S'more Fest Raises Funds For Camp Foster Scholarship Program

Fun for families at Camp Foster raises funds for Project 130! August 14 marked a new Camp Foster YMCA fundraising event targeted to lakes-area families. With approximately 80 people attending this firstyear event, camp staff deemed S'more Fest a success and look to build upon that success for next year's event.

S'More Fest gave families the opportunity to do Camp Foster activities outside the normal day or resident camp sessions. Horseback rides, canoeing, pontoon rides, ziplining, the rock wall, arts and crafts and archery were all options from which the attendees could choose. A campfire meal was an additional option, with the camp staff roasting marshmallows for S'Mores for desert.

"Project 130 is a great way for camp families to give back to those in need," said Britleigh Ingwersen, YMCA of the Okobojis Development Director. "We have been grateful to be able to send over 100 kids to Camp Foster in previous years, and we hope to continue that tradition.'

Proceeds from S'More Fest help send children to Camp Foster through camp's scholarship program, Project 130. With the addition of the S'More Fest proceeds, Project 130 has raised enough to send 67 kids to camp for the 2017 season.

DBBB takes it back to the Roaring '20s

Charlene Thomsen has been a frequent contributor to RAMBOling over the decades. That's what happens when you have a granddaughter involved in

But Charlene's call the first thing last Tuesday morning had nothing to do with her own family. Instead, it was about, "two very nice young college boys" who enjoyed the Dick Bauman Big Band the previous night.

Before explaining why she called,
Charlene applauded the fact that, "The boys didn't use their cell phones even once during the performance!" That's something we would have given a hand to as well.

But the reason for Charlen's call was to

But the reason for Charlene's call was to let us know the brothers, Gilbert and Harrison Hall, who hail from Boston, asked DBBB pianist Steve Smith if the band could play When You're Smiling... or Oh, How I Miss You Tonight. Both songs were written in the mid-1920s, by their great grandfather, Mark Fisher, and two other songwriters.

(Both were hit songs for many singers and musicians over the next 30 years. Louis Armstrong even made three recordings of ...Smiling, in 1929, 1932, and 1956.) Steve was the right person to ask. He knew neither song was "in the book," but said he remembered his family's band playing at least one of them when he was a kid. So along with bass man Mike Anderson and drummer Greg Forney, he put together a brief rendition.

The Hall boys were here with their aunt, Martha Strawther, who lives in Orange, Virginia, — in the Piedmont Region — and was here to visit her cousin Julie Bergquist. Strawther told us she has been in the area only once in the last 25 years or so, and was surprised at all the summer activity. "We had more social life here than we ever do at home."

The story goes even further. The boys are also related to Fred Gilbert, the namesake of Spirit Lake's Gilbert Park. Fred was a local trap shooter of note in the second half of the 19th century. He was also a contemporary and close friend of Annie Oakley – so close that he even named his daughter Annie Oakley Gilbert...

The Jessie James Band will be closing the Estherville, Excel! Arts & Culture Committee's Music On The Square, Thursday night, from 5 - 7:00 — downtown, in Library Square. Not far away, Debbie Ankeny and Mike Springer will perform as Beyond Blue, on the stage in the barn at the Little Swan Lake Winery, just north of Superior...

The South 71 Trio returns to The Lounge at The Inn, from 6 - 8:, Friday night; while Dave Rowley and Friends will be back on stage at the Pearson Lakes Art Center's Lauridsen Performing Arts Center, Friday night, starting at 7:30...

Sunday afternoon will see Damon Dotson singing in the barn at the Little Swan Lake Winery, from 4 - 6:00...

And Monday brings us back to The Dick Bauman Big Band performance in Pomerantz Hall, at the Pearson Lakes Art Center - where you never know what you might hear!

