In Memory of Earvin Clarence Green

August 22, 1931 - January 6, 2016

On January 6, 2016, it was early in the morning we were told, God called a special man to heaven, he had a heart of gold. Earvin Clarence Green, "Shade Earvin" was a nickname he used. Was a very hard worker, a challenge he never refused. He provided for his family, working at Genesco and Carrier many a year. He loved his little farm, his horses and piddling it was very clear. "Popeye" was a name he always loved to hear. When his family came to visit, they all to him were dear. Each time Earvin saw you, he wore a big smile. He even loved talking to everyone, when their telephone he would dial. His work for the Lord, was seen through the years of his life, Worshipping at Noah Church of Christ, with his family and especially Thelma, his wife. We do not know if we will see him again, in a few years, weeks or just a few days, He will definitely be, as he always said, "fine as frog hair, split four ways". We will all miss him, but his memories with us will always be, With our sins all forgiven, once again Earvin we will see.

Sadly missed by family and friends

In Memory of
Thelma Jane Vaughn Green
July 13, 1935 - April 13, 2016

Only a month ago, the call from God for a special, beautiful lady came. Taking her to heaven, Thelma Jane Vaughn Green was her name. She was my rock, as well as a special sister, too. Always wearing a smile, no matter what she was going through. Her faith in God was amazing, through all the years of cancer she had to endure. Our prayers for her were always, that somehow they would find a cure. She never complained, but would always say, "I'm doing pretty good". With great determination, she cared for her husband, Earvin, as long as she could. The disease did not stop, her desire to have her family around. Cooking and planning, whether one or many at her house were found. She was always sewing, reading the Bible or Christian books. She took much pride in her clothing, and was "top-notch" in her looks. Many get well cards she sent, when she heard someone was sick. Love flowed from her heart, in every card she would pick. We will greatly miss her, until the end of our life here. Her smile, her advice, we will always treasure it is clear. Her hearts desire was to see her family and friends, one and all. Close to God and in church, and meet her again when they hear their call. We love and miss you, each and every day that we are here. Until we meet again, your memories in our heart we hold dear.

Sadly missed by family and friends
