Cancer Survivors Celebrate Hope

Cancer survivors received a Longaberger Coastal Gate Luncheon Tote while attending the fourteenth annual Celebration of Hope Luncheon.

This year's event netted over $4600 for the Danville Cancer Association. In the fourteen years that this event has been held, Souers has donated over $32,000 to help local cancer patients.

Fifty-seven guests were welcomed by the walkway of pink flags and remembering cancer victims.

Dr. Stacy Lahti was the guest speaker on Breast Cancer and Early Detection.

A silent auction was included in the activities as well as recognizing the Longaberger Hostesses for their accomplishments during the year.

Out Of Gas

After finishing an out-of-town errand, I discovered that my car wouldn't start because it was out of gas.

A passer-by told me there was a service station a half-mile away, so I took a gas can from the trunk and trudged the distance in the sweltering sun.

The attendant filled my two-gallon can, and I lugged it back and poured the gas into the tank. But when I tried to unlock the car door, it wouldn't open. Just then, I noticed an identical old car parked a short distance away. That was my car; I had filled a stranger's gas tank.

Warily I walked back to the station. "You know," the attendant suggested helpfully, "instead of walking back and forth to fill the tank from the can, you could put a couple of gallons in the tank and then drive the car here."

Forty-five million Americans are currently living in poverty.

For these families and individuals, a warm coat is a budget extra they simply cannot afford. URW Community Federal is asking for you to help us make a difference in our neighbor's lives by donating coats during our upcoming coat drive! We are working to collect clean, gently used warm coats to support our coat drive program, between now and October 15th at all URW Branches. The process is simple: you drop off your extra coat(s) and URW takes care of the rest. All donated coats will be given to a local agency for distribution to local children in need. If you are a teacher and know of a child in your school that does not have a coat, please let us know. Our goal is that no child will be left out in the cold in the URW Community. ARIES (March 21 to April 19)
You're moving from a relatively stable situation to one that appears to be laced with perplexity. Be patient. You'll eventually get answers to help clear up the confusion around you.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21)
Your self-confidence gets a much-needed big boost as you start to unsnarl that knotty financial problem. Expect some help from a surprising source.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21)
Congratulations. Any lingering negative aftereffects from that not-so-pleasant workplace situation are all but gone. It's time now to focus on the positive.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19)
Your self-confidence grows stronger as you continue to take more control of your life. Arrange for some well-earned fun and relaxation with someone special.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18)
As usual, you've been concerned more about the needs of others than your own. You need to take time for yourself so that you can replenish all that spent energy.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20)
Stronger planetary influences indicate a growing presence of people eager to help you navigate through the rough seas that might mark your career course.

BORN THIS WEEK:
You can balance emotion and logic, which gives you the ability to make choices that are more likely than not to prove successful.

(c) 2016 King Features Synd., Inc.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20)
A vexing situation tempts you to rush to set it all straight. But it's best to let things sort themselves out so that you can get a better picture of the challenge you're facing.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20)
Financial matters could create some confusion, especially with a torrent of advice pouring in from several sources. Resist acting on emotion and wait for the facts to emerge.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22)
That goal you've set is still in sight and is still in reach. Stay with the course that you're on. Making too many shifts in direction now could create another set of problems.

LEO (July 23 to August 22)
It might be time to confront a trouble-making associate and demand some answers. But be prepared for some surprises that could lead you to make a change in some long-standing plans.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22)
Congratulations. You're making great progress in sorting out all that confusion that kept you from making those important decisions. You're on your way now.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22)
A difficult experience begins to ease. That's the good news. The not-so-good news is a possible complication that could prolong the problem awhile longer.

Welcome to Lennox Valley, my hometown!
 Kevin Slimp's

The Good Folks of Lennox Valley

"Evil must be stopped," warns Pinrod

She had considered bringing the subject of the annual Men's Breakfast and Turkey Shoot at First Baptist Church to their attention, but thought better of the idea. After all, what concern of hers was it if men wanted to have a meal together and shoot paper plates? Maybe after a year, the time would be right to address such things before the group.

