"Many years ago I had been told that hearing aids would never help. I always believed that until Cassie told me different. These hearing aids are the best things ever! I have always enjoyed squirrel hunting, and as a teen I could hear squirrels chewing on hickory nuts, and then I got to where I couldn't hear them at all, I could only see the limbs moving or the nut clippings falling from the trees. These hearing aids are giving me my youth back! I can't wait to go squirrel hunting! I'm hearing things that are out of this world! Thank you everyone at The Hearing Aid Center!"

- Ronnie Martin
Satisfied Customer

"I love my hearing aids, but I think my wife loves them even more! I tell everyone I know to go to The Hearing Aid Center, and that it doesn't cost anything to find out if they can help you. I really appreciate all that Cassie and Tiffany have done to help me with my hearing, and recommend if you're having trouble hearing to go see them!"

- Mark Dempsey

Welcome Back
Jeffrey Walden

Manchester Funeral Home welcomes the return of Mr. Jeffrey Walden to their staff. He began his mortuary career by working part-time at Manchester Funeral Home in 2000, under the direction of Foy Rigney, and graduated from John A. Gupton Mortuary School in Nashville, TN in 2003. Jeff left the Coffee County area in 2005, to work in Rutherford County until 2015.

Jeff is married to Jenny

Powell Walden and they reside in the Beech Grove area. Together, they have five children, Nathan, Hannah, Maddie, Leah, and Rachel. In his spare time, Jeff enjoys working on his farm and spending time with his family.

Jeff considers it an honor to help the families he serves now in Coffee County and surrounding areas. Like other funeral directors and embalmers at Manchester Funeral Home, Jeff takes great pride in the presentation of the loved one's that are entrusted to Manchester Funeral Home.

Jeff and the other folks at Manchester Funeral Home welcome you to stop by or call with any questions you may have concerning the many excellent services provided by the funeral home.
