Donate blood and be entered for dream vacation

Submitted
 Donate blood at the Laurel Community Blood Drive on Tuesday, August 9 at the Cameron Center, located at 711 North 10th Ave., Laurel. The blood drive will be held from 12 p.m. until 6 p.m. Schedule your appointment to donate at www.bloodhero.com or call 601-264-0743. Come to donate blood this August with United Blood Services and you are entered to win a dream vacation to the destination of your choice! For one lucky winner, United Blood Services will cover the transit and lodging cost up to $6000 to the destination of the winner's choice. Where would you go? Paris, Disney World, Destin, Hawaii? Last year's winner took his family of four on a land and sea Disney package to Disney World and on a Disney Cruise! So while you're enjoying the summer, donate blood and you may be on a lifesaving journey toward your dream vacation. All donors also receive free T-shirt, while supplies last. The dream vacation winner must be at least 21 years old, so all 16-20 year olds are entered to win an Apple iPad Pro! No cash value/non-transferable. Visit www.UnitedBloodServices.org/NT for a full list of rules and restrictions. For updates throughout the summer, follow us on Facebook at United Blood Services - Mississippi/Alabama.

Donors with negative blood types are asked to inquire with a United Blood Services staff member regarding qualifications to donate double red cells.

Donors can also visit www.UnitedBloodServices.org the day of their donation and click on the "Fast Track Health History." This allows donors to complete the interview portion of their donation online in the privacy of their home or office. Make sure to print your "Fast track donation ticket" and bring it with you to your donation. The questionnaire must be completed on the same day as your donation.

Volunteer blood donors must be at least 16 years old, weigh at least 110 pounds and be in good health. Additional height/weight requirements apply to donors 22 and younger, and donors who are 16 years of age must have signed permission from a parent or guardian. The 16-year-old donor permit form can be located at www.UnitedBloodServices.org. Donors receive a free cholesterol test. Donors also earn points in our "Hero in Me" online rewards store. Points can be redeemed for movie tickets, pizza, shopping cards and more at www.bloodhero.com. A photo ID is required to donate. For more information, call 877-UBSHERO (877-827-4376).

"The summer time is especially difficult to ensure adequate blood supplies due to heat, traveling, schools being out of session and an increase in blood usage," said Mitzi Breaux, marketing and communications manager for United Blood Services. "The dream vacation package giveaway serves as a reminder to donate blood this summer and to thank you for your generosity. We can't wait to find out who wins this year!"

As always, all blood types are needed in order to prevent any blood type shortages from oc-

Christians should be free from condemnation

By Dr. Bill Myers

Condemnation is not from God! It's a miserable gift from the devil. So don't give in to it! It can and will destroy you! "Sin will not have dominion over you, for you are not under the law but under grace (unmerited favor) - Romans 6:14.

Friends, religious law will not stop the heart from sinning. It actually entices rebellion and sin. When you tell a child, "Do not touch that!" doesn't temptation increase which makes the child want to touch it even more? Grace, on the other hand, is covered in God's love. Yes, love (God) conquers everything! When we truly understand how much God loves us and that Jesus has already paid the price for our sins, we are looked upon by God as cleansed and perfected no matter our sinful nature. Our desire to sin decreases because we love Him who set us free. Jesus is the answer. Love (God) will set us free from sin! Grace and love gives us the hope for a new beginning in our lives.

Some counter and say that love is nothing more than fluff teaching and that we should confront sinners with their sins. I choose to follow God's Word and win their hearts to Jesus through love. Why? Because God is love. When a sinner begins to grasp the love of God, his heart will become tender and pliable. "Therefore, there is now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus, because through Christ Jesus the law of the spirit who gives life has set you free from the law of sin and death." Romans 8:1-2.

Instead of pointing fingers and judging others for their actions, maybe we should love them with the love of Jesus and allow God to do His perfect work in them. Do we need to use patience? Yes, but if we will continue to give them love (God) and never cease praying for them, we will see change. Today, if you feel unworthy to pray because of your past, look in the mirror and remind yourself that grace and mercy has covered your sins. You are free. The chains are broken. In return, don't judge others. Treat them the way Jesus treats you! "Yes, Jesus loves me, the Bible tells me so!"

Dr. Bill Myers is the Show Choir director at Northeast Jones High School, is a frequent contributor to publications in south Mississippi, and has recently released a book, "Surviving the Storms of Life."

JCSD Annual Community Day and Backpack Giveaway

By Linda Cranford

The Jones County Sheriff's Department held its annual Community Day and School Supplies Giveaway Saturday, July 23.

