TripAdvisor Honors Two

FLORENCE – Hampton Inn & Suites locations at Florence-Downtown and Florence-Midtown each have received a 2016 TripAdvisor Certificate of Excellence Award. The achievement celebrates hospitality businesses that have earned great traveler reviews on the online TripAdvisor site over the past year. To qualify a business must maintain an overall TripAdvisor bubble rating of at least four out of five, have a minimum number of reviews, and they must have been listed on TripAdvisor for at least twelve months.

“We are proud to be recognized by TripAdvisor with a Certificate of Excellence Award,” said Vickie Atwood, general manager of Hampton Inn & Suites, Florence-Downtown. “This honor is a testament to our dedication to exceptional customer service. We appreciate our guests giving us excellent ratings on this site and helping us to achieve this recognition.”

Hampton Inn & Suites Florence-Downtown is located at 505 South Court Street in Florence. Hampton Inn Florence-Midtown is located at 2281 Florence Blvd. Drew Richards is the general manager.

Amenities at each location include an On the House breakfast each morning and Hampton’s On the Run™ Breakfast Bags, available Monday-Friday. Additionally, it provides free Wi-Fi, a 24-hour business center with complimentary printing, and a fitness center.

25 Years for XMC Systems

JACKSON, TN — Sixteen years after getting into the office equipment business in Jackson, Tennessee, Bob Hamilton opened the first XMC office in Memphis. He had one employee, Ben McCaghen, who later became a partner.

That was in 1991. Twenty-five years later, XMC has more than 80 employees and nine offices throughout the Southeast, including its office in Florence.

Hamilton’s efforts have led to many successes with the Xerox Corporation. XMC was nominated for the small business award from the Memphis Business Journal and our electrical maintenance team. Craft's scholarship package totals $136,000.

In order to apply students must have a strong work ethic, positive attitude, eagerness to learn, be self-motivated, hard-working, and be 18 years old by August 1. The benefits of this program include tuition, books, fees covered by Nucor, housing provided for students, and hourly wages paid for both work and classroom hours.

"We are very excited for Collin to have this opportunity," stated Elesia Crosswhite, MSCA CTE Guidance Counselor. "He went through a rigorous interview process and testing before being chosen as the scholarship recipient. The scholarship applications are open to high school and college students. It speaks volumes of Collin's character to be selected as a high school student. Collin has worked for the past two years with a local manufacturing company. He is a member of the National Honor Society and the National Career Technical Honor Society. Collin participated in the Project Lead the Way Engineering curriculum as well as taking dual enrollment coursework in Industrial Systems and Welding with Northwest Shoals Community College."

SILENT and LISTEN

My Office Administrator, June, handed me a note the other day that said, "Silent and Listen have the same letters". Once I got past the "Why did you give that to me?" portion of the discussion, (By the way, the reason was fairly obvious) I began to dwell on the simple truths in that statement.

To really listen, one must be silent.

Think of what usually happens in a conversation. One person is speaking and the other person is either speaking over that person or they are thinking in their head of what they are going to say next. There is no silent time. We are either talking or thinking about what we are going to say if the other person dares to pause and take a breath.

What goes unheard because we fail to listen? What have we missed because we failed to be silent?

Maybe we missed a really good idea. If you only know what you have learned by listening to yourself - then you only know what you know. Have you ever heard someone say, "If you listen you might learn something?" There may be a nugget of wisdom out there that has escaped you all these years because listening requires silence.

We might have missed an encouraging word. Being silent and listening might open us up to some much needed encouragement. There are folks out there who are very good at lifting up the discouraged. Maybe they have spoken words of encouragement that went unheard because we weren't listening in silence. We might find the world to be a better, kinder place than we imagined if we would only listen.

Could it be possible that we have missed a cry for help? People seldom shout out when they need help. However, if we are listening to them, they are trying to tell us and we can perceive the need from "something" they say. Silence allows us to hear the quiet cry of a friend in need. Listening in silence gives us an opportunity to respond in a helpful way. Listening opens our eyes as well as our ears. We see and hear opportunities others missed.

Imagine a world where each person used the formula of Silence = Listening. There would be more good ideas shared, more encouraging words spoken and more cries for help answered. Sounds wonderful doesn't it? Then let's be SILENT and LISTEN.

