POSTAL PATRON

Create the Nominees

FLORENCE—Florence Main Street wants you to nominate your favorite charity between now and October 13 for the opportunity to win a $5,000.

Selected from the community's nominations, five charities will be placed on a ballot for guests dining at participating restaurants to vote on during Florence Restaurant Week in October. Submit your local 501c(3) organization as a nominee now and describe why they deserve this prize. The three most nominated charities will automatically be included on the ballot. Florence Main Street will choose two wild-card charities based on input, nominations, community impact, and other factors.

Last year during Florence Restaurant Week, Presenting Sponsor McDaniel Window & Door owner, Mike McDaniel, presented the $5000 winning charity check to Shoals Sav-A-Life. That charity is excluded from this year's nomination phase because they were the winners last year.

You can nominate your favorite charity through the Florence Main Street poll on its Facebook page, on McDaniel Window & Door's Facebook page, at www.dineoutflorence.com, or you can mail in your nomination. If you choose to mail in a nomination, please include these items:

Your First and Last Name; your Email address, Name of Charity; Why you are nominating the charity; Name of Executive Director at the charity; and Contact info for the charity. (Address, and Phone Number)

Ballots will be available at participating restaurants during restaurant week October 21-30. Every time you eat at a participating restaurant during Florence Restaurant Week, you will have the opportunity to vote for one of our five local charities. Every time you eat, you get to vote!

Celestial Thoughts

On the aisle over from me in church on Sunday was an elderly gentleman who had come from the kitchen area with a handful of paper towels. I was trying not to stare, but he seemed to be having trouble wiping something up from the floor. It was blood. As it turns out, he had cut himself on a bag of ice as he tried to break it apart for his drink.

Since he was on blood thinner he couldn't get the small gash under control. I watched helplessly as he kept bleeding through the paper towels. Suddenly I remembered the bandaids I keep in my wallet. It has been my custom ever since my children were young due to scraped knees and boobos.

I awkwardly made my way to the old man and offered him a bandaid. The look of relief on his face was priceless brought tears to my eyes. What a small thing from me that made such a huge difference to him.

What small thing could you fit into your life this week that would mean the world to someone else?

"Pets, Not Politics" Event scheduled to benefit Florence Animal Shelter takes place on Saturday, September 24, from 10am-1pm at Pet Depot on Seville Street in Florence. It is a fund-raising effort for the repainting of the shelter kennels at the Florence Animal Shelter.

This "fix up the shelter campaign" is planned to increase awareness of the needs of the large number of animals which the Florence Animal Shelter cares for on a daily basis. As many as 400 animals, or more, come through the shelter each month. As such, not only is the facility in urgent need of attention, but essential supplies are deficient.

Donations of cleaning supplies, such as towels, laundry detergent, bleach, and good quality dog food are being sought from the community.

Those attending the "Pets, Not Politics" event can enjoy free hot dogs, personally served and provided by local candidates, while a Bake Sale as part of the event will seek to raise additional funding. For those who cannot attend, the event will be broadcast via live remote with Sherry St. John from KIX 96FM.

For more information or to arrange a donation for the Florence Animal Shelter, call 256-710-3215.

partnership among the University of North Alabama College of Business, the Shoals Chamber of Commerce, and the Shoals Entrepreneurial Center, with supporting grant funding from the Appalachian Regional Commission (ARC). According to Giles McDaniel, executive director of the Shoals Entrepreneurial Center, they received the ARC grant about two weeks ago and they're already putting it to use.

"This new Launchpad initiative is just another step in our ability to not only assist startups in the Shoals, but to attract them to the area as well," McDaniel said. Alabama Launchpad invests in the development of early-stage Alabama startups and shines a light on innovative new companies. Interested participants go through a rigorous application process which includes a video pitch and a business plan. Judges then select the startups to make live pitches for a share of finding.

"Our College of Business has been instrumental in bringing these opportunities to the Shoals and to UNA," said Dr. Kenneth Kitts, UNA president. "With events like Shoals Idea Audition, Shoals Big Idea Competition, 3 Day Startup and now Launchpad, we're establishing this region and this university as a place to be for entrepreneurs," he said.