Research director RD has found several natal days to celebrate this week. While we missed Leslie Caron's birthday in July, it should be noted here that it was actor-dancer-singer Gene Kelly who put 19-year-old Miss Caron in front of the camera to create An American In Paris, in 1951. That is important as today would have been Gene Kelly's 104th natal day. We can also celebrate Richard Adler's birthday today. It was Adler, along with

Jerry Ross, who composed the music for Damn Yankees and *Pajama Game...*Mason 'Classical Gas' Williams turns 78 on Wednesday; and Leonard Bernstein, who composed the music for West Side Story and many other great songs, was born on August 25, 1918...

Dutch singer Laura Fygi will celebrate her birthday on Friday. Fygi was born in 1955. RD thinks it would be appropriate to listen to Fygi's versions of The Summer Knows and Summer Me, Winter Me, to celebrate.

And, RD suggests since Friday is also "Burger Day," it might be a good time to enjoy the last days of summer by grilling a burger or two!

RD also explained something we knew, but erred on last week. While we mentioned the anniversary of the first Montgomery Ward catalog, we explained the company began life in RD's hometown, Redwood Falls, Minnesota. We've been there. And we know better. It was railroad station agent Richard Sears who started his catalog business in Redwood or North Redwood after receiving a shipment of watches that was declined by a local jeweler. Sometimes necessity is the mother of invention...

Tales of Tails

The Humane Society of Northwest Iowa did have two small "tails" belonging to a pair of Chihuahuas looking for forever homes or even a forever home. They both lost their homes due to family upheavals - a death and a divorce. Dr. Phil is quoted as saying these two incidents are the most traumatic life changes for human beings, and for these dogs, the changes were emotional upheavals too.

Zep, the predominantly brown male Chihuahua, was an indoor dog much-loved by his owner who died. He was accustomed to being held, a true lap dog. He walks well on a leash and enjoys car rides. He is also good with children, cats and other dogs. He is calm and often seems a little timid, but he is basically friendly and curious - loving to explore. Since coming to the shelter, he had a "cage-mate" with whom he bonded, but Zep got lucky and was recently adopted.

Gizmo was Zep's "cage-mate". He too is male, but is black and white. He lost his forever home when his owners divorced and neither was able to keep him due to housing changes. He is very much like Zep as he enjoys car rides and walks well on a leash. He especially likes to roll on his back and have tummy rubs. He's a little nervous because of the many changes in his life that he can't understand; therefore he is timid and a little wary of being held. Once he has been held though, he relaxes and enjoys sitting on a lap just as much as Zep does. Neither seemed to enjoy playing with toys, but would rather play with one another. Now, poor Gizmo has lost his "cage-mate". A forever home for Gizmo, who has lost someone important to him again, would be great. This "tail" has experienced far too many traumatic changes in his life.

Remember... "In a perfect world every animal would have a home, and every home would have a pet."

Call the Northwest Iowa Humane Society at 712-338-2738 or come see the animals at 607 28th Street, just north of Milford open Thursday through Sunday, noon to 6:00pm.

Annual Abben Golf Classic Approaching

The 11th annual Abben Golf Classic is set for Sunday, August 28 with registration and lunch preceding a noon shotgun start. Each year 144 golfers and over 100 sponsors and volunteers come together for a fun day of golf and camaraderie and, more importantly, in support of local cancer care.

"The Abben Cancer Center is the only comprehensive care center within our region to offer both radiation therapy and medical oncology services," said Melissa Cunningham, director of Abben Cancer Center. "We are thankful for the support of so many that allows us to provide exceptional cancer care to our communities."

A few spots remain open for potential golfers. A registration fee of $125 includes 18-holes of golf with cart, lunch, dinner, participant gift, refreshments, opportunities for prizes and the chance to participate in the charitable auction.

Sponsorships, starting at $300 and up, are currently being sought from local businesses, as well as donations of merchandise and product for an auction to take place with dinner following golf. Non-golfers are welcome to join the fun by attending the closing dinner and auction Sunday evening. Advanced reservations are required for dinner which is provided at a $10 fee. Evening festivities begin approximately 5:00pm.

Funds raised from the golf classic are used to help ease the difficulties associated with cancer care in a number of ways, including assistance through the patients' needs funds which helps with items such as wig purchases and transportation, educational resources for families, and also with programming and upgraded technology, explained Mindy Gress, foundation director.

