Easy Pulled Pork Is Crowd Pleaser

My father was born and raised in Winston-Salem, N.C., the perfect place to find a delicious pulled-pork barbecue sandwich. The Piedmont triad area where he grew up is famous for its pork barbecue and highly seasoned, vinegar-based sauces. Pigs are plentiful in that area of the South, so barbecues featuring the whole pig — split open and roasted over a hardwood charcoal fire, or using just the pork shoulder — are popular. After the meat is cooked, it's "pulled" off the bone by hand, sliced, shredded or chopped into pieces, mixed with barbecue sauce and served on a bun.

Pork shoulders are the front leg of the pig and are fairly inexpensive cuts of meat. The shoulder includes two cuts: the Boston butt, which is a rectangular roast from the upper part of the front leg, and the picnic shoulder. The Boston butt is the cut of choice for pulled-pork sandwiches.

Select a Boston butt that has a white-fat cap and is marbled with fat throughout the meat. The fat and the collagen (the connective tissue) "baste" the meat as it melts away. The collagen also turns into simple sugars that make this typically tougher cut of meat moist, tender and flavorful as it slowly cooks.

Pulled-pork barbecue sandwiches were used to entice potential voters to attend political rallies. These flavorful sandwiches definitely have my vote. This crockpot recipe for pulled pork is perfect for anyone who can't barbecue the traditional way. Serve the pulled pork with a scoop of coleslaw on the sandwich or on the side, along with some baked beans, corn on the cob and sweet, lemon-flavored iced tea, and you'll have the makings of a Southern-style barbecue no matter where you live!

2. Turn the crockpot to the HIGH setting for 4 to 5 hours or on the LOW setting for 7 to 9 hours or until the pork is tender and can be shredded easily with a fork.

BARBEQUED PULLED-PORK SANDWICHES

This recipe is a great way to tenderize an inexpensive cut of meat and conserve energy by using a crockpot. The salsa infuses the meat with flavor while it cooks, and the barbecue sauce is the perfect finish. You'll have enough pulled pork to feed a crowd, or you can freeze any leftovers for another fabulous meal!

- 5 pounds boneless pork butt, cut into 2-inch chunks
- 2 large onions, sliced
- 1 jar (16 ounces) Pace Chunky Salsa, or pineapple-mango or similar salsa
- 1 1/2 cups water
- 1 bottle (16 ounces) barbecue sauce
- 1/4 cup apple-cider vinegar
- 2 tablespoons prepared mustard
- 2 tablespoons brown sugar
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 24 hamburger buns

1. Place half the onions in the crockpot. Add the meat and then the rest of the onions. Pour the salsa and the water over the pork and the onions.

3. Remove the pork and onions from the crockpot and discard any of the remaining liquid and accumulated fat. Let the meat cool slightly. Shred the pork, using two forks. Mix together the barbecue sauce, vinegar, mustard, brown sugar and salt until well-combined.

4. Mix the shredded pork and onions with the barbecue sauce. Return the barbecued pork to the crockpot and cook on HIGH for another hour. Serve about 1/2 cup shredded pork in each roll. Top with coleslaw, if desired. Serves 24.

HOLLYWOOD — Tom Cruise, who has "Jack Reacher: Never Go Back" opening Oct. 21 and will show us his "Mummy" next year on June 9, has changed the name of his next film, "Mena," to "American Made." Cruise plays a TWA pilot recruited by the CIA to counter emerging communist threats in Central America, which embarrassed the Reagan White House when the Iran-Contra scandal became public. It was slated for a January release, but has been moved to Sept. 17, 2017.

"Mary Poppins Returns" probably will have the original Mary, Julie Andrews, and Dick Van Dyke in the sequel. Plans are to integrate them with Emily Blunt, the new Mary Poppins, and Lin Manuel-Miranda (from the mega-hit musical "Hamilton"). Rob Marshall will direct, as he did in 2002 with the $307 million earner "Chicago" (13 Oscar nomination and six wins, including Best Picture and Best Supporting Actress for Catherine Zeta-Jones) and 2014's "Into the Woods" (three Oscar nominations, no wins), which made $213 million. "Mary Poppins Returns" debuts on Dec. 25, 2018.

adopted her son Kevin as his own. The tabloid further claimed that Tom abandoned her when he moved to Hawaii to shoot "Magnum P.I.," which also is untrue. They were separated long before that and parted on the best of terms, raising Kevin together.