According to Caitlin Holland, the chamber's vice president for Investor Relations & Public Policy, the Chamber will be the local contact point for Shoals Alabama Launchpad. "Our board was very excited to support the program and knows how it can impact the future of the region," Holland said. Interested parties can go directly to the website at www.alabamalaunchpad.com/shoals or contact Holland at the 256-764-4661.

ASK THE ATTORNEY

Thomas McCutcheon

Ask the Attorney is sponsored by local attorneys, McCutcheon & Hamner, PC, as a service to the residents of NW Alabama.

Q I was hit in a parking lot by a man who was on his cell phone and not looking at all when he backed into me. He was still on his cell phone when he got out of the car. The police would not make a report because it was on private property and I only have liability insurance. It really makes me mad that he was on his cell phone and not looking. How can I prove that? Emma, Killen, AL

A Parking lot accidents really cause problems for people who don't have full coverage insurance. I am not suggesting that everyone should have full coverage insurance. In fact, I spoke to a young lady who had bought a 15 year old BMW and was paying $200 a month for full coverage insurance. Those cars can be bought for $4500 and I don't know that the math works out to pay full coverage for a car that can be replaced relatively inexpensively.

Property damage only cases that have less than $5000 in damage to the car should go to small claims court. It is not economically feasible to hire me to go to small claims court for a $2000 or $3000 case. By the time you pay the attorney's fee, your net result isn't enough to pay for the repairs for your vehicle. Small claims court is designed for non-lawyers to prepare reasonably well with common sense evidence and witnesses and present their case to a judge who makes a decision, in writing, typically after the parties leave.

Small claims court does not automatically allow "discovery". Discovery in the legal sense means or includes depositions, written questions that are to be answered under oath and subpoenas. In a regular automobile accident case that we would handle, a case involving a person who was hurt, we would be very interested in obtaining the cell phone number and the carrier (AT&T, Verizon, Sprint) so that we could issue for a subpoena to find out whether or not the person at fault was either talking or texting at the time of the accident.

That brings up a point that should be made. We use repair bills, medical bills and the other side's phone records to prove our case we photograph skid or scuff marks from the accident scene and we use the physical evidence from the damage to the vehicle for the jury to consider. The problem is people that are really hurt aren't out snapping pictures of the car that hit them and writing down the exact time of the accident. People who are doing those things probably are not hurt that badly.

You will be able to testify that you saw the person on the phone. You will be able to describe or show photographic evidence of where the impact on your car was. You will be able to testify as to your version of how the accident happened. You will need to know the value of your car before the accident and after the accident and you should have a person who regularly repairs cars to testify as to how it will cost to repair your car present in court. Unfortunately, I do not believe that you will be able to prove, other than through your testimony, that the person that hit you was a distracted driver.

Buckle up and drive safely.

Please send the questions to: "Ask the Attorney,"

Glover has a Hit Song on the Chart

LEXINGTON – Recording artist Kimberley Terry Glover of Lexington recently had a Christian song entitled, Sing Glory, at #2 on The Australian Indie Radio Chart. Kim Glover co-wrote the hit song with Greg Hettinger from Michigan.

Kim and her husband, Darrell Glover, traveled to Nashville recently for a Celebration luncheon and reunion of professional entertainers where many of them performed.

Roni Stoneman, formerly of the popular TV show, Hee Haw and her sister Donna Stoneman were on hand with Roni playing banjo and Donna on mandolin and singing Christian songs. Tommy Cash, the brother of the late Johnny Cash, was there to enjoy the show along with other friends. The Glovers plan to start promoting Tommy's songs on their weekly radio shows. This October they will be recording a radio show at Graceland in Memphis, the former home of Elvis Presley. They will also be traveling to Dyess, Arkansas to visit the Cash childhood home museum while out filming footage for a new music video.

Kim Glover promotes many professional entertainers on her weekly radio shows titled Kim's World of Talent and Jesus Christ Followers Club on WKSR and WALW radio stations. She also mails out CD's to 200 other radio stations worldwide for the people she promotes.