For more information on how you can be a sponsor, golf or attend the dinner and auction please contact the Foundation at 712-264-6226.

Farm Market News

Located at Dickinson Co. Fairgrounds 15th Street & Peoria Avenue, Spirit Lake, Iowa 51360

The saying goes "a loaf of bread, a bottle of wine, and thou". You'll have to provide the companion but the bread and wine you can get at Lakes Area Farmers Market. Two local wineries, Little Swan Lake Winery and Innspiration Vineyard, both sell locally made wines that are award winning. They'll even offer tastes before you buy. If wine is not your beverage, you can find locally roasted coffee beans from Sojo Coffee. Perhaps you'd like some grass fed beef, farm raised chicken, or unique brats to go with your coffee or wine. Rocking M Ranch has a nice selection of grass fed beef cuts. Visit the Shady Lane Farm booth for farm raised chicken, pork products, and excellent bacon. Guritz Produce Farm sells his tasty chickens and will take orders for turkeys when they are available. Iowa Supreme Meat has a wide range of beef, pork, and chicken products but is probably best known for their non-traditional brats, made with cheese, wild rice, mushrooms, or other unique additions. Some people have been known to have one of their meat sticks every week. Several vendors have farm fresh eggs for sale, including Pohlman's Produce, Iowa Supreme Meat, and T. J's Hen House. Whether you are looking for bacon and eggs for breakfast, a brat for lunch, or a juicy steak and wine for dinner, you can find it all at the Farmers' Market. You can shop at Lakes Area Farmer's Market on Wednesday and Saturday mornings from 7:30am to 12:00 noon. The Farmers' Market is located on the fairgrounds in Spirit Lake. We hope to see you soon.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

To the Editor:

Thank you again, Spirit Lake, for coming out and giving the blood of life on August 18, 2016, for the American Red Cross. We had a wonderful turnout in spite of the heat and humidity. We had only 1 deferral, 6 for 12 double red cells making a total of 51 units and our goal was 54 so only missed it by a few. We had 46 presenting donors.

A big thank you to all that donated and mark your calendar for October 17, 2016. Let's make our goal this time! A big thank you to all the volunteers for their help in calling people, in the canteen, reception area and to Lisa's Bake Shop for providing such wonderful cookies.

Your generosity is most appreciated by those needing transfusions in trauma situations and for on-going treatment of chronic life-threatening illnesses.

displaying their artistry throughout the entire day. Amazing what creativity and colors can do to a faceless sidewalk! Campbell were excellent. Held on bleachers near the shoreline under the shade trees, each guide shared different strategies and techniques with their audience. I could tell they were good, > because people wanted to stick around after each session and talk with that particular clinician. Plus, Grosvenor, Burns and Campbell shared a powerful message: enjoy the waters, but at the same time be stewards of the water! We all need to work to keep our waters clean! Panel discussion: Talk about an educational day highlighted by the six-person panel discussion on water quality moderated by Joe McGovern. Panelists included representatives of the DNR. Des Moines Water Works, Soil and Water, Iowa agriculture,

The sidewalk was lined with water quality exhibitors, orgaprofessor of Environmental Sciences and the Iowa Environmental Council. So, basically these representatives covered a cross section of Iowa's population. The overall theme revolved around the question of "What does water quality mean?" The panelists all found water important, but each with a different viewpoint based on the perspective of the population that they represent. Several questions came from the public, who attended to hear what the panelists had to say. It became obvious that clean water was important, and the audience-as so many Iowans do-wanted answers and wanted leaders to work together to make things happen before it is too late! Susan Heathcote of the Iowa Environmental council made this plea. "In Iowa, we have to work together to solve this problem. It comes from all of us-farmers, rural, urban, individuals and businesses. We all need to contribute to the problem and to the solution.'

Several times the IWILL trust fund was brought up as a vehicle that would meet the needs of all Iowans, but there was also frustration that Iowa's voters had voted for the fund but the Iowa legislature continues to sit on it and let it remain in limbo It is time for Iowans to reach out to legislators and get them to act on the desires of their constituents!

