- Where Quality Comes First -

Supplementation of pasture and stored forage is vital to production and profitability of your cattle. Forage alone doesn't provide all the needed nutrition. QLF can help with a quality liquid supplement in lick tanks or for bale treatment! QLF liquid supplements provide supplemental protein, vitamins, and trace minerals in an energy-rich Louisiana cane molasses base. Supplementing forages with a QLF supplement improves forage digestibility and intake; thus boosting animal performance and profitability.

- Provides supplemental protein and energy
- Enhances rumen function
- Increases forage digestibility
- Improves body condition
- Convenient lick tank feeding