What God Hath Done

Psalms 66:16 "Come and hear, all ye that fear God, and I will declare what he hath done for my soul." Luke 8:39 "Return to thine own house, and shew how great things God hath done unto thee." And he went his way, and published throughout the whole city how great things Jesus had done unto him." Dear born-again child of God, do you know what God has done for you? Isaiah 53:6 "All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way; and the LORD hath laid on him (CHRIST) the iniquity of us all." YOUR AND MY SIN. John 1:29 "The next day John seeth Jesus coming unto him, and saith, Behold the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world." 2 Corinthians 5:21 "For he (GOD) hath made him (CHRIST) to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him." Galatians 2:20 "I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me." Hebrews 2:9 "But we see Jesus, who was made a little lower than the angels for the suffering of death, crowned with glory and honour; that he (CHRIST) by the grace of God should taste death for every man." Romans 3:24 "Being justified freely by his grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus:" Romans 5:16&18 "And not as it was by one that sinned, so is the gift: for the judgment was by one to condemnation, but the free gift is of many offences unto justification." "Therefore as by the offence of one judgment came upon all men to condemnation; even so by the righteousness of one the free gift came upon all men unto justification of life." Ephesians 2:8&9 "For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: Not of works, lest any man should boast." CHRIST SUFFERED AND DIED AND PAID THE DEBT YOU OWED. HE NOW OFFERS FREELY HIS GIFT OF SALVATION. GIFT, GIFT, GIFT, GET IT? WHAT ELSE CAN GOD DO?

Commentary

Deplorable Cough
...and What Else?

Causing or being a subject for censure, reproach, or disapproval; wretched; very bad...

That is the definition found for the word "deplorable" at dictionary.com. It is an adjective. We all know by now that presidential candidate, Hillary Clinton, wanted so much emphasis placed on her degree of contempt for Trump supporters that she converted it into a noun in her "basket of deplorables" comment. She also added the obligatory catch words- racist, sexist, homophobic, xenophobic, Islamophobic, offensive, hateful, and mean-spirited.

Let's face it; the leading deplorables are the two lead candidates. Trump's history of ruthless business dealings has crushed other American businesses and jobs with complete lack of concern. He doesn't deny it. Among Hillary's glaring shortfalls is staunchly supporting late term and partial-birth abortions. Both are deplorable.

I have to hand it to Hillary, though; She's terribly witty even in her deplorable physical and mental condition which seems to be the real story we are overlooking.

Barely a week before this writing we heard that the coughing fits were associated with seasonal allergies, and a mild cold. Then she was shaky and off balance because she was dehydrated. She collapsed when leaving September 11 events

Tenth Season of Horror in Killen

KILLEN - As evening temperatures drop and summer drifts into fall, the sleepy town of Killen comes alive once again with screams and nervous laughter. Located on Highway 72 across from Brooks High School, the Arx Mortis haunted attraction will begin its tenth season on September 24.

Each year thousands of visitors have traveled to this popular evening haunt in the weeks leading up to Halloween. The PG-13 rating is due to intensity, realism, and gore. Signs upon entry warn potential visitors with heart and other health conditions to

Much Less Personal

Editor:

In response to the September 7 letter, "Will Not Cater to Cell Issues," Roger Henry submitted a valid argument for no longer catering to the calls from those of us who are transplanted residents.

I am his next door neighbor. I should say that I am actually the son of his next door neighbor. I reside in San Antonio. I really like Roger and I consider him and that entire group of neighbors to be friends.

It is a little presumptuous of us to expect Roger and the others who have local numbers to communicate with us using a phone that charges more for long distance to connect to us.

I also appreciate and understand the reasons that we don't change our number. Some of us have had the same number for 20 years or more. Not only do we have business contacts, but we have extended family around the world who know us by these numbers.

So I guess it's also just a lark that Trump has changed parties five times since the eighties and donated over half a million to Democrats...

However, we want to talk to Roger and others and include them in our world. What I would really like to see is more face to face visits between us. We could go to visit Roger since it's only a couple hundred feet away and he could come to see us more regularly just to catch up and share food and stories. A phone call is much less personal, especially if one party is put at a disadvantage in paying more for that call. When I am visiting, it will my goal to see Roger to encourage and reinforce our relationship as often as possible.

For those you who feel that Roger's complaint and reaction to these calls is off base, think about how this would have been handled 2,000 years ago. Technology is a tool that should bring us together, not pull us apart.

Trump Fooling Us All

WE LIVE IN A WORLD THAT is increasingly automated. Robots are replacing humans at an alarming rate. So what happens to the economy and our livelihoods when so many jobs are taken by robots? I took a deep dive into what economists and industry experts are thinking.