Personally, I thought it was a good, intelligent discussion that shows the need to come together as pieces of a puzzle that when linked together will address clean water as a whole! I will share more on this topic in future articles.

The evening: By 7:00pm, the exhibitors had packed up, the sidewalk artistry was over, the panel discussion was completed. It was now time for the SHOW! The Claudettes opened and were good, but you could tell the crowd was waiting for Boz Scaggs! As daylight turned to darkness, the beauty of the lake remained and people took their seats and waited. Then about 9:00pm, the man arrived and took us on a wonderful musical journey. The fireworks ended what was an awesome, awesome day.

Thanks to organizer Greg Drees and the many volunteers and sponsors that made this day possible. Just think because of the generosity of so many sponsors, the cost...nothing. All in the name of clean water. We have to keep the fire lit and ramp up our journey of protecting the ponds, streams, rivers and lakes in Iowa. After all we have this chance right now to do it right forever!

Sanford Health Cancer Center Receives Donations

Sanford Health Cancer Center received a few generous donations earlier this year. The businesses who donated included Caribou at Hy-Vee in Worthington, Fulda Area Credit Union, and the Worthington High School AOK Club. Caribou at Hy-Vee in Worthington gave $816.00 which was all the tips they had received in October.

Fulda Area Credit Union gave $170.18 which was raised by employees who paid to wear jeans to work and during "Pink on Purpose" days. They also collected donations from staff and customers. The Worthington High School AOK Club raised $141.37 by making bracelets and selling them.

The donations were combined to provide lighted image panels in the treatment room. The panels provide something of interest for patients to look at during treatment which helps the treatment time pass more quickly and minimizes patient movement.

"Community support for quality cancer care in the Worthington area is very strong," said Thomas Asfeldt, director at Sanford Health Cancer Center. "The selfless commitment of these three groups of people to have a meaningful impact on patients with a cancer diagnosis is encouraging to us and uplifting to our patients."

Wilford Allen Dokken was born at home October 6th, 1936, to George and Wannie (Elam) Dokken in Kensett, Iowa, and passed away at his rural Alden home on August Wilford was raised, along with nine brothers and sisters, on the family farm in rural Kensett and was educated in the country school, Brookfield 7. Wilford was baptized and confirmed at Elk Creek Lutheran Church in rural Iowa and served his country in the Army National Guard from 1959-1967. In June of 1967, he was united in marriage to Karen Erickson Dokken at the Elk Creek Lutheran Church.

He had varied occupations which included working in the sugar beet plant in Mason City, truck driving, construction, and in the meat packing industry. He was employed by Wilson/Farmstead for 29 years in the Hide Cellar and Smoked Meats departments. During this time, he was a union steward for his local union. In 1977, Wilford took an early retirement from Farmstead and began farming full time on land he and his wife purchased north of Armstrong, Minnesota.

Five children and thirteen grandchildren survive him. Wilford's children are: Tana (Doug) Clark of Garretson, South Dakota, Deb (Jim) Thunstedt of Alden, Minnesota, Jay (Heather) Dokken of Alden, Minnesota, John (Mary) Rosheim of Austin, Minnesota, and Eve (Sam) Pickard of Dell Rapids, South Dakota. Grandchildren include: Kindra Jayden, and Carson Clark, Lauren, Kayla, and Lindsay Thunstedt Caleb and Joel Dokken, Emma and Meghan Rosheim, and Miriam, Micah, and Kirtianna Pickard. He is also survived by four brothers: Truman, Donald, Rueben and Melvin, and one sister, Juanita.

