Milford All-School Reunion

The quasiquicentennial committee is planning to have an all-school reunion during Milford's 125th birthday party in July of 2017. In conjunction with this undertaking, we would like to update the All-School Reunion Chronicle that was printed in 1992 for the centennial and also add information for the 25 years that have passed since 1992. We would like any alumni who have been involved in planning class reunions in the recent past to volunteer to share their updated information with us. If you are or have been a committee reunion chairman sometime in the past ten years and have some updated information on your fellow classmates that you would be willing to share with us, please contact us at milford125th@gmail.com or call Mary Dannatt at 712-338-4421.

Employment Connections, Inc Awards WRC Best-In-Class

Employment Connections, Inc. is pleased to announce that it has been awarded Workers' Compensation Risk Certification (WRC), a recognition of their best-in-class risk management practices to reduce workplace injuries and related costs.

WRC certified companies maintain a focus on safety and risk management in order to protect their employees, while offering a higher level of service to clients.

To be awarded certification, companies undergo a thorough review of their operational practices as they apply to hiring and screening, substance abuse, talent matching, employee orientation, client safety evaluations and partnerships, incident investigations and corrective measures, and return-to-work programs. Results are compared against best practices developed by insurance carriers, insurance brokers, and staffing industry risk managers. Information about WRC certification is published on the program's website at www.staffingWRCs.com.

"We are very pleased to have earned this certification," said Tammy Christenson, Operations Manager of Employment Connections. "It demonstrates our commitment to safety for our employees and our clients."

Employment Connections, Inc. is a full service employment agency located at 1710 Lincoln Ave. Spirit Lake. They provide clerical, industrial, and managerial staff to area businesses. Hours are Monday through Friday from 8:00am to 5:00pm.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor:
In reply to Mr. Moss's letter, the biker that said those things was out of line and does not reflect most bikers. There are people who do not know how to share the trails. As an avid cyclist I can tell you some people do not know how to stay "right". I have said "on your left" many times, only to have them move to the left. Or they have an ear piece in and don't hear you. Not the biker's fault. The lakes area has great trails to be used safely by all.
Gary Gould, Milford

Short and Sweet Pop-up Shop

For three short days, three local artisans will be taking over Connie’s Cozy Corner in Terril (102 Main Street) to showcase their talent and creative products in a unique pop-up shop on Friday, August 19, 3:00 – 6:00pm; Saturday, August 20, 8:00am – 2:00pm; and Sunday, August 21, 12:00 – 4:00pm.

This temporary shop will feature syrups, spices, watercolor paintings, metal art and more, from three talented Terril entrepreneurs.

Anita Plucker, Terril native, will display watercolor paintings that reflect her life in the upper mid-west including landscapes, rural architecture and familiar scenes from the lakes area.

Rowaida Lair, new Terril resident, is passionate about food and wants you to have high quality ingredients including her unique twist on traditional maple syrup and vanilla extract.

Marisa Sidles, a visual artist who has turned Terril’s old post office into her creative studio, will feature whimsical metal art inspired by her life on the farm. Marisa is also a self-proclaimed “foodie” and creates gourmet hand blended seasonings and dry rubs that will be available for purchase.

Come and support these local “makers” and experience what a small town has to offer.

KICD Courtyard
Brings New Free
Entertainment
for the 2016
Clay County Fair

The KICD Courtyard will bring new and exciting Blue Ribbon Fun entertainment to the 2016 Clay County Fair September 10-18. Magic tricks, tropical animals, and a family jam will entertain all ages on the KICD Stage while the Boy Scout Experience will offer fairgoers the opportunity of joining Boy Scouts and "be prepared" for a day.

"The KICD Courtyard will be a great place for families to relax and enjoy great entertainment," said Fair Manager Jeremy Parsons.

Tropical Illusions uses a combination of illusions, animals and music to teach audiences about the environment. Kids of all ages will enjoy the tricks Chris and Audrey Moss use with their birds to promote environmental awareness and protecting our natural resources that are shared by all living creatures. Learning about the Circle of Life was never more fun.