Father O'Reilly was the first to welcome Sarah as she entered Betsy's Diner on Highway 11, just north of the VFW. The group usually lunched at Betsy's, instead of the Haufbrau, to keep the Baptists and some Methodists from getting upset at their pastors for eating at an establishment that served beer.

Most of lunch was spent discussing the upcoming election, with Father O'Reilly taking a good bit of ribbing for having the only church without a candidate on the ballot.

"Looking at the candidates," quipped the good father, "I'm thinking I should round one up."

Following lunch, the group began their business meeting in the "social room" at Betsy's. The social room was a fancy name for four tables that could be separated from the rest of the diner with an accordion-style folding wall.

There was one item of business on the meeting schedule, a presentation from Vera Pinrod, representing the Auburn Hat Society.

"You might remember," Pinrod began, "earlier this year I brought an item to your attention about a scandalous book being read by many of our children."

Being new to the alliance, Sarah had no idea what book Vera was referring to.

"Harry Potter," continued Pinrod, "might be the most dangerous element to prey upon our youth since Dungeons and Dragons was banned from official school activities in 1987."

Being a fan of Harry Potter, Sarah almost giggled before catching herself.

Vera continued, "I have spoken to both Raymond Cooper and Mayor Bland, and both agree that something must be done about this menace. I'm sure you will give this issue the prayerful consideration it warrants."

Lutheran Pastor Brother Jacob, sitting next to Sarah, leaned over and whispered, "Welcome to Lennox Valley."

(Groff), and grew up in Pittsylvania County and Danville. Her two brothers Ryland Groff and John Clark Groff Jr both of Raleigh, North Carolina predeceased her, leaving her the last descendant of her family line. Her paternal grandparents, Jean H. Graf and Elisa Hirshbrunner Graf, and their family, emigrated from Switzerland to Pittsylvania County in 1871 and farmed at White Oak Mountain. Her maternal grandparents were Judson Lewis and Mary Ella Davis (Lewis) also of the county.

Survivors include her three children: Larry Aaron with wife Nancy, Connie Baldwin with husband Ron, and Bonnie Elliott. Her grandchildren include Lori Cramton, Christi Wright, John Aaron, Matthew Gosnell with his wife Jennifer, and Michael Gosnell with his wife Barbara. Her great grandchildren are Kayla Cramton, Alexa Wright, Noah Wright, Lauren Gosnell, Caleb Gosnell, Tara Amos and her husband Blake, with step-grandchildren Darren Majerick, Amber Reagan, Allen Reagan and Ashley Agee. She is also survived by a great, great, grandson, Liam Amos. Her dear companion for the last decade was her cat Tinkerbell, which she rescued from abandonment and hunger on a cold winter day. Other family related members include Colleen Wright, Linda Snead, Edna Aaron, and Iris Hundley. Among her surviving close friends over the years were Irene Adams, Vickie Wilson, Rita Brooks, Joan Stone, and June Brumfield, her childhood friend and sister in spirit.

She was the rock of the family, a humble, unselfish person, who tried to be nice to all she met and make them feel welcome in her presence. She loved history, reading her Bible, working crossword puzzles, sewing, and especially cooking. One of the great loves of her life were flowers and the family welcomes flowers for her funeral service, which will be held on Saturday October 1 at Wrenn-Yeatts Funeral Home on route 58 West, Danville, VA. Visitation will begin at 11 a.m. with the service at 12 p.m. conducted by her son, the Reverend Doctor Larry Aaron. Burial will follow the service in Highland Burial Park.

At other times the family will be available at her home, 9144 Martinsville Highway, Route 58 West. Wrenn-Yeatts Westover Chapel is respectfully serving the Aaron family.

