

UNA Nursing Program Has a New Name

FLORENCE – According to William Shakespeare, “A rose by any other name would smell just as sweet.” And when it comes to the new name of the University of North Alabama College of Nursing, students and the public can still expect UNA to produce amazing nurses as it has since 1973.

Those students will now have a new name on their diploma, the Anderson College of Nursing.

The new name for the college was made possible after the Anderson family of Florence announced a $3 million contribution as part of UNA’s “Build the Pride” comprehensive campaign.

Dr. Deborah Shaw, vice president for University Advancement, said the name change to the Anderson College of Nursing had to go through various approvals, but that process is finally complete.

“We’re so excited about what the future holds for the Anderson College of Nursing,” said Shaw. “We’d like to extend our most heartfelt thanks to the Anderson family for their commitment to UNA and to nursing. The new Anderson College of Nursing will continue to provide the Shoals and the country with top notch healthcare professionals,” she said.

For more information on the Anderson College of Nursing, visit www.una.edu/nursing/

The studio became one of the most influential recording studios in the world soon after the Muscle Shoals Rhythm Section, aka the Swampers, set up shop there in 1969.

The Mystery #7 "The Faith"

1 Timothy 3:9 "Holding the "mystery of the faith" in a pure conscience." Briefly mentioned last week, more thoroughly covered this week. The word "faith" appears 231 times in KJV, the words "the faith" appears 43 times in KJV. You say, why is that a mystery? Because 2 Thessalonians 3:2b says "all men have not faith." Psalms 116:11b says "all men are liars." Jesus described faithless folks in Luke 16:15 "And he said unto them, Ye are they which justify yourselves before men; but God knoweth your hearts: for that which is highly esteemed among men is abomination in the sight of God." Clearly stated in Romans 8:33b "It is God that justifieth." Faithless people are inwardly trusting their church, themselves, the commandments, and their works and hoping their good behavior will outweigh their bad behavior on God's scales of judgment, when they are judged. THERE ARE NO SUCH SCALES. God Almighty will not justify anyone that is depending on themselves, their church, their works, or TRUSTING anything else other than the shed blood and finished work of Christ on the cross for your sins.

What faith saves? Romans 3:25 "Whom God hath set forth to be a propitiation through faith in his blood, to declare his righteousness for the remission of sins that are past, through the forbearance of God;" Romans 3:28 "Therefore we conclude that a man is justified by faith without the deeds of the law." Romans 5:1 "Therefore being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ:" Galatians 3:24 "Wherefore the law was our schoolmaster to bring us unto Christ, that we might be justified by faith." Romans 5:9 "Much more then, being now justified by his blood, we shall be saved from wrath through him." Ephesians 2:8-9 "For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: Not of works, lest any man should boast." Philippians 3:9 "And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith:" If you reject these truths, your blood be upon your own head.

Saving faith couldn't be clearer. Don't be like doubting Thomas in John 20:27, believe on by faith and trust Christ today. Jesus never fails.

Holden...

Alabama music, from his music mentoring of others, his efforts in music education, and keeping the sound of the big band era alive."

Holden first sang on stage as a pre-teen at the Princess Theatre in Decatur. He was recruited as a singer in high school by the Starlighters, a band that played pop music. In the late 50s and early 60s, Edsel put together his own group called the Eddie Holden Orchestra. This group played all over the tri-state region.

He worked in theatre productions as a trumpet player in the pit, and eventually as an actor. He began working as a studio musician playing trumpet. He is also one of the original members of the Big Band a musical group at UNA that performs 30's and 40's era classics.

Holden has performed on stage his entire life. However, his accomplishments also reach into music history and education. He was one of the driving forces behind the creation of the annual W.C. Handy Festival. In the late 90's he helped to produce a series of concerts for elementary school students as part of Black History Month. After the series' first year, it was invited to perform in Washington D.C. for the National Geographic Society.

Many of Holden's performances are also for charitable causes, such as the restoration of the historic Shoals Theatre in Florence.