Matt's Family Jam will entertain audiences with a variety of genres, including rock'n'roll, jazz, swing, country and gospel with tight family harmonies. Since taking to the road in 2011 Matt Rolf, his wife Lisa, and their three children have had the privilege to tour North America performing for fairs and festivals. Five years later, they will make it to the KICD Courtyard as well as riding around the fairgrounds on their Beat Bus rolling stage. They love performing and building relationships with people everywhere and encouraging families to have fun doing something together.

A new feature to the KICD Courtyard will be the addition of the Boy Scout Experience this year. Learn about Dutch oven cooking and foil packet cooking - complete with samples. Fairgoers will recognize the signature large teepee in the green space of the Courtyard. Other fun activities also included water rocket demonstrations and rope-making using a special machine. Area Boy Scout troops will be camping on location, allowing people to see what the troops do and how they work throughout the day.

"I love it when the kids do the Dutch oven cooking. People are always surprised with how much someone can do with charcoal and a Dutch oven. Plus, the dessert samples are delicious," said Lynell Langel, Thundercloud District Activity chair for the Boy Scouts of America.

The History of Dickinson County

The great-grandchildren of Milton Smith, brother of R.A. Smith will be presenting the original manuscript of History of Dickinson County to the Iowa State Historical Society. The presentation will be held at the Gardner Cabin, Arnolds Park, on August 11, 2016, at 12:30pm. This manuscript was written by R.A. Smith in 1902, the manuscript being presented is completely hand written. It is a very valuable piece of history.

Camp Okoboji to Auction off Building and Contents
On Sunday, August 14, starting at 3:00, Camp Okoboji will be auctioning off their Crafts Building in order to make room for their new DISCOVER Activity Center. Camp Okoboji is located at 1531 Edgewood Drive, Milford. Take Highway 86 and turn at the Crescent Beach sign. The goal is to recycle, reclaim and repurpose as much of the Crafts building as possible. It has many old windows and doors, benches, work tables, wood flooring, tongue and groove siding and paneling, exhaust fans, bathroom fixtures, etc. If you ever made a craft project in Crafts, this is a great keepsake opportunity. If you are looking for materials in which to make crafts, this building is a craft project in itself. If you like to repurpose old building materials, there is a bunch of it. Check out the Camp website: www.campokoboji.org or call the camp office- 712-337-3325 for more information. Berger Auctioneering will be conducting the auction.
Construction on the new DISCOVER Activity Center is scheduled to begin in September.
Camp Okoboji has served the lakes area for over 75 years. An outdoor ministry site of the Lutheran Church - Missouri Synod; Camp Okoboji offers summer programs for youth and families, as well as retreats year-round. The camp is nearly surrounded by the waters of Emerson Bay and Breezy Point. This unique setting provides many opportunities for relaxing and enjoying God.

Informal ESL Gathering
There will be an informal gathering of international students working in the Iowa Great Lakes on Tuesday evenings throughout the summer for the purpose of learning English language skills and sharing stories of our different cultures. Fun games and ice breakers will be the means of learning English the way native speakers communicate. This is not a formal ESL class and there is no fee for the gatherings. Each meeting will be held in the small Chapel of the Okoboji Bible Conference (enter parking lot at Ida Street) in Arnolds Park at 7:00pm. We express our thanks to the First Lutheran Mission Team for organizing these gatherings and to the Okoboji Bible Conference for the use of the space. All are welcome! Farm Market News

Located at Dickinson Co. Fairgrounds
15th Street & Peoria Avenue, Spirit Lake, Iowa 51360

This Saturday, August 13, the Lakes Area Farmers Market will be hosting their annual Salsa Taste-Off. Various vendors will make fresh salsa using some of their locally grown produce for the public to taste. When you enter the market from the south, stop at the left center booth for a bowl of tortilla strips and a poker chip. Use the tortilla strips to taste the salsa samples at tables with a red number. Use the poker chip to vote for the number of the vendor who made your favorite salsa. The vendor with the most votes receives a traveling trophy and bragging rights for the next year. There is no charge to sample the salsa. Tasting will take place between 8:00am and 11:00am. Join us on Saturday for the fun.