Tom Hanks, who has "Sully" (directed by Clint Eastwood) due Sept. 9, and "Inferno," the "Da Vinci Code" fourquel, on Oct. 28. He's currently producing and acting in the sci-fi film "The Circle," with Emma Watson, John Boyega and Bill Paxton, while also producing "Felt" with Liam Neeson, Diane Lane and Tony Goldwyn.

A judge has dismissed a $20 million slander lawsuit against Christian Slater, currently starring in season two of "Mr. Robot." Christian was sued by his father, Thomas Knight Slater, for "slander, libel, defamation, intentional infliction of emotional distress, intentional interference with prospective economic advantage and invasion of privacy." (Christian had told an interviewer his father was suffering from schizophrenia).

Don't believe what you see in those tabloid headlines at the supermarket. They say Hanks and wife Rita Wilson are headed for divorce, but they're very much together, as is Tom Selleck and his wife, Jillie Mack. The headline read, "Tom Selleck's heartbreaking divorce." I turned to the two-page centerfold to find it was about his divorce from his first wife, Jacqueline Ray, whom he married in 1971. I took pictures at their wedding, and Tom

I knew his father, who acted under the name Michael Hawkins in the soap "Ryan's Hope." In fact, I took pictures at Christian's 6th birthday party, and his father arranged for William Shatner to stop by because Christian was a big "Star Trek" fan. I must admit when I met up with Michael years later in Hollywood, he seemed a little strange. They do say you're never alone when you're a schizophrenic.

with some baked beans, corn on the cob and sweet, lemon-flavored iced tea, and you'll have the makings of a Southern-style barbeque no matter where you live!

2. Turn the crockpot to the HIGH setting for 4 to 5 hours or on the LOW setting for 7 to 9 hours or until the pork is tender and can be shredded easily with a fork.

Easy Pulled Pork Is Crowd Pleaser

My father was born and raised in Winston-Salem, N.C., the perfect place to find a delicious pulled-pork barbeque sandwich. The Piedmont triad area where he grew up is famous for its pork barbeque and highly seasoned, vinegar-based sauces. Pigs are plentiful in that area of the South, so barbeques featuring the whole pig — split open and roasted over a hardwood charcoal fire, or using just the pork shoulder — are popular. After the meat is cooked, it's "pulled" off the bone by hand, sliced, shredded or chopped into pieces, mixed with barbeque sauce and served on a bun.

Pork shoulders are the front leg of the pig and are fairly inexpensive cuts of meat. The shoulder includes two cuts: the Boston butt, which is a rectangular roast from the upper part of the front leg, and the picnic shoulder. The Boston butt is the cut of choice for pulled-pork sandwiches.

Select a Boston butt that has a white-fat cap and is marbled with fat throughout the meat. The fat and the collagen (the connective tissue) "baste" the meat as it melts away. The collagen also turns into simple sugars that make this typically tougher cut of meat moist, tender and flavorful as it slowly cooks.

Pulled-pork barbeque sandwiches were used to entice potential voters to attend political rallies. These flavorful sandwiches definitely have my vote. This crockpot recipe for pulled pork is perfect for anyone who can't barbeque the traditional way. Serve the pulled pork with a scoop of coleslaw on the sandwich or on the side, along

This recipe is a great way to tenderize an inexpensive cut of meat and conserve energy by using a crockpot. The salsa infuses the meat with flavor while it cooks, and the barbeque sauce is the perfect finish. You'll have enough pulled pork to feed a crowd, or you can freeze any leftovers for another fabulous meal!

- 5 pounds boneless pork butt, cut into 2-inch chunks
- 2 large onions, sliced
- 1 jar (16 ounces) Pace Chunky Salsa, or pineapple-mango or similar salsa
- 1 1/2 cups water
- 1 bottle (16 ounces) barbecue sauce
- 1/4 cup apple-cider vinegar
- 2 tablespoons prepared mustard
- 2 tablespoons brown sugar
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 24 hamburger buns

1. Place half the onions in the crockpot. Add the meat and then the rest of the onions. Pour the salsa and the water over the pork and the onions.

