11 Critical Home Inspection Traps to be Aware of Weeks Before Listing Your Home for Sale

Home Owners - According to industry experts, there are over 33 physical problems that will come under scrutiny during a home inspection when your home is for sale. A new report has been prepared which identifies the eleven most common of these problems, and what you should know about them before you list your home for sale.

Whether you own an old home or a brand new one, there are a number of things that can fall short of requirements during a home inspection. If not identified and dealt with, any of these 11 items could cost you dearly in terms of repair. That's why it's critical that you read this report before you list your home. If you wait until the building inspector flags these issues for you, you will almost certainly experience costly delays in the close of your home sale or, worse, turn prospective buyers away altogether. In most cases, you can make a reasonable pre-inspection yourself if you know what you're looking for, and knowing what you're looking for can help you prevent little problems from growing into costly and unmanageable ones.

To help home sellers deal with this issue before their homes are listed, a free report entitled "11 Things You Need to Know to Pass Your Home Inspection" has been compiled which explains the issues involved.

To hear a brief recorded message about how to order your FREE copy of this report, call toll-free 1-800-238-4613 and enter 1003. You can call any time, 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.

Get your free special report NOW to learn how to ensure a home inspection doesn't cost you the sale of your home.

Is It Time To Replace Your Home Comfort System?

(NAPS)—As a home comfort system ages, repairs to the system can become more frequent and expensive. As a result, you might ask yourself whether it makes more sense to repair the system or invest in new, more efficient equipment. Having a conversation with your contractor and asking the following questions can help you make an informed decision:

1. How long should my home comfort system last?

Industry averages suggest a home comfort system should last between 12 and 15 years, as long as you have a qualified technician perform regular preventive maintenance and service.

2. In addition to the age of my system, what things might indicate it's time to replace my system?

- Your equipment needs frequent repairs.
- Your energy bills are going up.
- Some rooms in your home are too hot or too cold.
- Your system is noisy.
- Your home has humidity problems.
- Your home has excessive dust.
- You have to leave your thermostat set at one constant temperature.

3. In the case of a repair, why is it important to match components?

Repairs that require the replacement of system components, particularly on older equipment, may result in a mismatched system. Components that do not match can decrease system efficiency, compromise your comfort and shorten the life span of the compressor. Therefore, it's important to know the full impact of a repair and which components will be affected.

4. What benefits can a new system offer?

Today's ENERGY STAR®—(a U.S. Environmental Protection Agency program) qualified systems are as much as 60 percent more efficient than 10-year-old equipment. In addition to improved efficiency, new systems offer a variety of features that your current system may not have, including two-stage cooling, dehumidifiers, humidifiers and ultraviolet lights that can increase comfort and improve your home's indoor air quality.

A new home comfort system may save you time and trouble.

5. What is the efficiency rating of a new system?

When it comes to cooling, air conditioners and heat pumps are rated according to the seasonal energy efficiency ratio (SEER). The efficiency of a fuel-burning furnace is expressed as the annual fuel utilization efficiency (AFUE), and heat pump efficiency is expressed as the unit's heating seasonal performance factor (HSPF). Generally speaking, a higher AFUE, SEER or HSPF means increased efficiency and reduced operating expenses. So if you are concerned about utility bills and are faced with an expensive repair, you may want to look at the energy savings that a new system will offer.

6. If I'm planning to move within a year, does it make sense to replace my system?

If your system is still working and you are planning to move, talk with your real estate agent to discuss the pros and cons of repairing your existing system or installing a new system before placing your home on the market.

Your HVAC contractor can help you with these questions and others you might have. To locate a Coleman HVAC contractor near you, please visit www.colemanac.com and follow it on www.youtube.com/ColemanHomeComfort and @ColemanHVAC on Twitter.

The Garden Bug

Witch hazel

Wild witch hazel (Hamamelis virginiana) waits until late September or October to unfurl its fragrant yellow flowers. Short-stalked, with narrow, strap-shaped petals, the blossoms nestle in the axils of the leaves, to be followed later by woody pods, each containing two seeds. The seeds don't ripen until the following summer, when they burst out of their pods so explosively that the shrub is also called "snapping hazelnut."

The Artful Dodger

This has been a season of losses. Muhammad Ali, Gordie Howe, Arnold Palmer ... icons, idols and champions measured on a mythical scale that can never be tipped. But for every great player, there has been an equally masterful play-caller broadcasting their every move. They are the ones who paint the vivid, indelible pictures of their exploits into our minds and weave each significant moment into the fabric of time.

They are the men and women who make calling singular moments of a game into their life's calling. When Bobby Thompson hit one out of the Polo Grounds to send the New York Giants to the postseason, it wasn't a mere home run, it was "the shot heard 'round the world" that saw "The Giants win the pennant! The Giants win the pennant! The Giants win the pennant!" When George Foreman jacked up the champ, the moment was described as "Down Goes Frazier! Down goes Frazier!"