Lakes Area Farmers Market is a growers/producers market, so that means that all produce, meat and honey is locally grown by the vendors who sell it. Vendors are limited to a 5 county area so all products are local and will arrive at the market at their freshest. Also, all crafts, jams and jellies, and baked items are handmade by the vendors who sell them. One of our goals is to help support growers, bakers, and crafters in the area. We have a large selection of products ranging from produce, flowers, meat, coffee beans, wine, pies and cookies, eggs, jams and jellies, rugs, yard games, soap, honey, and oh so much more. Come check us out Wednesday and Saturday mornings from 7:30am to 12:00 noon. Lakes Area Farmers Market is located on the fairgrounds, north of Hy-Vee, in Spirit Lake. We hope to see you soon.

Dick Bauman Big Band
trombone player Adam Perry will be continuing with the band each Monday through Labor Day at the Pearson Lakes Art Center in Okoboji.

OST: SOLD OUT!

The Stephen's College Okoboji Summer Theatre opens The Sound of Music tonight, with all seats sold out through Sunday's closing performance.

It was during the UoO Winter Games, when the shows were first announced, that director Ruth Ann Burke suggested The Sound of Music would be sold-out. And it is, even after adding an extra Friday matinee.

While the Dick Bauman Big Band has just four more Monday nights in its 2016 season, leader Greg Forney said over the weekend it has already been a very good year for the band as well. "We've had good crowds at the art center. Our guys are driving a lot of miles, so they're not making a lot of money. But they are dedicated." The band will continue its Monday night performances, through and including Labor Day, in Pomerantz Hall, at the Pearson Lakes Art Center...

Lauren Wickham

After being named Outstanding Performer for her solo vocal performance at the Iowa High School State Solo - Small Ensemble Festival in April, and a competition with 20 other students in a showcase at Iowa State University in May, recent Spirit Lake High School graduate Lauren Wickham earned one of only three $1,000 scholarships awarded by the School Administrators of Iowa at its annual meeting, last week, in Des Moines.

This is the first time a Spirit Lake High School graduating senior has earned an SAI scholarship.

Lauren is the daughter of Pam and Vaughn Wickham, and will be majoring in vocal performance and music education at Simpson College this fall.

Jessica Schable, a 2005 Simpson graduate, has been Lauren's voice instructor, along with SLHS teacher Duane Ites...

Terry Klein will be returning to Table 316, in Arnolds Park, Wednesday night, from 7 - 9:00. And Debbie Ankeny & Friends will be performing in the Lakeview Room at The Inn, from 7 - 9:30, Wednesday night as well, while Gaelic Storm returns to the Lauridsen Theatre stage at the Pearson Lakes Art Center for a 7:30 curtain, Wednesday night...

Summer is passing... Spencer's Municipal Band will wrap up the Main Street Market season at 7:00, Thursday night, following Open Mic Night, at 6:00; as Estherville's Music On the Square will feature The Sidekicks, in Library Square, from 5 - 7:00.

Slow Jam and Kevin King will be the featured acts Thursday night for the Iowa Rock 'n' Roll Music Association's Rock the Roof night at the Roof Garden at Arnolds Park. The music begins at 6:00. And The South 71 Trio will be returning to the Little Swan Lake Winery, Thursday night, to perform from 6 - 8:00...

Cellist Thomas Fornter will be joined by violinists David Brubaker and Sean Riley, along with violist Thomas Elliott, in their second performance as a part of The Arts at St. Joseph, Friday night, starting at 7:00, at St. Joseph Catholic Church in Milford.

Friday night will also see Glenn Henriksen leading a sing along in The Lounge at The Inn of Okoboji, from 6 - 8:00. And the Legacy Stage at Boji Bay will be featuring Crow and The Murphy Brothers Band, Friday night...

While The Pearson Lakes Art Center's Family Fun Day doesn't involve any live music, the PLAC does have a lot going on musically through the year. The Saturday fun that runs from 10 - 1:00, will include free hot dogs, art projects for all ages, the opening of the new tree sculpture created by SLHS students, and a selfie scavenger hunt, among other interesting things. Maybe next year there'll be some music...

Saturday night's entertainment will include The Claudettes as the opening act for Boz Scaggs, starting at 7:00, in Arnolds Park's Preservation Plaza...

Tickets may still be available for Saturday night's Backyard Bach and Blues Festival in Spencer, where Iowa Rock 'n' Roll Hall of Famers John Senn and Friends will be providing music that will probably include anything but Bach! Call Spencer's Arts On Grand for information...