3. Remove the pork and onions from the crockpot and discard any of the remaining liquid and accumulated fat. Let the meat cool slightly. Shred the pork, using two forks. Mix together the barbeque sauce, vinegar, mustard, brown sugar and salt until well-combined.

4. Mix the shredded pork and onions with the barbeque sauce. Return the barbeque pork to the crockpot and cook on HIGH for another hour. Serve about 1/2 cup shredded pork in each roll. Top with coleslaw, if desired. Serves 24.

 FREEDOM FROM WHAT BUGS YOU!

Collecting
 by Larry Cox

Dolls, Dolls, Dolls

Q. I am the executor of the estate of a woman who collected dolls for more than 50 years. I am overwhelmed by more than a thousand dolls, mostly stored in 10 glass-front china cabinets. Should I get them insured? Regular homeowners insurance will cover the collection for only $1,500, and I am certain it is worth many times that amount. How I can determine current values and find a way to liquidate the collection. — Ellen, Palos Hills, Illinois

A. There are three references that might be helpful: "The 16th Blue Book: Dolls and Values" by Jan Foulke; "200 Years of Dolls" by Dawn Herlocher; and "The Official Price Guide to Dolls" by Denise Van Patten. All are available at www.amazon.com. Contact your homeowners insurance agent and request a quote to expand the coverage for the collection. Since you want to liquidate the dolls, I recommend you investigate the excellent auction houses in Chicago. Three include Direct Auction Galleries, Inc., 7232 North Western Ave., Chicago, IL 60645; Susanin's Auction House, 900 South Clinton St., Chicago, IL 60607; and Leonard Auctions, 1765 Courtland Court, Suite D, Addison, IL 60101.

Q. I have a copy of "The Fine Art of Walt Disney's Donald Duck" by Carl Barks. It is a signed copy. No. 446 out of a press run of 1,875. What is my book worth, and where can I sell it? — Nancy, Rio Rancho, New Mexico

A. The book retails for about $1,200, according to information I found at www.abe.com. It was published by Another Rainbow of Scottsdale, Arizona, in 1981. You might begin your quest to sell it by contacting used- and rare-book dealers in Albuquerque. Do not expect to be offered $1,200 for it, however, since that is the retail selling price.

Q. I have three pieces of Roseville pottery. — Patricia, Fiskeville, Rhode Island

A. Without seeing your Roseville pieces, I can't identify the pattern. What I can do is recommend one of the better references, "Warman's Roseville Pottery: Identification and Price Guide" by Denise Rago and published by Krause Books. This reference is $24.99 and will help you identify the pattern of your three pieces along with current values.

• On Sept. 18, 1793, George Washington lays the cornerstone to the United States Capitol. The building would take nearly a century to complete, as architects came and went, the British set fire to it, and it was called into use during the Civil War.

• On Sept. 16, 1908, Buick Motor Company head William Durant spends $2,000 to incorporate General Motors. Durant made his fortune building horse-drawn carriages, and in fact he hated cars — he thought they were noisy, smelly and dangerous.

• On Sept. 14, 1927, dancer Isadora Duncan is strangled in France when the enormous silk scarf she is wearing gets tangled in the rear hubcaps of her open car. The scarf wound around the axle, tightening around Duncan's neck and dragging her from the car. She died instantly.

• On Sept. 17, 1965, four adventurous Englishmen arrive at the Frankfurt Motor Show in Germany after crossing the English Channel by Amphicar, an amphibious passenger car powered by a 43-horsepower Triumph Herald engine. Despite choppy waters and a flooded engine, the two vehicles made the crossing in about seven hours.

• On Sept. 15, 1978, boxer Muhammad Ali (born Cassius Marcellus Clay) defeats Leon Spinks to regain the world heavyweight boxing title. Ali had first won the title in 1964 at age 22, defeating Sonny Liston.

• On Sept. 12, 1993, the rebuilt Lacey V. Murrow Bridge over Lake Washington opens in Seattle. The old bridge was almost 2 miles long and floated on more than 20 hollow concrete pontoons. During repairs in 1990, the bridge broke apart and sank.

