Foodland Aids Flood Victims

SHOALS—Foodland stores in the Shoals and several of their food vendors have a special ad in this week's issue. Every product purchased from the specified ad this week will generate a 25¢ donation to organizations assisting flood victims in Louisiana.

Mitchell Grocery, the warehouse supplier for local Foodland stores, is running this benefit campaign in the various markets which they serve from September 14-20, so take advantage of these offers now and help make the campaign successful for those on the Baton Rouge area.

Lenny's Helps Hungry Kids

more than 288,982 children going to sleep hungry because they aren't getting the vital nutrition they need throughout the day.

In order to help combat these statistics, Memphis-based sandwich concept Lenny's Grill & Subs is teaming up with Share Our Strength's No Kid Hungry campaign. Each Lenny's customer who donates just $1 to the campaign will help No Kid Hungry to provide a hungry child with as many as ten meals. Through these efforts, Lenny's hopes to raise $30,000 for children in need by the close of the campaign on Sunday, October 2.

Lenny's Grill & Subs in Florence recently came under new ownership by area native, Joshua Murks, who is excited to participate in the No Kid Hungry campaign this year. Customers interested in helping to reach this year's goal of $1,000 can visit the Lenny's at 409 Cox Creek Parkway in Florence or 2101 Woodward Ave. in Muscle Shoals.

To reward local guests at Lenny's, those who donate to the cause will receive a $2-off coupon for any club sandwich on their next visit.

children in grades 4-6 to celebrate their abilities and make a difference in the world just as Helen Keller did. Helen Keller, who became blind and deaf as a child, overcame her disabilities to become an author, lecturer, and an activist for the disabled. She came to be an inspiration to people around the world, and is known as America's First Lady of Courage.

The campers will have dinner in the Keller's dining room at Ivy Green and tour grounds of the historic home. They will experience the opening scene of the Miracle Worker play, visit the Railroad Depot in Tusculumbia, create crafts, go fishing on Pickwick Lake, and participate in hands-on activities at Cypress Cove Farm in Red Bay. All of the activities are designed to help the children use their abilities and sharpen their senses. There is no charge to the children or their families for attending Camp Courage.

Camp Courage is sponsored by the Helen Keller Birthplace Foundation, Optometry Cares - The American Optometric Association Foundation, Valley Credit Union, University of North Alabama, Colbert County Tourism and Convention Bureau, Colbert County Commission, Helen Keller Festival, Colbert County Community Development Fund, Helen Keller Hospital, Muscle Shoals Fishing Team, Tim Horton Fishing, Alabama Mountain Lakes Tourist Association, Alabama Tourism Department, Wind Creek Hospitality, Cypress Cove Farm, Helen Keller Garden Club and District 1 Garden Club of Alabama.

Independent volunteers, United Methodist Churches and stuffthebus.org offered all-day collection opportunities at bank locations across northwest Alabama. The charitable organizations offered snacks, giveaways, and entertainment for those who stopped by to donate school supplies.

Two additional "Stuff the Bus" events capped off the drive on Saturday, August 6 when more than thirty Bank Independent volunteers collected school supply donations from the public at Walmart on Hough Road in Florence and Walmart on Highway 72 in Athens.

"I enjoy seeing our School Share drive grow and involve more and more folks in the communities we serve," says Bank Independent President Macke Mauldin. "This year we had more events, more volunteers, and more partner organizations than ever before. This means we're able to make back-to-school an easier transition for more local children."

Bank Independent presented the proceeds of the School Share drives to partner organizations for immediate distribution to local children. These organizations include the Committee on Church Cooperation in Morgan County, Dept of Human Resources of Franklin County, Dept of Human Resources of Lawrence County, Limestone County Churches Involved, Dept of Human Resources of Limestone County, and Sidney's Safe! Foundation in the Shoals.