Sunday will see the Scott Larsen Band returning to the Little Swan Lake Winery from 4 - 6:00. And Monday night brings back the aforementioned Dick Bauman Big Band at the PLAC, from 7 - 9:00...

Research director RD has tied together two somewhat fictional events this week, with a third that is more realistic.

From a musical perspective, the most important of RD's findings is the anniversary of the premiere of the Wizard of Oz motion picture in 1939 — the film that saw a very young Judy Garland singing and dancing her heart out.

Oddly, RD tells us, ...Oz didn't premier in Hollywood, but in Kenosha, Wisconsin and Cape Cod on August 11th, then in Oconomowoc, Wisconsin, on the 12th, before the first screening at Grauman's Chinese Theatre three days later.

More seriously, as the best-known 'employee' of the U.S. Department of the Interior, Smokey Bear has been doing his part to prevent forest fires since August 12, 1941, when he was born of ad agency parentage. This is most 'important' as we celebrate S'mores Day today.

To paraphrase Smokey, be sure to tell your friends — in California and everywhere else — "Only you can prevent forest fires."

(Little known factoid: It was two or three years ago that Smokey's boss, Secretary of the Interior Sally Jewell, attended the Clay County Fair, in Spencer.)...

And, for the record — quite literally — you should also know that Friday is Vinyl Record Day. If you still have a working turntable, crank it up and play an LP — or an old 45. You can even dance to the music!

All the news that fits we print.

Gaelic Storm Takes the Stage at PLAC

Gaelic Storm takes the stage in the Lauridsen Performing Arts Theatre at Pearson Lakes Art Center (2201 Highway 71, Okoboji) on Wednesday, August 10, at 7:30pm. The cost is $55 for non-members, $50 for members and $45 for students.

After nearly two decades and more than 3,000 live shows, Gaelic Storm — the chart-topping, multi-national Celtic band — is looking sharper than ever mixing traditional Irish music with modern influences, creating a sound that's as wide-ranging as the band's own audience.

From bluegrass fans and country cowboys to Deadheads, rock & rollers and Celtic fanatics, Gaelic Storm has built one of the most diverse fan bases in modern music. Rooted in the songwriting of founding members Patrick Murphy and Steve Twigger, their music glues everything together with the spark and spirit of a band that's spent close to 20 years on the road.

Their live shows date all the way back to the mid-1990s, when Gaelic Storm kicked off its career as a pub band in Santa Monica, California. By the end of the decade, the musicians had appeared in the blockbuster film "Titanic" (where they performed "Irish Party in Third Class") and laid the groundwork for a career that would eventually find them topping the Billboard World Chart five times, making appearances at mainstream music festivals such as Summerfest, Telluride and The Rock Boat Cruise, and regularly headlining the largest Irish Festivals across the country, all the while gaining a reputation as a genre-bending Irish band whose songs mix Celtic traditions with something new and unexpected. Now, with the band's 20th anniversary on the horizon, they're putting even more emphasis on those newer directions.

"We'll push the envelope, then reel it back in, then push it again," says Murphy. "There's a lot of variety here, and that's why we can play country festivals, bluegrass festivals and rock festivals, and still fit in perfectly with each one."

In addition to writing new songs, the musicians have continued to play new markets every year, taking the chance to stretch their boundaries — and widen their audience — whenever possible. It helps keep them on their toes.

"Playing for a new crowd is great," says Twigger. "It takes you back to those early days, where you've got something to prove. We could just do Irish festivals, but why not play a crossover show where 90% of the audience doesn't know you, and you have to make them know you? That's what makes your band good."

This performance dishes up all the ingredients fans have come to expect from Gaelic Storm — the drinking songs, sea shanties, furiously-strummed instrumentals and sing-along melodies — while spiking the mix with newer flavors. Eat it up, but make sure to save some room! There's plenty more where this came from.

Gaelic Storm performs live on the Lauridsen Performing Arts Theatre stage at the Pearson Lakes Art Center on Wednesday, August 10 at 7:30pm. Tickets are available for purchase at the Pearson Lakes Art Center box office, or by visiting us online at www.lakesart.org.

