Collecting by Larry Cox

Luffa Vase

Q. My mother received a brown Luffa vase that measures 7 1/4 inches in about 1935 or 1936 for a birthday present. I have been offered $50 for it by a collector. — Rob, Rio Rancho, New Mexico

A. The Luffa pattern was introduced by Roseville Pottery in 1934. It featured small yellow or white flowers and large green leaves on a wavy ridged background. Background colors are dominant green with brown accents or dominant brown with variegated green accents. According to "Warman's Roseville Pottery: Identification and Price Guide" by Denise Rago, your vase is valued in the $150-$250 range.

Q. I have an old cabinet purchased from a London museum by an Indian chief who became a millionaire in Connecticut during the 1920s. The man died during the 1930s. Anything you can tell me about this cabinet would be appreciated. — V.A., Rio Rancho, New Mexico

A. Your question is impossible to answer. Who was the chief? Where was the museum? Is there any documentation? Without these facts, it is simply another piece of old furniture. If you suspect your cabinet is valuable, hire the services of a good professional appraiser. There are several excellent ones in Albuquerque who can help you.

Q. Several decades ago I worked for a highway crew in Nebraska, and occasionally while working in remote areas I would find an old electrical insulator. Although I didn't mean to become a collector, I did. I have about four dozen older insulators and would like to find out if they have much value. — Carl, Hastings, Nebraska

A. The National Insulator Association was founded in 1973 and has members scattered throughout the country. This might be a good place to begin your search. Contact is Donald R. Briel, P.O. Box 188, Providence, UT 04332-0188. Check out the website at www.nia.org.

Q. I have a Girl Scout camera that was given to me during the 1940s. It is in excellent condition, and I assume still works. What is it worth? — Cynthia, Shreveport, Louisiana

A. Your camera is probably in a black case and was manufactured by the Herbert George Company. It would retail in the $50-$75 range.

Q. My mother received a brown Luffa vase that measures 7 1/4 inches in about 1935 or 1936 for a birthday present. I have been offered $50 for it by a collector. — Rob, Rio Rancho, New Mexico

A. The Luffa pattern was introduced by Roseville Pottery in 1934. It featured small yellow or white flowers and large green leaves on a wavy ridged background. Background colors are dominant green with brown accents or dominant brown with variegated green accents. According to "Warman's Roseville Pottery: Identification and Price Guide" by Denise Rago, your vase is valued in the $150-$250 range.

Q. I have an old cabinet purchased from a London museum by an Indian chief who became a millionaire in Connecticut during the 1920s. The man died during the 1930s. Anything you can tell me about this cabinet would be appreciated. — V.A., Rio Rancho, New Mexico

A. Your question is impossible to answer. Who was the chief? Where was the museum? Is there any documentation? Without these facts, it is simply another piece of old furniture. If you suspect your cabinet is valuable, hire the services of a good professional appraiser. There are several excellent ones in Albuquerque who can help you.

Q. Several decades ago I worked for a highway crew in Nebraska, and occasionally while working in remote areas I would find an old electrical insulator. Although I didn't mean to become a collector, I did. I have about four dozen older insulators and would like to find out if they have much value. — Carl, Hastings, Nebraska

A. The National Insulator Association was founded in 1973 and has members scattered throughout the country. This might be a good place to begin your search. Contact is Donald R. Briel, P.O. Box 188, Providence, UT 04332-0188. Check out the website at www.nia.org.

***

Q. I have a Girl Scout camera that was given to me during the 1940s. It is in excellent condition, and I assume still works. What is it worth? — Cynthia, Shreveport, Louisiana

A. Your camera is probably in a black case and was manufactured by the Herbert George Company. It would retail in the $50-$75 range.

(Never known to fail). O Most Beautiful Flower of Mt. Carmel, Fruitful Vine, Splendor of Heaven, Blessed Mother of the Son of God, Immaculate Virgin, assist me in my necessity. O Star of the sea, help me and show me here in, you are my mother. O Holy Mary, Mother of God, Queen of Heaven and Earth, I humbly beseech you from the bottom of my heart to succor me in my necessity (make request). There are none that can withstand your power. O Mary conceived without sin, pray for us who have recourse to thee (3 times.) Holy Mary, I place this cause in your hands (3 times). Say this prayer for three consecutive days. You must publish it and it will be granted to you. Grateful Thanks.