ASK THE ATTORNEY

Joel Hamner

Ask the Attorney is sponsored by local attorneys, McCutcheon & Hamner, PC, as a service to the residents of NW Alabama.

Q My husband was injured on the job. He went to a couple of doctor visits on his own but after undergoing an MRI, he was told he needs surgery. Now he has been assigned a nurse case manager (NCM) and she is coming to every appointment. She talks to the doctor when he is not around and although she is nice to his face, there is something about her I don't trust. Recently, my husband went to a scheduled doctor's appointment only to get there and be told that the appointment had been canceled because the NCM couldn't be there. Is this legal?

Trisha, Killen, AL

A I hope your husband is doing well and I wish him a speedy recovery. Unfortunately,

Alabama law does allow the use of nurse case managers. Furthermore, your woman's "intuition" is exactly spot on, you should not trust this person. NCMs exist for one reason and one reason only, to get an injured worker back to work and off of the insurance company's payroll as soon as possible regardless of whether they are fully recovered or not. I am sure all the NCMs will disagree with me but I have no problem calling a spade a spade. They may act like your best friend but always remember, they are hired by the insurance company.

When Alabama adopted the Worker's Compensation Act, there were a couple of trade-offs. First, an injured employee could no longer sue an employer for negligence. In return, the employer, which is really the worker's compensation insurance company, had to pay the injured employee's cost of medical treatment, a percentage of his wage while he is out of work recovering, and any future loss of earning capacity. The employer, however, was granted the right to control the course of medical treatment which means the employer gets to choose the treating doctors.

Because the employer/worker's compensation insurance carrier got to choose the injured worker's treating doctor, the nurse case manager was born. The vast majority of doctors who treat our clients have the injured worker's best interest at heart. The NCM, on the other hand, is there to control costs, push the doctor to return the injured employee to work whether they are ready or not, and basically do all they can to insure that the insurance company spends as little money as possible.

Tom and I have a very strict set of guidelines that the nurse case manager must follow when dealing with our clients. For example, we will not allow the NCM to meet with the doctor outside of our client's presence. More than once I have called a NCM to the mat for violating these rules.

Trisha, after 22 years as a personal injury attorney I will tell you what I tell everyone who has been injured on the job, hire an attorney. Whether it's my firm or another firm, the best thing you can do is hire an attorney who will protect you and your family during this time.

Crimson Tide Great

One of the Shoals area's most versatile athletes enjoyed a sports career that many kids dream about growing up. Being from Leighton, you always yearned to be a part of Colbert County High School's great sports tradition and later move on to stardom in the collegiate ranks.

That's exactly what happened to one of the school's most outstanding athletes: Dante Ellington. Ellington was a 1999 graduate of Colbert County High School. He was a three-sport letterman in football, basketball and track. Ellington really excelled in football for the Indians. He was a three-time All-State and All-Area selection in 1996, 1997 and 1998.

He was named to the prestigious Parade All-American football team in 1998. In track, Ellington was a Class 3-A State Champion in both the discus and shot put in 1999. Following graduation, Ellington was pursued by schools from all over the country including every school in the Southeastern Conference.

He chose the University of Alabama and signed to play for the Crimson Tide. Ellington started as a true freshman for Alabama in 1999 and was selected to the All-SEC Freshman Team and was also named to the All-American Freshman Team. After lettering for four years for the Tide, Ellington signed with the NFL's Philadelphia

Eagles and eventually was a member of a World Bowl Championship team in Europe for the Berlin Thunder.

Ellington received the ultimate recognition for his athletic achievements this past April when he was inducted into the Colbert County Sports Hall of Fame. In the long list of Alabama great football players, Dante Ellington certainly earned his place.

Medicare Minute

"Signing up for Medicare Part 2"

Most Americans qualify for Medicare by turning 65 but there are other ways to qualify such as being disabled, having End Stage Renal disease (ESRD) or ALS. Today we are going to look at how you would sign up if you are disabled.

If you are under the age of 65 and disabled, you will automatically be enrolled in Part A and Part B after you have received Social Security or Railroad Retirement Board (RRB) benefits for at least 24 months. If you are disabled, covered by your or your spouse's group health plan and wish to stay on that plan my suggestion is to contact the plan and confirm that you can remain on the plan even though you have Medicare. This may allow you to delay your Part B until a later date.

