The Rusty Chandelier expands

Opening up more space for additional vendors and a customer lounge area, The Rusty Chandelier debuted its expansion area during the August showcase. Now customers have a larger area to relax, enjoy live music, refreshments and watch the Lucy Show on TV. There are also venues for approximately 10 additional vendors. When you enter the Rusty Chandelier and especially in the expanded area, don't forget to look up! Photos/Linda Cranford

Ladies from the R.H. Watkins Class of 1974 have made it a tradition to meet each month on Thursday at the Rusty to shop and do lunch together. Seated L-R: Linda Louis Cranford, Sharon Redd Bush and Cathy Smith Wooten. Standing L-R: Darlene Barrett Hill, Leasa Skinner Bergin, Barbara Hill Monk and Susan Waldrop Brossette.

Youth banking for their future

In an attempt to give teenagers work experience and a way to earn money over the summer, the Housing Authority of the City of Laurel offered summer employment to youths of the Housing Authority. The Youth Summer Employment Program offers youth ages 16 to 21 the opportunity to work up to 320 hours in an eight-week program, and they received a certificate of completion and gain professional experience working in general office functions and maintenance. Youth also attended a “Banking for Your Future” session with representatives from Trustmark National Bank. The presentation included materials and discussion on personal money management, educational options and opportunities, and setting goals for the future. In the picture are Trustmark National Bank representatives Diane Herrington, assistant vice president; Kelly Lawson, vice president of commercial banking; and participants of the summer youth program. Photo/submitted

Myrick achieves perfect attendance

Submitted

Recent Northeast Jones graduate Allyson Myrick, daughter of Sheila Myrick of the Powers community and Mike Myrick of Laurel, achieved something that very few high school graduates do - perfect attendance. From Myrick’s first day of kindergarten through her last day of her senior year, she did not miss a day of school! Perfect school attendance is a family tradition for the Myrick family; Allyson’s brothers, Shawn and Jonathan, both graduated from high school with perfect attendance!

Historian of the 2016 NEJ graduating class, Myrick was captain of the Lady Tigers soccer team, a member of the NEJ Hall of Fame, served as vice-president of the Beta Club, was captain of the Diamond Girls and president of the Key Club. She was also voted Most Involved Senior Girl in NEJ’s 2016 Who’s Who and was voted Miss Congeniality in the 2015 NEJ Beauty & Beau Pageant. Myrick was recipient of numerous scholarships including the National Beta Club Scholarship, JCJC Academic Excellence Scholarship, Serteens Scholarship, and the Caver-Guffy (NEJ Alumni) Scholarship.

Asked how it was possible to never miss a day of school, Myrick stated, “I decided in middle school that I wanted to have perfect attendance. Both of my brothers graduated with perfect attendance and I was not going to be outdone! Also, I had set a goal for myself to graduate in the top 3 of my class and good attendance was key to achieving that! I was blessed that if I got sick it was on a Friday and I was always better by Monday.”

NEJ Supervising Principal Cooper Pope said of Myrick, “Allyson was very involved in numerous student activities both on and off campus. She is a young woman of evident Christian faith who sets goals for herself and then works diligently to achieve them! We at Northeast Jones are extremely proud of her!”

Currently a freshman at Jones County Junior College, Myrick is studying to be a nurse practitioner. She will complete her course work at William Carey University.

Stover receives Laurel Housing Authority educational stipend

George Stover III is the recipient of the Laurel Housing Authority 2016 educational stipend. This educational stipend was established and funded by the staff of the LHA to recognize outstanding graduating high school seniors of public housing who have achieved positive academic records during their high school tenure. Stover is a graduate of Laurel High School class of 2016. He plans to further his education at Jones County Junior College, pursuing an associate degree in computer technology and furthering his studies at Mississippi State University upon completion of his associates degree. He is also a member of Springhill Baptist Church in Ellisville. Pictured are Barbara Gavin (Education Committee), Hilary Burroughs (Education Committee), mother of recipient – Starlett Stover, George Stover III and Mandy Buchanan. 2nd Row – Felicia Jackson, Ailrick D. Young and Ruby Jones. Photo/submitted

SOUTHERN CROSS ANIMAL RESCUE

Pets of the Week

Matthew and Mark are brothers and very curious kitties. They are a little shy but warm up quickly to nice people. They are looking for a forever family to love them. They do not have to be adopted together, but if you've never raised sibling cats, you'd be in for a treat.