A Sporting
view by Mark Vasto

Louis Blues are second on the list of teams many non-locals wouldn't mind seeing win Lord Stanley's Cup someday, if only to keep things interesting. And that's being generous, since Cardinal fans can get kinda smug and ruin those sentiments in the time it takes to put down one toasted ravioli on The Hill.

The Jinx Is Up

There are just some teams everybody pulls for, whether or not they are rivals or from different towns, and at the top of that list lies one team: The Chicago Cubs.

Yankee fans would not have minded one bit if the Red Sox lost forever. There were maybe some mixed feelings in 1986 when the Mets took on the Sox in the World Series, but nothing really too serious. Yankee fans looked with lust upon the Mets during that season. Just the idea of having a catcher like Gary Carter during the post-Munson, Ceron-Wynegar-Skinner era seemed otherworldly to fans of the Bombers (not to mention the sanity at the managerial spot). And while there was a begrudging tip of the hat over the years to Big Papi and Curt Shilling's sock, whenever guys like Wade Boggs or Johnny Damon joined the team and chipped in during winning years, most Yankee fans merely thought it was cool that a few Red Sox players helped the Bombers out in between bouts of pining for Don Mattingly.

Maybe in St. Louis there are dug-in pockets of resistance against the Cubs' allure. That's understandable, but they should know that the St.

Still, in order for a team to be a rival, the other team must win once in awhile. Otherwise, what do you have? Harlem Globetrotters versus Washington Generals or Duke versus Maryland (Best taunt ever? The Dookies chanting "not our ri-val!" as the Terps ran up and down the court with them.)

Now is the time for the Chicago Cubs. In baseball, no matter what they say about pitching, the manager's spot is the most important. There are no coincidences that guys like LaRussa, Torre, Herzog, Piniella, Yost, Billy Martin (between bar fights), Showalter and Joe Maddon win everywhere they go. Wherever they go they bring their ideas with them, and, with all due respect to Casey Stengel ... they usually go right back to winning soon enough. Water finds its level.

There is no such thing as a curse or a jinx, but there is such a thing as the right place and time. Guys like David Ross, Anthony Rizzo, Justin Grimm, Kris Bryant and the rest of the deceptively hot-hitting Cubs in their "whatever you think is hot" suits, they're feeling it. So brace yourself, Wrigley Field ... the jinx is up.

Mark Vasto is a veteran sportswriter who lives in New Jersey.

Hints For Home Buyers

Three Steps To A New Home

(NAPS)—Whether you're diving into homeownership for the first time or looking to move into a larger or smaller home, here are the three things you should know before you begin your search this spring:

1. Credit is still tight but improving. Mortgage rates are below 4 percent and credit is more accessible after years of stringent underwriting. In fact, an increasing number of lenders now offer loans with as little as a 3 percent down payment.

You'll need a preapproval from a lender to determine the amount of money you're qualified to borrow. With competition robust in many markets, a Realtor can be an expert companion to finding homes in your price range and, with your preapproval, can market you to sellers as a serious buyer.

2. It may take time to find your "dream home." The most recent data from the National Association of Realtors (NAR) shows that the supply of existing homes for sale is insufficient, with more buyers competing for a fewer number of homes for sale than a year ago. As a result, you'll likely be clicking on the same limited online listings and brushing shoulders against those same buyers at open houses.

Be prepared to act quickly if you believe you've found your ideal home. In markets with tight supply, multiple offers and bidding above asking price are the norm. It's not uncommon to lose out on a few homes before the right one comes along. A Realtor can develop a negotiation strategy to help make your offer stand out among others.

3. Home prices are steadily rising. With demand rising and listings scarce in many markets, NAR forecasts home prices will increase nationally between 4 and 5 percent this year. In cities with the tightest of supply, prices could expand above double-digit appreciation.

Be diligent and realistic about what you can comfortably afford. It's easy to fall in love with a home that's outside your means. If you find yourself in a bidding war, be prepared to walk away if the price surpasses your budget. Patience is important—the right home will come along when the time is right.

The Jinx Is Up

There are just some teams everybody pulls for, whether or not they are rivals or from different towns, and at the top of that list lies one team: The Chicago Cubs.