Wilford was preceded in death by his parents, three sisters (Mary, Hazel, and Barbara) and three brothers (Sam, James, and Leslie). Wilford was a member of Concordia Lutheran Church of Pickerel Lake in rural Albert Lea. He later became a charter member of the Harbor of Joy Lutheran Church in Milford. He loved having coffee with his friends at Nancy's Café in Albert Lea – where he and his "coffee buddies" frequently practiced the art of debate, often offering solutions to the various problems facing the world. He also enjoyed fishing with family and friends in Alexandria which included the frequent sharing of a number of "fish stories." However his biggest joy was farming the land he was so proud to be a steward of. His grandchildren were the light of his life. Whenever any grandchild needed a sweet treat, they knew where to go. A visitation is planned for Thursday, September 8, 2016, at Harbor of Joy Lutheran Church in Milford, Iowa from 5-7pm.

A memorial service is planned for Friday, September 9, 2016, at 11:00am at Crane Chapel in Austin, MN, with visitation an hour previous. Memorials received will be given to Relay for Life, The Care House in Deeside, Jamaica and New Life Foundation in Tanzania.

Camp Okoboji to Break Ground on New Activity Center

Camp Okoboji, in Wahpeton, will be breaking ground on September 3, for a new Activity Center called DISCOVER. The groundbreaking will occur right before the Camp's 1st Annual People's Choice BBQ Cook-Off.

DISCOVER's purpose will be to offer a modern facility for campers and guests to experience a variety of activities and programs, and to serve as a much needed meeting space for larger groups and conferences. The Activity Center is the first half of a $2.8 million project. The second half will be the addition of a two-story, high-comfort bedroom wing with 14 bedrooms, lounge spaces, and basement storm shelter.

Funding for the first $$1.4 \, \text{million}$ phase of DISCOVER began in 2015, and the response was tremendous. Several large matching gift challenges encouraged support and kept the camp on course to break ground this fall. A\$250,000 matching gift challenge is currently underway to bridge the campaign between the first and second phases. Donation and pledge forms are available online: www. campokoboji.org or by calling the Camp office: 712-337-3325.

Construction is scheduled to begin in September. Volunteers are encouraged to join and help. Laborers For Christ, an organization of people who help Lutheran Churches, Schools and Camps with construction projects, will be involved. They encourage volunteers to assist them.

Camp Okoboji has served the lakes area for over 75 years. An outdoor ministry site of the Lutheran Church – Missouri Synod; Camp Okoboji offers summer programs for youth and families, as well as retreats year-round. The camp is nearly surrounded by the waters of Little Emerson Bay and Breezy Point. This unique setting provides many opportunities for relaxing and enjoying God's creation. Its numerous cabins and lodges can accommodate nearly any size family, group and/or organization. Come and experience Jesus at the Lake.

Early 1900 Picture Cutting Ice on East Okoboji Lake.

Stepping Back in Time by Jerry and Irene Clark of the Clark Museum of Okoboji and Iowa History

It's early for a winter scene, but I thought blocks of ice, ready to relocate the ice to an ice many people that leave after the summer season house nearby, or maybe the team went to an area would enjoy this picture. The Clark Museum town. Other teams are waiting for their turn to displays many pictures, advertisements and load. My, how important the horse was, as they items during the "ice box era". The Museum did what our present cars, buses, and trucks are also displays an ice plow from the Maritime now doing. A lot of care was given to the horse Museum. Notice the white team loaded with being so important to their owners.

Bee & Butterfly Festival

There was standing room only in the Dickinson County Nature Center lower level last year when Marlene Boernsen began to speak.

The local beekeeper had the public enthralled as she showed just how honey is extracted from the honeycomb in her hives.

Boernsen will return to repeat her fascinating demonstration at 6:00pm Friday, September 2, during the annual Bee & Butterfly Festival Friday, September 2, at the nature center in Okoboji.

The Bee & Butterfly Festival will begin at 4:00pm Friday, September 2. Stop in the outdoor tent for bee and butterfly crafts as well as vendors 4:00 - 7:00pm. Monarch tagging will take place inside the nature center at the same time. Pollinator Paradise will be open for people to tour, and there will be a variety of lawn games to enjoy as well.

Prepare Blue Ribbon Fun for the Creative Living Center at the Fair

The Creative Living Center will be a popular location to take in local art, culinary skills, floral designs and a variety of demonstrations at the 2016 Clay County Fair, Sept. 10-18.

