Jones County is Mississippi's best kept secret

By Ross Tucker
For most people, the very mention of the state of Mississippi associates adverse perceptions of ignorance and inferiority. Those people, of course, were not born and raised in the state of Mississippi as I was. If they had, they would know what I know -- that Mississippi is a state of rich heritage and good ole' Southern hospitality. But most of all, it is the place I call home.

sion show and Matthew McConaughey. Although McConaughey's name is common chatter amidst hair salons and gossip magazines, he's rarely the subject of association with, dare I say it, the state of Mississippi. But as Bob Dylan sang, "the times they are a-changin'."

In McConaughey's latest and critically acclaimed role as Newton Knight in the Hollywood blockbuster, the "Free State of Jones," he plays a disenchanted Confederate army deserter who organizes and leads a militia of deserters, runaway slaves and women in a rebellion against the local Confederacy in Jones County, Miss. Regardless of your political sympathies, the unbridled Civil War saga and account of Jones County history has generated plenty of national media hype and more than $20 million in the box office, ranking sixth in ticket sales during opening weekend, according to a recent Box Office Mojo report.

As if a big screen flick wasn't enough to get the nation buzzing about an unheard of place called Jones County, the little town of Laurel, Miss. was smacked right on the map thanks to a good hammer, a few nails and a fresh coat of paint. HGTV's newest hit home improvement show, "Home Town," is earning national acclaim for big renovations in a small town. Using found materials and old textiles, Ben and Erin Napier are preserving the character of their quaint hometown of Laurel, Miss., one classic home at a time. From colorful histories to historic homes, Jones County has a little something to offer for everyone. According to Mississippi Magazine's Best of Mississippi list, a voter-based survey that details the best that Mississippi has to offer in 71 different categories, Jones County received a total of 19 awards and honorable mentions. This year, Jones County took home four top state-wide awards including Best Museum for the Lauren Roger's Museum of Art, Best Antique Mall for Southern Antiques, Best Park for Mason Park, and Best Mother of the Bride Boutique for Mimi's Bridal and Formal Wear.

Jones County also received 15 honorable mentions, or M-Lister awards, including Best Downtown Area for downtown

All-State Band member entertains Laurel Lions Club

The Laurel Lions Club sponsored two musicians from Laurel who were chosen as members of the Mississippi Lions Club All-State Band, Jesus Trujillo and Bria Sims. Wearing a kimono given to him by a Japanese Lions Club Band member, Trujillo entertained the club members by playing the bassoon at their August meeting. Trujillo said the Mississippi All-State Band traveled to Japan and the members of the band enjoyed a three city tour. "We spent a night in Tokyo and the next day at Tokyo Disney," said Trujillo. "We met a lot of Lions Club band members from different parts of the world - Switzerland, India, and Thailand. It was really an enriching trip. I am blessed to have been able to go on this trip." Trujillo will be a senior this year at West Jones High School.

117 pound watermelon grown in Soso

By Linda Cranford

Mickey Holloway and his daughter Delta proudly pose behind their 117-pound Carolina Cross seed watermelon, which is displayed at Old South Farm Supply and Dixie Tractor on Highway 15 South in Laurel Jones County where they both work. They grew the watermelon at their home in Soso.

"Rain is the key to the whole thing," exclaimed Mickey. "I had plenty of rain this year."

Delta added that preparing the ¼ acre garden spot on "new ground" was also a key factor to their success. She explained that the ground is considered new ground because there had been no livestock on it for approximately five years.

Mickey said he prepares the soil with 5-24-24 fertilizer to begin with, and then comes back a few weeks later with Super Rainbow 5-10-15, which adds minor elements, trace minerals and other nutrients to the soil.

"I have two more at the house that may weigh as much as this one, if not more," declared Mickey. Delta added that they also have some rather large pumpkins, too.

The watermelon will remain on display for a few more days before they cut it up and enjoy its sweet taste.