Yankee fans would not have minded one bit if the Red Sox lost forever. There were maybe some mixed feelings in 1986 when the Mets took on the Sox in the World Series, but nothing really too serious. Yankee fans looked with lust upon the Mets during that season. Just the idea of having a catcher like Gary Carter during the post-Munson, Ceron-Wynegar-Skinner era seemed otherworldly to fans of the Bombers (not to mention the sanity at the managerial spot). And while there was a begrudging tip of the hat over the years to Big Papi and Curt Shilling's sock, whenever guys like Wade Boggs or Johnny Damon joined the team and chipped in during winning years, most Yankee fans merely thought it was cool that a few Red Sox players helped the Bombers out in between bouts of pining for Don Mattingly.

Maybe in St. Louis there are dug-in pockets of resistance against the Cubs' allure. That's understandable, but they should know that the St.

Louis Blues are second on the list of teams many non-locals wouldn't mind seeing win Lord Stanley's Cup someday, if only to keep things interesting. And that's being generous, since Cardinal fans can get kinda smug and ruin those sentiments in the time it takes to put down one toasted ravioli on The Hill.

Still, in order for a team to be a rival, the other team must win once in awhile. Otherwise, what do you have? Harlem Globetrotters versus Washington Generals or Duke versus Maryland (Best taunt ever? The Dookies chanting "not our ri-val!" as the Terps ran up and down the court with them.)

Now is the time for the Chicago Cubs. In baseball, no matter what they say about pitching, the manager's spot is the most important. There are no coincidences that guys like LaRussa, Torre, Herzog, Piniella, Yost, Billy Martin (between bar fights), Showalter and Joe Maddon win everywhere they go. Wherever they go they bring their ideas with them, and, with all due respect to Casey Stengel ... they usually go right back to winning soon enough. Water finds its level.

There is no such thing as a curse or a jinx, but there is such a thing as the right place and time. Guys like David Ross, Anthony Rizzo, Justin Grimm, Kris Bryant and the rest of the deceptively hot-hitting Cubs in their "whatever you think is hot" suits, they're feeling it. So brace yourself, Wrigley Field ... the jinx is up.

Breathe Easier While Driving During Allergy Season

(NAPS)—Just as it's hard to run a race if you can't breathe, a vehicle's dirty cabin air filter can negatively affect air quality and passenger comfort.

While about 30 million vehicles in service today have at least one cabin air filter, many drivers still aren't aware they exist, much less understand their benefits.

What You Need To Know
A good-quality cabin air filter helps reduce or block odor-causing contaminants as well as pollen, dust, pollutants in vehicle emissions, and even insects and leaves from the vehicle's interior.

Cabin air filters work by filtering the outside air coming into your vehicle. They're usually located under your vehicle's dashboard or attached to the glove box. Others may be located in the engine compartment.

Chances are good that your vehicle has one or more cabin air filters.

Filter Facts
Here are some things to consider when purchasing one:

- Your owner's manual will recommend when the filter needs changing but if you live on a dirt road or in a high-pollen area or are highly allergic, you may need to replace it more frequently.

"You wouldn't believe what's in some of the cabin air filters our PSCs [professional service centers] pull from customers' cars," said Tom Gundry, a product specialist with ACDelco.

A dirty filter in your car can make for a more expensive, less comfortable ride.

"Vehicle owners need to treat cabin air filters as they would their own furnace filter. If their furnace filter looked as bad as some of the cabin air filters, they would not hesitate a moment to replace it."

- All filters are not created equal. For example, cabin air filters from ACDelco, which this year celebrates a century of aftermarket parts expertise, feature layered construction to capture both large and very small particles, and for strength.

- Depending on the vehicle, some filters are easier to remove and replace than others. Service centers have the right experience and tools for the job, but if you do it yourself, follow the directions to ensure you don't damage hardware.

- While cabin air filters are great at removing pollen in spring and summer, they're also effective in cold weather, when vehicle tailpipe emissions are higher.

Learn More
For further facts and tips about cabin air filters and other auto parts, go to www.acdelco.com.

Roy Jacuzzi, who is credited with inventing and marketing the first integrated whirlpool bath in 1968, came from a family of inventors who are credited with inventions in both aviation and agriculture, including an agricultural pump.