Pleasant C. "P.C." Shields

Shields, Pleasant C. "P.C.," of Richmond, died September 25, 2016. P.C. was born July 12, 1917, at Dry Fork, Va. He was the son of the late W. Haile and Lucy C. Shields. In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his wife of 74 years, Hazel Parrott Shields; sisters, Minnie Shields Harris and Elizabeth Shields Davis; niece, Diane Harrison Lawrence Faust; and nephew, Kennon Poteat Jr. Survivors include nieces, Dr. Bettie Anne Davis and her husband, Dr. Matt Fisher of Greensburg, Pa. and Faye Poteat of Danville, Va.; great-niece, Carrie Lawrence and her fiancé, Cody Daniel Thomas of Winston Salem, N.C.; great-nephew, Kennon Poteat III and his wife, Julie Wilson of Washington, D.C.; and other nieces and nephews.

He attended the public schools in his native county, graduating from Spring Garden High School in 1935. He entered Virginia Tech in the fall of 1935, graduating in June 1939. Shields was a longtime supporter of both academics and athletics at his alma mater. Upon graduation from Tech, he accepted a position with a school program in his native county, teaching high school from 1939 to 1941 before volunteering for the Army in June 1941, under the Army One Year Program in effect at the time. Pearl Harbor erased the One Year Program and as a result, he served from June 1941 until October 1945. Serving with the famed Fifth Armored Division, the first troops to fight on German soil in the ETO, he was released from active duty as Chief Warrant Officer W-2, having been awarded the Purple Heart, the Bronze Star, the Combat Infantry Badge, five Battle Stars and numerous lesser awards.

On release from active duty, he joined the Army Reserves Program, retiring from the same in 1977 as Chief Warrant Officer W-4. After 36 years of service, active and reserve, he was awarded the Army Meritorious Service Medal. In October 1945, he returned to the Pittsylvania County School System, teaching at Brosville High School. In June 1946, he was appointed a probation/parole officer and assigned the Danville District Office. In February 1948, he was appointed as an area supervisor and transferred to the Parole Board Central Office in Richmond.

In July 1950, he was appointed executive secretary of the Board, serving in that capacity until April 1962, when he was appointed to the (then three-member) Parole Board by the late Governor Harrison. He served for 20-plus years on the Parole Board, with the last 10 years as chairman, having been appointed by then-Governor Holton. Shields enjoyed appointments by both Democratic and Republican governors. On retirement from the Board in 1982, he accepted the position of chief lobbyist for the Virginia Governmental Employee Association (VGEA). On retirement from there, he was recognized by the General Assembly of Virginia in their joint resolution #867 on "51 years service to the Commonwealth and its employees."

A lifelong Methodist, he was quite active in the Lay Program, serving one church for 12 years as Lay leader and in other capacities, including teaching in the Sunday school program some 30-plus years. He and his wife became members of Reveille United Methodist Church in 1999, where he continued to be active in church programs. Active in religious, fraternal and civic affairs, he served as a member and President of VGEA, a member and past president of Southern States Correctional Association, past commander of the former American Legion Post 250, past president of the National Compact Administrators Association, a member of Carter Lodge No. 323 A.F. & A.M., a member and past president of the Richmond SERTOMA Club and a member of the Virginia and American Correctional Associations.

A funeral service will be held at 2 p.m. Thursday, September 29, at the Central Chapel of Bennett Funeral Home, 3215 Cutshaw Ave., with the family receiving friends 1 hour prior to the service. On Friday, September 30, the family will receive friends from 11 a.m. to noon at Townes Funeral Home, 215 W. Main St., Danville. A private graveside service will follow in Highland Burial Park, Danville. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the Samaritan Fund or the Employee Fund at The Hermitage, 1600 Westwood Ave., Richmond, Va. 23227, where he and his wife received tender, loving care and support in the sunset of life since 2004. As Dizzy Dean said, "If you dunit, it aint braggin. I dunit." Townes Funeral Home and Crematory, 215 West Main Street is serving the Shields family.

"Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted."