The event gives the officers and staff an opportunity to communicate with the community in a fun and positive environment while at the same time giving back to the community by helping children with their school supplies. The line formed early in the morning around the former Crocker's on the Hill building, and the Sheriff's Department handed out close to 1,000 backpacks filled with school supplies.

Officers and their family members participated in the day's event. Sheriff Alex Hodge had grill duty and provided free grilled hotdogs. Bottled water was supplied by the Salvation Army, ice cold drinks by Raising Cane's and delicious chips by Frito Lay.

Along with the supplies and the food, several informative booths were set up, including Tillery Dental Clinic, MAGI, Jones County Narcotics Division, Jones County Volunteer Fire and Rescue Departments from Glade, Shady Grove and Calhoun – who were on hand with their fire apparatus – and The Schafer Center for Crisis Intervention.

Laurel Jones County Machine Pitch Host Team.

2016 AA World Series of World Series Opening Ceremony

By Linda Cranford

Friday night, July 29, twelve AA Machine Pitch championship teams and twelve AA Coach Pitch championship teams from across the Southeast United States along with the Laurel Jones County Championship host teams lined the arena floor of the Magnolia Center for the 2016 AA World Series of World Series opening ceremony.

Prior to the opening ceremony the young players enjoyed pizza and a pen exchange, where the players traded state pens with each other. States represented include Alabama, Arkansas, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, Louisiana, Mississippi, North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas and Virginia.

Laurel Mayor Johnny Magee welcomed the teams to Laurel and Jones County. Laurel High School Jr. ROTC Color Guard presented the colors, and young Harmony Thomas sang the National Anthem. Pastor Jamar Jackson gave the invocation. The opening ceremony was choreographed by Lora Davis, owner Dance Arts Studio in Ellisville.

George Bassi and Mitch Williams served as emcees for the ceremony and introduced the players and coaches from each state as they entered the stage led by their Laurel Jones County host family.

The entertainment included Elvis Presley, Michael

Jackson and Prince impersonators. A fireworks show on the grounds of the South Mississippi Fairgrounds followed the inside opening ceremony.

Game play began Saturday morning at 9 a.m. at the Sportsplex and continued through Tuesday, August 2.

This Friday, August 5, the "O" Zone, Majors and AAA divisions championship teams will arrive in town and their WOW Series opening ceremony will also be held at the Magnolia Center; it will begin at 7:30 p.m. Come show your support for our Mississippi and Laurel Jones County teams.

Favre readies for Hall of Fame induction

By Dale McKee

Many professional football players do not give their days on the high school gridiron even a second thought, and some remember only the past glory. They remember the day when they scored numerous touchdowns or roughed up the opposing quarterback. Then once in a while you have a Brett Favre. The gunslinger from Hancock North Central High School in Kiln comes from a background of hard work.

If you know Brett's father Irvin, you would know what I mean when I say hard work. Every time I ever saw "Big Irv" he was in a pair of coaches' shorts and always smiling, evidence of the passion that drove his work ethic. "Big Irv" made Brett Favre one of the most gifted quarterbacks to ever play in the National Football League. Irvin was a strong-armed baseball pitcher for USM back in the late 1960s, but he always knew he was destined to be a high school football coach.

Brett, noted for having the strongest arm in the NFL, seems to have been predisposed to that same strong arm and passion for football. Watching him in his college days at Southern Mississippi, you had little doubt that he could become a quarterback at the next level. Now, if you would have asked me back in his college days if he would attain the legendary status that he has, I would probably have been dubious. And my doubts, as things have turned out, would have been wrong, for Favre will be inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame this Saturday night.

Though some overly zealous fathers whose sons are pawns for their own egos emotionally harm some young athletes, such was not the case for Irv and Brett.

"First of all," Favre said on an ESPN interview, "having my dad as a coach was fun. It also had its challenges because he was probably harder on me than some of the other guys. He just wanted me to give 100 percent effort all the time. That's what he wanted from all of us. He expected a lot from me, and that helped me develop the work ethic I have today."

One might think that with Favre as the quarterback, there couldn't have been too many tough spots. But that's certainly not how he remembers his high school career. "It was definitely a challenge," he says. "There are many good football players at the high school level. Every team has good players, some more than others. The match-ups were fun, and we developed some great rivalries over the years."

Both of Brett's parents taught school, and, indeed, the football leadership skills that he has have come from both of them. He is quick to emphasize that it is not they who owe him a debt of gratitude. It is very much the other way around. Of his father, Favre says, "I still miss him. He was such a special part of my life and meant so much to my career."