Would anyone remember Bobby Thompson, a lifetime .270 hitter, if Russ Hodges hadn't made that call? Would Foreman be the wrecking machine Ali used to shock the world with his "rope-a-dope" if Cosell didn't set the scene? Would you remember who won the 1980 gold medal in hockey had Al Michaels not been there to ask if you believed in miracles?

In California, residents and sports fans have a peculiar sadness to deal with, for they have lost not one, but two broadcasting legends on the very same day — Vin Scully and Dick Enberg — yet both are still alive.

Lightning is three times hotter than the sun.

Enberg not only did wonderful play-by-play for the Padres, he was the happy yet dignified play caller, the one who exclaimed "Oh my!" for every great shot at Wimbledon for decades. For fans in Los Angeles — and really, for all baseball fans — the loss of Scully is particularly painful. Nobody called a game better than Scully, and it's unlikely anyone ever will again.

For anyone under the age of 67, his was the only voice they heard broadcasting Dodger games. His genuine warmth and ability to make every game seem special had to be heard to be believed. Maybe that's why his final sign off was enough to bring tears to adults everywhere:

"You know friends, so many people have wished me congratulations on a 67-year career in baseball, and they wished me a wonderful retirement with my family, and now, all I can do is tell you what I wish for you.

*May God give you ...
For every storm, a rainbow,
For every tear, a smile,
For every care, a promise,
And a blessing in each trial.
For every problem life sends,
A faithful friend to share,
For every sigh, a sweet song,
And an answer for each prayer.*

"You and I have been friends for a long time, but I know in my heart I've always needed you more than you've ever needed me. And I'll miss our time together more than I can say. But you know what? There will be a new day and, eventually, a new year. And when the upcoming winter gives way to spring, rest assured, once again, it will be time for Dodger baseball.

"So this is Vin Scully, wishing you a very pleasant good afternoon — wherever you may be."

Goodbye Vin, you were the true artful Dodger.

Mark Vasto is a veteran sportswriter who lives in New Jersey.

THE HISTORY CHANNEL

• On Oct. 30, 1864, the town of Helena, Montana, is founded by four gold miners who strike it rich at the "Last Chance Gulch." Eventually, Last Chance Gulch would prove to be the second biggest gold deposit in Montana.

• On Oct. 26, 1881, in a shootout that lasts all of 30 seconds, the Earp brothers face off against the Clanton-McLaury gang in a legendary shootout at the OK Corral in Tombstone, Arizona. The Earps and Doc Holliday were charged with murder, but a Tombstone judge acquitted them.

• On Oct. 24, 1931, the six-lane George Washington Bridge over the Hudson River between New York and New Jersey is dedicated. In 1946 two more lanes were built, and in 1958 six lower-level lanes were added. Today the bridge carries 106 million cars per year.

• On Oct. 29, 1948, killer smog hovers over Donora, Pennsylvania, trapping the sulphuric acid, carbon monoxide and other pollutants released by steel mills and a zinc smelting plant. By the time rain washed the air, 20 people had perished and thousands were ill.

• On Oct. 27, 1970, Andrew Lloyd Webber and Tim Rice released a double-LP "concept" album called "Jesus Christ Superstar" after they were unable to find financial backing for a stage production due to the nature of the story.

• On Oct. 25, 1983, President Ronald Reagan, citing the threat posed to Americans in Grenada, orders the Marines to invade. Nearly 1,000 Americans were on the island, many of them students at a medical school. In a week, Grenada's government was overthrown.

• On Oct. 28, 1998, President Bill Clinton signs into law the Digital Millennium Copyright Act. The DMCA explicitly authorized copyright holders to issue "takedown" notices to individuals or companies believed to be engaging in infringing use of a copyrighted work.

Red Cabbage a Staple During Oktoberfest

Certain foods remind me of fall. A tray of beautiful red cabbages with a hint of purple and blue on their ruffled leaves resembles a bouquet of flowers. Raw red cabbage is a flavorful addition to salads, or it can be slow-cooked to sweet perfection as a side dish.

One of my favorite recipes for red cabbage comes from award-winning cooking instructor Rick Rodgers’s cookbook “Autumn Gatherings: Casual Food to Enjoy With Family and Friends” (Morrow Cookbooks). Featuring red cabbage, sausages and apples, it’s a classic example of German cooking and celebrates the bounty of the season. Rodgers says that he “learned early in my cooking life not to try and rush the cabbage, as it needs plenty of time to soften into the melting mass of sweet and sour ingredients that makes it so unique, and becomes the perfect place to cook your favorite sausages.”

The apples and apple juice enhance the sweetness of the cabbage, and the vinegar preserves its color. The flavors of the dish intensify the next day, so if possible, prepare the cabbage ahead of time. Nestle the sausages in the pot, let them cook while the cabbage is re-heating, and enjoy the flavors of fall!