The Share drives are part of Bank Independent's Helping Hands program which was inspired by employee requests for organized volunteer opportunities after the April 27, 2011 tornadoes. Since then, Bank Independent employees have donated over 3500 hours in paid volunteer time to community efforts.

both Wilson and Pickwick Lakes.

Litter grabbers, gloves, and trash bags will be provided at each location for participants. Each 13-gallon trash bag brought in from the shoreline or Tennessee River waterways qualifies participants to one entry in the drawing for $500 in cash. Participants can start now by collecting litter if they can't participate on collection day.

"We normally think of litter as what we see on our roadways and other public access areas. What we often don't see is the large amounts of litter in our local lakes, creeks, and shorelines," said Keep the Shoals Beautiful board member, Bud Pride. "We want all Shoals residents to be aware of this issue and take part in helping out."

"We hope this tournament will empower the public to take charge of a big issue facing our local water system in the form of fun and friendly competition," added Chelsea Kauchick, Director of Keep the Shoals Beautiful.

Volunteers are also needed to assist at each drop-off site if that sounds better than actively participating at the shorelines.

Participants and site volunteers are encouraged to pre-register for this event by emailing KTSB@keeptheshoalsbeautiful.com or by calling Kauchick at 256-764-4661. All participants will receive a free t-shirt on the day of the tournament.

ASK THE ATTORNEY

Thomas McCutcheon

Ask the Attorney is sponsored by local attorneys, McCutcheon & Hamner, PC, as a service to the residents of NW Alabama.

THANK YOU AND SIMPLE WILLS

We have done two charity events where if someone makes a donation of $25 to the cause that we are there to support, Joel or I will take all the time you need to provide you with a simple Will. I certainly want to thank everyone who has met me and supported these two events with your donations.

What we do is set up an RV that has a generator for heating and cooling and provide an environment that has privacy so that we can talk for as long as we need to decide what type of Will someone needs or what they want to do in their Will.

We will provide a conference about what best serves your wishes for a $25 donation to the charity that we are working with. We then write the Will and provide two witnesses and a notary at no extra charge at our office during the next week. I truly enjoy helping people write the Wills they need. Most of the problems that people have are problems that I've been solving for years and so I've got a pretty effective range of solutions.

An example of a simple Will that one sees frequently is where someone leaves everything they have to their spouse and if the spouse does not live longer than they do (predeceases) then everything to the children. Everything to the children is most often, although not always, shared equally and includes the phrase per stirpes. Per stirpes means that if a parent outlives a child then that child's share goes to that child's children.

I make every effort to write a Will that never has to be rewritten. Decisions that need to be made beforehand are who is going to execute your final wishes, often a spouse, and who is going to be the backup person for that job (an alternate executor). These Wills are written so if that person that you choose to execute your final wishes has passed away or is ill or grieving or just cannot do those things that need to be done, there is an alternative choice.

In the event that an estate is being left to children who either are or could be minors then the estate or portion of the estate going to a minor needs to be held in Trust and dispersed for the health, education, welfare and maintenance of the minor.

People also need to decide who would be a guardian of their children and who would be a trustee to handle the money. I typically suggest that half the money be given to the beneficiary (child) when they finish college or reach 25 years of age because that provides an incentive for the child to go to college. I then suggest that the balance of the trust be dispersed at age 30, but all of these decisions are yours to make as long as you are healthy enough to make those directives in a valid Will.

If you have a cause that you support, such as a volunteer fire department or senior citizen center, let us know and if we can help, we will. Thank you all again.

Buckle up and drive safely.

New Signal in St. Florian

ST. FLORIAN – Most of last week travelers through St. Florian saw flashing lights on the newly erected traffic signal. On Friday the blinking stopped as signals went live. The long-awaited addition at the intersection of Lauderdale CR 47 and Church Road has a turning signal in the northbound lane of Lauderdale 47 which is expected to reduce the snarls at peak traffic times which have plagued the town for over a decade.