VA Spends Big To Speed Disability Exam Claims

The Department of Veterans Affairs has just announced the awarding of $6.8 billion in contracts to improve the Medical Disability Examination process and get veterans' disability claims handed more quickly. Let's look at the five companies it chose: --VetFed Resources, Inc., Virginia, a veteran-owned small business. --Logistics Health, Inc., Wisconsin, has a national network of "medical, dental and behavioral health providers" that offer annual physical exams and periodic health assessments. --Medical Support Los Angeles has dozens of clinics scattered around three states. --QTC Medical Services, Inc., California, appears to have a full complement of medical associates in seven big-city locations and has done exams since 2000. --Veterans Evaluation Services, Inc., Texas, is another veteran-owned company. A thumbs-up to the VA for expanding services to get the disability claims handled faster. However, anyone can build a website and say anything on it, as well as skew facts on an application. One way to evaluate a company is to check the employer review sites on the Internet. You'll find both positive and negative reviews anywhere you look, but the devil is always in the details. Sometimes employees make small comments that add up ... Another source of information is in patient complaints. I wonder if anyone considered any of these sources of information when they were awarding contracts, or if they only stuck to the applications in front of them. It's also disturbing when two of the awardees file a protest with the Government Accountability Office against the others saying that the agency "miscalculated proposals, engaged in misleading discussions" and more in handing out the contracts. In wading through the very long decision documents, with the names of 28 attorneys at the top, it's hard to see how all the legalese and finger pointing will translate into actual veteran care and medical disability evaluations.

SENIOR NEWS LINE

Thinking of Going Back to Work?

If you've considered going back to work, either for financial reasons or to have something to do, there are a number of jobs that might be right for you.
* Online auctions: Set up an online-auction account to sell the treasures you find at weekend yard sales ... or even those items taking up space in your own home. Search eBay for how-to tutorials.
* Transportation: Consider signing up as a part-time driver in your town's taxi service or as an Uber driver.
* Education: Is there a subject you can teach (anything from math to crafts), perhaps through adult education?
* Call center: There can be hundreds of workers in a call center, and many of them are seniors. The work is easy (you'll be sitting down), and you'll no doubt have an edge over the younger workers who don't have as much life experience in dealing with callers.
* Consultant: A lifetime of working has taught you something, and what you know may have great value to those who are just starting.

* Local knowledge: If you're in a high-tourist area, sign up as a tour guide.
* Tutor: You can earn a decent hourly rate for privately tutoring children in their homes, or as a teacher's aide in schools.
* Sports coach, or umpire or referee for schools or leagues: You're paid by the season, broken down into a per-game fee. The money isn't bad, especially if you like sports.
* Conventions: If you sign up with a convention-center event company, the possibilities are great: ticket sales, food prep, flower arranging, coffee service and much more. Once you get set up with a convention center, you can expect callbacks for future events.
* Bookkeeping: Handle the monthly finances for small businesses that can't afford a CPA.
The best scenario would be to mix and match, to keep a variety of jobs going at once!

FLASHBACK

POP ROCK & SOUL TRIVIA BY HARPER

1. What is Lynyrd Skynyrd's longest song?
2. In which Bill Withers song does he hold a note near the end for nearly 18 seconds?
3. What did Barry McGuire do after he stopped writing anti-war protest songs?
4. Who released "What Will My Mary Say?" and when?
5. Name the song that contains this lyric: "But a little gold ring you wear on your hand makes me understand, There's another before me, you'll never be mine."

Answers

1. "Free Bird," at nine minutes on the album version. The song often ran over 14 minutes in concert.
2. "Lovely Day," released in 1977. It's thought to be the longest sustained note in U.S. Top 40 music.
3. McGuire turned to contemporary Christian music, where he is today. His 1965 "Eve of Destruction" lyrics have been updated. The original version was a rough cut that wasn't finished.
4. Johnny Mathis, in 1963.
5. "Midnight Confessions," by the Grass Roots, in 1968. The lyrics tell of a man's love for a married woman he can't have, possibly with a nod to the Reverend's love for Hester Prynne in Hawthorne's "The Scarlet Letter," one of dozens of such instances in film and music.