• On Sept. 13, 2004, TV talk-show host Oprah Winfrey gives a brand-new Pontiac G-6 sedan, worth $28,500, to all 276 members of her studio audience. However, the winners were left with a large bill: up to $6,000 in federal and state income taxes.

Do It Better

The Hall of Fame, for any sport, can be a bit of a buzzkill.

For one thing, casual followers of the sport could not care less about who a bunch of journalists or insiders choose to venerate in their hallowed halls. I mean, my favorite baseball players growing up were Graig Nettles, Rick Cerone, Mike Pagliarulo and Don Mattingly. They all make my personal Hall of Fame. Know how many of them made the actual Hall of Fame? Zero. Zilch. Nada.

That's fine, however. It's not like anybody else gets to see their favorite player make the Hall in regular order. Look, we all like and appreciate the superstars ... but when it comes to picking your favorite player, you have to kind of skip the obvious favorites. Nobody picks Jerry Garcia as their favorite member of the Grateful Dead and nobody picks John Lennon as their favorite Beatle. Those two picks are implied ... it's the McCartney, Weir, Harrison, Pigpen picks that separate the real fans from those just passively listening or looking in.

Don't think you're above it all, by the way ... outside of Cooperstown and Canton, can you name the location of your favorite sport's Hall of Fame? And even if you did your best to follow that sport, let's be honest ... you can't match the rabid voraciousness of your earliest years following your favorite sport.

Still, there are certain moments that bring us all together, and no other sporting event can come close to matching the Olympics. The same week that saw Michael Phelps win his 21st gold medal also saw the National Football League's Hall of Fame game canceled due to poor field conditions. This brings me to a serious point.

When I was a kid, my parents used to host "gourmet" dinner parties in the formal dining room that my younger sister and I were never allowed to step foot in on days other than Thanksgiving and Christmas. We understood that it was off limits, but we also understood that it was ready to be used at a moment's notice.

Not so in Canton, Ohio. With a mere 90 minutes to go, the Hall of Fame Game was called off due to unplayable conditions at its newly remodeled stadium and football field. Leave it to the NFL to take a game that has just two serious requirements in order to play — a flat surface consisting of 100 yards and two goalposts — and completely blow it. Even the local high school, which planned on playing its games there this season, knew the field was unplayable and made other plans, but not the NFL. Its decision to skip playing the game was met with a collective yawn, once again proving that nobody likes exhibition football games anyway.

Meanwhile, in Rio, despite all the talk of a city on the brink of collapse, things were going pretty well — particularly for the Americans, who as of this writing were dominating the medal count. Every hour, our athletes stand up on top of the podium, their eyes filled with tears of joy as our national anthem plays. Watching them walk up there begs the question: Who needs a Hall of Fame, anyway? Sometimes it's better to just live in the moment.

SEWING PROJECT TO HELP FOSTER KIDS IN RI

Organizers of The Sewing Project to Help Foster Kids are looking for volunteers to sew kid-friendly pillowcase bags for foster children. When a child is taken from a home that has been deemed unsafe by DCYF (Dept. of Children, Youth & Families), the child may take only a small amount of toys, clothes, and personal belongings. Many times, DCYF workers just don't have enough suitcases to use, so when a child arrives at a Crisis Center, Group Home or Foster Home, many times they arrive with literally 1 or 2 large black trash bags full of personal items. Let's change that! This is an ongoing project. Work at your own pace. For more information, contact Hollie at 385-9876 or holliegal@verizon.net

How To Customize Your Comfort Zone

A More Energy-Efficient Approach to Home Cooling and Heating

(NAPS)—Many homeowners crank up their central air conditioning system or turn to multiple noisy window units to keep cool in the summer. Then, come fall, they crank up the heat. Unfortunately, neither option is ideal: central air, though convenient, wastes energy by its all-or-nothing nature. Window units, in addition to being cumbersome, diminish a room's attractiveness and obscure its views.

Floor mounted indoor units are excellent solutions for rooms with minimal wall space.

Luckily, there is a third option that avoids these pitfalls. They are called mini-split systems.

Up To 25% Savings

Mini-splits are ductless heating and cooling systems that allow you to control the temperatures in individual rooms rather than the entire at different temperatures—a solution to the thermostat wars waged by so many families, especially those with young children or senior parents. And while central air systems and window units can be noisy, mini-splits are whisper quiet indoors and out.