Studies indicate more than 12,000 vehicles travel through St. Florian each day. Many of those vehicles travel east on Church Road coming from the industrial park. The signal is expected to ease much of the intersection's congestion. Officials said the signal will be controlled by video cameras.

My Turn, Homeland Insecurity

by Major Euell White, U.S. Army, (retired)

For those who think that if we are simply nice to the Islamists and pretend that it is a religion of peace, they will in turn be nice to us, consider these facts.

In the recently released 15th issue of the official magazine of ISIS titled BREAK THE CROSS the focus is on waging war against Christians and the Sign of the Cross. In the foreword to its magazine, ISIS damns Christians as cross worshipers, pagans, and idolaters because of their belief in the Holy Trinity. It says Jesus Christ himself was a "slave to Allah" who will return in the last days to wage jihad and "break the crosses."

ISIS encourages followers to build upon the recent success in Normandy, France by expanding the attacks to all Christian churches, congregations and pastors. In the recent attack in France, two ISIS terrorists entered a Catholic church and slit the throat of an elderly priest on the altar while he was saying mass. A nun was also critically injured in the attack.

The magazine articles make it perfectly clear that there will be no end to the killing of Christians until all of western civilization embraces Islam. It reads: "The fact is, even if you were to stop bombing us, imprisoning us, torturing us, vilifying us, and usurping our lands, we would continue to hate you because our primary reason for hating you will not cease to exist until you embrace Islam." Analysts believe that London, New York City and Washington, D.C. are the cities that ISIS plans to target next.

The Christian Times, in cooperation with the FBI, is reporting that ISIS is creating Kill Lists using online church directories to target churches, congregations, and ministers in Texas, New York, California, and Florida. According to the report, the kill lists name nearly 15,000 Americans to be eliminated.

Former FBI counter-terrorism specialist John Guandolo advises churches to increase security and to use real men who are members of the church. He adds that if they cannot find any men in the church who know how to use weapons, they should close their doors. In spite of these facts, President Obama and his cohorts want to keep the law-abiding citizens from having the means to protect themselves by banning gun ownership. He is also making it easy for Islamic Terrorists to enter this country by bringing refugees from the Middle east without any vetting to determine whether they are terrorists and by commuting the sentences of known violent criminals.

Conditions will not improve with Hillary Clinton or any other Democrat in the White House.

Commentary

An Attitude Evolved with Bad Influence

There's a lot of things that need to change.... Police brutality. ... There's people being murdered unjustly and nobody being held accountable... There are bodies in the street and people getting paid leave and getting away with murder."

Those are words from Colin Kaepernick, a player for the San Francisco 49ers of the National Football League who has decided to sit or kneel during the playing of the National Anthem at 49ers preseason games this year instead of standing as other players do. Some have objected to his blanket disrespect for the flag and police officers, so he has been explaining himself.

One of his recent comments was, "I am not going to stand up to show pride in a flag for a country that oppresses black people and people of color."

I was trying to avoid what for several weeks was a non-issue based on someone's individual liberties.

Kaepernick is a tall and slender, good-looking, half-black half-white, 28 year old who was adopted by a set of white parents as an infant. He had a middle class upbringing and was a stellar player with a clear head in college at Nevada and his first year or two as a pro. He was a leader and a starter with the 49ers.

Then his baggage started to surface. Kaepernick has it pretty good in life. He makes over $11 million per year playing a

Fair Gives to Community

MUSCLE SHOALS- The 82nd Annual North Alabama State Fair is almost here.

The first North Alabama State Fair took place in 1935 and a little over 2,000 people attended. The Fair has grown to be one of the largest annual events in North Alabama.

It takes place this year September 20-25 at the North Alabama State Fairgrounds in Muscle Shoals. The North Alabama State Fair is a nonprofit organization which is self-supporting with the exception of the Alabama Department of Agriculture paying a portion of the cash awards. Otherwise, the North Alabama State Fair receives no subsidy from the city, county, state, or federal governments.

The family-oriented community event features agricultural, industrial, cultural, and commercial exhibits and is operated for the benefit of the community.