ASK THE ATTORNEY

Thomas McCutcheon

Ask the Attorney is sponsored by local attorneys, McCutcheon & Hamner, PC, as a service to the residents of NW Alabama.

Q I was driving my friend's car and she doesn't have insurance. I have insurance, but I got a ticket for failure to show proof of insurance. Does my insurance not cover the car that I was driving?

Ashton, Sheffield, AL

A Your insurance follows you in terms of your liability coverage. If you borrow a car that is uninsured and do damage to someone else's property, your liability insurance coverage should pay for it absent some contract language to the contrary.

You should be able to show the judge that you had insurance on a car and the judge should recognize that your insurance would cover damage to someone else's car if you were at fault.

If you have collision coverage on your car, that is insurance that will repair your car in the event that it is damaged no matter whose fault it is, that coverage only follows you in a borrowed car under most circumstances, if your car was broken and/or being repaired. Otherwise, your insurance will not pay to fix a car you borrow if you could have been driving your own.

Because people ask what types of coverage they have, 25/50 means that your insurance will pay $25,000 to any one person injured and $50,000 maximum per accident. 100/300 means that your insurance will pay $100,000 to any one person injured as a result of your negligence and $300,000 maximum per accident. UM (uninsured/underinsured motorist) covers your bodily injury in the event that you are injured by someone who is either uninsured or underinsured. This coverage stacks so that if you have multiple cars, you have multiple coverage. The buyer of insurance chooses how much coverage protection they need. 50/100 pays $50,000 to any one person and $100,000 maximum no matter how many people are in the car.

Obviously, you should buy insurance proportionate to what you need to protect. If you are retired and own your own house be sure and discuss with your agent how much insurance you need. On the other hand, if you are just starting out in life and have no property, very little income then obviously a smaller policy would be adequate.

Buckle up and drive safely.

Medicare Minute "Medicare Supplements"

Medicare supplements, also known as Medigap policies, are designed to help cover some or all of the deductibles, copays and coinsurance that Original Medicare does not cover. Medigap policies are sold through private insurance companies.

In Alabama these insurance companies can sell you only a "standardized" policy identified by a letter, such as Plan F. The most common supplemental plans in Alabama are Plans A, B, F, G and N. The term "standardized" means that Medicare requires all plans with a particular letter to have the same basic benefits regardless of the company selling it. For example, a Plan G with one company has to have the exact basic benefits as Plan G with every other company selling it.

Two things to keep in mind when shopping for a Medigap policy. First is the premium. Different insurance companies can charge different premiums for the exact same policy. This means you could pay more for your Medigap policy from one company than you would from other companies offering the same basic benefits. It's a good idea to check with someone who can show you the premiums from several companies to be sure you're getting the best premium for you coverage.

The second thing to keep in mind is the type of Medigap policy you are looking at. Some companies offer a Medicare SELECT policy. SELECT policies may require you to use a defined network of providers to receive full coverage, meaning you may not have full coverage from a provider even though the provider accepts Medicare. A standard Medigap policy will allow you to go to any provider that accepts Medicare. If you are not sure about the type of Medigap policy you are looking at, or its premium, you can contact or come by our office for help.

If you have questions regarding any aspect of Medicare or Medicare health plans feel free call us at Alabama Health Guidance (256-284-7249), stop by our office at 879 Florence Blvd (Four Lane Shopping Center) or email me at ikey@alabamahealthguidance.com. Alabama Health Guidance is an independent insurance agency and is not affiliated with Medicare or any other government agency.

parallel into South Korea. The Korean War was the first test of the United Nations' resolve to stand against tyranny. Twenty-one nations banded together with the United States and South Korea in remarkable solidarity to fight aggression and repel communism.

Freedom has brought great economic advances for South Korea. Meanwhile, North Korea is mired in communism and is among the world's poorest performing economies.

The veterans who shivered in the trenches, tracked through knee-deep mud, flew combat missions over rugged mountainous terrain, and stood watch over hostile seas set aside their own comfort, safety, and aspirations to answer the call at a time when our nation was still exhausted from the horrors of World War II.