This event is sponsored by Greg Gamble; The Vogel Foundation, Drew and Jean Vogel; Marilyn and Dwight Conover; Signe Kim Lauridsen-Jones; Dan and Jane Hummel; Midwest Piano, Ryan Sather; Dave and Jen Rettig.

Founded in 1965, the Pearson Lakes Art Center has focused on broadening horizons through the arts for 50 years. For more information or to become a member, please contact the Art Center at 712-332-7013, by email info@lakesart.org, or visit the website at www.lakesart.org.

Wickham Awarded Outstanding Performer

Lauren Wickham, 2016 Spirit Lake High School graduate, was awarded "Outstanding Performer" for her solo performance at the Iowa High School State Solo-Small Ensemble Festival in Orange City on April 7. She sang "Donde Lieta" by Giacomo Puccini and "Everywhere I Look" by Molly Carew.

She then had the privilege to sing these selections at Iowa State University on May 11th in the Outstanding Performer's Showcase. She competed against 20 other seniors statewide in all class levels. "The listening committee was very impressed with this year's senior soloists."

On May 25, she was notified after review of her recording that she was awarded the top high school vocal honor in Iowa, a $1000 scholarship sponsored by the School Administrators of Iowa. She was invited to sing the National Anthem as well as her winning solo pieces to open the SAI Annual Conference at the Community Choice Credit Union Convention Center in Des Moines on August 3.

Lauren will be attending Simpson College this fall majoring in Vocal Performance and Music Education. She is the daughter of Pam and Vaughn Wickham.

DAR Offers Genealogy Help

Northwest Iowa women interested in exploring their “family trees,” particularly those interested in joining the Daughters of the American Revolution (DAR), are invited to a workshop on Tuesday, September 13 at 10:00am. Jodi Freet, DAR State Registrar from Solon, Iowa, will discuss genealogy research strategies. She will then be available to give guidance and answer questions as will Diane Lavender, Estherville, Ladies of the Lake Chapter Registrar. This opportunity is offered preceding the regularly scheduled meeting of the Ladies of the Lake DAR Chapter at the Spirit Lake Library, 702 16th Street.

Participants are invited to bring a sack lunch and to join the Ladies of the Lake for a 1:00pm talk on DAR projects by State Regent Lucinda “Cindi” Carter from Monroe, IA. She is a member of the Abigail Adams Chapter, the first DAR Chapter to be organized, 1893. Hostesses are Charlene Thomsen, Okoboji, and Vicki Johnson, Spirit Lake. Members and guests are invited to join Ms. Carter at a dinner at 3:16pm when Table 316, the Steakhouse Restaurant, 316 Highway 71, opens.

Regent Carter’s theme for her 2016-18 presidency asks the question “If we do not lay out ourselves in the service of mankind, whom shall we serve?” Her State Project Theme is “To perpetuate the Memory of the Soldiers and Patriots buried in Iowa.” Both themes are in keeping with the National Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution (NSDAR) goals of community service and of honoring veterans of the Vietnam Conflict.

The one o’clock chapter meeting will also feature remarks on the Constitution by Roger Carr, Spirit Lake. The Ladies of the Lake invite area residents to join them in taking turns reading the Constitution aloud for ten minutes during Constitution Week September 17-23. Readers are invited to participate in a reading session at the Clay County Fair in Spencer, day and time to be announced. There will also be a reading at the Spirit Lake Library on Saturday, September 17 from 10:00am to 1:00pm. Readers are invited to sign up to take part in either or both events.. Contact Mary Thunhorst, Regent, travelinmaryt5005@q.com, 712-336-0240

The Daughters of the American Revolution comprise the worlds’ largest organization of women. Its members are those who have traced their genealogy to identify an ancestor who served in, or gave documented support to, the cause of freedom. The local DAR Chapter has 72 members and 11 Associate members. Information can be obtained from Regent Thunhorst as listed above.

Crow and The Murphy Brothers
Band To Perform In Milford

On Friday, August 12, National Show-Amaret Records National Recording Artists, Crow (“Evil Woman”), with special guests: The Murphy Brothers Band will perform at Boji Bay Legacy Park.