Fisher

Turns out our future is a bit murky.

One study from Oxford University claimed that 47% of the total US employment is at risk of being eliminated. However, the same thing was said at the dawn of the industrial revolution when 80% of all workers worked on farms. Today, it's only two percent--thanks to technology and automation. And we are much better off because of it.

by "The Computer Skeptic"

On the other hand, as minimum wage workers demand higher wages, companies are looking to cut labor costs by replacing humans with touchscreen order takers. A company has developed a robot that can turn out 360 burgers an hour. What will those unskilled workers do for a living?

That is not as bad as it may seem. Many of us have watched in dismay as so many of our jobs are shipped offshore for cheaper human labor. That tide is changing. As labor costs in those countries increase, technology allows US workers to be more productive than their offshore counterparts. As a result, more and more companies are starting to move jobs back to the US.

In just a few short years, we won't even need to buy an expensive car for our daily commutes. We will simply summon a driverless car using our smartphones that will deliver us to our destination safely and comfortably. My favorite car company, Tesla, is working on technology that will allow me to afford their car. I will be able to drive my Tesla to work, then the car will drive itself to paying customers and drive them around while I work thus offsetting the cost of my awesome car. The car will automatically show up later to take me home. How dadgum cool is that?

Although the experts cannot agree on how all this will pan out, it's safe to say that America's workforce -- from the manufacturer's factory floor to law firms -- will soon look very different. I think that is a good thing. After all, back in the 1700's, the advent of automation and the resulting free time resulted in more coffee shops. People gathered in these shops to have intellectual conversations about life, the universe, and the role of government. This was the beginning of the Enlightenment which eventually resulted in the founding of this fantastic country we live in. As a technological optimist, I think technology will result in another Enlightenment for the entire human race. One that will allow all of us to pursue artistic and philosophical goals while our robots do our bidding for us. So I, for one, welcome our robot overlords.

In the old days, an untruth was rewarded with a soap sandwich. In the grid shown here, we have room for eight words, each of which contains a "LIE." Using the following hints, see if you can find them before the young man above gets a second helping.

Answers On Page 38

A BETCHA! Place an empty bottle and a straw on the table and bet your friends that, using only the straw, they can't pick up the bottle and take it into another room. Only the straw may touch the bottle and you can't tie a knot in it.

Jacob and Jeremiah were brothers who died in a boating accident on Pickwick Lake in March. Jacob was the bassist for the Velcro Pygmies and Jeremiah was the general manager of Ricatoni's in Florence.

"This event is a chance for us to promote the idea of living every day to its fullest," said Velcro Pygmies front man Cameron Flener. "Because as we so tragically learned, you never know when your time is up. This event is for the fans. And that's why it's all ages and 100% free."

There will also be a Tribute Room featuring memorabilia, fan letters, and photos, in the Gallery of the Florence/Lauderdale Visitor Center in McFarland

Medicare Minute

"Medicare Pre-AEP"

Each year anyone who is on Medicare and enrolled in a Medicare Advantage Plan (MA) or Prescription Drug Plan (PDP) has an open enrollment period to make changes in their plan if they wish. This open enrollment period is called the Annual Election Period (AEP). It extends from October 15th to December 7th. There is also a period from October 1st to October 14th that is commonly called Pre-AEP.

Pre-AEP is an important time for Medicare beneficiaries. Insurance companies who offer MAs or PDPs cannot release their plan information for 2017 until October 1st. You can use this time to review your current plan to see if there has been any significant changes in your premium or copays. It's also a good time to review the prescription drug coverage of your plan, especially if you have had changes in the drugs you are taking. If any new plans are coming into your county, this is the time they are announced so be on the lookout for those.

Pre-AEP can also be a confusing time. Although it's designed for you to gather information on any changes that are coming for 2017, you may get phone calls or letters from insurance companies or your local agent. Local agents, in particular, like to use Pre-AEP to reach out to their clients and do policy reviews for the next year. This is totally acceptable under Medicare rules. It is also acceptable for you to attend a meeting or seminar during Pre-AEP to hear the details of 2017 plans. The one thing you cannot do is officially sign up for a new plan until after October 15th.