You are eligible for Medicare if you have End Stage Renal Disease and you've worked the required amount of time under Social Security, RRB or as a government employee OR you're already getting or are eligible for Social Security or RRB benefits OR you're the spouse or dependent child of one of the previous requirements. You should contact Social Security or the RRB for the amount of time worked to be eligible for Medicare.

If you're under 65 and have ALS your Medicare benefits should begin the first month you start receiving your Social Security or RRB benefits. Again contact Social Security or RRB for a list of the benefits.

Whether it's SSI or RRB disability, ESRD or ALS I would encourage you to NEVER voluntarily leave your current health plan until you have covered all your bases with your current plan and Medicare. In most cases once you leave you cannot go back!! If you are faced with any of these 3 situations and need additional assistance feel free to contact our office.

If you have questions regarding any aspect of Medicare or Medicare health plans feel free call us at Alabama Health Guidance (256-284-7249), stop by our office at 879 Florence Blvd (Four Lane Shopping Center) or email me at ikey@alabamahealthguidance.com.

Celebrity/Guest Editorial

Long Ago Words Are Sorely Needed

EDITOR'S NOTES: Contentiousness over what constitutes legal (and just) immigration looms over our nation like never before. As we prepare to celebrate our freedoms and independence in the coming days, there has never been a more appropriate time to reflect on words from President Teddy Roosevelt over a century ago. His focus on the foundation of responsibility that made this nation great is as equally impeccable as it was prophetic.

"In the first place, we should insist that if the immigrant who comes here in good faith becomes an American and assimilates himself to us, he shall be treated on an exact equality with everyone else, for it is an outrage to discriminate against any such man because of creed, or birthplace, or origin.

But this is predicated upon the person's becoming in every facet an American, and nothing but an American... There can be no divided allegiance here. Any man who says he is an American, but something else also, isn't an American at all. We have room for but one flag, the American flag... We have room for but one language here, and that is the English language ... and we have room for but one sole loyalty and that is a loyalty to the American people."

Theodore Roosevelt 1907

It's not surprising that his comments presided over the most industrious and hard-working generation of immigrants in American history. They were looking for nothing more than an opportunity to legally pursue the American dream. The stark contrast of entitlement demands, ignorance, and lawlessness by current generations of immigrants and their political advocates is despicable by any responsible measure.

Really Specific

Editor:

In response to Floyd N. Price's letter, June 1, (Is Jesus Not Being Specific?) I think Jesus was specific. Read Matthew 28:19-20, Mark 16:16, Acts 2:38, Acts 8:35-38, Acts 16:31,33, Romans 6:3-6, I Corinthians 12:13, Galatians 3:27, and I Peter 3:21 is REAL SPECIFIC.

Roger Kimbrell
Florence

She Was Indoctrinated

Editor:

Charlotte Manis' biased, opinion, referring to this country being founded on Christian principles (U.S. a Christian Nation / June 22) was not based on fact. The opinion was erroneous and arrogant, grounded in the fact that we live in the Bible-belt and the author feels confident in the support of the community. I refer you to the Freedom from Religion Foundation's website, <https://ffrf.org>, and its speech by

Alzheimer's disease is the sixth-leading cause of death in the United States and the only cause of death among the top ten in the U.S. that cannot be prevented, cured or even slowed.

Andrew Seidel, entitled "Debunking the Christian Nation Myth."

I hope that I can rely on you to improve your knowledge rather than merely referring to what you have believed without question for what must have been indoctrinated since birth by those here in the Bible-belt.

I will sum up this speech in three words: YOU ARE WRONG.

Your opinion is your own, but I definitely do not believe you should cram it down an unsuspecting reader's throat as a letter-to-the-editor of a small town newspaper. You claim that you can write an entire book on this subject. Are all of your arguments this one-sided? Do yourself a favor; increase your intelligence and research both sides of the story before you appear a fanatic publicly.

THIS SCAM HAS BEEN around for a while and I've written about it before but I have seen an aggressive uptick in the frequency of this scam recently and there is much confusion surrounding it. So it's time for an update.