Crow: The year was 1970 and when the song “Evil Woman- Don’t Play Your Games With Me” by Crow came on the radio, you knew you were hearing a new hit by this Minneapolis based band. Crow went on to release such monster hits as: “Don’t Lay No Boogie Woogie,” “Slow Down,” “Cottage Cheese,” and “Time To Make A Turn,” making Crow true national rock and roll stars. Later “Evil Woman” was covered by England’s Black Sabbath.

Led by original Crow lead singer, Dave Wagner, along with founding members Larry Wiegand and Dave Middlemist, these guys put out one of the most powerful shows in music.

They are inductees into the Minnesota and Iowa Rock & Roll Halls of Fame and were inducted to South Dakota’s Rock & Roll Hall of Fame in April of 2016.

The Murphy Brothers Band: Calling Mankato, Minnesota home, the Murphy Brothers Band has been Kato’s top rock attraction for the past two decades. There is nobody in Southern Minnesota that has not rocked out with the Murphy Brothers Band. Lead by Minnesota Rock and Music Hall of Famer, Steve Murphy, these guys will really set the table for Crow.

Gates open at 5:30pm and the show starts at 7pm. This show presented by Boulders Inn, West-O Beer, Smokin’ Gun Firearms, and Campus Cleaners.

For questions, contact Reese Vedder 712-209-4801 reesvedder@gmail.com or Greta Gunderson 402-320-1904 gretahgunderson@gmail.com. Boji Bay Legacy Park is located at 2501 Boji Bend Drive, Milford.

Dickinson County Nature Center Photography Contest

Colorful blooms brighten the world this time of year, but we don't often take time to really look at them.

Alex Miles of Spirit Lake takes the time to appreciate them, though. His stunning close-up photograph of the center of a bright pink petunia was the winner of the adult category in the spring photography contest at the Dickinson County Nature Center. The photo makes you stop and appreciate the intricacy of a flower --- the vibrant color, the detailed petal, the intricate stamen.

The Dickinson County Conservation Board wants all photographers to get outside and capture shots that make us stop and appreciate the beauty of nature. Then submit those photos for the next photography contest at the nature center, with a deadline of September 1.

Images must have been taken in the last year in Dickinson County and should highlight the diversity of life on Earth, including wildlife in its natural habitat, plant life, weather, landscapes and seasons.

For more information, contact 712-336-6352, e-mail naturecenter@co.dickinson.ia.us, visit www.dickinsoncountynaturecenter.com or stop by the Dickinson County Nature Center, 2279 170th Street in Okoboji 10:00am-4:00pm. Tuesday-Saturday. You can also keep up with the latest happenings on Facebook, Instagram and Twitter.

Heroes Honored At Emerald Hills

Emil Richter, Matt Loerts, Dave Abrahamson, Randy Krile, Tom Madigan, Mack Arndt, Officer Bob Clark, Captain Jim Carpenter, Jason Brown, Captain Chris Youngbluth, Jess Radcliffe

A Recognition Dinner was recently held at Emerald Hills Golf Club hosted by Randy Rohlfen and the Wednesday Night Men's League.

On May 18, Emerald Hills member, Tom Madigan, suffered cardiac arrest while on the course. He was promptly assisted by golfers Jason Brown, Randy Krile and Dave Abrahamson who performed CPR.

Shortly thereafter, Bob Clark, Assistant Chief Milford Police Dept. arrived with a defibrillator which he applied. First Responders from both Arnolds Park and Milford arrived as well and assisted until the Lakes Regional Healthcare ambulance crew arrived.

Mr. Madigan was transported to the Avera Heart Hospital in Sioux Falls and has since made a full recovery due in large part to the life saving efforts of those who provided early assistance and the excellent care he received at Avera.

Members of both Milford and Arnolds Park Fire & Rescue Teams were recognized and thanked for their volunteerism and service to our communities.

Representing the Arnolds Park Fire & Rescue were Chief Chris Youngbluth and Tom Struthers. Representing the Milford Fire & Rescue were Chief Jim Carpenter, Emil Richter, Matt Loerts, Jess Radcliffe and Mack Arndt.

Emil Richter was recognized for being a tireless supporter and fundraiser for Fire & Rescue in the Lakes Region. Emil, Herman and all of the Richters at The Three Sons/University of Okoboji have raised in excess of $700,000. over the past 40 years to help support the high level of competence and readiness we in the Lakes Region enjoy today.