Commentary

The Unarmed Man Who Was Armed

Anyone who was unsure that the national media sensationalizes stories only has to consider a New York Times headline for evidence. Posted at 10:06am August 14 - "Unrest in Milwaukee After Police Fatally Shoot Unarmed Man."

The piece soon after has "armed" and the headline was updated as information continued to accumulate. However, that is not an isolated example of error in minority shootings. Creating facts to suit their journalistic escapades is nothing new, but shouldn't they be held accountable for any injury or property damage resulting in rage from negligent oversight?

At no point in the shooting incident was there ever a question the perp was armed. You have to wonder if any of these journalists are getting kickbacks from the Black Lives Matter movement whenever an incident involving a black man and law enforcement takes place. An affinity for stoking the coals of animosity is the only other reason that unbiased reporters/editors would repeatedly align with left-leaning conjecture.

The reporting media would have us initially believe that every suspect killed in a police confrontation was an honorable, innocent, and unarmed black man killed by a racist cop. As I recall, those parameters only describe one of the recent victims accurately.

UPGRADED 2-1-1 FUNCTIONALITY

Expanding User's Ability

SHOALS-Alabama's 2-1-1 network recently upgraded its functionality to expand a user's ability to connect to needed services. The state resource hotline went from being a static call and dispatch service to an interactive system where callers can also engage in live chats and text messaging.

2-1-1 is a free statewide information and referral service that connects people with health and human services and programs in their communities. Alabama 2-1-1 service is available in all counties. The service is supported by United Way organizations across the state with the technological system hosted at United Way of Central Alabama.

Along with the upgrades in interactivity, the referral service is also participating in a national data-gathering program called 2-1-1 Counts. The changes to the dashboard allow state agencies, nonprofits, and community leaders to see what the most pressing needs of residents are across the state.

"United Way partnered agencies and other organizations can see where the needs truly exist,"

Don't Know Who He Is

Editor:

America is being so deceived by Obama's saying, "That's not who we are," while he lets many violent illegals and refugee terrorist into the USA.

I believe that we are all being conned by a president when we really don't know who he is. What are his deeply-rooted motives? Think about it.

Hillary will follow his selfish, destructive examples. Think about that too.

Lessons from Europe

To the Editor:

Was hunting and target shooting a big concern of the Founding Fathers in securing the right to keep and bear arms or did they have much more important issues in mind?

Thomas Jefferson asked, "What country can preserve its liberties if its rulers are not warned from time to time that its people preserve the spirit of resistance?" Jefferson went on to say how to stop tyranny, "Let them take arms."

James Madison was the Father of the Constitution. In Federalist paper number 46, Madison addressed the question of what recourse the states and people would have if the national government usurped power.

After reviewing lesser recourses first, Madison pointed out that Americans had the advantage of being armed. He spoke disparagingly of the several kingdoms of Europe where the governments are afraid to trust the people with arms. He recognized the advantage of being armed as one which the Americans possess over the people of almost every other nation. Madison believed that if the people of Europe were armed 'that with this aid alone they might well be able to shake off their yokes and that the throne of every tyranny in Europe might be speedily over-turned in spite of the legions which surround it.'

George Washington said that the best way to prepare for peace was to be ready for war. Similarly, is the best way to preserve liberty and prevent tyranny

...One might think that given all this there would be no gun violence in the nation. Not so.

ON YOUR DEBT

Preparing for a Bankruptcy Case

B. Grant McNutt
Managing Attorney

What Documents do I Need to File a Bankruptcy Case?

If you are just starting to consider filing a bankruptcy case, you're probably wondering where to start. You're asking yourself "What information and documents will I need to provide to my lawyer or to the court?" This blog post will lay out the basics you need to get started.