If you've spent any time on Facebook, you've probably seen one of your friends post that they were "hacked" and were concerned that someone would post material that was inappropriate.

Generally speaking, these people were not "hacked." The term "hacked" means that someone guessed your Facebook password and logged into your account. That's not what's happening here.

Fisher

FACEBOOK COPYCATS

by "The Computer Skeptic"

What really happened is that you likely accepted a friend request from some random person. That person then copied all your personal data—including your profile picture—and made another Facebook profile using your identity. That person then befriends your list of friends.

Once he/she has enough of your friends on the hook, he/she will often send a private message to your friends claiming that you've been stranded in a foreign country and need money to get back home. Sometimes they will post links to "amazing" weight loss pill or some other enticing link that serves to drive website traffic to a particular website. Don't fall for it!

Whether you were "hacked" in this manner or not, there are two things you need to do to protect yourself from Facebook scammers:

First, many of you have your Facebook profiles set to "public." That means anyone can see your entire profile, including your list of friends and make a copy of it at will—without sending you a friend request first. "Public" is the default setting for Facebook so if you've never changed this setting, your stuff is public. So the first thing you need to do is lockdown your profile so that only your friends can see your posts, photographs and personal information. Go to your Facebook privacy settings and change your profile visibility from "public" to "friends only." While you're at it, you also need to restrict who can see your list of friends. Do so by clicking on your friend's list, then "Edit privacy."

The second thing is to not accept friend requests from random strangers. These fake profiles often have a picture of some hot girl/guy that will entice you to accept the friend request. These profiles usually only have a pitiful number of friends (perhaps 5 or 6) and no Timeline posts.

The last time I wrote about this, Facebook had no way to effectively report a fake profile.

That has changed. Now you can simply go to the offending profile, click on the three little dots, and report the profile as fake. Oftentimes, the scammer will "block" you from seeing the fake profile they created of you so you cannot personally report the profile. If you find out that you have been "copied" (not "hacked") the only thing you can do is enlist the help of your friends and have them report the profile as a fake one.

ON YOUR DEBT

Can I Leave My Spouse Out of a Bankruptcy Case?

B. Grant McNutt
Managing Attorney

Potential clients often wonder if they have to file with their spouse or if they can file on their own. The short answer is that you can file on your own, but the court will still want to know some information about your spouse. In addition, you may be better off if your spouse files with you.

A person files bankruptcy only if they actually sign the bankruptcy petition that is filed with the court. If your husband or wife hasn't signed any paperwork, then they aren't actually a part of the case. A bankruptcy case is tied to the social security number of the person filing, so the fact that you are filing a case should not appear anywhere on your spouse's credit record.

However, your spouse's information plays a large role in filing a case. The court calculates income based on the household, not the individual. This means that the court will require you to disclose your spouse's income even if he or she is not filing. If there is other income to the household other than from your spouse (for example, your fiancé or live-in boyfriend/girlfriend), then the court will want to know that information as well. This information is what the court uses when examining your monthly household budget. This also means that your spouse's expenses can be included in that budget as well. So even if your spouse has a high income, you may still qualify to file a bankruptcy case since your spouse's bills can be taken into account.

In addition, filing jointly with your spouse may be better for you than filing individually. When you file a joint bankruptcy case, you are entitled to claim property exemptions for real and personal property for both you and your spouse. In Alabama, exemptions for an individual are $15,000 for your homestead and $7,500 for personal property. For a joint couple, the exemptions double to $30,000 and $15,000. It is possible that a joint case could eliminate the debts of both you and your spouse while also protecting more of your property from the court.

To weigh the pros and cons of filing an individual or joint case, you should consult with an experienced consumer bankruptcy attorney. At Bond & Botes, our attorneys have years of experience helping people navigate the complex laws of the bankruptcy court system.

We can help you stop a foreclosure or wage garnishment, avoid liens and stop law suits.

Goodness, was co-written by Narmore.

Half of the album's tracks are intimate solo performances. The other half includes drummer, Lynn Williams; bassist, Paul Ossola; and Andreas Werner on guitar. Many of Muscle Shoals' greatest session musicians are guesting on the album including the Muscle Shoals Horns, David Hood, Spooner Oldham, Mickey Buckins, Peanut Montgomery, Will McFarlane, Kelvin Holly, David MacKay, Cindy Walker, Marie Lewey, and Wet Willie's Jimmy Hall.