According to the American Heart Association, over 424,000 people of all ages suffer Cardiac Arrest annually with a 5% survival rate. CPR and defibrillation are critical to survival as time is of the essence.

With that in mind, Randy Rohlfen and the Wednesday Night Men's League purchased a defibrillator to have at Emerald Hills. Throughout the evening the importance of life saving CPR training was emphasized.

Iowa Lakes Music Festival

The second concert of The Third Annual Iowa Lakes Music Festival, sponsored by 'The Arts at St. Joseph' will be Friday, August 12, 7:00pm at St. Joseph's Catholic Church, 1305 Okoboji Avenue, Milford. The free concert will feature cellist Thomas Fortner, violinist David Brubaker and Thomas Elliott on viola. The strings quartet will perform selections from Debussy, Glass and Dvorak.

A reception will follow in the parish center. Doors will open at 6:30pm. A Free Will Offering will be accepted.

The founder and Artistic Director of the Iowa Great Lakes Music Festival is conductor and cellist Thomas Fortner. Thomas is an active conductor, chamber musician and soloist performing concerts in Europe and across North America. Presently Fortner is the Assistant Conductor of the Baltimore Symphony Youth Orchestra, serving as assistant conductor for the Martha Graham Dance Company at the Library of Congress and will begin this fall as Assistant Conductor of the Peabody Concert Orchestra. Originally from Houston, Texas, Thomas completed a masters of cello performance at McGill University in Montreal, Quebec. In 2014 Fortner founded the Iowa Lakes Music Festival, which hopes to bring world class musicians to the Lakes Area. The 'Arts at St. Joseph' has sponsored Thomas Fortner and The Iowa Lakes Music Festival since its inception.

A member of the Pacific, Oregon and Houston Symphony Orchestras as well as the Minnesota Orchestra, David Brubaker is an accomplished violinist. Brubaker also served as acting first associate concertmaster of the Minnesota Orchestra in the 2014 season.

Thomas Elliott will complete the quartet playing the viola. Elliott began his professional career at the age of 19 with the Houston Symphony. He has performed and toured extensively with the San Francisco Symphony, playing three seasons with the San Francisco Opera Orchestra during the era of the Three Tenors.

Violinist Sean Riley maintains a career throughout the U.S., Europe and Asia as a performer, entrepreneur and educator. As a solo artist he has been featured in London, performed for Charles the Prince of Wales and the Sultan of Oman. Riley currently is a professor at the Trinity Laban Conservatoire in London.

"The Arts at St. Joseph" is proud to host the Iowa Lakes Music Festival Concerts as part of their series of sacred arts presentations. We are grateful to our corporate sponsors: The Patrice and Rita Leary Foundation and United Community Bank.

Mannheim Steamroller Tickets Now On Sale

Tickets for Mannheim Steamroller are on sale now. The unique Christmas classic music show returns to Spencer on December 15 at the Clay County Regional Events Center.

Tickets for the event are $69 for VIP seating and $54 for reserved seating. The show begins at 7:30pm. Tickets can be bought at the Events Center Box Office, online at midwestix.com or via phone by calling 515-244-2771.

"It is an honor to bring Mannheim Steamroller back to Spencer," said Fair Manager Jeremy Parsons. "They thrilled us with a sold-out show in 2013, and I know the audience can expect the same this year."

This year marks the 32nd Anniversary of the Christmas Tour and release of "Mannheim Steamroller Christmas," an album that revolutionized the Holiday Season music category.

Grammy Award® winner Chip Davis will direct and co-produce Tour performances with MagicSpace Entertainment.

The show features classic Christmas hits from Mannheim Steamroller and dazzling multimedia effects in an intimate setting. The spirit of the season comes alive with the signature sound of Mannheim Steamroller.

In addition to being a holiday tradition for many families, the Mannheim Steamroller Christmas Tour regularly attracts repeat attendance from multi-generational guests and is one of the longest running tours in the music industry.

This year's tour includes many of the performances in a PBS special broadcast airing this year, "Mannheim Steamroller 30/40 Live" featuring the group's legendary concert.

Mannheim Steamroller has sold more than 40 million albums, 28 million in the Christmas genre. Their holiday albums have become synonymous with Christmas and consistently occupy top spots on Billboard's Seasonal Charts every year.