1. Driver's License and Social Security Card. First, you'll need your Driver's License and Social Security Card. The Court will require you to present a government issued photo ID. If your License has been suspended or you don't have one, then you'll need to get a Non-Driver ID card. Your local State Trooper's License Office can issue one and they'll tell you what you need to get one. Also, if you've lost your Social Security Card, then you'll need to go apply for a new one. You can apply at the Social Security office and it usually takes a few weeks to get your new card.

2. Tax Returns. Second, you'll need to be sure you've filed your Federal Income Tax Returns for the past 4 years. If you are filing a Chapter 13 case, it is a requirement that your last 4 years of Tax Returns have been filed. The Court will want to see copies of at least the 2 (two) previous years of returns. If you don't have copies of those yourself, then you'll need to obtain copies from whoever prepared your taxes for those years. If all else fails, you can get copies of your returns or get tax transcripts for those years from your local IRS office. If you were not required to file a tax return because your only income is Social Security or you did not earn enough income to file, that isn't a problem. Your attorney can help you submit to the Court an affidavit that you weren't required to file.

3. Copies of Financial Account Statements. Third, you'll need copies of a recent account statement from any financial account you have. This includes any checking or savings accounts at a bank or credit union. It also includes statements for other kinds of financial accounts, such as Certificates of Deposit (CDs) or Money Market accounts. Additionally, the court will want to see recent account statements from any stocks, bonds, mutual funds, 401ks, or other long-term investments that you have. You should be able to obtain statements either from your bank or from your investment broker.

4. Copies of Paystubs. Lastly, you'll need to provide copies of your last 6 months of paystubs. When filing a bankruptcy case, the court looks at your last 6 months of income in determining whether you qualify to file under the Means Test. Your attorney will also need your paystubs to calculate your monthly income for your budget. If you don't have copies of your paystubs, you should be able to get copies printed from the payroll department at your job.

If you have any questions regarding Chapter 7 Bankruptcy, Chapter 13 Bankruptcy, stopping a foreclosure or wage garnishment, avoiding liens, stopping law suits, discharging debt, etc., we can help you!

Good Luck
If you click on one of these things, you'll often be sent to a website where you will enter an email address. You will then be inundated with spam that sells anything other than the free car you wanted. Sometimes, you will be asked to enter your cell phone number. Once the scammers have that, they will enter you into a text messaging service that will be billed on your next cell phone invoice often at $5 per message received.

More often than not, this is an attempt to get you to "like" a Facebook page. This is called "like farming."

When the scammer has enough likes, they will often change the name of the page and start advertising "knockoff" sunglasses or begin spamming your Facebook feed with links to other less reputable websites. Facebook users who participate in such fake giveaways not only unwittingly help spammers pollute the social network with scams, they may also risk being exposed to malware or may find their names and identities endorsing a scam, hate page, or other unpleasant activity.

There are legitimate giveaways, of course. I am determined to one day win that HGTV Dream Home Giveaway. I've participated every year for at least a decade. Y'all are all invited to the party when I win, of course. The difference is that HGTV is a legitimate company. These types of contests are fairly rare, heavily promoted, and are almost always conducted through the company's legitimate social media account or website.

Letters...

to leave no doubt in the minds of would be tyrants that the people have both the will and the means (arms) to defeat them?

In the Declaration of Independence we are told that men are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable rights and that the securing of these rights is the very purpose for which governments are instituted. We are further told that "...whenever any Form of Government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the Right of the People to alter or abolish it..."

The Founders may or may not have had some peripheral interest in hunting and target shooting. Was their main concern that the people should retain the wherewithal to exercise their right and duty to alter or abolish government as might be required as set forth in the Declaration of Independence? In securing the rights to keep and bear arms were the Founding Fathers establishing a final redoubt against tyranny?

A more contemporary American patriot, former Oklahoma state senator Mary Helm, put it well when she said, "Our freedom rests in three boxes - the ballot box, the jury box, and the cartridge box."

For Americans who wish to preserve the freedom that they were endowed by the Creator is ownership of and proficiency with guns more than a right? Is it a responsibility? In most places there is no law that requires you to own a gun. There is also no law that requires you to be kind to your neighbors and to protect them if you can. However, as good citizens are we obligated to do both?