It's Festival Time in Danville's River District!
Thursday, October 13 to Sunday, October 16

River District Festival, Inc. is proud to present the 6th annual River District Festival - a four-day festival from Thursday to Sunday with a headline concert on Saturday night, October 15 - all in Danville's River District!

Visit Main and Union Streets on Thursday, October 13. Starting at 4:30 pm, unique and interesting artists, musicians, merchant specials and gallery openings are up and down the streets with Urban Line Dance on Union Street at 5:30 pm. After dancing in the street, head to the Coors Light Beer Garden for food, beverages and music with DJ Adam T until 9:30 pm. Runners own Friday night with the annual Glow with the Flow 5K starting at 7:15 pm. Bring family and friends down to Main Street Plaza to cheer your favorite runners while eating a burger and listening to music. After the race, the fun continues at Averett's Hometown Party at the Crossing for those over 21.

Saturday is packed with races, arts, crafts, vendors, music, education and more! Danville's Half Marathon takes off at 8 a.m. from Main Street Plaza. Showcase Alley runs until 5 pm on Bridge Street with stations that include International features, community organizations, regional vendors, local music and dancing, Hot Asana Yoga demonstrations, crafts and fine art. Want to know about science and the river, check out education areas with boating experts from Game & Inland Fisheries, River Science with Dan River Basin Association, hands-on experiments with Danville Science Center and IALR, 3D Printing from Danville Community College and exploration stations with the Pittsylvania County Library. Catch a trolley ride running 10 am and 2 pm to and from Craghead Street to the YMCA for more entertainment and to check out the Kids' Triathlon starting at 10 am. And that's not all! Head into Newton's Landing for the River District Car & Bike Show to admire some slick rides.

The Festival's 2016 Coors Light Concert featuring SWV is a can't miss event at the Carrington Pavilion with gates opening at 6 pm. DJ T-Luv works the crowd opening the stage with his own special style. Uptown Swagga Gogo Band steps on stage at 6:30 pm followed by Natural Wonder Stevie Wonder tribute band; while the sultry harmonies of SWV take over at 9 pm. A first for the Festival, The River District Choir Extravaganza, will raise spirits and inspire community unity on Sunday from 3 to 6 pm at the Carrington Pavilion. Several local choirs are featured along with Bishop Shantae Younger & Ramp Worship choir from Lynchburg.

River District Festival is a community-based event with some free and some fee components. For detailed information, visit www.riverdistrictfestival.org and follow us on Facebook!

Shorter Teapot

Q: I have inherited a teapot that is marked "Shorter & Son LTD/ Stoke-On-Trent/Made in Great Britain." It is very colorful and in excellent condition. What can you tell me about the Shorter Company, and how much do you think my teapot is worth? -- Audrey, Grand Junction, Colorado

A: Arthur Shorter opened his ceramic workshop in Hanley in about 1874. Several years later he established a partnership with James Bolton and together they began producing majolica. During the 1930s, the company made novelty pieces that used bright, vivid colors and interesting designs. Mabel Leigh was one of the artists, and her work has become quite collectible.

Your teapot is probably slip-cast and an example of earthenware. According to "Bergesen's Price Guide of British Ceramics," teapots such yours are valued in the $75 to $150 range depending, of course, on the design and condition.

Q: I purchased a windup music statue of Mary that is white with gold trim. It plays "Ave Maria" and was made by the Franklin Mint. I paid $25 for it, and wonder if I got a bargain. -- Dan, Bethalto, Illinois

A: It is a bargain if you are pleased with the purchase, but don't plan on paying off the mortgage on your house because of its value. Most of the items made by Franklin Mint are what I call "instant collectibles" and difficult to sell on the secondary market. In my opinion, buying instant collectibles as an investment is a bad idea. Test what I have just written by taking your music box to antique and consignments shops in your region to see if there is any interest. Don't get me started about collector plates.