Mark Narmore is a Center Star native. He is best known for writing the number one country hit, "That's What I Love About Sunday" for Craig Morgan and other hits like Shenandoah's "The Moon Over Georgia" and Blackhawk's "Like There Ain't No Yesterday."

Not Acting In This Case

Editor:

Democrats in DC have proven they are real idiots. I watched them on TV as they sat on the floor whining, and I thought about two things.

First, where were they a few years ago when Pelosi and Reid ruled the congressional kingdom? Democrats didn't seem to mind that those so-called leaders refused to allow Republicans to participate in any meaningful way.

Second, I had to wonder why they each didn't don a little baby cap and diaper with a pacifier in their mouths and a rattle in their hands. That way they could sit there, kick their feet, and scream as they threw a tantrum. I have never seen such childishness from adults. We taxpayers pay them way too much for them to act like fools! Of course in this case, they are not acting.

David R. Aday Killen

To Control or To Let It Go

Editor:

Everything and everyone we are involved with during this life falls into one of two categories. We can choose to attempt to control something (or someone) or we can let it go. Both options are always available and we always have a choice.

Letting go doesn't mean we agree with or condone situations or behaviors that we allow to affect us in a negative way. It just means we stop trying to control it and our version of what it means to us. Whoever said any one of us has the capacity to understand everything about any one person or situation enough to try to control it or how anyone else sees it? Don't we have enough trouble of our own to deal with?

Control can take many forms including forcing your opinion onto others, convincing someone that your way is the right way, or disregarding someone to shame them into submission or compliance. Whatever method is chosen, control is simply insanity on the part of the controller. The saddest part is that the controller thinks they are the one with all the answers when they are ultimately the most miserable in any given situation. They just think if they make you look like the fool you won't notice who the real fool is.

Let go and control yourself.

S. Simon Killen

concert," said Tonya S. Holly, owner of Cypress Moon. "These women have all made their mark on music in the Muscle Shoals area, Nashville, and all over the world. They will be performing the hit songs they have written or recorded over four decades. It's definitely an event you don't want to miss."

Among the musicians are Rock and Roll Hall of Fame and Alabama Music Hall of Fame inductee and former member of The Grateful Dead, Donna Jean Godchaux-MacKay; 2007 Nashville Star winner Angela Hacker; Alecia Elliott, Cindy Richardson, Carla Russell, Sandi Brown, Shauna Tucker, Jenny Strickland, Becki Bluefield, Sue Richards, Lisa Silver, Charlene Montgomery, Melba Montgomery, Jaki Sikes, and many others.

The concert will be in the new 500-seat theater at Cypress Moon Studios at 1000 Alabama Avenue in Sheffield.

The studio was the location of Muscle Shoals Sound Studios from 1978-2005. Among the legendary musicians who recorded there were Bob Dylan, Bob Seger, the Commodores, and Julian Lennon.

Ian Teaches Aaron

Aaron: "I've heard that we are saved by faith."

Ian: "That's true, but faith is only one of the things that saves us."

Aaron: "You mean there are more?"

Ian: "Yes, the Bible says we are saved by:

- Jesus (John 3:17),
- Belief (Luke 8:12),
- Words (Acts 11:14),
- His blood (Rom. 5:9),
- Hope (Rom. 8:24),
- Repentance (Acts 2:38),
- Confession (Rom. 10:9),
- Baptism (1 Peter 3:21),
- Calling on His Name (Rom. 10:13),
- Grace through faith (Eph. 2:8),
- Works (Phil. 2:12),
- Endurance (Matt. 10:22),
- And there are others."

Aaron: "From this it's plain to see that salvation is not just faith alone, or works alone."

Ian: "That's right. These and more are involved in being saved."

Poem Caught Her Attention

Dear Editor:

My husband and I traveled through the Western U.S. years and years ago.

We saw an old store and decided to see what they had. My husband found fishing lures, etc. I saw a poem put on the wall with no author's name. I copied the words and added two more which are underlined here.

I shall pass through this world but once.

Any good, therefore, that I can do or any kindness that I can show to any human being or creature, let me do it now.