Sideline View: Favre delivers exceptional speech to Hall of Fame audience

By Dale McKee

Brett Favre did it again. He set numerous records playing in the NFL and Saturday night he had to set one more, and he did. Brett set the record for the longest speech in Pro Football Hall of Fame history. The former USM star talked 33 minutes and 20 seconds as he delivered one of the most emotional speeches ever. He thanked everyone who has been part of his life, but the one person missing that night, his dad, was the one whom he ended up talking about the most. There's one thing about Brett -- he has never changed over the years. He has made USM and Mississippi very proud.

try, and it is awesome to watch the best of the best. The most enjoyable moment is watching the athletes being presented with their medals, and, of course, I still get chill bumps listening to the Star Spangled Banner being played at the ceremony.

Sarah Sjostrom of Sweden won her country's first ever Gold Medal in swimming this past weekend. Sjostrom set a world record in the women's 100-meter butterfly at the Rio games. I am sure her country is delirious about her achievement.

I enjoy seeing the special TV profiles of these young athletes who have worked all their lives to get to this point. You do not get second chances in these games. Sometimes you're one-and-done. You can lose by less than a second in a competition that you have devoted your life to working for. So when you tune in and watch the grace of the athletes, remember the hard work that goes into these games. The ABC-TV theme for World Wide Sports - the joy of victory and the agony of defeat -- is the theme of every Olympic game.

Baseball News

Ichiro Suzuki of the Miami Marlins became a member of the 3,000 hit Sunday with a seventh-inning triple against Colorado. He is the 30th major leaguer to reach the 3,000 hit plateau and first Japanese born player. He also played for Seattle and the New York Yankees.

Speaking of the Yankees, Alex Rodriguez has decided that this Friday's home game against Tampa will be his last. He will take a front office job with the Yankees. A-Rod has played for 22 major league seasons and has hit 696 home runs.

Former Taylorsville star Billy Hamilton had a good Sunday at work. Billy went 3-for-4 and stole second and third base twice on the day. It was his fourth career, four-steal game. He now leads the National League in steals (43) and is the first Red to swipe at least 40 bases in three straight years since Joe Morgan did it when he played from 1973 to 1977. He also scored three times in the Cincinnati Reds' 7-3 win over Pittsburgh.

The Kansas Stars, led by Roger Clemens, Tim Hudson and Roy Oswalt, won their first game in the National Baseball Congress World Series in Wichita, Kansas. The NJCAA team that will play the Kansas Stars this week includes JCJC baseball star Mason Irby. He was an All-American at JCJC this spring and will play at USM next season. The Laurel Black Cats, making their first ever trip to the Wichita Series, went 0-3 last week.

Golf News

Jim Furyk shot the first 58 in PGA history this Sunday at the Travelers Championship in Cromwell, Connecticut. Furyk had eight birdies and an eagle on the day. Even with the great round he did not win the tourney. Russell Knox won on the final hole by one stroke over Jerry Kelly.

Today is your day of freedom

By Dr. Bill Myers

Do you feel forgiven or condemned?

"If we confess our sins, God is faithful and just and will forgive us our sins and purify us from ALL unrighteousness." 1 John 1:9.

"Blessed is he (that's us) whose transgressions are forgiven, whose sins are covered." Psalm 32:1.

Do you know of someone that lives a sad life of defeat? They feel their past has ruined their future? Some won't even go to church because they feel they aren't good enough. All these "feelings" are not from your God. The devil lies to make us feel condemned. Yes, he is your accuser. God is a forgiving Heavenly Father.

It's encouraging to know that our sins, no matter how terrible, are washed away like a spill on the kitchen counter. Yes, it's that simple. God is a forgiving and merciful Father who covers His children (us) with grace.

That Grace was paid for by Jesus, our Savior, on the cross when He shed His blood for you and me. Because of His sacrifice, shed blood and death, we don't have to earn grace like a merit badge or an achievement. It's free. The blood that Jesus shed on the cross for us washes away our sins because we are the "righteousness of God in Christ Jesus," (God's children). This is grace paid by Jesus. What a precious gift to us! "What can wash away my sins? Nothing but the blood of Jesus. What can make me whole again? Nothing but the blood of Jesus."