Q: I bought a book titled "How Private George W. Peck Put Down the Rebellion." It is medium condition. Is it worth anything? -- Sylvia, Thurman, Ohio

A: Since you provided me with partial information --- leaving out such vital facts as the name of the publisher --- I will give you a partial answer. I found dozens of copies of this book, mostly for less than $20 each, at www.abe.com. If your copy is a genuine first edition, it would, of course, be worth more.

* "Whenever I need to remember to bring something with me for the next day (e.g., my lunch, important papers, school notes) I write it on a Post-it note and stick it on the door leading outside. If I have the item, I take the note down. Sometimes I write the day of the week, if I need different things on different days." -- A.M. in Florida

* Taco Tuesday was never so easy! Slip hard taco shells over the rack in your oven so that they hang open-side down. Use tongs to remove when they are sufficiently warm. Now you don't have to argue about how to arrange them on a cookie sheet to keep them from closing up.

* "If you have a muddy boot problem like mine, then get a couple cookie sheets and set them by the door. The boots go on the cookie sheets, and the mud doesn't get tracked into the house." -- A reader in New Jersey

* If you have an old rake that the handle has broken off of, you can repurpose it on your wall. Hang dog leashes, necklaces, a set of wrenches, anything really. Mount to the wall with nails so that the tines of the rake face out from the wall. Instant hanger!

* To make your dry-erase markers more convenient, simply tape small kitchen magnets to them with ordinary gift-wrap tape. Make sure the side of the magnet that is attracted to the refrigerator is facing out!

* Now is the time to raid your kids' dress-up stash for Halloween ideas. Don't overlook accessories that can make a great costume addition for adults, too. Doctor's kits, pirate eyepatches and hats ... perhaps a tutu, too?

"Community Pharmacy Downtown Convenience"

Strange BUT TRUE

By Samantha Weaver

* It was farmer and author Wendell Berry who made the following sage observation: "Do unto those downstream as you would have those upstream do unto you."

* Those who study such things say that size does matter -- at least to proboscis monkeys. It seems that among these primates, females show a significant preference for males with larger noses.

* If you've ever been to a major sporting event, or even watched one on TV, you've seen costumed characters representing schools and sports teams. However, unless you've been to Japan, you don't understand mascots' true potential. There, the mascot industrial complex is so large that in 2015, the Finance Ministry launched a campaign to reduce spending by cutting the number of unnecessary mascots in the country. According to one estimate, there are 10,000 mascots employed by the government alone. Some examples: Prince Pickles and Princess Parsley represent the Defense Ministry; Wakayama Prison is represented by Waka-P, a bright orange creature with a huge head; and Toilet-kun, who has a toilet-seat lid for a face, is the mascot for City of Yokohama's waste recycling bureau.

* Have you ever wondered why the green room -- the waiting area just offstage where actors stand-by before and after stage appearances -- is green? Well, evidently it's believed that the color green is soothing to eyes that have been exposed to the glare of stage lights.

* The game of billiards first appeared in the New World in St. Augustine, Florida, the oldest continuously occupied European settlement in the contiguous United States. It was in 1565 that Spanish explorers started playing the game here.

* Rabbits are well-known as magicians' preferred animal when performing, but have you ever wondered why? It's because rabbits tend to stay calm and quiet when handled rather than becoming agitated and noisy.

Thought for the Day: "Contentment is, after all, simply refined indolence." -- Thomas Chandler Haliburton

Roasted Vegetable Croustade

- To Roast the Vegetables:
- 1 cup olive oil, divided
 - 3 red potatoes, scrubbed and quartered
 - 2 yellow squash, sliced into 1/2-inch-thick slices
 - 10 Brussels sprouts, halved
 - 4 green onions, root ends removed
 - 1 large carrot, cut into 1/2-inch pieces
 - 2 celery roots, peeled, trimmed and cut into 1/2-inch pieces
 - 1 large head of garlic, separated into cloves, smashed and peeled
 - 1 teaspoon salt
 - 1 teaspoon black pepper
 - 2 tablespoons Italian seasoning
 - 1/4 teaspoon sugar

