Keshequa Makes It Six In A Row

Middle School Team

Jacob James, Jillian Mitchell, Adam Hunt, A. J. Batlle

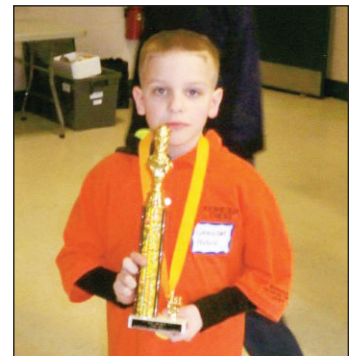

Losing 3 of their top five players from last year, things did not look good for another repeat. When Dansville won the first match 9-6 in December it looked like a new champion would be crowned in March. However, Keshequa won the next two matches.

In the playoff match, Keshequa took a narrow lead in round 1 and gradually increased it throughout the match, winning Keshequa 11, Dansville 4, Geneseo 0. Fourth grader Graham Howe won all five of his games to capture the individual championship over Dansville's Gabe Doe who finished with 3 wins and a draw. Keshequa's Joshua James finished with 3 wins, fourth place Keshequa 2nd grader Joel Mitchell with 2 wins and a draw.

In the intermediate division, Keshequa rallied in the final round to nose out Dansville and Geneseo 6-5-4. Landon Helms edged Geneseo's Will Chanler for top honors. Dansville's Jackson Zangerle and Peter Frisiras finished 3rd and 4th respectively.

The Keshequa Middle School won by forfeit to make it seven years in a row. Keshequa had defeated Dansville in three previous encounters. Ninth grader A. J. Batlle repeated as individual champion, Josh James 2nd, Jillian Mitchell 3rd and Adam Hunt 4th.

Graham Howe, 2016 BOCES Elementary Champion

Elementary and Middle School

Row 1: Caleb Carroll, Tyler Urban, Austin Sobal, Aidan Costello, Jack Ochs.
Row 2: Skylar Hamilton, Graham Howe, Lenus Carroll, Devon Hamilton, Landon Helms, Marcus Urban.
Row 3: Dru Jeffords, Joel Mitchell, Reese Seiwel, Jillian Mitchell, Teddy Rodwell.
Row 4: Adam Hunt, A. J. Batlle, Jacob James, Mr. Schoenacker.

Dansville took the beginner division over Keshequa 8-7. 1st Kyle Regatuso (D) - 2nd Tyler Urban (K) - 3rd Reese Seiwel (K) - 4th tie Kylie Regale (D) - Sawyer Wightman (D).

4th Round Game between Keshequa's Graham Howe and Dansville's Gabe Doe. In background, Geneseo's Will Schiener having just defeated Keshequa's Austin Sobal.

To the Residents of the Keshequa School District

TIMOTHY F. STOUFER

Is a candidate for the Keshequa Central School Board

- Involved Nunda resident since 1973
- Parent of 2 Keshequa graduates, and grandparent of 2 current KCS Students
- Retired Court Attorney for Livingston County
- Previous KCS board member, and past president

I believe that today's students are facing new challenges, as the result of technological, economic, and demographic changes in our community. In order to meet these challenges, our district must plan creatively with the input and support of our community.

Working together with the current school board, teachers, administrators, and community members, I will help give our students the framework they need to move forward with confidence and success.

I would appreciate your vote on May 17.

Thank you,
Tim Stoufer

The sudden passing of Peggy Cipriano

on April 14, 2016 was not only a shock to my family, but also to our many friends and relatives who came together as only a small community can do to support us at this most difficult time.

We would like to express our sincere thank you for the outpouring of sympathy cards, food, flowers, donations to St. Patrick's Cemetery and support at our home, calling hours and funeral service.

A special thank you to Bill D'Angelo of John W. Martin Funeral Home.

A special thank you goes to Marty Estruch, Patrick and family of the Genesee River Hotel. We were served fine food at the gathering afterward.

Many thanks to Father Ed Dillon for his inspirational Mass and homily.

We also thank the Mount Morris Police, Ambulance and all our friends and family.