Activity a Bad Precedent

Editor:

A ridiculous complaint recently was filed with the Alabama Judicial Inquiry Commission by a liberal hate group, the notorious Southern Poverty Law Center. As a result, a trial date was set for September to decide if Alabama Supreme Court Chief Justice Roy Moore should be permanently removed from the bench because of actions he took in response to the U.S. Supreme Court's sharply divided (and irrational and unjustifiable) decision in favor of so-called gay marriage.

The world liberals are trying to create is so upside-down and backward that they actually believe it's okay to discriminate against and make criminals

Unarmed...

Charles Kinsey, a respected black behavioral therapist in Miami was unarmed and shot while assisting a mentally ill patient at an intersection. That incident involved a 9-1-1 call and a lot of confusion on behalf of the officer.

Interestingly, the incident with Kinsey didn't receive national coverage.

Unfortunately, unarmed and innocent does not describe 23 year-old Sylville Smith in Milwaukee.

Smith was killed the afternoon of Saturday, August 13 while fleeing a traffic stop with a stolen and loaded handgun and an extensive rap-sheet. Police reports and corroborating witnesses report that Smith was brandishing his weapon at police officers while trying to make his escape on foot.

It's common knowledge by authorities that Smith had some involvement with a previous shooting. He is familiar with witness intimidation tactics from inside a jail cell. He was also associated with cocaine possession, robbery, and heroin dealing. Smith allegedly had almost two dozen rounds in his stolen gun when he was shot.

The officer who shot Smith was a 24 year old six year veteran of the department. Three of those years were on the streets as a Milwaukee police officer. He is also a black man.

They didn't mention that - because it wouldn't help perpetuate class warfare or widen the racial divide.

What major news organization will have the guts one time to say, "Would-Be Assassin Takes a Foolish Step?" When will a major headline or the lead on a nightly newscast be, "Career Criminal Fails in Attempt to Kill Cop?"

Probably never. They don't want to entertain the possibility that a member of the public has any personal responsibility; that one may actually be in the wrong.

Besides, in our instant news-now society, the mindset of 'Get the story published' often takes precedent over 'Get the story right.' A juicy word or two like "Unarmed" adds readers and discontent.

NYT uses the moniker, "Real news requires real journalism." Sometime soon NYT may even allege that they provide those.

Before Dan Rather was canned at CBS for his blatantly false report on G.W. Bush, this column took the position that the company would do well to modify its acronym to C2BS.

That was ten years ago when leftist slant in national news reporting was fashionable, but blatant falsehoods were the exception. We could easily argue that some of those major news outlets are getting perilously close to dropping the C.

Unrest in Milwaukee After Police Fatally Shoot Unarmed Man

DAVE Says

by DAVE RAMSEY

MOTHER IS ELDERLY; DOES SHE NEED LONG-TERM CARE INSURANCE?

Dear Dave,
I'm trying to help my elderly mom with her finances. She has no debt and more than $1 million in assets. There was also another $500,000 trust left for her by my dad. With access to all this, does she still need long-term health insurance?
Anonymous

Dear Anonymous,
Absolutely! She also needs an estate planner immediately. Your parents were far too wise with their money to have your mom end up in a bad situation toward the end of her life. You need to do everything you can to prevent this from happening.

In the event she's unable to take care of herself, long-term care health coverage to take care of nursing home or in-home care is an absolute necessity. The cost of nursing home care can run from $75,000 to $100,000 a year. Your mom is in great shape financially. But just imagine what a prolonged nursing home stay could do to her nest egg. It's not a pretty thought.

When you hit 60, you need long-term care insurance, period. Whether you have $1 million-plus in the bank or not, I strongly recommend it as a wise part of any asset management plan.
— Dave

WHAT IS A MONEY MARKET ACCOUNT?

