Return the Empty Bags!

FLORENCE—While pet owners often consider the impact packaged pet food has on their pets, the same consideration is not often given to the impact the packaging has on the environment. By teaming up with TerraCycle®, Earthborn Holistic pet food bags are now recyclable through the Earthborn ReBorn® Recycling Program. This is a free national recycling program. Pet Depot of Florence is a public drop-off location for the program, allowing Shoals residents to return their empty bags during store hours and aid in the reduction of local landfill waste.

TerraCycle is an international recycling company that finds innovative solutions for materials not typically accepted at local recycling facilities. TerraCycle recycles the waste into new plastic products, including recycling bins and park benches.

By participating in the Earthborn ReBorn Recycling Program, Pet Depot earns points for every pet food bag it collects and sends to TerraCycle. Points can later be redeemed as a charity gift or cash donation to the pet charity of the store's choice.

Food Share Hits 10,000

SHEFFIELD—Over 10,000 items of non-perishable food were recently donated by Bank Independent's customers, employees, neighbors, and friends to the Bank's third annual Food Share drive. These items, in addition to almost $500 in cash donations, have been delivered to local charitable organizations for distribution to area families in need.

The 2016 Food Share drive culminated in May with an all-day food collection effort set up by Bank Independent at grocery stores in six counties.

Food Share donations were distributed to local organizations that maintain food banks to fill emergency food needs.

The Share drives are part of Bank Independent's Helping Hands program that also includes Shelter Share to benefit animal shelters, Toy Share to collect toys for the holidays, and the upcoming School Share drive for school supplies.

Helping Hands was inspired by employee requests for organized volunteer opportunities after the April 27, 2011 tornadoes. Since then Bank Independent employees have donated over 3800 hours in paid volunteer time to community efforts.

The Mysteries of God #2

1 Corinthians 4:1 "Let a man so account of us, as of the ministers of Christ, and stewards of the mysteries of God." The 13 Apostles, with the exception of John in Revelation; 4 times mysteries mentioned there; those Apostles received none of the revelations of the mysteries concerning eternal salvation in Christ and the believer and the church and its doctrines. All those revelations and mysteries and church doctrines (UNLESS LATER GIVEN TO THEM BY PAUL) were only given to the 14th Apostle Paul, the Gentile church Apostle, who was saved in Acts 9. This was admitted by Peter in 2 Peter 3:16. This means that the preaching and messages before Paul's salvation was primarily to Israel. Trying to make those passages fit into the grace gospel preached by Paul is futile. This produces no salvation, but a questionable and doubtful confused hope, with no security or assurance. This also keeps one in continual bondage trying to keep the law and commandments and continual fear of death. See Hebrews 2:15 & Romans 7:6. Paul refers to this in Romans 2:16 & 16:25, and in 2 Timothy 2:8 as "my gospel". Also notice in Romans 16:25, "the revelation of the MYSTERY." Thank God the saved man today is delivered from the law and the fear of death.

The second mystery is Colossians 1:27 "To whom God would make known what is the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles; which is Christ in you, the hope of glory." Ephesians 3:17 "That Christ may dwell in your hearts by faith; that ye, being rooted and grounded in love." These things are only revealed to the Apostle Paul. The problem is not understanding but belief. Folks have been taught wrong for so long, they listen to teachers and speakers more than read the word of God themselves. The Apostle Paul had these mysteries revealed to him by the Lord Himself. Galatians 1:12 "For I neither received it of man, neither was I taught it, but by the revelation of Jesus Christ." Don't be led by blind lost teachers, for you will wind up where they do, in perdition. See Matthew 15:14. Notice in Ephesians 2:8-9 "For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: Not of works, lest any man should boast." Is Christ in you? He can be, ask Him.

Innuendo Cloaks Terrorist Action

Not after waking up to the horror of the mass shooting in Orlando last Sunday morning, our insatiable desire to determine the real culprit and assign blame took over. We barely had time to get the background information on Omar Mateen, the 29 year old coward who perpetrated the act before the detractors hit full force.