PASSPORT APPLICATIONS ACCEPTED AT THE WEST WARWICK PUBLIC LIBRARY

The West Warwick Public Library, 1043 Main Street, West Warwick is accepting Passport Applications on behalf of the US Dept. of State. US citizens planning international travel may apply for their passports at the Library at the following times: Mondays 1-8PM, Tuesdays & Wednesdays 9AM-8PM, Thursdays 9AM-4PM, Fridays 9AM-12PM, Saturdays call first. For Application Forms, information on documentation required, fees, etc., visit travel.state.gov

STORY PROGRAMS AT COVENTRY PUBLIC LIBRARY

The Coventry Public Library, 1672 Flat River Road, will begin Registration for Fall Story Programs on September 12 for Coventry Residents and September 13 for non-residents. Rock & Read for ages birth-12 months on Mondays at 9:30AM & for ages 13-23 months at 10:30AM. Tales for Twos for two-year-olds on Wednesdays at 9:30AM & 10:45AM. Storytimes for 3-8-year olds on Thursdays at 10AM & 1:30PM and Fridays at 10AM. Call 822-9102 for more information and/or to register. Space is limited.

Wall-mounted indoor units are sleek and can be mounted high on the wall.

Maximum Flexibility. Minimum Space

Fujitsu's Mini-split Systems position compressors outside the house, but there's no need for a basement- or attic-located evaporator unit, thanks to thin copper tubing that pumps refrigerant directly to discreet evaporators inside. In cold weather, the same unit works in reverse by absorbing heat from the outside air and moving it indoors. The result is efficient cooling and heating for year-round, whole-house comfort.

13TH ANNUAL RIDE FOR HOPE

The 13th Annual Ride For Hope in memory of John Fontes, Sr. will take place on September 18. Registration begins at 9AM and the Ride starts at 11AM. The Ride begins and ends at the Mishnock Barn, 200 Mishnock Road, West Greenwich. Post Party includes lunch, live music, raffles, pig roast and rodeo. Fee is $25/person. All proceeds benefit ALS (Lou Gehrig's Disease). Call Bob at 822-4917 or 263-4626 for tickets or more information.

house. You're not only customizing your comfort, you're saving considerable energy and up to 25% on utility bills. Overall, mini-split provider Fujitsu General offers the most energy-efficient lineup.

Individual Zoning Control offers a different temperature in every room for year-round customized comfort.

Advantages Over Window-Mounted AC & Central Air

Compared to window units, mini-split systems are more attractive, quieter and more energy efficient. Plus, they're set higher on the wall or ceiling, freeing up living space.

Central air systems require expensive, intrusive ductwork and they're not scalable, meaning it cannot be easily extended to previously unfinished living spaces like attics, basements or three-season rooms. Mini-splits don't require complex, expensive ductwork and can be installed to cool and heat newly converted spaces.

Mini-splits also allow for temperature control by individual room for maximum comfort and energy efficiency. You can keep different rooms space, such as a kitchen or sunroom. Slim duct systems are ideal for homeowners who want units completely out of sight, since they're concealed in a ceiling or framed enclosure below a ceiling.

For a nearby Fujitsu General contractor, call 888-888-3424 or visit www.constantcomfort.com or www.fujitsu-general.com.

JUNK CARS WANTED

Paw's Corner by Sam Mazzotta

Caring for Stray Cats

DEAR PAW'S CORNER: I have a couple of stray cats that I put out food for each day. They must live in the woods behind my house. I've tried to lure them inside so I can take them to the vet to get spayed or neutered, but they're too wary for that. Ultimately I'd like to take them in as pets. Is that realistic? — Gary in Tampa, Florida 1999 HONDA ACCORD: 183,000 miles, Sticker good through 3/18. $1200. 935-2958.

DEAR GARY: Taming a feral cat — and these two appear to be feral from your description — is really unlikely. The fact that they come around for food at the same time every day is pretty good, but I don't think you'll ever get them to the point where they will be relaxed, indoor cats.

However, getting them spayed or neutered is a good idea. So how do you manage to do that when they won't come inside?