Dear Dave,
What exactly is a money market account?
Julie

Dear Julie,
Money markets are short-term financial instruments. Money market accounts pay about the same, maybe a little bit more, than traditional savings accounts. If you get a money market account with a bank, you've basically got a savings account that mirrors — or pays about the same — as the actual money markets.

Now, if you get a money market account with a mutual fund company, you're actually buying into the money markets. The big difference is that the mutual fund companies are a lot more flexible, and they don't have FDIC (Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation) insurance.

I have my emergency fund parked in a mutual fund company money market account, and the great thing is that it's fully liquid — meaning there are no penalties to take cash out at any time. It's a perfect place to keep an emergency fund!
— Dave

of decent moral business people who don't want to bake a wedding cake for heterophobic homosexuals, or don't want to make floral arrangements for heterophobic homosexuals, etc. Thinking people have known for centuries that homosexual activity is immoral and a bad legal precedent.

Unfortunately, this kind of discrimination isn't new. On college campuses all across America liberal bigots have been discriminating against conservative speech and conservatives for years. The legal group known by the acronym FIRE (Foundation for Individual Rights in Education), which defends conservative teachers and students who have been discriminated against by ignorant liberal bigots on various college campuses, could provide you with a lengthy list of such cases.

Citizens of Alabama, please rally around Justice Moore. We need to start a major push-back against these discriminatory liberal bigots.

Australian Gun Laws Useless

Editor:

The Federal and State Governments of Australia have made it illegal for any unlicensed Australian citizens to possess a firearm. In order to possess one, you must make application through the police departments and have a good reason to do so. Self-defense is not considered a good reason.

You must become a member of a gun club and/or have written permission from a farm owner to hunt on his land. Then you are subject to a stringent background check, etc. If you are finally given permission to own a gun, you are required to keep it locked away in such a manner that it would be practically useless in home defense. There is no such thing as a permit to publicly carry a firearm except for licensed security personnel.

As an avid observer of the Australian culture for some 46 years since immigrating here from the U.S., I can say with some certainty that only a tiny percentage of people living in urban Australia would own any kind of firearm and practically no one would have a side arm. Since the buy-back program, it has been an offense with a five year prison sentence to unlawfully have a fire arm in your home. Unlawful fire arms can include air rifles

Soap Opera Preview

THE BOLD AND THE BEAUTIFUL As he promised Steffy in a desperate attempt not to lose her, Wyatt took extreme measures to try to convince his mother to end her relationship with Eric. Thomas had Steffy's best interest at heart when he tried to fill what was missing in her life. Rick was taken aback by the closeness that Brooke and Ridge had renewed. Hoping to have strength in numbers, Ridge and Brooke involved their family in a plot to protect Eric. Bill planned a romantic evening for Brooke in hopes of convincing her that they belonged together despite her concern about Katie's feelings. Ridge let Katie in on his plan concerning Forrester Creations. Sasha became a positive distraction for Thomas as she helped take his mind off the latest Forrester family drama. Wait to See: A generous offer is extended, but with one extreme condition.

DAYS OF OUR LIVES Kayla urged Joey to stick with therapy. Eduardo gathered the family together and told them that he was leaving Salem. Paul ran into Sonny and invited him to lunch. Victor was released on bail and headed home to see Maggie, whose was recovering. Hope went to the station to confront Aiden about how he stole the D.A. job away from Justin. Kate bought the B&B from Doug and Julie, and promptly evicted all the guests. Jennifer's family gathered at the Hortons to console her over Abigail's death. Meanwhile, Gabi and Sonny visited Will's grave. Nicole got Chloe to admit that Deimos fathered her child. Wait to See: Philip kisses Chloe.

GENERAL HOSPITAL Morgan and Sonny had a heart-to-heart talk. Nelle helped Sonny and Carly out in a bind. Ava and Liz made an intriguing discovery.

Later, Liz turned to Franco for support. Kevin and Laura went out on a date. Molly attempted to broker peace between her mom and sister. Alexis was caught in an unfavorable position. Naomi received a troubling call. Finn and Obrecht had it out. Jordan and Alexis got into a heated conversation. Laura's discovery did not go over well. Sonny confronted Alexis about her behavior. Franco tried to enlist Kevin's help in getting a job. Ava worried about the fate of her brother. Wait to See: Paul has some serious questions for Andre.