We had yet to digest the magnitude of human loss or contemplate the ramifications for the wounded or the confusion and bewilderment dumped on victims' friends and family members that morning.

The media's immediate focus was that it was a gay nightclub instead of a nightclub, as if that somehow should alter the significance of the tragedy.

False narratives that the national media ran with included:

- Mateen was not religiously motivated according to his father.

Only an idiot would instantly buy that. As it turns out, Mateen was American-born yet had a long-standing hatred for America. He celebrated planes hitting the twin towers on 9/11 as a high school sophomore. He openly praised the Boston bombers. Mateen often visited a mosque known for ties to terrorism. He had been investigated by the FBI in 2013 and 2014 and was briefly placed on a no-fly list. He even boasted of his terrorist

Fundraising Dollars Should Serve Purpose

Editor:

In the last several weeks, I have received telephone solicitations from persons representing law enforcement agencies, veterans groups, or firefighter organizations. Without exception, these callers, upon my inquiry, consistently acknowledged that they are in fact professional fundraisers calling on behalf of the organizations on whose behalf they are seeking funds. Similarly, these callers, virtually without exception, acknowledge that the percentage of the funds they receive that actually goes to the noble purpose they describe is in the stingy range of only 10-15%.

I encourage my fellow citizens to make their own inquiries of such callers. By law they are required to tell you the percentage of their fund collections that actually goes to the "program purpose" of the organization that they allege to represent. Better yet, politely decline to make any contribution until you have checked out that organization on Charity Navigator, a widely respected source of information on charitable organizations. www.charitynavigator.org/index.cfm?bay=content.view&cpid=224

A note to law enforcement, veterans, and firefighter organizations: It is tempting to sign up for the services of these professional fundraisers, since they contract to provide some funds at no cost to you. But when you cooperate with them, it is more often than not the case that they will keep for themselves the great majority of contributions received, thus misleading well-meaning contributors into assuming that they are providing much more help for deserving causes than they really are.

The dumb Jew haters have come out of the woodwork to demonize Israel.

U.S. a Christian Nation

Editor

The Constitution of the United States of America was definitely built on the basic principles of Christianity which is built upon the Word of God: Jesus Christ, and the Bible. Knowing the entire Bible as addressing each individual life of learning to KNOW, LOVE and SERVE our creator, then this country's laws

See LETTERS... on Page 15

Letters...

United States a Christian Nation

must reflect those basic teachings. If you don't like the laws of this country, move to one that you do like!

This country has been blessed because it has lived for over 500 years officially obeying God's Laws by making them their own country's laws. Now that minority wishes are illogically becoming the rule, our country is already seeing God's warnings. It will get worse if we, the majority, do not stand up for TRUTH.

Please remember that this country was built upon Christian values because they were being persecuted for their beliefs in other existing countries. Are Christians now willing to give up what God has blessed them with, just like his people were constantly doing in the days of the Old Testament, before GOD came IN PERSON to teach us his ways?

I could write an entire book on this subject. However, if you read, study, pray and obey God's word, you will know the TRUTH because GOD IS ALL TRUTH. Therefore, love and obey, there is no other way.

Socialist Bernie is Abandoning Israel

Letter to the Editor:

Socialist Sanders appointed two anti-Israel people to his platform drafting committee. Cornel West espouses anti-Israel views, and James Zogby, President of the Arab American Institute, has denounced Israel. Sanders also appointed Representative Keith Ellison of Minnesota, an anti-Israel Muslim, to his platform committee.

Sanders, who honeymooned in Russia, and his left wing followers epitomize a major shift in the Democratic Party concerning Israel. A recent Pew Research Center survey showed liberal Democrats were twice as likely to sympathize with Palestinians over Israel than they were two years ago.

The dumb Jew haters have come out of the woodwork to demonize Israel. Their hatred makes them overlook the huge role Israel plays in projecting U.S. interests in the Middle East.