First, you can contact the local shelter or a veterinarian to find out if this is feasible. For example, a university study in central Florida lasting several years looked at the local feral cat population, as well as the effects of a trap-and-release program in which cats were spayed or neutered and released back into their roaming territory. A similar program could be available in your area, although you may need to trap the cats yourself (by luring them into a live trap with food, for example) and bring them in for treatment.

Bringing feral cats into a household with tame housecats can be a recipe for disaster. Territorial spats, potential diseases and other problems could quickly arise. For now, feeding these cats and trying to get them medical care to keep the feral cat population from growing is a good thing to do.

HERE IS A PLEASANT LITTLE GAME that will give you a message every day. It's a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add 3. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner and check one of your key numbers, left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures give you.

VOTE

"Over the Counter"

by Bill Marcotte, Proprietor

With the primary coming up in just a week, I thought I would share some information with you. First, the new voting machines will be up and running, which will make things so much easier for the poll workers. A simple procedure for the voter. Secondly, the ballot. There won't be much on the ballot in most districts. Starting with District 1 and 4, there won't be anything other than the Democratic race for Representatives in Congress, now held by Jim Langevin. In District 2 there is a primary for Town Council seat held by Greg Laboissonniere. His opponents are Ean A. Hansen and Peter J. Mello. Moving on to the district 3 seat held by Kerry McGee, he is unopposed. District 5 will have a race for Town Council between Michael E. Madonna, Keith C. Taylor, and Debra L. Bacon. So clearly, there isn't much on the ballot, but it is important that Districts 2, 3, and 4 come out and vote for their candidate. Moving on to November, there will be plenty of things on the ballot, starting with President, and moving on down! If you have any questions concerning the primary, please call the Board of Canvassers and Registration, at 822-9151 and talk to Lori. She can answer any question you might have.

Remember to get out and vote and support your local council person!

The Board of Canvassers, Frank Perry, Chairman, Bill Marcotte, and Julie Stefanik wishes the best to all!

See you at the polls!

Donna's Day Creative family fun

Campsite Breakfasts

Whenever we head into the woods for a weekend getaway, roughing it or not, we always love a campfire and cooking on a grill. The outdoor meal we look forward to the most is breakfast. The sun rises early, and the family is raring to go. Here are two quick and very easy, yummy recipes that will start any camper off on an active day connecting with the great outdoors.

FRENCH-TOAST ROLL-UPS
(Makes 2 servings)

- 1 egg
- 2 tablespoons milk
- Pinch of salt
- 6 slices soft bread, crusts removed
- Butter
- Cinnamon
- Sugar
- Favorite syrup

1. Whisk together egg and milk in a shallow bowl. Add salt. Spread a slice of bread with butter, sprinkle with cinnamon and sugar, then roll up and seal ends by pinching the bread slightly. Roll it in egg batter. Carefully poke a roasting stick through the roll-up at its midsection.

2. Hold the stick over coals until all sides are lightly browned, about 1 1/2 minutes on each side. Remove from the stick, set on a plate, sprinkle with more cinnamon and sugar, if you wish, and serve with syrup. Or, let it cool a bit on the stick, remove with your fingers and dip in the syrup.

STUFFED BAGELS
(Makes 4 servings)

- 4 bagels, tops sliced off and insides scooped out to form a narrow trough
- 3 scrambled eggs
- 1 cup shredded cheese, such as cheddar or Monterey Jack
- 2 scallions, chopped
- 3 slices Canadian bacon, chopped

1. Layer scrambled eggs, scallions, Canadian bacon and cheese into scooped-out bagels. Replace tops. Wrap the bagels upside down in aluminum foil, and place on a grill.

2. Heat about 3 minutes, or until cheese is melted. Unwrap and serve for breakfast, or leave wrapped and serve as a midday snack. (Keep chilled until serving.)

TIP: Make a hand protector for young campers to use when roasting. Poke a hole in the middle of a disposable foil pie plate, and insert it onto the middle of a roasting stick. To identify one another's sticks, children can decorate their pie plate with designs and add their name with a nontoxic permanent paint pen. Or, simply poke holes into the design to create the alphabet letter starting their name.

