BEAUTIFY YOUR BOOKSHELVES:

Bookshelves have a tendency to collect not only books but also papers, odds and ends and dust. But designed creatively, they can make an attractive statement in your home.

the jumbled look out of books by making them look more uniform. Organize them by color or size, or turn their spines to the back so only the pages are visible. Libraries place their books on the shelf vertically, but you don't have to.

Make a few horizontal stacks of books to offer more than one look.

Decorate the back of the shelves with color and design to shine through. Don't be afraid to paint the backs or cover them with colorful contact paper to add texture and depth. Add interesting objects mix in some non-book items to add variety and interest to your shelves.

Make your shelves look great and fun.