—Eric Hoffer

- 6 slices thick-sliced bacon, coarsely chopped
- 1 large onion, thinly sliced
- 2 Golden Delicious apples, peeled, cored and cut into 1/4 inch-thick wedges
- 1 (2½-pound) head red cabbage, cut into wedges, core removed and thinly sliced
- 1½ cups apple juice
- 1/3 cup cider vinegar
- 1/2 cup packed light brown sugar
- 1/2 teaspoon dried thyme
- 1 bay leaf
- Salt and freshly ground black pepper
- 12 assorted sausages, such as bratwurst, Weisswurst, hot links and knockwurst, pricked with a fork

until crisp and browned, about 8 minutes. Using a slotted spoon, transfer to paper towels to drain, leaving the fat in the pan.

2. Add the onion and cook, stirring often, until golden, about 10 minutes.
Transfer to a bowl.

3. Add remaining 2 tablespoons oil to the Dutch oven and heat until hot but not smoking. Add the apples and cook, stirring often, until lightly browned, about 3 minutes. Add the cabbage, apple juice, vinegar, brown sugar, thyme and bay leaf,
and stir well to coat the cabbage.
(The vinegar helps the cabbage hold its color.) Bring to a boil over high heat. Reduce heat to medium-low and cover. Simmer, stirring occasionally, until the cabbage is tender, about 1 1/2 hours. Season with salt and pepper to taste.

4. Bury the sausages in the cabbage and cover. Cook until they are heated through, about 12 minutes. Using a slotted spoon, transfer the cabbage and sausages to a large serving bowl, removing the bay leaf, and tent with aluminum foil. Bring the cooking liquid in the pot to a boil over high heat and cook, stirring often, until reduced to about 1/2 cup, about 5 minutes. Pour over the cabbage and sausages and serve hot. Makes 6 servings.

SEWING PROJECT TO HELP FOSTER KIDS IN RI
Organizers of The Sewing Project to Help Foster Kids are looking for volunteers to sew kid-friendly pillowcase bags for foster children. When a child is taken from a home that has been deemed unsafe by DCYF (Dept. of Children, Youth & Families), the child may take only a small amount of toys, clothes, and personal belongings. Many times, DCYF workers just don't have enough suitcases to use, so when a child arrives at a Crisis Center, Group Home or Foster Home, many times they arrive with literally 1 or 2 large black trash bags full of personal items. Let's change that! This is an ongoing project. Work at your own pace. For more information, contact Hollie at 385-9876 or holliegal@verizon.net

Sherry Roberts is Double Dipping With Your Tax Dollars

Dip 1 – At the young age of 37, Sherry Roberts tried multiple times to get a disability pension for her state job as a “typist” and finally “won” her disability pension 3 years later, costing taxpayers more than $500,000 over the life of her pension!*

Dip 2 – Despite her “disability” as a “typist,” Sherry is able to “type” on the State House computers and has been paid over $30,000 as a State Representative.

The Sherry on Top – Sherry loves to file lawsuits. In one of them, she demanded a private disability pension in addition to her taxpayer-funded pension. The case was dismissed when it emerged that she “misrepresented and concealed information” on her insurance application.†

Say NO to Sherry Roberts.
She CANNOT be trusted with your tax dollars.

HOLLYWOOD

by Tony Rizzo

whom I have always supported, sorry last tweet offended. An idle musing. I seem to have misread the temper of the times." That apology didn't satisfy or convince some Twitter haters. I've spent time with Bette and all she was trying to do was to say something funny, but you can't please all the people all the time, so why try?

Now that we've recovered from the news that Brad Pitt and Angelina Jolie are calling it quits (which the tabloids have been screaming for months; well, they have to be right once in a while), and we know she wants the kids, how will they settle the financials? She's worth $160 million and he's worth $240 million. Alimony for a wife (who doesn't want to work so she can concentrate on her charity work) and child support for six kids is going to put a big dent in his fortune! Revenge is best served chilled ... right, Jenn?

Salome's Stars

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) Mars, your ruling planet, begins a journey that will open up a growing number of possibilities. Put that surging Arian energy to good use and explore it to your heart's content.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) This is the time to prepare for a career move coming up next month. Update your resume. Get those proposals in shape. And don't forget to buff up that Bovine self-confidence.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) Your Gemini instincts will guide you to the right people who might be able to help you get over that career impasse that has been holding you back. Expect to make changes.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) You're getting closer, but you still have a ways to go before reaching your goals. Continue to stay focused, no matter how difficult it can be for the easily distracted Moon Child.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) Your Leonine pride might be keeping you from getting to the source of a disturbing situation. Don't be shy about asking questions. Remember: Information is power.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) It's a good time to shake up your tidy little world by doing something spontaneous, like taking an unplanned trip or going on a mad shopping spree.

Oktoberfest Feast

This quick recipe is much easier than a trip to Germany, and just as tasty.

- 12 ounce kielbasa, sliced
- 1 1/2 cup sauerkraut
- 1 small red onion, cut into wedges
- 1 apple, cored and sliced
- 2 teaspoons caraway seeds
- 1/4 cup beer
- Rye toast
- Spicy mustard

1. Toss together kielbasa, sauerkraut, red onion, apple and caraway seeds. Divide among 4 large foil sheets; pour beer over each.

2. Crimp edges to seal packets; grill 15 minutes over medium heat. Serve with rye toast and spicy mustard. Serves 4.
