

June Fete

June 10, 11 & 12, 2016

Something Old, Something New, Something Borrowed ...

The slate of entertainment at the June Fete Fair has a little something for everyone. We have our Something Old favorites, such as TriCountyBand, 309 Express, Germantown Academy Jazz Band, Murray Avenue Jazz Band, Hank's Cadillac, the Give and Take Jugglers, Chumley the Clown, Mike Ludwig, fireworks, Breakfast at the Fair, Amerikick, Henrik's Musikanten and the Horse & Pony Show.

We also have our Something New favorites, such as Deuce Brothers Band with special guest stars "Upper Morelands Got Talent" with Lizzie Jones (keys, flute, vocals), Greg Kerrigan (drums), and Kendra Woywod (sax), School of Rock, Smooth Edge Band, Mas Tequila Orchestra, Drummers with Attitude, Dance 360, Elements Dance Company, Abington High School Acapella Groups (Crescendudes, Pitch Slapped, SAT-Beats, Select Choir), Y2K9s Dog Sports Club Performance, Earthborne's JCB Dancing Diggers and Cow Chip Bingo (with a possible prize of $10,000!).

Finally, we have our Something Borrowed favorites we had to bring back! They are the Shades of Green Irish Dancing and the Salem Baptist Church Choir. Which brings us to Something Blue ... skies, that is!

Come, let us entertain you and bring you a smile! Enjoy all the shows at the June Fete Fair.

JUNE FETE

By volunteering, we can all be heroes

By Simone A. Derderian
2016 June Fete Chair

This year marks the 103rd annual June Fete Fair. By way of explanation, back in the day, the June Fete Fair was a themed party to raise funds for a new hospital in Abington, and all fundraising events were part of the annual theme. We no longer have an annual theme for our fundraising, but it is part of our rich history. Today, the June Fete Fair is our signature event to connect the hospital to the community in a fun atmosphere. At the heart of it, heroes are the common thread running through every annual June Fete Fair. I don't mean caped crusaders or X-ray vision. We consider heroes to be parents, doctors, nurses, teachers, policemen, firemen, military personnel and volunteers. These heroes make our lives better every day. They do it selflessly, without getting the recognition or compensation they deserve. Our heroes are the volunteers of the June Fete Fair, who are also parents, teachers, doctors, nurses and members of other noble professions. Our volunteers help us put on this amazing fair year after year and raise a lot of money for Abington-Jefferson Health. Generations of families have given their time and efforts and this continues to make the June Fete Fair a success. It is truly amazing to see our children inspired to continue this tradition of giving back to our community, to become the heroes of tomorrow. So, on June 10, 11, 12, 2016, we proudly roll out the very essence of this year's fete: By volunteering, we all can be heroes. The June Fete Fair is steeped in history, so we hold fast to some much loved attractions year after year, like great games, rides, fabulous fireworks on Friday night and the Horse & Pony Show on Saturday. We are bringing back the Breakfast at the Fair for the kids. Throughout the weekend, you can enjoy great food, treats and fun activities at the booths along the midway. We are putting great energy into bringing new and exciting entertainment to the fair such as Cow Chip Bingo and Earthborne's JCB Dancing Diggers, but we will still have some favorites like the Give and Take Jugglers. And, you can still shop for some fun things in the Marketplace Tent. Even after 103 years, the June Fete Fair continues to provide an old time country fair atmosphere with activities and events to entertain the entire family. When we open those gates on Friday, June 10, we are opening our arms to welcome our community back to this time-honored tradition once again.

JUNE FETE

The chance to make a difference awaits you

By Gail Garber
First Vice President of the AHF Women's Board

In today's hectic and often uncertain world, it is absolutely essential to invest your time and energy wisely. Volunteerism offers a person just that opportunity — the chance to work for a greater good, at an unhurried pace, on projects that are especially meaningful. The ultimate reward for a volunteer or an auxilian, as we call ourselves, lies in the act of giving for no other reason than to better the lives of others.

Members of the Abington Health Foundation Women's Board and Auxiliaries devote time, talent and heart to projects and fundraising events that benefit the patient and employee experience at Abington Hospital. The auxiliaries, 10 in all, are active and strong groups that make vital contributions to fundraising for nursing education and furthering public relations. Each auxiliary is unique in its size, demographic, meeting schedule, menu of activities and fundraising events. Each one has its own special charm. What can you expect from your experience as a volunteer? You will have the opportunity to help others and contribute to our community, apply your talents in a new setting, forge new friendships, support a great cause and, more than anything else, be part of something so much bigger than oneself. "There are no strangers here, only friends you haven't met." — William Butler Yeats Visit our website at <http://give.abingtonhealth.org> and find an auxiliary you can call home. Don't delay ... new members are always welcome, and there's no time like the present to put yourself out there and make a difference in the lives of others.

The Give and Take Jugglers will perform at this year's June Fete Fair.

Make memories at the fair

By Barbara C. Jackson
Vice Chair, 2016 June Fete Fair

Everybody loves a fair, and the June Fete Fair will be in town June 10 to 12, 2016. This Abington Hospital tradition, celebrating its 103rd year, is a Montgomery County community event with something for all ages. What's more, all proceeds benefit Abington — Jefferson Health, which has been a caring partner in this community for many years.

