly and underparts. Its long bill is bright orange – almost red. Its eye is a deep yellow color and it has a bright red eye-ring which is hard to forget.

This bird is called an oystercatcher because oysters, clams, mussels and other shellfish make up the vast majority of its diet. It is surprisingly adept at finding and opening these bivalve mollusks, too. Oystercatchers move along the beach or oyster bar very slowly until they see a clam or oyster underwater that is slightly open. Then they stab their long bill into the opening and quickly cut the muscle that holds the two halves of the shell together. Once this is done, they can eat the meat inside at their leisure.

The American oystercatcher prefers to forage and nest on small barrier islands where there are no predators like raccoons (and others). Small mangrove islands are ideal, as long as they have areas of dry sand where the birds can nest, and shallow waters with plenty of mollusks and shellfish.

American Oystercatchers can be found all along the Gulf Coast and most of the East Coast in the United States. They are also found throughout the Caribbean and the coasts of Central America and Mexico, too. You might see one on your next trip to Florida!

Times of Restitution of All Things

The world seeks peace and restitution from evil done to them, generation after generation. Yet neither force nor laws truly bring satisfaction to any yearning heart. However, the desire of all nations will be met by God in due time. (Acts 3:21 and Haggai 2:7)

"Ransom and Restitution", a topical Bible study, leads to an understanding of God's Plan for His timing and requirements for peace to come to all mankind. We invite you to use the links below to this study. You can email/write to us for details on obtaining the book The Divine Plan of the Ages for this and 15 other topical studies.

To all my Customers of 40 years

I opened Kubiak's Service in St. John when I was 20 years old!

I serviced St. John and all the surrounding towns for the last 40 years. It was my privilege to work on your vehicle. I had a great time running this business and made a great living. I loved all my customers over the years. I am going to personally miss all of you who made Kubiak Service thrive over all other shops in the area.

As always good things come to an end. It has come time for me to enjoy life of retirement along with my fiance' Shari Foreman.

I decided to pass on my legacy to Jason Smith with M & M Car Care Center who will take over the shop in January 2026.

To everybody I have serviced over the years and have supported me...

THANK YOU for Everything!

Joe Kubiak

P.S. I'm sure M & M Car Care Center will give you the same "High Quality Work" that I gave to you.

Here's what's Cookin'

By Phyllis Hays, #11 with Trixie

Stromboli

1 (10 ounce) package pizza crust dough
 ½ pound lean ground beef
 1 (14 ounce) jar pizza sauce
 1 cup cooked ham, diced
 1 medium green bell pepper, chopped
 1 medium red onion, finely chopped

1 (4.5 ounce) can mushrooms, drained
 1 (8 ounce) package sliced pepperoni sausage
 1 cup shredded mozzarella cheese
 ¼ cup butter, melted

Preheat oven to 400° F (200° C). Grease an 10x15x1-inch baking pan; set aside. Cook and stir ground beef in a large skillet over medium heat until browned, 5 to 7 minutes. Drain off and discard grease. Add pepper and onion to skillet. Cook over medium heat, stirring occasionally until vegetables are tender, about 5 minutes. Remove from heat.

Stir in ham, mushrooms and pizza sauce. Set aside. Unroll pizza crust onto prepared baking pan. Pat dough to a 9 x13-inch rectangle. Lay half of the pepperoni lengthwise over half over the crust to within 1/2-inch of the edge. Spoon meat mixture over the pepperoni. Top with cheese and remaining pepperoni. Fold dough over filling. Pinch ends and sides together with your fingers to seal in the filling. Poke holes in the top with the tip of a sharp knife. Brush with melted butter. Bake in a preheated oven for 20 minutes or until golden brown. Let stand for 10 minutes before serving. Cut into four portions. Enjoy!

"The Aisle Seat"

by Tim Fealy

As you know, Rob Reiner unexpectedly died a tragic death. I had forgotten just how many of my favorite movies for which he is responsible. So, this month, I want to highlight some of my many favorites. Seeing a beloved movie is like visiting with an old friend. So, here is a list of old friends to reconnect with.

In "Stand By Me," a group of boys go off on an adventure through the woods to find a dead body. Based on a story by Stephen King, this is among the very best coming-of-age movies. You will enjoy the journey as you get to learn about each boy and the lives they lead. It will also make you nostalgic for your own childhood friends.

One of my favorite films is "The Princess Bride." A grandfather reads a fairy tale to his sick grandson, who is at first not interested in stories about princesses. But, as the tale of pirates and giants and sword fighting unfolds, we are as captivated as the sick boy in wanting to hear more. With so many memorable lines and scenes, this film is best viewed with a group of friends or family.

Romantic comedies are a long tradition in Hollywood. Among the very best is "When Harry Met Sally." We get to know each of the characters as they share a ride from Chicago to New York and then through chance encounters over a decade. At the core of the movie is the question, Can men and women really ever be just friends or will the thought of sex get in the way? As with many Rob Reiner films, there is a classic scene in a diner that makes the highlight reel of the greatest movie moments ever!

For my ratings, all of these films get $10 and are all fabulous. Other Rob Reiner movies which are equally amazing are "This is Spinal Tap," "A Few Good Men," "The American President" and "The Sure Thing." The movie subjects and genres vary widely. The one thing that remains consistent is the story telling and the character development. You want to know these people and be part of their stories. Enjoy your time visiting these old friends.

Keep Up Healthy Habits in the New Year!

Here are some winter diet and exercise tips to show you how to stay healthy and fit during winter's colder months:

Calm Your Carb Cravings

The cold season tends to ignite our cravings for more carbs and comfort foods. Why? After you consume these delicious treats, your serotonin levels rise, making your brain think you are happier. And as the day wears on, your carb cravings get stronger and stronger.

Try eating a protein-packed breakfast to keep your energy levels up throughout the day. If by the time the afternoon rolls around you're still craving sweets or carbs, be sure to have low-fat and healthy snacks on hand. However, if you can, finding a way to increase your serotonin levels without food is the best way to beat the carb cravings.

Add Omega 3 Fatty Acids

Omega 3 fatty acids are a healthy type of fat that are naturally found in many food types including fish, plant seeds and nuts. Omega 3 fatty acids are great for reducing joint pain and stiffness as they are a natural anti-inflammatory. Studies have also shown that omega 3 fatty acids help lower levels of depression, which people commonly feel during the shorter days of winter.

Eat More Fiber

Soluble fiber found in apples, oats and nuts is an important way to decrease inflammation and boost immune system function.

Soluble fiber also helps reduce cholesterol levels in the body and aids in weight loss and protection against diabetes.

Eat More Green and Orange Vegetables

Sticking primarily to vegetables and fruits that are dark green and orange is important in ensuring you're getting healthy nutrients, sugars and fats. Spinach, kale, Swiss chard, squash, carrots and oranges are all delicious during the winter.

Cook With Spices

Onions, garlic, ginger and cilantro are the perfect items to add flavor to your dishes. Not only do they make food taste great, but they're also shown to help improve immune function. Turmeric is a spice traditionally used in Chinese and Indian medicine.

Plan Your Exercises a Week in Advance

Try to stick to a weekly exercise plan so you don't put off your regular exercise activities. On Sunday night, write down your exercise schedule for the next seven days. Choose your exact workout routines, activities or exercises for each day and how long they will be.

Workout at Home

If you have no desire to head outdoors for your workout, then never fear. There are plenty of resources online that supply fun workout videos and exercises. These resources offer a variety of workouts including yoga, strength training, aerobics and other body-weight exercises. Check out Pinterest for tons of great resources so you can get fit in the comfort of your own living room.