THE YOUNG AND THE RESTLESS Victor visited Chloe at the penthouse and urged her to leave town and do what was best for her daughter. Later, Chloe comforted Chelsea over losing hope that Adam would ever be cleared of murder charges. Kevin asked Mariah if she had feelings for him, but she dodged his question. Nick assured Phyllis that Summer would one day thank them for getting her away from Luca. Hilary informed Lily that she might hold the key to Neil's past with his parents. Suspecting that she was hiding something, Colin asked Jill why she really returned to Genoa City. Phyllis tried to make peace with Summer. Wait to See: Victor and Nikki reunite over a crisis.

and cross bows. Add to that now the State and Federal Governments know exactly where the few citizen/licensed fire arms are in the nation!! One might think that given all this there would be no gun violence in the nation. Not so.

The evening news in most cities feature daily stories of robberies or murders with firearms. It seems jihadists have no great difficulty getting a firearm in Australia as well. The stories of most concern to senior citizen like myself are those of increasing violent home invasions often focused on defenseless older citizens. It is only the law abiding citizens that cannot have fire arms here!!

Khan a Hero, But Stupid, too

Dear Sir:

Mr. Trump has been attacked for his alleged lack of respect for the loss suffered by the Khan family due to the incident in Iraq where their son, Capt. Khan of the US Army was killed in a car bomb explosion. This was a tragic loss, but I cannot see where any comment by Mr. Trump could be interpreted as a lack of respect for the family or their loss. As far as I know, there has been no description of the incident details and there are many unanswered questions.

Why was a Captain part of a detail which usually consists of enlisted personnel assigned to checkpoint duty? There is no question that lives were saved by his action of ordering personnel out of harms way when a suspect car bomb approached. His rash decision to approach this vehicle cost him his life. Why he did that after deciding that it represented a threat is not known.

A bullet through the car's windshield from a safe distance would have done the trick, and he would have survived. It seems clear that the bomber's target was not the personnel at the checkpoint. More likely it was a market or civilian gathering point within the safe zone. The explosives probably would have been detected and might explain why the car stopped short of the checkpoint.

In any event Capt. Khan certainly deserves awards for his actions. If there were a medal for stupid, he deserves that as well. My training included the admonition, "Stay alert, Stay alive" and evidently Capt. Khan's did not.

Hall of Fame Greatness

Burrell-Slater High School in Florence has had some of the greatest athletes ever to play sports in the Shoals area. One such athlete who starred in the sixties was Charlie Johnson, Jr. You name it-chances are Johnson could do it. His career resume contains some of the most amazing statistics of any athlete anywhere.

He was a three-sport athlete at the school from 1962-1966. As a point guard in basketball, he averaged 14 points per game. He was selected all-Area and All-State in 1965 and 1966. When track season rolled around, Johnson displayed blazing speed.

He ran the 100-yard dash in 10 seconds, the 220-yard dash in 22.5 seconds and ran the final leg on the 440 relay team. On the football team, Johnson played quarterback on offense and safety on defense. In 1965 and 1966, he threw 14 touchdown passes and ran for 465 yards. His single game highlight came against rival Leighton Training School when he intercepted 7 passes with 3 resulting in touchdowns.

He was selected to the All-Area and all-State football team in 1965 and 1966. In 1970 Johnson led the U.S. Naval Shipyard team in San Francisco to the area championship in eight-man football. In 1999, Johnson tried his hand at golf. He played in the Senior PGA Tour National Qualifying Golf Tournament. He also played professionally on the Heartland Senior Golf Tour from 1999-2001.

That athletic career is one that will be remembered by everyone who played sports for Burrell-Slater High School. It was that career that awarded Johnson the ultimate achievement this spring when he was inducted into the Lauderdale County Sports Hall of Fame.