Let me not neglect or defer it, for I shall not pass this way again.

Isn't that a beautiful poem?

Irene Billingham
 Russellville

Editor's Note: The previous poem is commonly attributed to Stephen Grellet (1773-1855). He was a prominent Quaker missionary. References have him being born in France and dying in New Jersey.

Alzheimer's a Primary Need

To the Editor:

At a cost of $236 billion a year, Alzheimer's is the most expensive disease in the nation. Nearly one in every five Medicare dollars is spent on people with Alzheimer's or another dementia. These costs will only continue to increase as baby boomers age, soaring to more than $1 trillion in 2050.

Alzheimer's disease is the sixth-leading cause of death in the United States and the only cause of death among the top ten in the U.S. that cannot be prevented, cured or even slowed. Today more than 5.4 million Americans are living with Alzheimer's. Barring the development of medical breakthroughs to prevent, stop or slow Alzheimer's disease by 2050, the number of people age 65 and older with Alzheimer's disease may reach as high as 16 million people.

Alzheimer's disease is a growing crisis for our families and the economy. We must address the challenges the disease poses and take bold action to confront this epidemic now.

Please contact Representative Robert Aderholt and ask him to continue the fight against Alzheimer's disease by increasing funding for Alzheimer's research in fiscal year 2017.

DAVE Says

by DAVE RAMSEY

BABY STEPS, MOTIVATION, AND RETIREMENT

Dear Dave,
I make $38,000 a year working in the trade show industry, and I'm about to start Baby Step 3. It took 14 months to pay off $8,000 in debt for Baby Step 2, so I'm wondering how long it should take to save up my three to six months of expenses. I've also not done a lot toward retirement. I'm 52, and I'm worried about that. How can I stay motivated in the Baby Steps and handle retirement worries?
Donna

Dear Donna,
The general time frame I look at for saving up a fully funded emergency fund is six months to a year. Your take-home pay should be about $3,000 a month, so three to six months of expenses will probably be in the neighborhood of $8,000 to $10,000. If it took you about a year to pay off that much in debt, then it should take about a year to accomplish this.

But if you start building retirement right now and have an emergency, you know what you'll use? You'll use your retirement. That's why the emergency fund comes before retirement in the Baby Steps. The average household income in America, which is often two incomes, is around $52,000. I would challenge you to think about and work toward what you could be doing at age 60 that will make you that much or even more.

You're probably working really hard for that $38,000. In your fifties, if you're starting over—or if you start making a lot more—we call that an "encore career." So I want you to start thinking fresh again. Don't quit today, but you're going to be making $38,000 eight years from now unless you start aiming at something else.

All this is as much an answer to your retirement fears as trying to leapfrog and start doing retirement without an emergency fund. Put your emergency fund in place over the next 12 months, and start doing some goal setting and thinking. Maybe you'd like to own a trade show or events company by that time.

Ask yourself, "What would I do if I could do anything?" Because you know what? You can do anything!
—Dave

GENEROSITY OR OVERSPENDING?

Dear Dave,
I've heard you talk about the importance of giving using the phrase "outrageous generosity." But at what point does outrageous generosity become foolish overspending?
Josiah

Dear Josiah,
This is a good question. Your first mandate is to take care of your own household. The Bible says if you don't do this, you're worse than an unbeliever. So start with your own family. Are you able to take care of the basic lifestyle and needs of your family? The pursuit of giving shouldn't interrupt the food on your own family's table.

The Bible also says in the house of the wise there are stores of choice food and oil, but a foolish man devours all he has. You need to be saving, too, in order to be biblically wise. If you spend everything you make, or, for that matter, if you gave away everything you make on an ongoing basis, it would be foolish.

There are individual times where people may be called to give in an extreme way, but I'm talking about a pattern of living or way of life over an extended period of time. If you just say you're going to give away your whole income and let the government support you at the expense of your family, that's not biblical. And it's not a wise way to live your life.

Celestial Thoughts

If you've lived on this earth long enough, you have received bad news of various kinds. It has been my family's turn recently yet again. My husband received a bad health report that affected us emotionally and will affect him for the rest of his life. Though I know many emotional and spiritual tools to rely on, I was feeling very sad. I am fortunate to have all the friends and family a person could want or need, but I found myself at work having trouble concentrating due to the stress of the news. I was walking down the hall to my office thinking, "I could really use a hug." Moments later the receptionist walked into my office. I have known her for years and went to church with her at one time. She placed a scone on my desk as a pick me up, marched right over, held her arms out and gave me a big bear hug. It amazes me how God works in our lives! Thank you again and again my Father.