Moments in time
THE HISTORY CHANNEL

- On May 24, 1883, after 14 years and 27 deaths during construction, the Brooklyn Bridge over the East River in New York is opened, connecting Manhattan and Brooklyn. It was the largest suspension bridge ever built to that date.

- On May 26, 1897, the first copies of the classic vampire novel "Dracula," by Irish writer Bram Stoker, appear in London bookshops. Stoker published 17 novels in all, but it was "Dracula" that brought him literary fame.

- On May 23, 1900, Sgt. William Harvey Carney is awarded the Medal of Honor for his bravery on July 18, 1863, while fighting for the Union as a member of the 54th Massachusetts Colored Infantry. Carney was the first black soldier to receive the Medal of Honor.

- On May 29, 1932, at the height of the Great Depression, the so-called Bonus Expeditionary Force, a group of 1,000 unemployed World War I veterans seeking early cash payments for their bonus certificates, arrive in Washington, D.C., eventually reaching 20,000 strong. President Herbert Hoover ordered the army to forcibly evict them after the Senate voted down a bill to pay the bonus.

- On May 28, 1961, The London Observer publishes lawyer Peter Benenson's article "The Forgotten Prisoners" on its front page, launching the Appeal for Amnesty 1961. The movement would become the human-rights organization Amnesty International.

- On May 27, 1971, during the Vietnam War, Sweden reveals that it has been providing assistance to the Viet Cong, including some $550,000 worth of medical supplies. The support was primarily humanitarian and included no military aid.

- On May 25, 1994, the ashes of 71-year-old George Swanson are buried in the driver's seat of his 1984 Corvette in Pennsylvania. Swanson had bought 12 burial plots to ensure that his beloved white Corvette would fit in his grave with him.

Prayer to St. Jude

Most holy Apostle, St. Jude, faithful servant and friend of Jesus, the church honors and invokes you universally, as the patron of hopeless cases, of things almost despaired of. Pray for me, I am so helpless and alone. Make use, I implore you, of that particular privilege given to you, to bring visible and speedy help where help is almost despaired of. Come to my assistance in this great need that I may receive the consolation and help of heaven in all my necessities, tribulations, and sufferings, particularly (your request) and that I may praise God with you and all the elect forever. I promise, O blessed St. Jude, to be ever mindful of this great favor, to always honor you as my special and powerful patron, and to gratefully encourage devotion to you. Amen.

Hints For The Home

Tips For Cleaning Your Kitchen

(NAPS)—While many find joy in the comfort foods of winter, spring provides a chance to embrace a fresh approach to your eating habits. The following tips will put a spring in your step and get you ready for this temperate season:

- Out with the old. There's a reason spring is the chosen season for all things related to cleaning. It's the season associated with ideas of rebirth, rejuvenation and renewal. What better way to refresh your food choices than by cleaning your pantry and fridge? Toss expired products and donate the shelf-stable goods you no longer want to a worthy cause.
- Celebrate color. Spring ushers in fresh new produce that adds a variety of flavor and nutrition. Produce such as apricots, green beans and broccoli all provide a pop of color that helps ensure you are enjoying the best seasonal produce this spring.
- Get organized. Eliminate cluttered bags of rice or pasta by placing them in glass jars to make searching for pantry staples a breeze. Visit the grocer's bulk aisle for a variety of snack staples such as nuts and seeds—great for that afternoon craving.

- Springtime beverages. Swap the hot and rich drinks of winter for the lighter, fruit-infused tastes of spring. New Santa Cruz Organic Agua Fresca beverages are lightly sweetened and blended with organic fruit juice and a splash of lemon juice. Available in Mango Passionfruit, Pomegranate and Grapefruit flavors, Certified USDA Organic Agua Fresca beverages are a revitalizing companion to warm weather fun.

Strange BUT TRUE

By Samantha Weaver

• It was 20th-century television, film and culture critic John Leonard who made the following sage observation: "In the cellars of the night, when the mind starts moving around old trunks of bad times, the pain of this and the shame of that, the memory of a small boldness is a hand to hold."

• You probably won't be surprised to learn that a group of hedgehogs is known as a prickle.

• In almost every state, there is a statute on the books making it illegal to jump off the top of an office building. Unsurprisingly, there's not much call to prosecute those who violate the law; district attorneys aren't in the habit of filing charges against corpses. However, in a few states, if you survive jumping off a building and are tried and convicted of violating that law, you could be sentenced to death.