1. Heat the oven to 400 F. Pour 1/2 cup of the olive oil on a large sheet pan or jelly-roll pan, 15 1/2 by 10 1/2 by 1 inch, coating pan with the oil. Place pan in oven to heat for 5 minutes, watching carefully to make sure it doesn't overheat or smoke.
2. In a large bowl, mix together the remaining 1/2 cup of oil, the potatoes, squash, Brussels sprouts, green onions, carrot, celery roots, garlic, salt, pepper, Italian seasoning and sugar until the vegetables are coated. Carefully place vegetables on the heated pan and roast for 15 to 20 minutes, stirring once after 10 minutes. Allow vegetables to cool before mixing with the tofu cream filling.

- To Make the Tofu Cream Filling:
- 1 container (4 ounces) light whipped cream cheese
 - 4 ounces soft, silken tofu, drained
 - 1/2 cup Parmesan cheese
 - 1/2 cup light mayonnaise
 - 1 tablespoon Italian seasoning
 - 1/2 teaspoon salt
 - 1/2 teaspoon black pepper

In a large bowl, mix together the whipped cream cheese, tofu, Parmesan, mayonnaise, Italian seasoning, salt and pepper until smooth. Refrigerate for 30 minutes to blend flavors. Mix the cooled, roasted vegetables with the tofu cream filling until well-blended.

- To Make the Croustade:
- 1 sheet frozen puff pastry, thawed
 - 1 egg
 - 1 tablespoon water

1. Thaw pastry sheet at room temperature for 40 minutes. The oven should already be heated to 400 F if the vegetables were roasted in it, or preheat oven as needed.
2. Unfold puff pastry on lightly floured surface. Roll pastry into 16-by-12-inch rectangle. Using butter- or olive oil-flavored cooking spray, lightly spray a shallow, round casserole dish or a round baking dish. Place sheets of parchment paper or pieces of foil inside bowl with strips overlapping the edges to make the croustade easier to remove. Lightly spray the parchment or foil.
3. Place pastry in casserole dish or baking dish with pastry edges overlapping the sides. Mound vegetable cream-cheese mixture in center of the pastry. Leaving an opening in the center, fold the pastry edges around the filling, crimping edges under to form a bowl. In a small bowl, mix together egg and water to make an egg wash. Brush pastry with egg mixture. Bake the croustade 20 to 30 minutes or until the pastry is golden brown. To serve, allow to cool for 10 minutes. Using a spatula, gently loosen croustade from the baking dish or pan using the sheets of parchment or foil to help move it on to a serving dish. Serve warm or at room temperature.

THEY'LL BE HERE FOR ANOTHER 4,500 YEARS!

HIDDEN IN THE ABOVE FRAME is a famous proverb. Find it by reading every other letter as you go around it counterclockwise. The trick is finding the right first letter.

Answer: Starting with the "W" in the bottom rail: "Wonders will never cease."

A COIN CONUNDRUM! Jimmy has a bag that contains 50 coins. The total value of these coins is $1. Can you tell how many quarters, dimes, nickels and pennies are in the bag?

- Answer: 1 quarter, 2 dimes, 2 nickels and 45 pennies. (.25 + .20 + .10 + .05 = 1.00).
- THE "C" PYRAMID! As you move down the word pyramid shown, each word contains the same letters as the word above it, plus a new letter. Here are some hints from the top down:
1. Roman numeral for 100.
 2. Symbol for calcium.
 3. A metal container.
 4. Peruvian native.
 5. Making a hole in one.
 6. Type of chair repair
 7. Moving rhythmically.
 8. Examining eggs for freshness.