"He heals the brokenhearted and binds up their wounds." Psalm 147:3

Soap Opera Preview

THE BOLD AND THE BEAUTIFUL Ridge showed Brooke how much he cared about her as a friend by trying to talk her out of making a huge mistake. Wyatt and Steffy shunned Quinn after she made an unannounced visit. Katie continued to struggle with her desire to drink while contemplating the possibility of Bill and Brooke having an affair. Liam was blindsided when Katie started asking questions about his family's secrets. Wyatt noticed an unusual change in Quinn's attitude after he paid her a visit. Bill begged Brooke for one more evening together before ending their affair. Wait to See: Someone witnesses a forbidden encounter.

DAYS OF OUR LIVES Blanca encouraged Rafe to let go of Hope. Brady called out Summer on her lies. Nicole arrived at Chloe's to speak with her in person and was stunned to learn that Deimos was alive. A sleep-deprived Theresa took Tate out to the park and ended up falling asleep. Summer returned to her hotel room and found a satchel filled with money. A frantic Chad put his men on the search for Abigail. Chad found a note from Abigail in his home. Deimos agreed to return to Salem with Nicole. Rafe found out that Aiden visited Andre while he was in jail. Nicole was upset when Deimos said that he wanted to get revenge on Kate first. Wait to See: JJ confronts Chad about Abigail.

GENERAL HOSPITAL Ava feared that she will be hunted down. Julian was reminded of what he must do. Valerie was forced to make a tough judgment call. Monica was suspicious of Tracy's diversionary tactics. Julian imagined doing the unthinkable. Kristina and Aaron talked about where they were headed as a couple. Lulu and Dante floated the idea of paying a special homage to her brother. Julian was shocked by Sonny's revelation. Dillon admitted he wasn't over Kiki just yet. Anna learned why Griffin left the priesthood. Morgan asked Dillon to back off from Kiki. Hayden discovered a disturbing connection between Nikolas and her father. Nina had it out with Franco. Wait to See: Finn gets some news about some life-saving treatment.

THE YOUNG AND THE RESTLESS Travis tried to convince Victoria that he had nothing to do with the oil spills. Meanwhile, Luca and Travis told different stories about their fight. Nick suggested to Summer that she spy on Luca. Sharon was flustered after seeing Sage's "ghost," who scolded her for making Nick suffer. Mariah lied to Nick and told him that Sharon was taking her meds. Victoria broke up a fight between Travis and Billy. Later, Victoria told Travis that she was falling in love with him. Ashley reminded Phyllis that Jack's birthday was tomorrow and suggested bringing him to the Abbott Cabin for a romantic getaway. Wait to See: Nick and Victor press their father to admit that he's out for revenge.

The Mysteries of God #3

1 Corinthians 4:1 "Let a man so account of us, as of the ministers of Christ, and stewards of the mysteries of God." Romans 16:25 "Now to him that is of power to stablish you according to "my gospel" and the preaching of Jesus Christ, according to the revelation of the mystery, which was kept secret since the world began," Ephesians 3:2-9 "If ye have heard of the dispensation of the grace of God which is given me to you-ward: How that by revelation he made known unto me the mystery: (as I wrote afore in few words, Whereby, when ye read, ye may understand my knowledge in the mystery of Christ) Which in other ages was not made known unto the sons of men, as it is now revealed unto his holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit; "THAT THE GENTILES SHOULD BE FELLOWHEIRS," and of the same body, and partakers of his promise in Christ by the gospel: Whereof I was made a minister, according to the gift of the grace of God given unto me by the effectual working of his power. Unto me, who am less than the least of all saints, is this grace given, that I should preach among the Gentiles the unsearchable riches of Christ; And to make all men see what is the fellowship of the mystery, which from the beginning of the world hath been HID in God, who created all things by Jesus Christ."

