The Family Of The Late
Richard G. Miller

A sincere Thank You to our family, friends, neighbors, co-workers... for the outpour of LOVE, prayers, support, and comforting words as he journeys to start life on the New Farm. His light will continue to shine within us all. We would like to express a special Thank You to Leibensperger Funeral Homes on honoring Richard's life. Donna and Derek, your compassion, honesty, and understanding what was important to us to share the day with those who loved and known Richard was priceless. The service was very personable and beautifully done. Quality of excellence outshines all. Pastor Richard Miller, your words were true, filled with meaning, the scriptures chosen of his journey and peace on the New Farm spoke volumes to those who heard the message. Thank you so very much for honoring my father's wishes and sharing the word of the gospel. Thank you to the Miller Cousins- Lester, Richard, Bobby, Billy, Russell, sharing songs of praise and speaking in Pennsylvania Dutch, my father loved listening to your harmony. He always enjoyed the songs, music and skit that you performed at the yearly Fersommling.

Sincerely,
Richards family- Donna, Tara, Bill, Riley, Quinn, Becky

Peanut Butter Can Be Savory And Healthy

Peanut butter is often associated with school day sandwiches and sweet desserts. But peanut butter is not just for school lunch anymore.

Though it's a high-calorie food, peanut butter boasts many health benefits and can be added to recipes for a nutritional boost. Many of the calories in peanut butter come from fat, but the majority of the fats in peanut butter are monounsaturated and have been shown to improve cholesterol by lowering low-density lipoprotein, often referred to as "bad" cholesterol, in the blood. Furthermore, peanut butter contains polyunsaturated fats that can help raise high-density lipoprotein, or "good" cholesterol. As a result, when eaten in moderation, peanut butter may help reduce risk of cardiovascular disease.

Peanuts are high in fiber and are an excellent source of protein. Vegetarians or those who do not include much meat in their diets may find that peanut butter, which includes eight grams of protein in every two-tablespoon serving, is a great way to consume their daily recommended amounts of protein. When preparing foods, choose a peanut butter that is as unprocessed as possible. The fewer the ingredients the better the health benefits. Some brands will include trans-fats and additional oils that can negate some of the natural health benefits. Read labels and look for a container that lists only ground peanuts and possibly trace amounts of salt for flavoring.

The National Peanut Board touts the benefits of peanuts and has a number of different recipes available on their Web site at www.nationalpeanutboard.org. Here is a savory dish that can be served for dinner when the temperatures dip.

BAKED PORK CHOPS WITH

A SPICY PEANUT GLAZE
 2 pork chops, fat trimmed
 2 tablespoons cooking oil
 2 tablespoons natural creamy peanut butter
 2 tablespoons milk (or non-dairy substitute)
 1 tablespoon white vinegar
 2 teaspoons chili powder
 1/2 teaspoon salt (1/4 teaspoon if your peanut butter is already salted)

WANTED TO RENT/BUY

CASH FOR YOUR CAR, Call 610-916-7000. Steve Moyer's Subaru.

FINE JEWELRY of all kinds, wind up watches, pocket watches, and old items. Call, text or e-mail. 610-468-7110. LLSJEWEL S@comcast.net

JEWELRY WANTED: All kinds. Old costume, new costume, used, designer. Bracelets, rings, pins, earrings, necklaces, watches. Good prices paid. Call 610-781-4951.

Preheat oven to 350 F. Line a pan with aluminum foil, place the pork chops on the pan and drizzle with the cooking oil to coat. Make sure that the oil covers the whole pork chop to prevent burning. When the oven is preheated, put in the pork chops and bake them for 30 minutes.

While the pork chops are cooking, combine the peanut butter, chili powder, vinegar, milk, and salt in a small dish. Whisk together to emulsify. Remove the pork chops from the oven and evenly distribute the sauce between both chops, brushing on in an even layer. Put the pork chops back in the oven for 10 more minutes to finish cooking and to allow the sauce to thicken.