A major portion of the money spent at the North Alabama State Fair remains in the community.

All of the money raised at this event will be donated to St Jude Children's Research Hospital in memory of Alex Denton who lost his battle with leukemia at the age of 3.

NAMI SHOALS PRESENTS NAMI WALKS Saturday, September 17 at McFarland Park in Florence. Registration starts at 8am. 5K walk starts at 9am.

NAMI Alabama and its affiliates are conducting our second joint statewide 5K NAMIWALKS. The NAMI Shoals walk will be Saturday, September 17 at McFarland Park and the state walk will be September 24, in Montgomery at Wynton Blount Cultural Park.

Values Not Represented

Editor:

Hillary, the president, and many others, very often refer to "our American values," and then show their intolerance when they call the opposition radicals and bigots.

The fact is that our original American values are not what these folks represent. You see, the original American values, were based on a Judeo-Christian foundation. That foundation recognized God as the ruler of the universe, and His word, the Word Of God, the way we are to live by.

Our founding fathers deeply believed in God and wanted to practice their Christian beliefs freely without interference from the newly formed federal government. The "Freedom of Religion" clause did not mean religions who worshipped idols were allowed in their respective states. They knew God called those man-made things "devils", and that God, except for remnants, had almost destroyed Israel several times because they abandoned him and worshipped idols.

So what are now these things they call "our American values", and how depraved and ungodly are they? Very!!

By many reports, their cohorts are apparently trying to cleanse our military of Christians. And they call others bigots? Can you imagine our future military not able to call on God for help because they are not allowed to pray? Because it may offend somebody?

During the eight days that the party conventions took place approximately 24,000 small unborn humans being were deprived of "life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness." For those who don't remember, "life, liberty, and the

TRY HOMING IN ON THIS ONE! Can you guess which of the three pigeons found its way back to the coop?

A CONEY ISLAND RED-HOT STUMPER! See if you can cut the mustard on this AlphaMath problem. You must replace the letters in the board with the digits 0, 1, 2, 3, 4, 6, 7, 8, and 9 so that you have a correct addition problem. The same letters get the same digits. Try to get the highest possible total.

IT'S A "SIN" IF YOU DON'T GET THEM ALL! In this puzzle all of the words get progressively longer, and they all start with SIN. Some hints are:

1. SIN (in place).
2. To inform against (slang).
3. Between then and now.
4. Burns the ends off.
5. Found on fishnets.
6. A monotonous voice tone.

Medicare Minute

"Changes in Retiree Coverage"

Over the past two weeks our office has received dozens of calls from Medicare eligible individuals who are experiencing changes in their retiree coverage for 2017. The two most notable groups are TVA and RSA retirees. Alcoa retirees are already experiencing these changes.

Here are a few things to think about. For those of you who are married you will want to know how it will affect your spouse if you leave employer coverage. If your spouse is not old enough for Medicare it may affect your decision differently than someone whose spouse is also Medicare eligible. If your spouse is also Medicare eligible you will want to know what your exact premium will be for you and your spouse together and separately. If that cost is high you may benefit by looking at a Medicare plan outside the company.

One important factor is how much, if anything, your company is contributing to help pay for the coverage. This usually comes in the form of a Health Reimbursement Account (HRA). If the HRA is enough to cover the entire cost of the plan you're in good shape. If it's not enough to cover the entire cost you may benefit by looking outside your retiree coverage.

How Medicare works and how it coordinates with other Medicare plans can be very confusing. The biggest disadvantage with going through a call center outside of the area is you lose the ability to have a local agent explain your coverage face-to-face and that can go to the insurance company on your behalf if you have a problem.

In most cases it's best to stay on your employer sponsored plan. I would never encourage anyone to leave their employer coverage but the decision to do so is an individual one. What's best for your former coworker may not be what's best for you. Feel free to contact our office anytime if we can be of assistance.