THIS WEEK'S FARM FRESH RECIPES

Lemon Pepper Grilled Chicken with Tomato Basil Relish
Ingredients

- 1 lb. Boneless Skinless Chicken Breast
- 3 Fresh Basil Leaves
- 1 Tomato
- 1/2 Red Onion
- 3 Teaspoon Olive Oil
- Lemon Pepper Seasoning

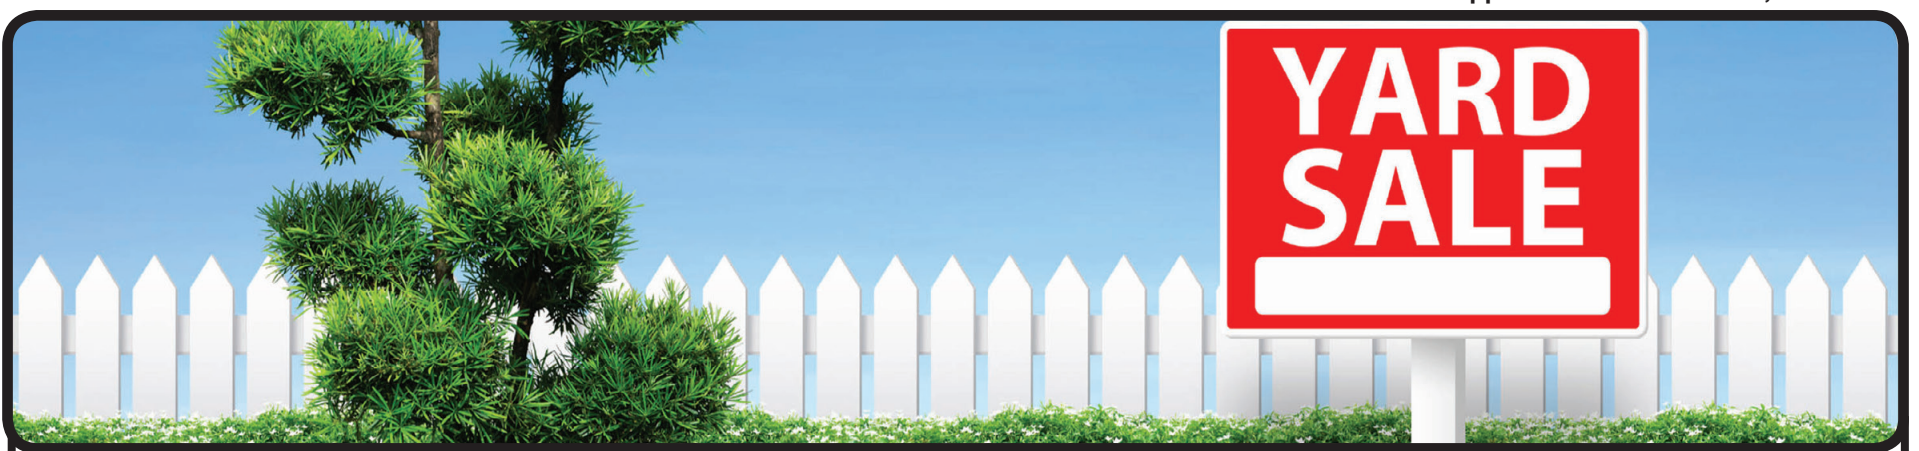

Directions
Heavily season and sear chicken breast. While chicken is cooking on the grill, dice the tomatoes and red onions in 1/4 inch cubes. Chiffonade basil and toss with olive oil, tomatoes, and onions to make a light relish. Use this topping over the grilled chicken to create an exceptional meal for the summer to fall transition.

Honey Baked Apple Sausage Balls
Ingredients

- 1/2 lb. Ground Sausage of Choice
- 1 Fresh Apple
- 1/8 Cup Honey
- 1/2 Cup Cracker or Thick Bread Crumbs
- 2 Eggs
- Salt and Pepper to Taste

Directions
Dice apple in 1/4 inch cubes. Toss apples with honey and spread on heavily greased baking sheet pan. Cook at 350 degrees for 12 minutes. In a mixing bowl combine these apples with the rest of the ingredients and mix thoroughly. Now roll this mixture into small meatballs and bake for 20 minutes at 350 degrees. This super easy recipe can be served as breakfast or a delicious snack.