The good news is if you're happy with the plan you are in you won't have to do a thing. You will automatically roll into the 2017 plan as long as it's still offered in your area. If you have any questions about Pre-AEP you can contact our office for more information.

If you have questions regarding any aspect of Medicare or Medicare health plans feel free call us at Alabama Health Guidance (256-284-7249), stop by our office at 879 Florence Blvd (Four Lane Shopping Center) or email me at ikey@alabamahealthguidance.com.

Alabama Health Guidance is an independent insurance agency and is not affiliated with Medicare or any other government agency.

FOR MAYOR

VOTE Steve HOLT

JOBS, NOT POLITICS

An old saying in economic & community development is – when the sun comes up, you better be running, and this is what we will do.
Jobs will be our number one priority.

We're not going to wait for the phone to ring. We're going to relentlessly pursue business investments and JOBS for Florence. We're going to call, visit, and engage with people to find solutions. We're going to focus on ways to make things possible, instead of the 49 reasons why it's not possible. We're going to break down barriers that make it difficult for those who want to help grow Florence businesses. It's time to take a hard look at our assets, the projects that need to be completed, the jobs that need to be created, and make the decisions that need to be made for our city's best interests. Let's start by focusing on jobs, and let's keep our focus on Florence - in ALL we do.

her free throws, grabbing 469 rebounds, dishing out 325 assists and collecting 350 steals. Myers' 35 points in one game ranks 4th in school history. She also set a school record by making six consecutive three-pointers in one game.

The Panthers' overall record during her career was 113-15. Myers' numerous awards include All-State Honorable Mention in 1996, All-State second team in 1998 and several other all-tournament teams. In softball, she was the TimesDaily 1A-3A Player of The Year in 1999 after batting .344 and successfully stealing 26 bases in 26 attempts.

Andrea Palmer was dominating in her career at Waterloo High School. Her career pitching record was 155-38 with a career earned run average of 0.37. She had 1,704 career strikeouts, batted .417 and hit 19 home runs. Palmer holds the National High School record with 31 shutouts in 2005. During that season, she threw 10 no-hitters while striking out 506 batters.

Palmer signed a scholarship with UNA and was named All-Gulf South Conference while hitting 15 home runs in 2010. In basketball at Waterloo, she averaged 16.6 points per game. Kerrie Myers and Andrea Palmer carved out a sports legacy to be remembered and their induction into the Lauderdale County Sports Hall of Fame was well deserved.

Cough?...

because she got overheated (in 78 degree weather). Finally we heard about the case of pneumonia that nobody on her staff wanted public. Several of her staffers have also recently had pneumonia. However, if you are at the point of fainting from pneumonia, do you go to a medical facility or go to your daughter's apartment so you can spread the highly contagious disease to your grandchildren? I don't even think SHE is that cold. No, they are still not leveling with us. It is absolutely mind-boggling how these people and their associates have such an aversion to the truth.

Pneumonia doesn't appear to be the primary health concern. She has been having trouble with balance, vision, frequent confusion, and awkward gyrations for several years. Freezes/seizures are more numerous, hence the blue tinted glasses. Progressive deterioration is very obvious. That scares her camp and the democrat base to death.

The media won't show them, but clips of her deteriorating condition are all over YouTube. Contrary to her incessant assertions otherwise, those videos are the only things that are truly transparent about her. It may not be Parkinson's or dementia as it seems, but some of her mannerisms are very similar. Can she just hold out until election day so the party has a chance to keep the White House?

Never fear. It will be the same as it was with Benghazi, 33,000 destroyed emails, national security issues, pay-to-play with other countries, close associates no longer with us, and the DOJ in her back pocket. If the issues can stall long enough, they all become old news, the media deletes them from the news, and everything melts away.

Deplorable: Hillary should know the definition well. Her close associates can remind her in the event of another brain freeze.

Trump Fooling Us All...

United States Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit. She is the daughter of real estate developer Fred Trump and Mary MacLeod Trump and the older sister of real estate/entertainment magnate Donald Trump. She was appointed by none other than...BILL CLINTON. Trump is so obviously a Clinton plant (not to mention a distant cousin of Hillary) and people just blissfully ignore the facts because he's "telling it like it is." In fact, he's telling you what you want to hear at a time when people are desperate to hear any truth coming out of the American political-industrial complex.