Mystery #3 is ""the Gentiles should be fellowheirs," "and of the same body". Notice the above references that these things; "my gospel", "kept secret", "given me", "unto me", "is this grace given", "hid in God", were hid since the world began. Salvation wise, doctrinally, the Gentile CHURCH Apostle Paul is the writer to follow. Paul wrote in 1 Corinthians 4:16 "Wherefore I beseech you, be ye followers of me," 1 Corinthians 11:1 "Be ye followers of me, even as I also am of Christ." 2 Thessalonians 3:7A "For yourselves know how ye ought to follow us..." 2 Thessalonians 3:9 "Not because we have not power, but to make ourselves an ensample unto you to follow us." Philippians 3:17 "Brethren, be followers together of me..." It's grace, by faith in Christ alone, that produces salvation, WITHOUT WORKS. Ephesians 2:8&9. NO HOLY SPIRIT, NO REVELATION, = NO SALVATION. God chose Paul: Galatians 1:16a "To reveal his Son in me....."

Join Us This Summer At The Tennessee Valley Museum Of Art 2016 S.T.E.A.M. Camp Art Classes - ages 8 - 12, ages 13 -16, and ages 16 -20
Ages: 8 -12, Monday - Thursday, July 11- 14, 9am - 12:30pm
Adventures in Art: Exploring Collage and Resist by Barb Hendricks

This course will explore a variety of visual art media as the students create collage and water-based paint resist projects. We will look at the work of Matisse, Picasso, and the Impressionists to learn more about the process and historic use of collage and resist.

Exploration of Tactile & Visual Textures by Pam Wright

Inspired by the work of author/illustrator Eric Carle, young artists will turn ordinary paper into a variety of tactile and visual textures using an assortment of materials and methods that will then be used to recreate works of art...with many fun surprises along the way!

Both Classes - TVAA Members - $100, Non-Members - $120, All art supplies are included.

Ages: 13 -16, Monday - Thursday, July 11 - 14, 1:30-3:30pm

S.T.E.A.M. Power by Jaceena Shepard
Young artists will spend four afternoons with Jaceena Shepard, a nationally known and award winning art instructor, to visualize and create a water media painting. Students will explore the design process from conception to execution while applying science, technology, engineering and math related techniques to their artistic endeavor. Art techniques used in this process will inspire young artists to look at their world in a new way.

TVAA Members - $65, Non-Members - $85, All art supplies are included.

Ages: 16 -20, July 7 -10, Sessions: 4, 10am -12pm

Foundations of Drawing by Martha Carpenter

Foundation drawing is an introduction to drawing as a basic practice that underlies all visual art making. Students will investigate the basic elements of visual language (including mark, line, gesture, contour, edge, value, form, volume, mass, density, proportion, scale, linear perspective, order, pattern, rhythm, texture, and the illusion of space) through a series of observations and exercises. Emphasis is placed on drawing from observation. There will be discussion about how S.T.E.A.M. integrates with the visual arts.

TVAA Members - $55, Non-Members - $65, All art supplies are included.

* S.T.E.A.M. Camp: Has a visual arts focus with explanation as to how science, technology, engineering and mathematics integrate with the visual arts.

To register for classes: Call the Tennessee Valley Art Association at 256-383-0533 or register online.

The Shoals Chamber of Commerce is accepting applications for the 28th Leadership Shoals class through July 15. The general class size is 25-30 individuals and spans nine sessions from August to May. The $800 per person cost of the program covers all meals, admissions to events, travel and lodging costs. Two overnight stays, one in September at Earle Trent Assembly and another in Montgomery in March, are part of the program.

Leadership Shoals is an opportunity to better understand and appreciate the Shoals community. Since its inception over 25 years ago, Leadership Shoals has seen more than 500 businesses and community leaders go through this program. Leadership Shoals offers numerous opportunities to broaden perspectives and gain an increased understanding of community dynamics and public issues.

Members are encouraged to complete a group project, as well as attend one city council meeting, take a police ride shift with an officer, and write a brief summation of each. Applicants must also be a current Shoals Chamber member.

Following the program, the Chamber holds a graduation ceremony for all participants that have met requirements. The application is found under the Chamber tab at shoalschamber.com. For additional information regarding this program, contact Chelsea Kauchick at ckauchick@shoalschamber.com or 256-764-4661.