THE BOLD AND THE BEAUTIFUL
Tired of the judgment from his family, Eric called Steffy out on deflecting her own personal issues onto his and Quinn's relationship. Ivy returned from Australia to Forrester Creations hoping to design jewelry again. Quinn agreed to hire Ivy back at the company with one significant condition. While not hiding his own desire to reunite with Steffy, Liam offered Wyatt valuable advice on how he could fix his marriage. Bill and Katie met to discuss the terms of their divorce settlement. Liam presented himself as an option to Steffy, telling her he could solve all of her problems. Brooke was still determined to follow through with her role in the plan despite Ridge's noted objection. Wait to See: Family members battle over a coveted position.

Claire sought romantic advice from Belle and was a little annoyed at finding Ciara and Theo together. Gabi and Sonny got caught up when they visited Will's gravesite. Chad said goodbye to Abigail in his own way. Brady didn't want to believe his grandfather could have taken Tate, but all the evidence suggested otherwise. Chad communicated with Abigail's spirit. Wait to See: While visiting Clyde in prison, Marlena has a near miss with a face from the past.

Hints For Homeowners

Triple Threat: Save Money, Water And The Environment

(NAPS)—If your home is like most in America, 27 percent of your water consumption comes from flushing it right down the toilet. And if that sounds like a money-sucking waste to you, it's because it is. A huge one, which may make you say WHAT THE FLUSH? Luckily, there's a solution. You can save up to 20,000 gallons of water a year—enough to fill an 18-foot by 40-foot in-ground swimming pool—and cut your water bills by up to 60 percent without having to change any of your bathroom behavior, just your toilet. Niagara Conservation created the Stealth Toilet, which uses less than one gallon of water per flush compared to the average toilet that uses 3.5 to five gallons per flush. Even homeowners who have installed so-called "high-efficiency" toilets can reduce water use by an additional 35 to 50 percent by switching to the Stealth Toilet. Plus, you may even get a rebate from the water supplier just for installing it. To find out if you're eligible, visit www3.epa.gov/water_sense/rebate_finder/saving_money_water.html.

On top of that, the affordable price of $149, coupled with the amount of money saved each month on your water bill, means that the Stealth Toilet pays for itself. With all these benefits, your next step is a no-brainer. As Jenni Pulos of Bravo's hit show "Flipping Out" explains, "As a California resident, I feel the gravity and importance of water conservation. That's why I'm asking America to stop this invisible drain on our planet. With the Stealth Toilet, we can do our part to save water and money with every flush. So join the cause for water conservation."

When it comes to saving water and money, a new device can have you flushed with success.

How It Works

A patented siphonic flush system uses vacuum-assisted technology to move air through an air transfer tube during each flush and refill, while strategically positioned rim wash holes add to the flushing power and make cleaning easier. And on top of everything, it gets the job done silently in one fell swoop, meaning your days of double flushing are over.

Save A Billion

Saving a billion gallons of water this year sounds ambitious, but it would only take 50,000 Stealth Toilets to do it. That means replacing 50,000 clunky, water-wasting toilets across the country. To that end, Niagara Conservation is inviting everyone to Like or follow it on Facebook or Twitter to get the word out and learn what you can do to be a money-saving, water-conserving superhero.

Learn More

Visit www.WhatTheFlush.com to learn more about the toilet and see Jenni Pulos in a cheeky "Potty Talk" video. For more on other water- and energy-saving products, visit www.niagaracorp.com or call (800) 831-8383.

Q. Is it true that they are making a new version of "King Kong"? If so, do you know how or if this will be different from other iterations? — Dave G., via email

A. "Kong: Skull Island" will premiere March 10, 2017 on the big screen. This latest version of the action-adventure movie stars Tom Hiddleston (of "Thor" and "The Avengers" fame), Brie Larson (who won the Academy Award for Best Actress for "Room"), Samuel L. Jackson and Tom Wilkinson, and takes place in the 1970s, focusing on the origins of Kong. Hiddleston's character, Capt. James Conrad, is the leader of an expedition venturing deep into an uncharted island in the Pacific Ocean, where you can bet they are going to run smack into everyone's favorite giant gorilla.