Thankfully, Hillary Clinton, Republicans, and Libertarians are strong supporters of U.S./Israel relations, and they have a deep understanding of world affairs.

ASK THE ATTORNEY

Joel Hamner

Ask the Attorney is sponsored by local attorneys, McCutcheon & Hamner, PC, as a service to the residents of NW Alabama.

for back surgery and the day before BC/BS called us and said they would not cover the cost because it was supposed to be covered by worker's compensation. Worker's Compensation won't pay and neither will BC/BS. What do we do? - Carol, Decatur

A Carol, it seems as though we are hearing this more and more that employers and the worker's compensation carriers are denying claims because the employee failed to give proper notice. The Alabama Worker's Compensation Act states that an employee must give his employer written notice of an on the job injury within 5 days of the accident. The Alabama Supreme Court has stated, however, that if an employer simply gives oral notice of an accident and injury that he has met the notice requirements. In your husband's case, he clearly gave "oral notice" to his supervisor within 5 days of the accident and he should be covered by the employer's compensation insurance.

Q My husband was working Sunday night on a holiday weekend when he hurt his back. The supervisors and the company nurse were on vacation during the holiday. He told a fellow employee that he thought he had pulled a muscle in his back. He finished his shift and came home. He was off work the next two days. During that time, the pain in his back got considerably worse. When he went back into work, he told his supervisor what had happened and was sent to the company nurse. The company nurse said that because he waited to tell them about the injury until he returned to work that he would have to put this on his Blue Cross Blue Shield Insurance. My husband was scheduled

So many injured workers I talk to fall into the trap that you and your husband now face. Recently, I met with a man who had been hurt on the job, told his supervisor what happened, and the supervisor asked the injured worker if he would just use his own health insurance to get treatment. The employee, worried that he would lose his job, did exactly what he was told. When the employee found out he was going to need shoulder surgery and was going to be out of work for 6 weeks, he told his employer about the surgery and asked what he was going to do for an income. The employer said they knew nothing about the accident being work related and told the employee he was on his own. To make matters worse, his health insurance is refusing to pay for the surgery because it was due to an on the job injury. So now this poor man cannot work due to his shoulder and he is losing everything he has because he has no income coming in while we fight his case out in court.

I realize jobs are hard to come by these days and after 20 years of representing injured workers I know that most everyone wants to do right by their employer. But when you are injured on the job and you do not provide notice of the accident and injury to your employer or you agree to get treatment outside of worker's compensation, the only person you are hurting is yourself and your family. You risk being bankrupt due to all the unpaid medical bills and you will have no income while you are recovering.

Medicare Minute

"Signing up for Medicare Part 1"

The most common way to qualify for Medicare is when you are turning 65. You will have a specific time period, set by Medicare, to enroll in Part A and Part B Medicare. This is known as the Initial Enrollment Period (IEP).

If you are qualifying for Medicare by turning 65 you will have a 7 month window to enroll in Medicare. This window is based off of the month you turn 65. It starts 3 months prior to the month you turn 65 and extends 3 months past the month you turn 65. For example, if you are turning 65 in September your IEP begins in June and extends all the way through the month of December. You can sign up for free Part A (if you're eligible) any time after you become eligible. If you have to buy Part A and/or Part B you can only sign up during a valid enrollment period.

For those electing to sign up for Part B after their IEP a late-enrollment penalty may be assessed. This penalty can last as long as you have Part B and there may be a gap in your health coverage. However, one exception to this rule is being employed and having coverage through your company's group health plan. If this applies to you check with your benefit coordinator, Medicare or contact our office.

In most cases, if you are already drawing your Social Security or Railroad Retirement Board benefits you should automatically be signed up for Part A and Part B. If you are not drawing your Social Security or RRB benefits and want to sign up for Medicare you can do so by signing up online at ssa.gov, visit your local Social Security office or give our office a call and we can help direct you.