If you have questions regarding any aspect of Medicare or Medicare health plans feel free call us at Alabama Health Guidance (256-284-7249), stop by our office at 879 Florence Blvd (Four Lane Shopping Center) or email me at ikey@alabamahealthguidance.com.

Alabama Health Guidance is an independent insurance agency and is not affiliated with Medicare or any other government agency.

Salute to Coaches

In my many years as a sportscaster, I've had the privilege of being associated with lots of football coaches. I've always cherished my friendships with them. I've found them to be dedicated, hard working men who help mold the future for thousands of young men who cross their path.

The coaching profession as with many other facets of modern day football has certainly changed over the years. Today, coaches are afforded the luxury of having many position coaches on their staff that has helped individual players become more adept at developing their skills and abilities.

I still have an admiration and respect for coaches of years ago who had to lead a team with just a few assistant coaches to help. Some while back, I came across a tribute to those type coaches, author unknown. Portions of the tribute are edited due to space restrictions and is written in a poem format. He's painted helmets and fixed shoulder pads and soothed the tempers of irate dads....he's paid about 35 cents an hour and he's got a new whistle and private shower.... He's patched up ankles and an occasional nose and watered the field with a one-inch hose.... He's been known to work seven days straight and fix the locks on broken gates.

He's driven a bus full of screaming kids, finished 0-10 and the school board flipped their lids.... His hair's turned gray, his teeth are gone, he's worked forty years from dusk till dawn....Don't forget to search the good things about coaches, those things that don't always show up in win-loss records and statistics.

Don't forget the good things about great coaches: the kind of people they are and the life-long influence they have on those young men whose lives they help mold to be better people and successful citizens. I salute you!!

CO.STARTERS is Business

THE SHOALS – The Shoals Chamber of Commerce will offer its second cohort of CO.STARTERS, a nationally renowned platform that helps communities grow local business on Tuesday, September 20.

The first cohort led by Party Pros USA owner, Jackie Hendrix, graduated in August after pitching their business ideas to family, friends, and other Shoals Chamber members. The second cohort will be led through a partnership of the UNA College of Business staff, including: Management & Marketing Professor Dr. Santanu Borah, Executive in-Residence, Janyce Fadden, and Director of Innovation & Entrepreneurship, Mitch Hamm.

The Shoals Chamber launched this nine-week program in June to equip aspiring entrepreneurs with the insights, relationships, and tools needed to turn business ideas into action. Unlike traditional platforms, CO.STARTERS applies the lean business modeling methods popular among high-growth startups to businesses of all kinds.

The cost is $400 per participant and includes a one-year Chamber membership. To join CO.STARTERS in the Shoals, contact Caitlin Holland at 256-764-4661 or cholland@shoalschamber.com.

Attitude...

makes over $11 million per year playing a game as a second-team quarterback.

But why is he just now protesting mistreatment?

Enter black sociologist and activist, Dr. Harry Edwards. Edwards has been a 49ers consultant for three decades. As has been his nature, he has shared his advice on racial injustices with Kaepernick on occasion.

We also have Kaepernick's girlfriend since the spring of 2015, Nessa Diab. The ex-MTV DJ now works on a popular urban radio show in New York City. She is also a graduate of Cal-Berkeley, a Muslim, and an avid Black Lives Matter activist.

Soon after they got together, Kaepernick's social media activity began to reflect a more subversive radical nature. His attitudes and appearance also began to change.

It's amazing how often people like to utilize the flag as an avenue to demonstrate disagreement over what that flag represents.

It's good that Kaepernick has the right of expression with the anthem. We can all rate his position with our opinions of him as well - from courageous hero to blissfully uninformed - or even more expressive.

It is great that he is donating money, but his stunt of wearing socks with caricatures of police as pigs during team practices is way off base. He said that those were to draw attention to police officers who unfairly target minorities. That type of broad generalization is a blatantly derogatory representation of all law enforcement officials.