New Director of Economic Development Announced

The Livingston County Board of Supervisors is pleased to announce the appointment of Mr. William Bacon as the County's new Director of Economic Development. Mr. Bacon is a resident of Dansville and has worked for Five Star Bank for 15 years as a Commercial Lender. He has served on the Livingston County Chamber of Commerce Board as Past President, the Dansville Area Chamber of Commerce as Past President and the United Way of Livingston County as both a Board Member and a Campaign Chair.

At the April 13th Livingston County Board of Supervisors meeting, Mr. Bacon was unanimously appointed to the position, welcomed with applause and was invited to speak to the Board. He stated, "Our County provides a wonderful and complementary blend of existing strengths and opportunities to be recognized and celebrated. It is incumbent upon me to identify, address and overcome weaknesses and threats which lie on our path toward further success and growth."

Phil Brooks, Chairman of the Livingston County Industrial Development Agency (IDA) Board says, "We are very excited with the appointment of Bill Bacon as our new Director. Bill's outstanding professional career, his knowledge of economic development, and his commitment to the people of Livingston County set the stage for strong leadership assisting the business we have today and a keen eye for the business and jobs of the future."

In addition to past service with local Chambers and the United Way, Mr. Bacon is a member of the Dansville Rotary Club and the Treasurer of the Dansville Economic Development Corporation. He received a Bachelor of Science Degree in Business Management from St. John Fisher College with a concentration in Finance and a Minor in Economics. Mr. Bacon has been a member of the Livingston County IDA board for 13 years.

Laura Lane, Executive Director of the Livingston County Chamber of Commerce stated, "We are so pleased that Bill will be heading up economic development for the county. His years of business development experience in the banking industry, coupled with his years of involvement with the Chamber, as director and board chair, will serve him well as he works to bring new business to the area and grow the existing business base. HOMESCHOOL FAMILIES INVITED TO GCC MEDINA CAMPUS

~ Informational Session Set for May 18, 2016 ~

BATAVIA, NY (04/20/2016)--Genesee Community College invites homeschooled students and their parents to the Medina Campus Center on Wednesday, May 18, 2016 from 6 - 8 p.m. to learn about GCC's exciting opportunities for students who are homeschooled. Key college staff members who work with this student population will be available to educate family members and answer questions.

Homeschooled students have extensive opportunities to advance their education through GCC. Classes are offered in many subject areas and students under age 18 may take approved ACE (Accelerated College Enrollment) courses at a reduced tuition rate. ACE Program Specialist Dan Snyder, who works with many homeschooled students currently enrolled at GCC, will be at the session to provide information. GCC Admissions Director Tanya Lane Martin will also be present to educate and answer any admissions questions families may have.

The evening will include information about how GCC coursework can help homeschooled students earn the New York State High School Equivalency Diploma. Scholarship and financial aid information will also be available. Participants will also enjoy the opportunity to have dinner at the Medina Campus Center.

"This is a great opportunity for families to learn more about everything we can offer homeschooled students at our Orleans County Campus Centers," said Associate Dean Jim Simon, who oversees GCC Campus Centers in Medina and Albion. "We offer a lot of things that I think homeschool families will find very appealing. These include small class sizes and excellent instructors with a low teacher to student ratio. We also offer classes in many different subjects that will satisfy a wide variety of interests."

Families will also have the opportunity to learn about Genesee Promise Plus Summer Scholarship program, which provides ACE students with one or two classes tuition-free to any of GCC seven campus locations or online. More than 140 courses are being offered this summer. GCC has three Summer Sessions: The full Summer session runs for ten weeks starting May 31 - August 6; Session I runs May 31 - July 2; and Session II runs July 5 - August 6.

The Medina Campus Center is located at 11470 Maple Ridge Road, Medina, NY 14103. For more information contact the Medina Campus Center at (585) 798-1688.

For more information, contact Marketing Communications Associate Director Donna Rae Sutherland at (585) 343-0055 ext. 6616, or via email at: dsutherland@genesee.edu.