The Floriculture department continues to expand and grow in popularity. Fairgoers will enjoy roses, gladioli, dahlias, annuals perennials, container-grown plants, trees and shrubs daily. Due to demand, the gourd show has been expanded to three days at the 2016 Clay County Fair (Sept. 10-12). Decorative gourds can be formed into birdhouses, dolls, musical instruments, jewelry, holiday décor, or lamps to be entered into a competing class this year.

Educational exhibits have also been added within the gourd category to teach people how to grow and design with gourds. Youth are also encouraged to participate in this growing (class), with two youth categories for intermediate, ages 8-12, and advanced, ages 13-17.

The Textiles, Crafts and Art department will hand out Blue Ribbon Fun to creative competitors. Entries are accepted noon to 7 p.m. Sept. 2 and 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. Sept. 3 or any time before if mailed to the Fair. Every age group, 2 to 92, will find a class tailored for them.

The Special Feature class will display rainbows on any medium, in addition to the 35 classes held annually. Within the sponsored contests, the Textiles, Crafts and Art department has more than $1,000 in gift cards and certificates to give away.

The Challenge Quilt, sponsored by Fabric Warehouse, has four different categories: best patchwork, best applique, best mixed technique, and novice. The novice class is for anyone who has never been awarded a ribbon on quilting before. The quilts will contain one challenge fabric, which is on display and available for purchase from Fabric & Textile Warehouse in Spencer.

Inspired by Time sponsors the Creative Patchwork category. The pattern for this class is available in the exhibitor handbook and can be used in any item.

People who would like to be entered in the Canned Goods department should bring in jars the Tuesday after Labor Day, Sept. 6. With many different classes for various fruits, vegetables, sauces and fillings, competitors can use every opportunity to show off their canning abilities.

Country Wine continues to gain attention and numbers of entries, which will need an entry tag. With a class for a variety of varietals, homemade wines will intoxicate you with beautiful colors

Various artists will demonstrate their Blue Ribbon Fun talents for audiences. Fairgoers can learn How to do Blue Ribbon Scrapbooking with Amanda Rutter on Sept. 10 and join Jim Schooley for Woodcarving on Sept. 11. Audiences will enjoy taking a new craft with them as they learn Hands On Crocheting and Knitting from Marilyn Dodge on Sept. 13. Jesse Bogenrief will demonstrate how he makes glass art Sept. 16, with other artists during the nine days of Blue Ribbon Fun at the Clay Different cooking demonstrations will happen a few times during the Fair from different chefs, including Events Center Chef Eric Raper, and Marlene Boernsen from the Northwest Iowa Beekeepers. Check a daily guide for specific times and locations.

Each entry for the Creative Living Center needs to be entered before the Fair. Each canned goods entry will also need an identification tag. Exhibitors can pre-register using the form found in the correct handbook or can register when entries are brought to the Fair. For more information, including the 15 new contests in the Oven Products department, visit www.claycountyfair.com to download an exhibitor handbook.

Free Community Shred and E-Waste Event to be Held August 25

On Thursday, August 25, Info Dog Security and the Spencer Police Department will offer residents the opportunity to have their paper records and data storage materials shredded and recycled during a Community Shred and E-Waste Event. This free event aims to raise public awareness of the need to securely destroy confidential material in order to prevent identify theft and fraud, as well as to encourage people to recycle more. This special event was created in celebration of Info Dog Security's five-year anniversary as a community thank you and will be the first e-waste event held in Spencer.

"Identify theft crimes are troubling and there are actions we all can take to help prevent many of these types of threats," said Kevin Robinson, Info Dog Security President. Info Dog Security specializes in document and electronic destruction and provides a full range of secure, confidential services to area residents, private companies and government agencies. Info Dog Security is certified through NAID AAA certification program.

"When people securely dispose of their sensitive documentation, their risk of identity theft decreases dramatically," said Mark Warburten, Spencer Police Department Chief. Warburten added, "Holding a community shred day for residents gives everyone a chance to protect themselves from identity theft."

