To Potential Buyers...

When I moved into my new home, I was so excited to be able to remodel and make it beautiful. I had an initial home inspection and have had my roof and central unit inspected and maintained yearly.

Unfortunately, I received a job offer that I could not refuse and have been forced to relocate.

For the buyer that purchases my lovely home, you will enjoy the elegantly done high ceilings. The kitchen and living room are wide open with a long (approximately 10') granite countertop providing a nice open bar. The master bedroom has a beautiful tray ceiling, large walk-in closet and private bathroom. It is also separate from the guest rooms and bath.

You can enjoy a relaxing evening watching the deer graze in the large, private, peaceful backyard from the attached elevated deck. This neighborhood is very quiet and the neighbors all look out for one another. Most of the homeowners are professional couples or retired.

If you are looking for a beautiful home in a wonderful neighborhood, this one is definitely a must see!

Sincerely,
The Homeowner