The June Fete Fair features live entertainment, amusement rides, fireworks, crafts, great food, a Kid's Korner, an award-winning horse and pony show and more. Among this year's awesome new features are Cow Chip Bingo, with a winning prize pot up to $10,000 (that's right) and Earthborne's JCB Dancing Diggers, huge construction equipment performing daring stunts choreographed to music.

What makes this fair different from most is its sense of community and the level of volunteerism that makes it happen, from the behind-the-scenes set up to greeting and serving our thousands of happy fairgoers, to taking it down and packing it away 'til next year. This time honored tradition is really a labor of love. The Abington Health Foundation Women's Board and Auxiliaries, hospital staff and community members are always looking to recruit folks, kids of all ages, students seeking service credit, groups and families to pitch in.

So, round up your neighbors, family and friends, volunteer in your community and join us on the fairgrounds. Enjoy a good time, make new friends, support a great cause and spread the word about this awesome tradition. We want to see you there, June 10 to 12, 2016, at the June Fete Fair. For more information, visit www.junefete.org.

Abington Health Foundation's Women's Board offers an opportunity to make a donation to honor, remember or acknowledge someone special - a family member, friend or caregiver. One hundred percent of your donation to Cards for a Cause goes to Abington Hospital or Abington - Lansdale Hospital patients who are experiencing hardships.

Cards for a Cause donations have helped:

- Cover the cost of hiring assistance for terminally ill patients.
- Make a mortgage payment for a single mother with cancer.
- Pay for medications for patients with no prescription coverage.
- Purchase a wheelchair for an amputee.
- Assist with the cost for oxygen.

Horse & Pony Show continues long tradition

New addition this year: $1,000 Pony Hunter Derby Class

The annual June Fete Fair's Horse & Pony Show will take place June 11, 2016, at the Dixon Equestrian Center on the fairgrounds at 2990 Edge Hill Road in Huntingdon Valley.

Proceeds from the show benefit Abington — Jefferson Health in its mission to provide the community with advanced high quality, compassionate health care.

The June Fete Fair's Horse & Pony Show is among the oldest horse shows in the country dating back to 1922. In the past 16 years, the show has developed from a local show to a United States Equestrian B and C recognized show. To support upwards of 200 exhibitors, a third ring was added in 2007. New classes and divisions continue to attract both top quality riders and new equestrians. The $5,000 USHJA National Hunter Derby, sponsored by Edith R. Dixon, will again be the highlight of the show, drawing top riders and horses from all over Pennsylvania and New Jersey.

We are thrilled to also offer a $1,000 Pony Hunter Derby this year, kindly sponsored by Earthborne Trucks and Equipment. We will again offer the $250 Marshall and Sterling Children's Pony Hunter Classic, the $250 Pre-Children's Pony Hunter Classic and the $250 Bit O' Straw Hunter Classic, sponsored by Do Trot In The June Fete Fair's Horse & Pony Show is among the oldest horse shows in the country dating back to 1922.

Tack Shop. So come participate either as a competitor or supporter. It is always great fun!

Returning to the show is the Bid or Buy Auction and Raffle Baskets, held in the Hospitality Tent in the center of the horse show grounds. Beautifully appointed equestrian-themed baskets will be filled with items such as jewelry, gift certificates, home décor and even a basket for the youngest equestrians out there. Please be sure to stop by the tent and buy some raffle tickets and bid on your favorite baskets. It's all for a great cause!

We are very excited to welcome back Paul Jewell, show manager and course designer, as well as the wonderful Katie Benson as show secretary.

Pre-entries are encouraged and will be accepted until Thursday, June 9. A Trainer of the Day Award

Earthborne's JCB Dancing Diggers to make debut at 2016 June Fete Fair

By Maggie Taylor

Earthborne Trucks and Equipment in Warrington, Pa., was founded by Rick and Cindy Taylor in 1976, both of whom grew up on the edge of the June Fete fairgrounds. This family owned and operated company celebrates 40 years of truck and equipment sales and service in the tri-state area.

In 1960, Joseph Cyril Bamford, founder of JCB, arranged to have a TV crew film several backhoes raise themselves up on their buckets. To demonstrate just how much faith he had in his machines and their hydraulic fail-safe system (locking the arms in the buckets in the event of a loss of hydraulic pressure, preventing them from crashing to the ground), he drove his car right underneath them, astonishing the audience. This has since developed into the famous JCB Dancing Digger Team that travels all over the world to show off the versatility and strength of the world's best-selling backhoe.

In an effort to build more local awareness in the JCB product line, Earthborne decided to put together their Dancing Digger team in 2011. They have been choreographing and performing shows for the last five years at various fairs and township events. Videos of past performances can be seen on Earthborne's website, EarthborneInc.com, and YouTube page, youtube.com/EarthborneEquipment.

Earthborne is proud to present The Dancing Diggers to the June Fete Fair this year. Earthborne's JCB Dancing Diggers are a team of expert operators, showcasing the amazing abilities of the JCB construction equipment. Performances are filled with daring stunts, set to fun and energetic music, sure to thrill audiences of all ages! During the performance, the skilled operators push the machines to their limits.

Come to the June Fete Fair and watch as the machines circle and move past each other with precision, use the hydraulics to lift the diggers clear off the ground, and perform handstands!

Performances will be Sunday, June 12, at 1 p.m., 2 p.m., 3 p.m. and 4 p.m.

The Women's Board and Auxiliaries of Abington Health Foundation wish to THANK our generous 2016 June Fete Fair Sponsors.