"The Lord is compassionate and gracious, slow to anger, abounding in love. He will not always accuse, nor will He harbor His anger forever; He does not treat us as our sins deserve or repay us according to our iniquities. For as high as the heavens are above the earth, so great is His love for those who fear (love and respect) Him; as far as the east is from the west, so far has He removed our transgressions (sins) from us. As a father has compassion on His children, so the Lord has compassion on those who fear Him." Psalm 103: 3-8.

We might feel like the worst sinner on earth today because of something we did or said, but if we'll confess our sins, He will forgive. Friends, God is the God of restoration! He wills to forgive and restore us even better than before! "If you, O Lord, kept a record of sins, O Lord, who could stand? But with you there is forgiveness." Psalm 130: 3-4. Praise God!

As our Heavenly Father loves and forgives us, let us also do the same to others.....Today is your day of freedom!

Dr. Bill Myers is the Show Choir director at Northeast Jones High School, is a frequent contributor to publications in south Mississippi, and has recently released a book, "Surviving the Storms of Life."

2016 WOW World Series Opening Ceremony

By Linda Cranford

Friday night, August 5, thirty-six Championship Teams from across the Southeast United States along with the Laurel Jones County Championship Host Teams lined the arena floor of the Magnolia Center for the Opening Ceremony of the 2016 AAA, Majors, and "O"Zone Dixie Youth Baseball World Series.

Prior to the opening ceremony the young players enjoyed pizza and a pen exchange, where the players traded state pens with each other. The teams included players in all three divisions from Alabama, Arkansas, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, Louisiana, Mississippi, North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas, and Virginia.

Laurel Mayor Johnny Magee welcomed the teams to Laurel and Jones County. Laurel High School Jr. ROTC Color Guard presented the colors and Kahdejah Moody sang the National Anthem. Pastor David Hagan of Life Church gave the invocation. The opening ceremony was choreographed by Lora Davis, owner of Dance Arts Studio in Ellisville.

George Bassi and Allyson Knotts served as emcees for the ceremony and introduced the players and coaches from each state as they entered the stage led by their Laurel Jones County host family.

The entertainment included Elvis Presley, Michael Jackson, and Prince impersonators. A fireworks show on the grounds of the South Mississippi Fairgrounds followed the inside opening ceremony.

Game play began Saturday afternoon at 3:30 p.m. at the Sportsplex and will continue through Thursday, August 12.

Laurel Jones County "O"Zone Host Team

Carson Ellis with Laurel Jones County "O"Zone Host Team won the Home Run Derby Skills Competition on Friday afternoon hitting a total of 12 homeruns.

The Griffins - Larry, Debbie, Leigha, Ryan (not pictured), Jackson and Wyatt - were the host family for the Louisiana Majors State Champions from Ville Platte, La.

Laurel Chick-fil-A owner Brittany Pickering and her family - Stan, Anderson, Meredith, and Truett were the host family for the Arkansas Majors State Champions.

Mississippi Academy of Family Physicians name "Physician of the Year"

Submitted

John F. Hassell, M.D., family medicine physician at Laurel Family Clinic, was recently recognized as Family Physician of the Year by the Mississippi Academy of Family Physicians at its 67th Annual Conference in July. This award is presented annually to the physician contributing the most to the development of family medicine in the state. It is known as the John B. Howell Memorial Award and was established in memory of Dr. Howell, a pioneer in the practice of family medicine and long-time delegate to the American Academy of Family Physicians. In 1973, Dr. Hassell graduated from the University of Mississippi Medical School with honors as a member of Alpha Omega Alpha. He completed his residency in 1976 where he was a member of the inaugural class of four exceptional residents at UMMC specializing in family medicine.

Dr. Hassell has been board certified by the American Board of Family Medicine. He was an instructor at UMMC Department of Family Medicine and preceptor for William Carey University College of Osteopathic Medicine students, as well as preceptor for UMMC 3rd and 4th year students. Dr. Hassell is an active member of Mississippi State Medical Association, having served as a delegate, a member of several councils and received their Community Service Award. Dr. Hassell has been involved with the MAFP in almost every capacity, including serving as president in 1992. In 1977, Dr. Hassell joined the medical staff at South Central Regional Medical Center, formerly Jones County Community Hospital, in Laurel, Mississippi. The same year, Dr. Hassell joined Drs. Balaski, Casey and Hollingshead as a family medicine physician at Laurel Family Clinic. Dr. Hassell has provided patient care for 40 years at Laurel Family Clinic.