But if you can't wait until March to get up close and personal with the mythical beast, you can head over to Skull Island yourself — that is, the one at Universal Studios Orlando Islands of Adventure. Its new ride, "Skull Island: Reign of Kong," opened over the summer, and let me tell you that it is exhilarating and actually quite scary. It really does get you primed to want to see the movie. Here's an insider's tip: Try to sit as far on right-hand side of the car as you can.

Q. I haven't seen Catherine Zeta-Jones in anything recently. I know she took time off while her husband, Michael Douglas, was recovering from cancer, but did she full-on retire? — Linda F., Baton Rouge, Louisiana

A. The gorgeous and talented Oscar winner recently signed on to star as Olivia de Havilland in FX's eight-part miniseries "Feud," which centers on the bitter rivalry between "Whatever Happened to Baby Jane?" stars Bette Davis (Susan Sarandon) and Joan Crawford (Jessica Lange). The miniseries will premiere sometime next year, and co-stars Stanley Tucci as studio chief Jack Warner, Judy Davis as gossip columnist Hedda Hopper and Alfred Molina as director/producer Robert Aldrich. With a powerhouse cast like this, I can't wait to see the series.

Tom Hiddleston

Q. I remember hearing talk of a "Lost Boys" movie remake. Any word on that? — Larry T., via email

A. Rob Thomas — creator of "Veronica Mars" and "iZombie" — is bringing the vampire cult classic to television over at the CW network. According to "Deadline," the new series is being envisioned for a seven-season run, "spanning 70 years, each season chronicling a decade." With each season, "the humans, the setting, the antagonist and the story all change — only the vampires, our Lost Boys, who are like the 'Peter Pan' characters who never grow up, remain the same." There is no word yet on whether the vampires will be all-new characters or a reimaging of the movie-version ones, but seeing how they all died in the end, they'd have to get pretty creative if they are planning to reintroduce them.

CNC3 4TH ANNUAL MOTORCYCLE RUN IN MEMORY OF VICTIMS LOST IN DOMESTIC VIOLENCE TRAGEDY

Salome's Stars

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) Someone whose friendship you felt you had to write off will try to revive it. What you do is up to you. But don't do it without giving it considerable thought.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) A job-related plan might need to be reworked to allow for changes. Lucky for you that Saturn remains a strong influence that can help you focus on getting it done right.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) This is a good time to move into areas of self-discovery. You might be surprised about who you really are and how you really relate to those around you.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) Expect to confront someone who will make an unwelcome request. Stand by your resolve to do the right thing no matter what "persuasion" might be offered.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) A friendly competition could become more contentious than you expected. Take time out to discuss the reasons behind this unexpected change, and act accordingly.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) You have a wonderful mind for solving mysteries, so you should feel confident about solving the one developing very close to you. An unlikely source offers help.

BORN THIS WEEK: You're a great host or hostess. You love being with people, and you're very good about planning all sorts of social events that bring folks together.

Prayer to St. Jude

Most holy Apostle, St. Jude, faithful servant and friend of Jesus, the church honors and invokes you universally, as the patron of hopeless cases, of things almost despaired of. Pray for me, I am so helpless and alone. Make use, I implore you, of that particular privilege given to you, to bring visible and speedy help where help is almost despaired of. Come to my assistance in this great need that I may receive the consolation and help of heaven in all my necessities, tribulations, and sufferings, particularly (your request) and that I may praise God with you and all the elect forever. I promise, O blessed St. Jude, to be ever mindful of this great favor, to always honor you as my special and powerful patron, and to gratefully encourage devotion to you. Amen.

R.R. BAF

Novena to the BLESSED VIRGIN

(Never known to fail). O Most Beautiful Flower of Mt. Carmel, Fruitful Vine, Splendor of Heaven, Blessed Mother of the Son of God, Immaculate Virgin, assist me in my necessity. O Star of the sea, help me and show me here in, you are my mother. O Holy Mary, Mother of God, Queen of Heaven and Earth, I humbly beseech you from the bottom of my heart to succor me in my necessity (make request). There are none that can withstand your power. O Mary conceived without sin, pray for us who have recourse to thee (3 times.) Holy Mary, I place this cause in your hands (3 times). Say this prayer for three consecutive days. You must publish it and it will be granted to you. Grateful Thanks.