If you have questions regarding any aspect of Medicare or Medicare health plans feel free call us at Alabama Health Guidance (256-284-7249), stop by our office at 879 Florence Blvd (Four Lane Shopping Center) or email me at ikey@alabamahealthguidance.com. DAVE Says

by DAVE RAMSEY

YOU'RE SELF-INSURED

Dear Dave, My husband and I are retired, we both receive nice pensions, and we owe $46,000 on our home. This is our only debt. I'm 65, he is 82, and we have more than $800,000 in variable annuities, along with substantial cash in savings. We also have $200,000 combined in life insurance coverage. If we cancel these two policies we can pay down an extra $10,000 a year on the house. Should we cancel the life insurance policies?

Anna

Dear Anna, At 82 and 65, you probably won't be able to get any more insurance at a decent price. If you get rid of it, you're going to be without it. The good news is that you have enough money through your pensions, investments, and savings to be what is known as "self-insured."

If I'm in your situation, I'd drop the life insurance policies and pay off the house as quickly as possible. Make sure you keep a good health insurance policy in place, because a hospital stay can eat your savings alive. I hope you have long-term care insurance, too.

Good question, Anna. You guys have done a great job with your money!
—Dave

single-stock investing, but do you think this is a good idea?
Mark

Dear Mark, This sounds more akin to a partnership than a stock. Basically, you'd be a minority shareholder in the business. That means zero power. Whatever money you put up could be lost, because the people running this business could decide to close up shop and you'd be powerless to stop it.

To me, this is way too scary. You'd be making a $300,000 investment that has no liquidity and that you can't sell on the open market. I'd want to see at least 30-percent return on my capital in a situation like this, so I wouldn't risk my money.

Keep your good job, but politely decline this shareholder offer. That's my advice.

KANE is a handsome boy who is friendly and quite easygoing. He is laid back and loves to be petted. Kane is very low maintenance, loves attention and even more, would LOVE a new home! THE PET OF THE WEEK SPECIAL ADOPTION FEE IS $15, which includes spay or neuter & rabies! To learn more, call the Colbert Shelter at 256-381-4073.

TALULAH is a beautiful 2 year old female. She gets along with everyone! She is about 60 pounds and loves to play and give affection! Talulah is spayed, up to date on vaccines, and HW negative. For more information, call the Florence Shelter at 256-760-6676.

I'm REED. I was born January, 2014. I'm a male terrier mix. I'm great with other dogs and children. I do love a good chase with a cat. I'm just having fun however. I'm house trained and crate trained. I'm very high energy. I would do best with a large fenced in yard to play in. I also would love to have a brother and sister to play with me. My humans would be great if they can spend extra time with me because I do need to be reminded of basic manners. What can I say? I just want to play. I'm neutered, up to date on my shots, and micro chipped. If you're interested in giving me a forever home, please call PAWS at 256-383-0690

TIGGER is a 40-lb, 7 months old love bug that is fully vetted, spayed, HW negative and on HW preventative, house and crate trained. Loves to play fetch, ride, and meet other dogs. $55 ADOPTION FEE. Home visit before and after adoption. To meet Tigger, please call R.E.A.L. 256-460-0596

Southeast Tourism Says, Top 20, Ya'll!

TUSCUMBIA- The It's a Dickens Christmas, Y'all festival, hosted by Tuscumbia Retail Development was named one of the Top 20 Events in December by the Atlanta-based Southeast Tourism Society. The festival adds a Southern twist to the Charles Dickens classic, A Christmas Carol. It includes a Dickens Feast complete with characters from A Christmas Carol, 5K and 1-mile runs, breakfast with Santa Claus, milk and cookies with Tiny Tim, music and arts and crafts along Main Street, carolers, dancers, carriage rides and other family-friendly activities.

May Woodie Christopher, president of Tuscumbia Retail Development, is elated with the honor for the festival.

"We are so excited. We think it is terrific," Christopher said. "It's a fun event and we add to it every year to keep it fun and exciting."

"Several of our downtown merchants also tell us that Dickens Christmas is their busiest weekend among all of the festivals all year," Christopher added. "That's what we like to hear."