Giving back has always been important to Dr. Hassell in his community. As a family physician, Dr. Hassell has served as a South Central Sports Medicine physician for the Laurel High School football team, volunteered to provide sports physicals for local athletes, and taught medical students and residents in family medicine once a month on his day off. Dr. Hassell has also served as a volunteer and medical director of the Good Shepherd Clinic of Laurel for 20 years. Dr. Hassell's passion for family medicine is readily apparent to those who are privileged to know him. With a career in family medicine that spans over 40 years, Dr. Hassell's dedication, commitment, and leadership in his profession and community truly makes him one of the greatest advocates for family medicine in the state of Mississippi.

When reflecting on his 40 years of service in the field of Family Medicine, Dr. Hassell stated, "I truly believe my path to become a physician was a calling from God. I began my college career as an accounting major, but during my junior year I felt led to the medical profession. Throughout the years, I have been blessed to provide care to many residents in Laurel, Jones County and surrounding communities."

Dr. Hassell, and his wife, Martha, have two children, Jenny Hassell Cummins and Jay Hassell, and four grandchildren: John Davis Cummins, Emilee Martha Cummins, John Brooks Hassell and Lee Alston Hassell.

Volunteers - Wanda Benson, Stephanie Harris, and Veronica Duckworth.

When "Prince" took the stage for the second time, the players stormed the stage.

SCAR puts focus on happy endings

By Kelly Atwood, SCAR Board member

About 20 years ago, I would read my local shelter's updates in the newspaper, and they would share horrible stories of what people did to animals. I know the purpose of the articles was to show readers what the shelter dealt with on a regular basis, which should make the readers empathize with the shelter workers, but their stories usually ended with the suffering and deaths of the animals, and I eventually became so depressed I just couldn't read them anymore.

Thankfully SCAR has happy stories to share with everyone, and if you have a facebook account, you can see our before and after photos of animals who've entered our rescue facility. A dog may come in covered in mange with its ribs showing, and after a few months, it's a happy, healthy pup ready to find a forever home. Fortunately, most of our stories have happy endings.

But I have to say, there are some stories we don't share with readers because they are straight out of a horror movie. Those animals are in such terrible shape that they have to be euthanized, which at that point is a kindness to the animals.

It takes a special person to be able to go to these homes, face the kind of people who would let their animal remain in gruesome shape, stay calm in the face of that horrible situation and try to talk those owners into giving up their animal without a fuss. Even if the animal survives, the rescue team is still greatly affected. The heartbreaking things that they see stay with them throughout their day-to-day lives. Despite all that, these ladies open the rescue facility the next day with smiles on their faces, ready to meet people coming in the door to hopefully pair them with one of the already rehabilitated, happy SCAR animals.

Decades ago, I had a couple of brief encounters with workers from another shelter. They seemed very angry and bitter. I didn't really understand then, but now I do. Seeing disturbing images, the kind the rest of us don't see in our daily lives, can change a person, make them question the goodness of humanity. The SCAR ladies haven't changed. I'm sure in some ways, they have. What they've seen cannot be unseen, and they'll carry images in their heads that will never go away. But when it comes to people, they still believe there are good ones.

I couldn't do what they do. I'm a board member, but I don't go on rescues or work in the shelter. If I did, I know without a doubt it would change me. I've been changed by less. If I went to a home and saw animals suffering horribly, and they had owners who have let them suffer for days or weeks in that state, I would scream in the owners' faces and shake them, as if violence or yelling has ever convinced another person to think differently. I would do this because I'd feel so helpless, hopeless and overwhelmed at the number of these situations and at these people who aren't acting like decent human beings.

It really isn't hopeless, as long as I put it in the capable hands of someone strong enough to face what I don't want to. I admire SCAR's strength, their resilience and all they've accomplished in the three years they've been here. We need the people of SCAR to do the things that we don't want to do but that need to be done. They have worked to have law enforcement on their