About Chip Davis and Mannheim Steamroller: From his longtime home in Omaha, Neb., Mannheim Steamroller creator Chip Davis makes innovative music inspired by the sounds of another age. This former teacher and jingle writer founded the music industry's largest independent recording label, American Gramophone, in 1974 when industry executives said Davis' innovative 18th century instrumental rock sound would never sell.

In addition to a Grammy Award, Davis is largely credited with establishing the New Age music category. He went on to revolutionize the making and marketing of holiday music. His first Christmas album was released in 1984; the album's success made Christmas records a "must do" for all music artists. With more than 40 million total records sold including 28 million Christmas albums, Mannheim Steamroller founder Chip Davis is the #1-selling Christmas music artist of all time. Davis, one of the most successful entrepreneurs in the music industry, offers a rich array of lifestyle products on www.mannheimsteamroller.com including hot chocolate, food, apparel and novelty items. His latest achievement is creating a cutting edge psychoacoustic technology that is being used in major medical institutions such as Mayo Clinic.

About MagicSpace Entertainment: Mannheim Steamroller Christmas by Chip Davis is produced by MagicSpace Entertainment. The company is headed by Lee D. Marshall, Joe Marsh, John Ballard, Steve Boulay and Bruce Granath and has been producing and presenting national tours, Broadway shows, concerts and museum exhibits worldwide for over 30 years. Consistently one of the top promoters in North America, MagicSpace Entertainment typically produces and presents more than 250 events in 75 cities per year. They have offices in Park City and Salt Lake City, Utah.

She has given a copy to the Arnolds Park Library as a memorial to her late husband, Jim Hubbard, and it is available elsewhere.

Mrs. Hubbard also reported that she had received a number of inquiries on the historical sites in Peterson following the DAR/Questers tour there on June 28. Interested persons can make appointments to visit the amazing collections in Jim's History Barn; the authentically restored pioneer homes and the French Doll Museum by contacting Michael Hyde, president of the Peterson Historical Foundation, mpreacherhyde@AOL.com, 712- 580-5147 or 712-295-6511 and Jim's History Barn, jshass2@iowatelecom.net, Jim and Sue Hass, 712-295-6552.

Egralharve, West Okoboji Lake, Iowa. Picture early 1900.

Stepping Back in Time by Jerry and Irene Clark of the Clark Museum of Okoboji and Iowa History

The Egralharve area is located two miles south of the north end of West Okoboji Lake, on the west shore. The 80 acre property was purchased by the Gordon R. Badgerow family of Sioux City, Iowa, in 1891. Its name was taken from those of their three sons, Egbert, Ralph and Harve. A well known bottling plant was erected there in 1912 and they sold water from the mineral springs nearby. The property was later sold to Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Morits. The museum displays an Egralharve Mineral Springs bottle and an advertisement for the Alligator Zoo located on the property.

Enjoy viewing the many pictures, signs and advertisements from the old amusement park, and lakes area, along with the surrounding 99 counties in Iowa. The Clark Museum would be an enjoyable visit for any club or organization.

Doo-Wop Comes to Pearson Lakes Art Center with The Alley Cats

The Alley Cats are America's Doo-Wop group, serving up a perfect blend of 1950s and '60s hits and hilarious comedy. With their tight, four-part harmony and delightful antics, these musical comics have been Jay Leno's opening act for the past seven years. Additionally, they have opened for Jerry Seinfeld, Joan Rivers and have appeared on numerous television shows for NBC, CBS, and PBS. The Alley Cats have performed in concert all over the world alongside iconic groups such as The Coasters, The Drifters, and The Beach Boys. Most notably, they were featured with Jay Black as The Americans on the television special Pop, Rock and Doo-Wop. Proudly, The Alley Cats have had the special honor of entertaining US military troops serving in Iraq and Afghanistan, and have had the great privilege of being invited by The President of The United States to perform at The White House.

All are welcome Tuesday, August 16 at 7:30pm at the Pearson Lakes Art Center to see The Alley Cats perform live on the Lauridsen Performing Arts Theatre stage. The cost is $25 for non-members, $20 for member and $15 for students. Tickets are available for purchase, and more information can be found by calling our box office at 712-332-7013 or by visiting us on the web at www.lakesart.org.