• Those who study such things say that among social media users, those who use Twitter are less likely to smoke than users of other platforms.

• Just as humans have distinctive fingerprints, dogs have nose prints — no two are the same.

• You doubtless know of Theodore Geisel — better known as Dr. Seuss, the beloved author of such children's classics as "The Cat in the Hat," "Horton Hears a Who" and "Green Eggs and Ham," among many others. You might not realize, though, that his first book, "And to Think That I Saw It on Mulberry Street," was rejected by more than two dozen publishers before it finally made it into print.

• Did you know that dogs appear in the Bible? Yep — 41 times. No mention of cats, though.

HOLLYWOOD

by Tony Rizzo

HOLLYWOOD — Warren Beatty is back! In 1998, he produced/wrote/directed and starred in "Bulworth," which barely recouped its $30 million cost. In 2001, he starred in "Town and Country," with Diane Keaton, Goldie Hawn, Garry Shandling and Charlton Heston, which made just $10.4 million of its $90 million budget. 1990's "Dick Tracy" made $117 million more than its budget, and 1991's "Bugsy" managed only $19 million more than its budget.

Chace Crawford

Beatty's new $27 million film about Howard Hughes is untitled and set for a fall release, with Beatty once again producing/writing/directing and starring in it. His co-stars are Annette Bening, Matthew Broderick, Martin Sheen, Alec Baldwin, Candice Bergen, Ed Harris, Lily Collins, Ed Helms, Paul Reiser and Chace Crawford. He needs to win big with this one, or he can forget about the "Dick Tracy" sequel wants to do.

Knighthley into "Catherine the Great," helm a film about the relationship between Margaret Bourke-White and Erskine Caldwell, and produce "Cold Side of the Pillow," written/directed and co-produced by Attila Kallai. No one's putting Streisand out to pasture.

Chace Crawford, whose series "Blood and Oil," with Don Johnson, was yanked off ABC after only 10 episodes, is coming back in a big way. Before Beatty's film is released, Chace will have the horror/thriller "Eloise," with "Scorpion" star Robert Patrick and Eliza Dushku (of "Buffy, the Vampire Slayer" fame); and "Undrafted," with Aaron Tveit (of "Grease/Live"), Tyler Hoechlin, James Belushi and Billy Gardell, hitting screens. He'll also have "What's the Point?" with Mary Steenburgen and Amber Heard, likely coming out after Beatty's film.

Expect Scott Eastwood to lose the "son of Clint Eastwood" handle as he breaks out in three giant films. First comes "Suicide Squad," with Will Smith, Jared Leto and Margot Robbie (out Aug. 5); next up is "Snowdon," with Joseph Gordon-Levitt, Shailene Woodley, Melissa Leo, Zachary Quinto and Nicolas Cage, out Sept 16; followed by "Fast & Furious 8," due April 14, 2017. They will be followed by "Crown Vic" with Alec Baldwin, and "Overdrive" with Ana de Armas. Finally, Eastwood has the Prohibition-era film "Live by Night," directed by Ben Affleck and starring Anthony Michael Hall and Elle Fanning, due October 2017.

We told you last week that plans for Barbra Streisand to star in the reboot of "Gypsy" are moving full speed ahead, and that the chairman of STX Entertainment said, "It's Barbra Streisand doing one more, if not the last, movie musical of her career." It really may be that Barbra has decided she'd rather direct than act. She has three projects lined up. She'll turn Keira

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) Home conditions still demand attention. Also, keep an open mind about a sudden question of trust involving a close friend. All the facts are not yet in.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) With summer just around the corner, travel begins to dominate your sign. Make plans carefully to avoid potential problems in the first half of June.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) A romantic Libra sets a challenge that your "sensible" side might question, but your idealistic self finds the prospect too intriguing to resist. The choice is yours.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) Those tense times in your personal life are just about over. Concentrate on reaffirming relationships. Your love of travel opens a surprising new opportunity.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) The Big Cat usually loves to be in the center of things. But this week it might be wiser to watch and learn from the sidelines. A Pisces wants to make you purr.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) "New" is your watchword this week. Be open to new ideas, both on the job and in your personal life. A romantic Aries or Sagittarian beckons.