Materials will be collected on August 25 from 11:00am -1:00pm at the Spencer Police Department on 712 Grand Avenue in Spencer.

Accepted items to be properly disposed of include old invoices, tax documents, check stubs, health information, or any other confidential information that has accumulated over the years.

Owners Josh Nelson and Kevin Robinson would like to personally thank the community for the support of the business over the last five years. "When we started this business five years ago we wanted to give the businesses and residents of Spencer a nationally certified solution for the secure destruction of sensitive information. We now shred over 1.4 million pounds of documents every year with right around 120,000 pounds coming from Clay County alone." Robinson added, "The peace of mind from a professionally certified company is important. Throughout the last five years we have helped businesses stay compliant with privacy laws and provided residents a secure solution whether they need help shredding their current information or destroying a loved one's estate documents after it is settled. We are proud to call Spencer our headquarters and we appreciate the support of this great community, we look forward to many more years of delivering information destruction services."

The drop-off event is open to the public. There is a maximum of 3 boxes/bags limit per vehicle. For additional information and for a list of accepted items during Community Shred Day, please contact Sue Loring at Info Dog Security at 712-580-4840, email sue@infodogsecurity.com or visit http://www.infodogsecurity.

THANK YOU

A huge thank you to my very special family and to all of my wonderful friends who helped make my 80th birthday so very special! The weather was beautiful making my open house at Memorial Park so perfect. Thank you, thank you, thank you!

Sincerely, Gloria Currell

I want to thank everyone who helped to make my 90th birthday party such a great time. It was wonderful to see so many friends from down home, many newer friends from this area, and those who traveled from further away. Also, I enjoyed all the beautiful cards.

Thank you to my wonderful family for making my celebration such a memorable occasion

DISH Plaza will pull in a variety of free entertainment from area performers to Kids Pedal Tractor Pull.

Talented performers will join strong kids to bring free entertainment to the DISH Plaza September 10-18 at the 2016 Clay County Fair.

"The DISH Plaza has become a popular place to sit down, enjoy some Fair food, and enjoy great entertainment," said Fair Manager Jeremy Parsons. "This year will be no different with a great combination of new and familiar entertainment." Talented pianist and organist Glenn Henriksen will play 2:00 and 5:00pm Sunday, September 11 through Thursday, September 15, and will also play 11:00am and 2:00pm on Friday, September 16. His repertoire includes ragtime, pop and rock, gospel and classical, ensuring every fairgoer will enjoy a tune. He will also bring a wide variety of other talented musicians with him each day.

The WoodPicks will take the DISH Plaza Stage on Saturday, September 10. The five-man group will blend bluegrass, gospel, country and Americana music for a fun mix of original arrangements. Their strong harmonies have traveled throughout the United States and Canada. Their accolades include a feature on the PBS show Prairie Musicians, and an arrangement included in the Smithsonian Institution's collection of rural Americana.

Friday, September 16 brings Kids Day sponsored by Medica. Young fairgoers will enjoy participating in the Kids Pedal Tractor Pull at 5:00pm. Kids will compete in their age group trying to get the farthest with the heaviest weight behind them. Ribbons will be handed out to every participant.

Iowa performers will round out the Fair with the Blue Ribbon Showcase featuring many different genres at the DISH Plaza Stage. Catch Isabelle Davis' vocals 11:00am Sunday, September 11. Fairgoers can enjoy country singer Frank Tuma 11 a.m. Monday, September 12. Grand Old Country will take it back to the classics 11:00am Tuesday, September 13. One-man band The Real Beal's will fascinate fairgoers Wednesday, September 14 while Tyler Satre and Motivation will rock the Plaza Thursday, September 15. Norwegia, an area youth band, will grace the stage 11:00am and 2:00pm on Saturday, September 17. Jill Barr's vocals will ring in the tent 5:00pm Saturday, September 17, and catch her again at the same time on Sunday, September 18. Also on September 18, singer-songwriter J. Jeffrey Messerole will entertain audiences with his original works at 11:00am. R and R Line will offer audiences a variety of old standards at 2:00pm.