It doesn't take a rocket scientist to deduce that if anyone ever had half a chance in Hell of changing anything in this country, then the powers that shouldn't be would not let that person anywhere near the Oval Office. The last time this country had a president who tried to change things, that person got his brains blown out in front of the entire country.

Knowing the email scandal wouldn't go away, the Clinton camp needed a big distraction. They recruited a Long-Time New York Liberal and good friend to pose as the opposition. Just look at the pictures online of Trump and the Clintons all cozied-up at Donald's wedding in 2005 or all the pics of Donald and Bill playing golf together. Chelsea Clinton and Ivanka Trump are bffs as well. Two plus two does NOT equal five! Wake up people! You have been duped by your leaders once again.

So I guess it's also just a lark that Trump has changed parties five times since the eighties and donated over half a million to Democrats, including the likes of Rahm Emmanuel and Harry Reid. This is all about having big friends in high places. Trump didn't become a billionaire without making friends like that. That's how the American oligarchy works.

If you look at Trump's politics, what he has supported on the record until suddenly becoming a Republican good ole boy, he doesn't seem like much of a Republican. Considering the Clintons are really just an extension of the Bush camp anyway, there were only going to be two actual choices in this election. You get a Bush or a Clinton, period. These are your dynasty families, America.

The country was bought and sold a long time ago. It's gone. Sorry if the truth hurts, but Donald Trump can't save you from that.

But evil men and imposters will grow worse and worse deceiving and being deceived.

Ian Teaches Aaron

Aaron: "When Jesus spoke of building His church, He spoke of its foundation."

Ian: "Peter had just made the good confession that Christ was the Son of God."

Aaron: "Some say that Peter is the one on whom the church was built"

Ian: "That can't be. Jesus used two different words when speaking. He said 'Your name is Peter (petros), and upon this rock (petra), I will build My church.'"

Aaron: "How is that different?"

Ian: "Peter's name (petros), means a small rock or pebble but the confession Peter made (petra), means a huge stone or boulder. Jesus built His church on Peter's confession." (Matt. 16:18)

Aaron: "I see. That's more reasonable."

When asked what he thinks makes this haunted attraction stand out, owner and designer Vinny Grosso says, "Arx Mortis is the culmination of many ideas. I give credit to the Mortis Legion - a group of as many as 200 people with varied expertise from photographers, actors, artists, builders, IT techs, welders, makeup artists, story tellers, paramedics, firefighters, and many more. It's their passion that breathes life into Arx Mortis."

and runs every weekend through October 31.

For hours and additional information, visit www.ArXMortis.com, or find them on Facebook at www.facebook.com/ArXMortis.

This Halloween night will be a very special Lights-Out version of the normal attraction. Dubbed Flashlight Night by the Arx Mortis legion, visitors enter the attraction in complete darkness and are guided solely by a dimly lit flashlight. Monsters and creepers lurk throughout the complex in search of victims to sustain them until they rise again in February 2017 for the annual My Bloody Valentine event.

Box office opens each night at 7pm and General Admission tickets are $20. Tickets can also be purchased online at www.arxmortis.ticketleap.com. Fast Pass upgrades are available both online and at the door.

The 2016 production of Arx Mortis: The Awakening begins on September 24

DAVE Says

by DAVE RAMSEY

OWING ON COMMERCIAL

Dear Dave,
My husband and I own three commercial buildings in Boise, Idaho, that are leased out long-term. We owe about $500,000 on one and $400,000 on each of the others, and they earn $190,000. The only other debt we have is a small amount left on our mortgage. I know you don't like debt, but is it okay to owe on commercial properties that are making good money?
Dawn

Dear Dawn,
I own several commercial buildings, and I don't owe a dime on any of them. So, I can't tell you that I think it's okay to have debt on commercial buildings. I believe the best plan for building wealth is to become debt-free.

Now, from the situation you've described, that doesn't necessarily mean you guys should be in panic mode and start selling everything in sight. But I do think that you should systematically work your way out from under these debts over the next few years.