Many white people lose their jobs when a statement or philosophy of life alienates a small group of unhappy people or some guilt-ridden corporate execs. Does anyone remember the Curt Shilling incident? How many others come to mind from Jimmy the Greek forward? All of them were within free speech boundaries AND accurate assessments of a situation that made liberals cringe. Instead of considering the message, they shot all the messengers.

Kaepernick was abandoned by his white mother and put up for adoption as an infant. His black father left before he was born. Even though he has never known foster care, some think Kaepernick has some animosity toward his real parents for their love that he has never known.

Maybe he should really be protesting fatherless homes, absentee fathers, and personal irresponsibility, which despite recent assertions to the contrary, are at outrageously high rates in the urban black community. It is absolutely factual and keenly relevant to Kaepernick's argument - a lot more factual than the discrimination or mistreatment he perceives from his celebrated perch.

Zuzu's Petals

When we returned from our annual Labor Day weekend in North Carolina with our extended family, my husband emptied his pant pockets, and said, "Ruby's acorns." To which I responded, "Zuzu's petals." You see, my husband had been playing with our 18 month old granddaughter, Ruby, over the weekend. At some point Ruby had found two acorns and she gave them to "Gandad". Rather than throw them away in front of her, my husband had put them into his pocket. When he got them out and said, "Ruby's acorns," it reminded me of a line in his favorite movie, "It's a Wonderful Life". Jimmy Stewart, as the father in the movie, hit on hard times and wished that he had never been born. He was granted his wish, but ended up frantically praying to get back to his old life when he saw all the good that did not happen because he had not been born. One way that he knew that he was back to himself was that he found the petals from the flower that Zuzu, his young daughter, had given him were once again in his pocket.

Ruby's acorns made me think, "What do I want Ruby to learn from me that maybe she wouldn't learn as deeply from anyone else if I weren't in her life?" Here are five kernels of good I hope that I demonstrate to her in my life. I want Ruby:

1) To share a genuine smile and laugh. We have shared laughter. I hope that Ruby keeps giving the natural joy that she gives now with that little one-sided shoulder shrug and sweet smile. I hope that she continues to look people in the eyes to figure out what they are really saying. And I hope that she will always remember what our laughter sounds like.

2) To love music, art and natural beauty. At the Apple Festival, Ruby and I danced in the street on the corner in front of the Courthouse. We had balloons that had been strung up in the sky before the rain. But we held the balloons while doing Ruby's peg leg stomping dance in the drizzle. We intertwined our moving circles while the band played the likes of, "Celebration," "Billie Jean," and "She's a Brick House". We simply enjoyed our mountain culture, the puddles and each other. We smelled the rain and I told her that "signed, sealed, delivered..." I was hers. She will remember how it felt - being free with Gran in the art of music under a cloudy night sky.

3) To know that she is smart, beautiful and worthy of love. Some girls have trouble with these nuggets of truth. But Gran is helping Ruby stand square on her feet by letting her know that she is capable. By the words I use, the listening I do and the hugs that I give, she will know.

4) To know that she is loved for no other reason than that she is Ruby. She can't earn my love. She can't destroy it. My eyes will light up every time she comes in the room, regardless.

5) To learn from me to live for God and His Word out loud. If you only knew the gift of God...If you knew what is ahead for you if you live for Him. It's all good. I hope that Ruby has seen this in me - in us.

That's the thing, I know that if I were not around, these nuggets of wisdom that were passed to me, would still be passed to Ruby and Mica and any other grands to come, because these values are shared by our children. Some of these principles are hard nuts to crack, but they are the basis for a blessed life that comes from above. Our parenting children get that. Blessed.

Ruby's acorns - they are a reminder to me to plant while there is yet time.