Colbert County Tourism and Convention Bureau nominated the festival for consideration as a Top 20 event.

"We are so pleased to have this event receive the Top 20 designation, said Susann Hamlin, President/CEO of Colbert County Tourism. STS is well-known throughout the southeast and the United States and this award has much meaning to a potential visitor."

Many travelers plan their schedules to accommodate Southeast Tourism Society Top 20 events.

Events considered for the STS Top 20 recognition must be at least three years old and have attendance of at least 1,000 persons.

Amazing Fat-Loss Diet Special 20% Off Sale!

Forskolin Fat-Loss Diet

Forskolin is an extract derived from the Coleus plant. Researchers have discovered that forskolin promotes the breakdown of stored fat in the body.* In more technical terms, forskolin increases an enzyme called adenylate cyclase, which increases a compound called cyclic AMP in fat cells, and thereby triggers hormone-sensitive lipase to release fatty acids from adipose tissue.* Emerging research suggests that forskolin promotes healthy weight loss.* When used in conjunction with a sensible diet and exercise, forskolin can help reduce body fat and optimize body composition overall.*

Commentary

associations during phone calls as he was killing people that night.

• They reiterated that Mateen was homophobic because he hated gays.

Evidence now shows that he may have been gay or bisexual himself.

• He was mean and beat his wife, so he must have been unstable.

Many Muslim men are taught that authority is demonstrated and that discipline in the home is administered through physical intimidation. This is by no means surprising.

• Another point was that his access to guns was too easy.

Other that difficulties in school Mateen had a clean record and worked as a security guard for a company with connections to Homeland Security. He was investigated by the FBI twice and nothing surfaced. We can critique FBI methods, accuracy, and overall competence in the face of what has now surfaced. However, with no prior history or evidence to warrant concern, it was logical that he had access to firearms - his right to bear arms.

The media gushed all over President Obama's news conference and his "passionate cry from the heart" that Sunday afternoon. Again Obama refused to identify the underlying religious cauldron, instead opting to focus on ancillary or unrelated issues.

He managed to stoke the social fires with, "No act of hate or terror will ever change who we are or the values that make us Americans."

We all know that his use of the term "hate" is a blatant accusatory nod towards what is perceived as intolerant Christians. Not only was that political stab a disservice to victims and their families, but Obama avoided stating what is obvious; that radical Islam is to blame for another atrocity.

An ACLU representative aggressively blamed the Christian right for the massacre. There were several other high-profile accusations of hypocrisy because many Christian groups were expressing sorrow and offering prayers for the survivors and the injured. The insinuation was that any fair-weather disagreement Christians have with the gay community amounts to contention, which equates to hate. That is a broad, self-defeating leap and couldn't be further from the truth.

One day we will realize that this life is short, little more than a blip on the screen of eternity. For true Christians, it's all about helping every one of us attain salvation regardless of where we are in life's walk.

It's a sad state of societal affairs when in times of tragedy we cannot offer a shoulder of sympathy or a prayer to those with whom we may have some disparity of thought.

FELINE MAMMARY CANCER

Mammary tumors are common in cats, especially those who are unspayed or are spayed late in life

By Kim Campbell Thornton
Universal Uclick

Each week, as Lisa-Maria Padilla trims her cats' nails, she gives them an all-over body check to make sure everything looks and feels normal. A little over a year ago, she noticed that her 10-year-old cat Twyla, a blue Abyssinian, had a tiny nodule near one of her nipples. It wasn't painful and Twyla wasn't behaving differently, but Padilla knew something wasn't right.

She took Twyla to her veterinarian, who surgically removed the nodule, along with a distal lymph node — from behind a hind leg — and sent them to a pathology lab for analysis. More than 90 percent of feline mammary tumors are malignant, says board-certified veterinary oncologist Gregory Ogilvie, and Padilla knew that. She was prepared for the worst.

The tumor was indeed cancerous, and tests on the lymph node indicated that the cancer had already metastasized into the lymphatic system.