If I were in your shoes, I'd go ahead and get the house paid off first. Then, I'd take a look at these commercial properties, and begin working the debt snowball on them. Start throwing as much money as you can at the smallest debt, while making minimum payments on the other two. When you get it paid off, roll that amount over — along with every dime you can dig up — and attack the second largest one. Follow these steps until you pay off all of your commercial properties.

It might take up to 10 years in your case, because we're talking about at least $1.3 million in debt. If you have a bunch of equity in one you don't particularly like, you might consider selling it and throwing the cash at the remaining two. But whatever the timeline, I'd develop a hardcore game plan to get rid of this debt.

Wouldn't it be cool to have all that paid for? Talk about cash flow!

— Dave

SPLIT IT WITH YOU

Dear Dave,
My wife and I are debt-free except for a car and our house. The car is financed through her mom, and her dad agreed to send us half of the payment each month. We owe $7,700 on the car, and we have enough cash right now to pay off the car in full with plenty left over. Should we do this, even though her dad is making $100 of the payment each month?
Dustin

Dear Dustin,
If her father had agreed to send you guys $100 each month, ask him to continue doing that for the duration of the agreement. Then, you guys pay off the car now with your cash. There's nothing dishonest about this, as long as you explain the plan to her parents and they're agreeable.

The reason for this approach is two-fold: it gets the debt paid off, and then you can get the car put in your name. Plus, a situation like this represents drama just looking for a place to happen, if it hasn't already. Family relationships take on a weird vibe when money has been loaned and borrowed.

If they're not agreeable to the idea, that's okay. All you can do is ask. But one way or another, I'd be out of this situation before the sun goes down!

What is a Violation of the Bankruptcy Automatic Stay?

B. Grant McNutt
Managing Attorney

For many of our clients, the automatic stay is the best thing that has happened to them in a long, long time. In fact, in my opinion, there is no other provision of the law that can do more good for an individual more quickly than the automatic stay.

So what is the automatic stay? It is really central to everything we do in bankruptcy. On the day a bankruptcy petition is filed, in fact at the very moment the petition is filed, the bankruptcy court enters an order called an automatic stay. The order is entered pursuant to the provisions of Section 362 of Title 11 of the United States Code. It constitutes a directive by a federal judge to each and every creditor of the consumer to immediately stop any and all collection activities. This means that the creditor(s) must cease collection calls, collection letters, lawsuits, garnishments and even foreclosure proceedings. The practical effect of the automatic stay is of utmost importance to anyone seeking relief from creditor harassment, repossession of personal property or foreclosure of real property.

So what happens if a creditor violates the automatic stay and continues with collection activity when it knows, or should know, that the person from whom it is collecting has filed for bankruptcy? Quite simply, the creditor is in violation of a court order and can be made to pay the person damages. At Bond & Botes, we believe in protecting our clients from abusive creditors and often file complaints against creditors for violating the automatic stay. Frankly, there is little that I do as a bankruptcy attorney that I enjoy more than handing a check to one of my clients from a collector who we have made pay for attempting to collect a debt after a bankruptcy has been filed. Our clients have often been harassed and degraded by these collectors and it can be very uplifting when we make the collector pay money for its wrongful conduct.

Please note as I stated above that it must be shown the collector had knowledge of the bankruptcy filing in order to prove a violation of the automatic stay. It is thus very important that folks seeking bankruptcy protection work closely with their attorney to provide proper names, addresses and account numbers for their creditors. We want to be able to demonstrate that the creditor received notice of the bankruptcy filing. In some instances, a debt is transferred from one collector to another shortly before the bankruptcy filing and collection calls come from someone who was not listed. This does not necessarily stop us from suing the collector for violating the automatic stay. In some cases we can show that the collector should have known about the bankruptcy filing. It is enough if the person who has filed bankruptcy merely tells the collector that he or she has filed bankruptcy. If the collector calls again having been notified of the bankruptcy filing then it is in violation of the automatic stay. In other cases, we can show that the collector subscribes to one of several electronic bankruptcy notification services. If it does and failed to properly check for a bankruptcy filing before attempting to collect from someone in bankruptcy than it may have violated the automatic stay.

At Bond & Botes, our experienced attorneys can help you use the bankruptcy system to bounce back from financial hardships. We offer free initial consultations to help plan your path back to stability. If you need to stop a foreclosure, wage garnishment or lawsuit or need to discharge burdensome debt, etc., we can help you!
