By Shawn Wansley
 LUBBOCK, Texas – Jones County Junior College's Chris Kirtland is among the finalists for the 2016 Skip Bertman National Coach of the Year Award.

The award honors the nation's top collegiate coach from any level of college baseball. The finalists were announced by the National College Baseball Hall of Fame on Wednesday. In his first season as head coach of the Bobcats, Kirtland guided JCJC to a 54-9 record and the NJCAA Division II World Series championship – the first national championship for an MACJC school in baseball. The award finalists and winner are selected by a national committee of active and retired coaches from all levels of college baseball.

"The coaches on this list have either won a national championship, or are in the running, so they've all had great years," said Mike Gustafson, president and CEO of the National College Baseball Hall of Fame. "Any of them would make worthy recipients." Among the other finalists for the 2016 award are four Division I coaches who will lead their team into the College World Series this weekend, including two for the first time -- Andrew Checketts from UC-Santa Barbara and Gary Gilmore from Coastal Carolina -- as well as Florida's Kevin O'Sullivan and 2014 Bertman Award winner Tim Tadlock from Texas Tech. The other finalists include coaches of six championship teams: Kirtland, Greg Brown from Nova Southeastern (Florida) University (NCAA Division II), Tim Scannell from Trinity (Texas) University (NCAA Division III), Jeremiah Robbins from Lewis-Clark (Idaho) State College (NAIA), Ryan Cougill from Yavapai (Arizona) College (NJCAA Division I) and Doug Wren from Tyler (Texas) Junior College (NJCAA Division III). The award recognizes coaches at every level of college baseball. Paul Mainieri from LSU won the award last year, and Mike Dickson from NJCAA Division III Gloucester County College earned the award in 2013.

Bertman coached at LSU from 1984 to 2001. During his tenure, he won five national championships and was named

In Loving Memory of Kimberly Diane Williams
June 22, 1992
October 13, 2013

It's been almost 3 years since you left us, but it always seems to me to be just like yesterday. With tears of sorrow, we cry each day, in angels arms you were carried away. Your laughter shall not fade away, for inside our hearts you will always stay. We pray you are enjoying a wonderful birthday with Jesus.

We miss you and love you forever, Mom & Dad, and daughter Alaysia, Sister and Brother, Aunts, Uncles, Grandmother, Great-Grandmother, Cousins and Friends.

P.S. Alaysia, your sweet baby girl has gotten so big and adorable, and is loved by so many. She has a birthday coming in August and she will be 3 years old, I have a big party planned for her. So don't be worried about her, she is well taken care of. You did right when you picked Brittany Craft to be her God-Mother. She is helping me, your mother, and is doing an excellent job!

We Love You, you may be gone from our eyesight, but you will never be forgotten.

Love you always, your mother, Barbara