"If there was good news, it was that both an ultrasound of Twyla's abdominal area and radiographs of her chest showed no signs that the cancer had spread there," Padilla says.

Based on Twyla's overall good health and strong physical condition — she was the first winner of the Cat Fanciers Association Feline Agility National — Padilla opted for the standard of treatment: a radical mastectomy to remove all four mammary glands on the cancer-affected side, followed by a radical mastectomy to remove all the mammarys on the other side.

"That surgery is a lot of trauma on a small cat," Padilla says. "The day I brought Twyla home, I was really frightened. The sutured incision went from just below her neck to her groin. My poor cat was shivering, and there was no way she could get comfortable. I set up a large cage, lined with pillows so that she would not contort her body, and would just lay still. She looked dreadful."

Padilla questioned her decision to fight the cancer, but two days later, Twyla was eager to eat and wanted to play. Her condition improved rapidly, and the most difficult part of recovery was keeping her confined for three weeks so she could heal. She's a sociable cat, so not only did Padilla spend time sitting on the floor next to her cage to keep her company, she also asked neighbors to come in and spend time with her while she was at work.

Once the surgical incisions healed, Twyla began receiving chemotherapy, a total of five rounds given every two to three weeks. Sometimes radiation therapy is also used, Dr. Ogilvie says.

In Twyla's case, chemotherapy brought another challenge.

"After the first chemo infusion, the vets realized that Twyla would have to be sedated for each treatment, as she is too active and 'busy,'" Padilla says.

The high-dose regimen complete, Twyla

After treatment, Twyla, an Abyssinian cat, has been free of detectable cancer for just over a year. At 11, she is lively and outgoing.

now receives a daily low dose of medication. Called metronomic therapy, the goal is to stop remaining tumor cells from sprouting blood vessels — in effect, to starve them.

"The tablet is compounded to taste like chicken, so Twyla thinks she's getting a treat every morning," Padilla says. "If there has been a challenge with the low-dose chemo tablet, it is keeping Twyla's weight up. The tablet can make her stomach a little upset, so she is not hungry, but it doesn't make her vomit. I try to give her nutritious treats during the day."

Padilla is glad she decided to treat her cat's cancer.

"Twyla is one very happy girlfriend," she says. "She loves every day, and at 11 years old, remains probably the most active cat in my house."

Is dog's behavior accident or spite?

Q My boyfriend was two hours late getting home to feed his corgis, and one of them pooped on the kitchen floor. They had access to the yard, and it was a nice day. I think the dog knew that pooping in the house was wrong (he even looked guilty) and was being spiteful because he didn't get dinner on time, but my boyfriend insists that dogs aren't spiteful. Who's right?
— via Facebook

A We are so close to our dogs, and so often they communicate with us so perfectly that it's easy to think that they share not only our great qualities but also our less admirable motivations, like "getting even" or "being spiteful." Those are complex emotions, though, and as wonderful as our dogs are, they aren't capable of those sentiments.

That guilty expression isn't an actual acknowledgment of wrongdoing, but what psychologists call an "appeasement behavior." Our dogs can tell when we're upset with them, even though they have no idea what might have caused our angry expression or tone of voice. In response to what they perceive as intimidating or threatening body language, they do their best to try to diffuse the situation by offering behaviors that signal submission or peaceful intentions. To us, though, it looks as if they're saying, "Yes, I did it, and I'm sorry."