SCAR is open Mondays, Wednesdays and Saturdays from 10-2 and Fridays from 10-6. For more information on SCAR, call 601-433-5807, email scarofms@gmail.com or visit our facebook page at https://www.facebook.com/SouthernCrossAnimalRescue

THE GOLD SHOP DISCOVERS ADVERTISING THAT WORKS!

We opened this business six years ago, and we always try to treat our customers with kindness and respect. We have many loyal customers whom we truly appreciate. Customer service is No. 1 here at The Gold Shop. However, to have great customer service a business must first have customers. So, not too long after opening, we decided to try advertising in the IMPACT. The results were extraordinary! As soon as our ad came out, we IMMEDIATELY noticed an increase of customers!

After all these years of running in the IMPACT, it never fails us! We know when our ad in the paper reaches the homes, because our call volume ALWAYS goes up. Due to IMPACT's large distribution, we have customers from several counties across the Pine Belt. I would encourage any business owner to advertise through IMPACT. It's been the most cost effective way to promote THE GOLD SHOP!

Sincerely,
Denise Rickles

A Shepherd's Heart – “Being Where God is”

By Dr. Timothy L. Hubbard

I Just Want to Be Where You Are . . . These words can often be heard of family members and friends who have been separated by life circumstances (work, military service, school, etc.). One thing that makes relationships special is the togetherness that we can have with others.

In the body of Christ, we call that togetherness, “Fellowship.” When we are in fellowship with one another, we share a closeness that cannot otherwise be found. The Psalmist understood well this need for fellowship, especially as it related to his relationship to God. Listen to his words, “How lovely is Your dwelling place, Lord of Hosts. I long and yearn for the courts of the Lord; my heart and flesh cry out for the living God.” (Ps. 84:1-2 HCSB)

As we read this verse and then continue throughout this Psalm, basically what we hear the Psalmist saying is, “I just want to be where You are.” Don Moen of Integrity Hosanna’s Music introduced a musical worship experience several years ago entitled “God with Us.” The opening words in that musical are these: “I just want to be where You are Dwelling daily in Your presence. I don’t want to worship from afar, I just want to be with You.”

I was challenged while reflecting over the Psalmists words in Psalm 84 that this too should be my daily desire, my daily prayer, and most of all my daily lifestyle as a child of the King. My life, if it is to be all God desires it to be, must be lived in close relation to my Heavenly Father, in whom I put my trust. The Psalmist states it best, “Better a day in Your courts than a thousand anywhere else. I would rather be at the door of the house of My God than to live in the tents of the wicked. For the Lord is a sun and shield. The Lord gives grace and glory; He does not withhold the good from those who live with integrity. Lord of Hosts, happy is the person who trusts in You!” (Ps. 84:10-12 HCSB)

My prayer is and I would hope that maybe yours would also be, “Father, I just want to be where You are – right in very center of Your will for my life each day!”