Saved and Struggling

Having been saved 50+ years, and pastoring over half of those years, and teaching the bible for over 45 years, and experiencing some of the: (SAVED AND STRUGGLING WITH SIN) ordeal, I feel that I can give some biblical advice on the subject. I am directing this today at the saved, (born again) child of God. A lot of young saved folks today don't study their bible and / or sit under errant teachers. The day anyone gets saved, the war begins. The Devil is not so concerned with lost folks. The devil goes to church and sits next to the (saved) person and tries to distract, disable, discourage, and depress the born again child of God. Once saved, your eyes are opened you see sin in a way you never did before.

Your MIND will play with ideas like: HOW MUCH CAN I GET AWAY WITH? EVERYBODY DOES IT. NO ONE SAW ME, IT WASN'T THAT BAD, OR I GOT AWAY WITH IT. REMEMBER THIS: Romans 6:23 "For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord." James 1:15 "Then when lust hath conceived, it bringeth forth sin: and sin, when it is finished, bringeth forth death." SAVED OR LOST. SIN STILL KILLS.

Sin kills your marriage, your testimony, your witness for Christ, or like King David, losing his son, and eventually may kill you. Sin will tear apart a church. I have seen it. Notice in 1 Peter 5:8 "Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour:" and in Romans 7:23 "But I see another law in my members, warring against the law of my mind, and bringing me into captivity to the law of sin which is in my members." These Apostles experienced firsthand the onslaughts of the Devil. Folks play with sin like a fish does a worm on a hook. First nibble, nibble, then gobble, gobble, then boom, he's caught, just like us. The Apostle continues Colossians 1:28 "Whom we preach, warning every man, and teaching every man in all wisdom: that we may present every man perfect in Christ Jesus:" ARE YOU TRYING TO SERVE GOD AND STILL TRAPPED IN SIN? ASK GOD TO FORGIVE YOU AND REMEMBER, EVERY SIN HAS A HOOK IN IT.

pursuit of happiness" were precious American values.

Now the Democratic Party values the life of the murderer rather than the unborn human baby. They want to ban the execution of murderers, but support the murder of innocent unborn babies. And you vote for them!! May God have mercy on your soul and America.

This is what happens when the Legislative Branch fails to do their job. When one branch goes against God's laws you are to hold them accountable just like you are to hold your own members accountable. When justices go against God's Laws they are not "holding their offices in good behavior." Impeach those judges who vote against God's Law.

Immediately, because of God's Law (Thou shall not kill), pass a bill banning the killing of unborn babies. If the President vetoes the bill, impeach him. Show the guts to stand on God's Word. Sorry, but it is not enough to say I am Pro-Life. Act and God will be with you!

News & Tips on the Shoals Market

The Second Time Around

A young man asked me recently what I felt was the difference in a first-time homebuyer and a second-time buyer. He was a first-timer himself, but had the wisdom to ask what obvious mistakes to avoid. Any of you who have been through that first home purchase know that I could write pages on the things that people wish they had done differently. Since we don't have that much space, here are a few of the most common:

• Just because you're approved for "X" amount doesn't mean you have to spend all of that. In fact, your lifestyle may not support a house payment that big. Your banker doesn't know how you spend your disposable income, he can just tell you how much of a mortgage your income should be able to support. Do yourself a huge favor and create an honest budget. That will tell you how much you really have to spend on a house.

• Just because you're pre-approved doesn't mean that can't change. Your credit is a living thing. It fluctuates based on purchases, timeliness of payments, co-signing for someone else, and other factors. The bank or mortgage company will run your credit again right before the closing. I've seen people buy a car between contract and closing and lose their ability to borrow the amount they had been approved for. The contract to closing period is critical. You might be fine to buy a car, just wait until after closing to do so.

• Don't marry a house, so to speak, until it's yours. I've seen so many buyers fall hard for a house and then when it doesn't work out, for whatever reason, they can't move on. I have a simple philosophy on this subject: if it doesn't work out, it wasn't meant to be yours. Just like in that old Garth Brooks song "Unanswered Prayers", many times there's a great reason it didn't work out.

• Don't let the "pretty" overwhelm you, when it's the "functional" that matters in the long run.