In reality, dogs have no idea why we're angry. They can't connect the act of pooping in the house two hours previously with your current dismay over the mess. A dog who poops in the house while his humans are away isn't trying to get back at them for leaving him alone or for being late with dinner. It's more likely that he is anxious because his routine has been disrupted. — Mikkel Becker

Cat & Kids

by Cathy Turner

It's called Relationship

You know, if the Cavs had lost Game 5 with Golden State's Draymond Green out, LeBron James would not have been able to live it down. The media and Golden State would have raved on and on about it. Why do I think this? Because it was an opinion that my son expressed with which I agreed. I know enough about The Finals of the NBA to know whether and why to agree with that. Am I a die-hard pro ball fan? No, not really. I can't even decide who I am really for - Curry with his quick, sneaky, amazing playground playing style or LeBron with his heavy-handed, you-can't-stop-this, slamming, diverse, balling game. Maybe Curry, because he is such a good daddy. (Don't tell my husband.) But my point is that through the years of watching my brother, my husband's brother, our children and a gazillion games on TV, I know the game of basketball. I enjoy basketball. Am I passionate about it? I was when my loved ones were playing. Could I be done with it today? Yes. Why, then, do I still keep up with it somewhat? To be in the conversation.

It makes me think of a show that I watched the other day that my husband has mentioned in conversation more than once since. It was about hippos. Did you know that hippos can hold their breath for up to five minutes underwater? They have a clear membrane that covers their eyes underwater and their nostrils close to keep the water out. Hippos can weight up to 8000 pounds, yet they are good swimmers. My husband marveled at these creatures that God designed and he made me marvel with him. I would have changed the channel after a minute or two, but instead, I watched. Why? To be in the conversation, to share mutual interest. It's called relationship.

I have seen every Marvel movie that has come out - Batman, Spiderman, Superman, Thor, The Guardians, Iron Man, The Avengers, and the sequels of these, Hulk, etc. I didn't see Antman. I was there when the first Star Trek opened and I saw every one. I've seen all of the Hunger Games movies. Fast and Furious 1,2 & 4-7? I saw them. All of the Lord of the Ring flicks with the walking trees and monstrously big-faced bad guys - I have seen them. I know the characters of the Harry Potter movies. The Divergent series. I mean, I started with Dark Shadows and The Jetsons. My brother and I physically fought when I tried to change Interstellar. I am interested now. I am all up in the conversation. This gives my fellas joy, and it gives me joy to be with them. Sci-fi is still not my favorite. Musicals are, but I think that I have passed that love on. We have learned from each other. That's interaction. Connection.

Ladies, the Copa America Soccer tournament, Golf US Open, Wimbledon and the Tour de France, the Olympics are all coming up. Watch some sports with your fellas. Get in the conversation and get to know more about your husband. And while I'm at it, men go to church with your wives and get involved. You will get to know her deepest side. Ladies and gents, invest in each other. It creates comradery and closeness. Really, do you want to relate?

 News & Tips on the Shoals Market

Staying Cool

Wow, this summer is already a scorcher (as if there is really any other kind in Alabama). With mid-June days hitting the 100 degree mark, how to stay cool is on everyone's mind. With that in mind, I talked to my friend Larry Mabe, owner of Mabe Heating & Air. The Mabe family has been providing top-notch heating and air service to the Shoals area for thirty years, and are into their third generation. I was able to get some great advice from him about how to keep your home as cool as possible.

Maintain your HVAC unit. Mr. Mabe recommends having equipment checked by a qualified technician in April and again in October. This ensures that your unit is properly charged for the summer months and again in preparation for winter. You also have to do your part in keeping filters maintained. Change them out regularly to avoid putting unnecessary strain on your equipment.

Have realistic temperature expectations. There is a generally accepted industry temperature exchange of around 20 degrees, but there are also variables which can affect that. Shade from trees can make a significant difference in how hot your home gets. Mr. Mabe says that during these 100 degree days, 74 seems to be the "magic number" for thermostats. And speaking of thermostats, it is well worth the money to upgrade a dated thermostat. An older thermostat may not read air temperature correctly, and replacing it with a more efficient model will save you money in the long run.

Check for sources of cooling loss. There are two major sources of cooling loss in homes: duct work and windows. Duct work should be thoroughly checked from one end to the other, and any damage repaired. If there's a hole or gap in duct work, the cool air you're paying for is being lost either in your attic or under your house. Windows must be properly installed and insulated in order to maintain the temperature of your home. If they're not, having them replaced could make it surprisingly cooler inside.