WJHS Peer Council learn how to promote drug-free lifestyle

Lt. Robert Little from the Jones County Sheriff's Department recently spoke to the West Jones High School Peer Council to help them better prepare to teach "Too Good for Drugs" to other students. Lt. Little answered questions regarding the numerous issues surrounding illegal drugs and the misuse of prescription drugs. Council members are getting geared up for the new year in promoting Healthy Drug Free Lives. Pictured with Lt. Little are: Madeleine Boykin, Conner Coleman, Brittani Dozier, Chelsey Dry, Nataleigh Duran, Emmy Fiala, Haley Gable, Kasia Hosey, Macy Kate Malone, Abby Parker, Lindsay Parker, Austin Pitts, Emma Shows, Madalyn Stringer, Jenna Sumrall, Belle Walters, Chelsea Beasley, Summer Boyd and Haylee Walters. Wayne Co. 4-H members and volunteers participate in South MS 4-H Volunteer Leader training

Recently some of the Wayne County 4-H members and volunteers participated in the South Mississippi 4-H Volunteer Leader training at Howard Technology Center in Ellisville. Attendees were 4-H volunteers Jennifer and Ray Henderson, Trina Holifield, and Carrie Turbyfill and 4-H members Ashlyn Henderson, Bo Henderson and Elliot Turbyfill. This annual event offers volunteers and youth in the southern part of the state the opportunity to gain knowledge of 4-H projects and experience some hands-on activities that they can utilize at the county level. Some of the workshops this group participated in were: forestry judging, poultry chain, consumer judging, hydroponics, visual presentations, parliamentary procedure and record books. Holifield taught three painting workshops where youth and adults had the opportunity to paint their own 4-leaf clover. Wayne County 4-H invites all youth ages 8-18 to join in the fun. There is no enrollment fee and there are many projects you can participate in as well as activities, workshops, contests and more. Photo/submitted

Southern Miss Alumni Association to host football pre-game events

Submitted

The University of Southern Mississippi Alumni Association is excited to announce its lineup for pre-game tailgates during the 2016 Golden Eagle football season. In conjunction with the Eagle Club, the Alumni Association will host three Eagle Landing tailgates in October and November, sponsored by Triton Stone Group, First Bank, ServiceMaster Restore by Charley Wallace, Jason Wesley – State Farm and Hederman Brothers. A benefit of membership, Eagle Landing tailgates are free for active members of the Alumni Association and Eagle Club. Non-members are invited to attend for $10 per person, and children ages 10 and younger are admitted for free. Eagle Landing tail-gates begin two-and-half-hours prior to kickoff for each game, unless otherwise noted. "We are excited to partner with the Eagle Club and our generous sponsors to offer a family-friendly atmosphere that will serve as the primary tailgate location for Southern Miss alumni and fans prior to each game," said Jerry DeFatta, executive director for the Southern Miss Alumni Association. "All alumni and fans who live in these areas, as well as those traveling to the games, are invited to celebrate with us and cheer on our Golden Eagles to victory."

Registration is required for members and non-members, and may be completed online at SouthernMissAlumni.com/UpcomingEvents. Additionally, the Southern Miss Alumni Association will host a free tailgate for all active members of the organization prior to the Golden Eagle football game against Conference USA-rival Troy on Saturday, Sept. 17. The tailgate will be held at the historic Ogletree House from 3 – 5 p.m., and guests will have access to complimentary beverages courtesy of Chandeaur Island Brewing Company, in addition to heavy hors d'oeuvres. The event is sponsored in part by The Real Estate Center and The Claiborne.

"After the success of last year's membership appreciation event, the Alumni Association is excited to again offer the opportunity for members of the Association to tailgate at the Ogletree House before a home football game," said Jenny Boudreaux, associate director for external affairs. "Membership is the lifeblood of our organization, and thanks to our generous sponsors, we are able to show our appreciation to those committed to their alma mater once again this season. We look forward to personally thanking those who join us in our efforts as we continue together on this journey to the top!"

Kick-off for the Southern Miss vs. Troy football game is set for 6 p.m. at M.M. Roberts Stadium. Additional information on this event can be found at SouthernMissAlumni.com/AlumniTailgate. The mission of the Southern Miss Alumni Association is to build a feeling of pride and loyalty among the alumni of the institution while strengthening participation in alumni and University programs; to coordinate the efforts of alumni on behalf of the University as a whole; and to provide a unified voice for all alumni in the affairs of the University.