It's easy for first-timers to get stars in their eyes when they're faced with curb appeal, new finishes, and the latest in chic kitchens or baths. But those are not the things that really impact your day-to-day life in a house. Spend time figuring out what is important to you and your family and focus on those things instead.

Be cautious, but enjoy the process. Have fun! You're buying a home! -mr

Celestial Thoughts

Birthdays...some people love theirs and some people dread theirs. Whether you love birthdays or hate them, they keep coming like clock work. The important thing to have when considering birthdays is perspective; there are many who would give anything to have just one more birthday with a loved one who has passed.

God planned your birthday from the very beginning. You were no surprise to the Great I Am. He knew the color of your hair, eyes, and skin. He knew if you would like brussell sprouts or not. He knew what your occupation would be. He knew if you would give your life to Him - all before you were thought of by humanity.

I thank God for your birthday; you are a very important part of His plan. Happy September birthday to my Mom, brother, sister, daughter, and granddaughter.

"...you created my inmost being; you knit me together in my mother's womb." Psalm 139:13

What is the Purpose of Baptism?

Written by Tony Hudson, Elgin Hills church of Christ

Ephesians 4:5 teaches that there is "one Lord, one faith, one baptism." This is not what we find true when we look into the various teachings about baptism today. It is true, but it isn't always taught that way.

Some people teach that baptism is needed for children, because children, they teach, inherit a sinful nature at birth. Baptism is then needed at birth, and the child will later be given a chance to confirm their commitment to God at a later point in life.

Some people teach that baptism is a sign of one's faith, undertaken after he or she has invited Jesus to be their Lord and Savior. This baptism is not for salvation, but is often times the manner in which one is added to a local church or congregation. Should they later leave, they might need letters to take with them to the next church they wish to join.

For some baptism is little more than a naming ceremony, a part of tradition handed down from one generation to the next. For some it is a dedication of their child to God. The truth is, rather sadly, that baptism often times takes its significance from the traditions or beliefs of whatever group one is a part of. The practice one follows may or may not always line up with any divine ordinance of scripture, and some will surprisingly admit this.

It is this writer's belief, that when we speak about baptism we must always speak, "as the oracles of God" (1 Peter 4:11). There are times when, even confessing believers need to be taught again, "the first principles of the oracles of God" (Hebrews 5:12). So, if we consult God's word regarding baptism, what do we find?

We find that baptism is a point of rebirth, or of regeneration as preachers used to say. Think about what Jesus taught Nicodemus in John 3:5: "Verily, verily, I say unto thee, except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God." The water here represents the burial one undergoes in the waters of baptism, out of which he is born anew - a new creature. The Spirit here is representing the change of mind, the repentance, the new man guided by the teachings of Jesus and His apostles.

Paul wrote of this burial in Romans 6:4: "Therefore we are buried with him by baptism into death: that like as Christ was raised up from the dead by the glory of the Father, even so we also should walk in newness of life." Paul wrote of this in Colossians 2:12: "... buried with him in baptism, wherein also ye are risen with him through the faith of the operation of God, who hath raised him from the dead."

Paul wrote of this truth in Titus 3:5: "...not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved us, by the washing of regeneration, and renewing of the Holy Ghost..."

Baptism is here called a washing, from a Greek word root pronounced loo-tron meaning a bath, a bathing, a washing - baptism. This is because baptism symbolizes the washing away of one's sins. Recall what Ananias said to Paul in Acts 22:16: "And now why tarriest thou? Arise, and be baptized, and wash away thy sins, calling on the name of the Lord."

No person may enter into the kingdom of God without being baptized. No person's sins have been washed away without baptism since Jesus died on the cross. Jesus taught saying: "He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved; but he that believeth not shall be damned" (Mark 16:16). Baptism apart from belief will not save. Belief apart from baptism will not save. This is what Jesus taught. Baptism is regenerative. It is the point at which the believing, repentant believer is born again.