There are also little ways to keep it cooler at home. Things like only running the clothes dryer at night, using a crockpot or the grill instead of the oven, and keeping blinds and drapes closed during the sunniest part of the day can all make a difference. Before you know it, the oppressive heat will be fading and we'll be talking about football. Well, we'll be talking about football soon anyway. Stay cool... - mrr

DAYS OF OUR LIVES Aiden accepted Andre's offer to eliminate his romantic rival. Claire was thrilled to learn that her parents were getting back together. Adrienne and Lucas shared a romantic reunion. Marlena visited Abigail and tried to calm her agitation. Meanwhile, Chad privately made plans to break Abigail out of the facility. Hope asked Aiden to join her on a trip to Green Mountain Lodge.

A man named Monahan announced to the skeptical police that that he killed Stefano. Paul accepted John's offer to work for him at Black Patch. Kate fired Nicole in front of Dario. Wait to See: Ex-spouses compare notes regarding recent transgressions.

GENERAL HOSPITAL Nina and Maxie didn't know what to do when a suspicious package was delivered to them. Kiki felt conflicted by her feelings for both Morgan and Dillon. Franco elected not to respond to Nina's texts. Anna and Paul found some common ground. Later, Paul made a promise to Mayor Lomax. Sonny confronted Julian about his treatment of Alexis. Carly was warned not to push matters where Michael and Sabrina were concerned. Anna advised Alexis on her next move. Monica read Finn the riot act. Ava feared that she would be hunted down. Julian was reminded of what he must do. Valerie was forced to make a tough judgment call. Wait to See: Sonny is concerned by Morgan's codependence on Kiki.

THE YOUNG AND THE RESTLESS Lily was convinced that Hilary only pretended to faint. Meanwhile, Jack hid Hilary's trembling hands from Devon. Kevin demanded to know the real reason why Mariah was living with her mom again. Victoria was convinced that Victor was responsible for sabotaging the oil rig. Phyllis shunned Jack's attempts at intimacy. Summer grilled Travis about his relationship with Victoria. Meanwhile, Luca didn't waste any time telling Billy about the new man in Victoria's life. Adam was convinced that Victor was framing someone. Wait to See: Adam receives some devastating news.

The Shoals Chamber of Commerce is accepting applications for the 28th Leadership Shoals class through July 15. The general class size is 25-30 individuals and spans nine sessions from August to May. The $800 per person cost of the program covers all meals, admissions to events, travel and lodging costs. Two overnight stays, one in September at Earle Trent Assembly and another in Montgomery in March, are part of the program.

Leadership Shoals is an opportunity to better understand and appreciate the Shoals community. Since its inception over 25 years ago, Leadership Shoals has seen more than 500 businesses and community leaders go through this program. Leadership Shoals offers numerous opportunities to broaden perspectives and gain an increased understanding of community dynamics and public issues.

Members are encouraged to complete a group project, as well as attend one city council meeting, take a police ride shift with an officer, and write a brief summation of each. Applicants must also be a current Shoals Chamber member.

Following the program, the Chamber holds a graduation ceremony for all participants that have met requirements. The application is found under the Chamber tab at shoalschamber.com. JUNE 22 - Brad Adcock (Stony Point Church of Christ)

1. How did you create the universe?
2. Why don't you just let people live the way they want to live (without punishment)?
3. If everything is going according to your plan, what purpose does prayer serve? My asking you for things either coincides with your plans in the first place, in which case my prayer was redundant. Or what I'm asking for contradicts your plan, in which case it's futile. What purpose does prayer serve?

JUNE 29 - Terry Johnson (Plainview CoC; Henderson, TN)

1. Why do people have to die?
2. Why isn't rape and incest one of the things forbidden in the ten commandments?
3. Why did you make religion so confusing?

Note: Location designation next to the speaker's name indicates the congregation where he ministers. There will be a separate Bible Class activity for younger children each evening. Please see this ad in the Courier Journal each week for new Speaker and Question Topic info.
