Top five myths about hearing loss

1) Hearing loss only affects the elderly.

Hearing loss can affect anyone, not just the elderly.

2) My primary physician will tell me if my hearing is failing.

Since your general practitioner is only so well-versed in specific areas of the body, you should have your hearing checked routinely by a hearing health practitioner, just as you have your vision checked or your teeth cleaned.

3) I notice a difference in one ear, but the other is fine so I'm ok.

If the hearing in one ear starts to fade, your brain will adapt to the changes, at least up to a certain point. Your hearing loss could be well-advanced before you even notice a difference. A regular hearing test can help track your hearing capability.

4) Hearing aids will restore my hearing to normal levels.

The one thing hearing aids CAN'T do; however, is restore your hearing to "normal." As much as we've learned about how our sense of hearing works, there is no man-made device that can completely replicate human hearing. The good news? Hearing aids can significantly improve your ability to hear well, which leads to enhanced communication with family, friends and co-workers.

5) My hearing loss cannot be helped.

Many forms of hearing loss can indeed be improved, whether it be by hearing aids, surgery, medication or a simple ear wax removal procedure. You'll never know if you never ask. The first step is to find a hearing healthcare professional you can trust.

HEAR What Our Customers Say!

One of the best decisions that I have made in a long time was when I decided to open the door at Long's Hearing Care in Cadillac Michigan. I went in for a hearing test. I was treated with respect from the second that walked in the door. Melissa met me at the front counter and took care of my needs in a very professional manner. I was tested and diagnosed for hearing aids. I was then fitted and when I returned back in 3 days my hearing life was changed. I now don't have to ask people to repeat what they said or have to guess an answer to a question that I really didn't even hear. Today I hear everything loud and clear. Life has completely changed for me. Thank you to Melissa and Mike at Long's Hearing Care!!

Cead Mille Falite
(One Hundred Thousand Welcomes)

Memorial Weekend 2016 commemorates our 49th Annual Alma Highland Festival and Games!
Welcome to the festivities!

Throughout the year, there is a large team of volunteers that put in countless hours and hard work to put this event on. Without them, we would not be able to put this all together! Thank you is the least we can say in our gratitude for all those able hearts and hands that believe in this Festival to make it happen. Also, on behalf of the Board of Directors and Executive Board of the Alma Highland Festival, thank you to the City of Alma and Alma College for their hard work in making this community and campus welcoming and ready for the visitors and patrons of the Festival. Your commitment to the celebration of Alma's Scottish heritage does not go unnoticed!

My bio within this program mentions that I began my Festival journey with watching my sister dance. If truth be known, she is my step-sister (although being together since we were eight years old makes the "step" almost non-existent) and my first Festival was in 1994, which also happened to be the spring that her dad married my mom. From then on I have always thought of the Alma Highland Festival as a place for families to come together as it did for mine. This is what I absolutely love about this Festival: I may not have a lick of Scottish heritage in my blood (hence my choice of the State of Michigan tartan to represent this year's Festival since I am a true Michigander and don't have Scottish roots), but this culture is so welcoming and proud of their history that it is hard not to feel like I have a bit of Scottish blood somewhere! Thank you to all those celebrating this great heritage and welcoming those from outside the Scottish realm!

This year we look forward to having all our visitors enjoy past favorites like the piping and drumming competition as well as dance competition, visiting the infamous Clan Heritage and Cultural tents, being awed by the Highland athletics and of course watching the border collies. Other events and activities to partake in would be our Arts and Crafts vendors, the parade to see local and State-wide businesses and organizations come together, as well as visiting the Children's Games to see "Nessie" and have a ride. We gladly welcome back the Celtic Caterer, Colin Grant Adams, reenactment camp, Jedi Mind Trip (yes, not Scottish, but oh-so-fun), Mother Grove and the Chelsea House Orchestra. New to us this year is that of the tug-of-war exhibitions—being amazed at strength and agility, folks! And a favorite of mine is that of Opening and Closing ceremonies where massed bands perform and come together—incredible sights and sounds for all.

From the swish of a kilt to a drone of a bagpipe to the simple enjoyment of a shortbread cookie, lots of Scottish culture to celebrate! My experience with the Festival has me rambling on and on about many things one can do at the Alma Highland Festival, but simply put: enjoy your time with your family and friends here in Scotland, USA! I am so proud to be a part of this incredible team that puts this together for you and yours! Scottish or not, we are all a part of the Alma Highland Festival Clan this weekend! Cead Mille Falite!

Performance Profiles

Chelsea House Orchestra

*Sponsored by Dr. Thomas & Alice Haverbush

*Using traditional stringed instruments, including violins, cellos and bass, plus wind instruments like clarinets and flutes, as well as lesser known instruments such as the djembe and cajon, Chelsea House Orchestra's music is lively and rich with history. Chelsea House Orchestra has performed in Chicago, Ohio, Indiana, North Carolina and Pennsylvania, at Celtic-based events, huge festivals drawing thousands, private fundraisers, and for dignitaries from U.S., Canada and Scotland. www.chelseahouseorchestra.org. Follow CHO on Facebook.

Mother Grove

After ten years, CDs and thousands of miles on the road, Mother Grove have certainly paid their dues. While their CDs are creatively growing and evolving from one to the next and captures their sound very well, Mother Grove's crown jewel is their live shows; High energy, fun and void of pretension, a Mother Grove show is like an intimate house concert turned up to 11. They interact with the crowd to such an extent, by the end of the evening you feel as if you're part of the band. You'll see them smiling, jumping, dancing and laughing on and off stage. All of which make them very approachable and sought after by pubs, festivals and venues all over the country.

Colin Grant Adams

Colin Grant-Adams' stimulating stage performance, fine guitar work and stirring vocals make him one of the most popular and versatile Celtic musicians in America today. His repertoire ranges from the traditional music of Scotland, Ireland and bluegrass music of America, to his highly acclaimed original compositions included on his eight recordings.

Colin, born and raised near Winchester, England in a predominantly Scottish community, was exposed to the culture and heritage that would shape his career. Originally from Edinburgh, Scotland, and a gifted musician himself, Colin's father was an early influence on his musical career. An experience not to be missed!
