Judy's Travels Around The Globe

Judy atop a camel in Cairo

Judy's Travel is celebrating its 28th Year in business on Main Street in Mount Morris. What began as an idea in 1988 has become the longest lasting travel agency in Livingston County.

Judy's Travel opened its doors at the old Mount Morris Lumber on North Main Street and moved to its current location at 100 Main Street in 1993. Owner Judy Scorsone and husband Gerald have run various businesses in Mount Morris and even raised their family here as well.

Judy started her working career while in highschool as the counter girl at Peter's Cabins, which was owned by Gerald's parents Ignatius (Nashie) and Mae Scorsone. She has worked with the Scorsone family ever since.

Gerald and Judy were married in 1962. Judy then worked as a secretary at the University of Buffalo to help Gerald through nursing school. Together, they had two sons, Anthony and Michael, who took turns working at Peter's Charcoal House (and Peter's Party Complex) in their formative years.

Anthony Scorsone is an agent for RE/MAX Plus Real Estate Agency and was the top producing individual agent for the company last year. Michael Scorsone is currently engaged and owns two restaurants with his fiancée in Winter Garden, Florida. Both boys attribute their great success to the tremendous example that Judy (and Gerald) set for them.

Judy progressed from a counter girl to a cook as "Peter's" became a tablecloth restaurant and then started keeping the books for the family company.

In 1988, she ventured into the travel business and started working in Newark, New York for Wayne Travel. After three years, she brought the travel business home to Mount Morris to open her own agency. The rest, as they say, is history!

Judy joined the Rochester Area Women in Travel Organization and was a member for over 10 years as she moved into the position of Vice President. Judy's Travel began doing bus tours and now specializes in group and cruise travel. Her love of travel and great organizational skills have taken her to all the continents of the globe. She has walked the Great Wall of China, been to Moscow, Japan, Africa and 90% of the countries in Europe.

And now, after a full, successful and rewarding career in the travel industry, Judy's Travel would like to announce that Judy Scorsone is retiring. She leaves the business in the capable hands of Stacy Wilson who began working with Judy back in 1988. As a travel and tourism student in college, Stacy earned an internship with Judy, which led to a job at Judy's Travel and she's been part of the family ever since.

"I am the agent I am today because of Judy," shares Stacy. "She is an amazing business woman and I have learned so much thanks to her."

Stacy looks forward to continuing the tradition of providing the same Personal Customer Service that Judy's Travel has been known for over the past 28 years. Airline tickets, cruises, family vacations and more are still part of the great services you can expect at Judy's Travel. Stop in and see what she can do for you.

Miracle for Mallory

On Saturday, May 28, 2016, the Perry community will be coming together to support the McDanel family. Ryan and Kimmie McDanel gave birth to their beautiful baby girl, Mallory, on February 23, 2016. Mallory was diagnosed with Hypoplastic Left Heart Syndrome (HLHS) in utero. They are currently awaiting several surgeries to repair Mallory's heart. Since Mallory's birth, she has experienced several health setbacks, but she continues to bring her family so much joy!

To help offset the mounting medical bills and anticipated expenses in the months to come, we are holding a benefit at the Genesee River Restaurant in Mt. Morris, NY on May 28 from 12 to 4. We are reaching out to local businesses and organizations, requesting donations of gift cards or gift baskets for our Chinese Auction.

Thank you in advance for your support. If you are able to donate, please contact us.
