City of Laurel honored by Mississippi Urban Forest Council

Submitted
 The City of Laurel was awarded the Tree City USA certification for 2016 by the Mississippi Urban Forest Council at a recent city council meeting. Laurel is one of the cities in the state qualifying for the recognition. This is the 33rd consecutive year that Laurel has received the title and has been recognized statewide for its outstanding work in urban forestry by the Mississippi Forestry Commission and the Mississippi Urban Forest Council.
 This distinction is especially important, as Laurel is the oldest Tree City in the State of Mississippi. Tree City USA is awarded to those sites that fulfill four requirements. These include: a tree board, a tree ordinance, an urban forest management program supported by a minimum budget of $2 per capita, and an observance and proclamation of Arbor Day. The Tree City USA program, sponsored by the Arbor Day Foundation in cooperation with the USDA Forest Service and the National Association of State Foresters, provides direction, technical assistance, public attention and national recognition for urban and community forestry programs in thousands of towns and cities that more than 135 million Americans call home.

 Trees yield 3-5 times their cost in overall benefits to the city in a number of ways: reducing costs for energy, storm water management, and erosion control. Studies indicate that as few as three additional trees planted around each building cut energy

Encouraging cancer patients with art

By Linda Cranford

Members of S.T.A.R.S. of Laurel, who are also members of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority Inc., presented several cancer patients at the Laurel Cancer Center with Pink Ribbon paintings on Monday, October 17.

The group wanted to do something to encourage those who are presently on their journey of fighting cancer, as well as congratulate those who have completed their journey.

The ladies decided to have a painting social with Tashara Shoemaker of Paint, Laugh and Love, where they painted an upside down pink ribbon that forms a vase and a bouquet of flowers. On the ribbon is written a favorite scripture of the individual artist. Laurel costs by 25 percent . . . not to mention, properly placed trees can increase property values from 7-20 percent. Trees and green spaces directly correlate to greater connections to neighbors and builds community that honors and demonstrates commitment to a healthier environment through Arbor Day celebrations and Tree City USA recognition. Participation in the Tree City USA program helps residents feel good about the place they live and work. Annual recognition shows visitors and prospective residents that trees, conservation, and the environment are important to your community.

"We recognize only one city out of the state each year for the scenic award. It's for communities that work hard to maintain its trees and natural resources," said Donna Yowell, executive director of Mississippi Urban Forest Council." The city of Laurel was nominated by Walt Grayson to receive the 2016 Scenic Community of Mississippi.

Travis Mac Haynes enters race for District 89 Representative

For the first time in 25 years, District 89 in Jones County will be sending a new representative to Jackson. In September, Travis Mac Haynes, a conservative, business-minded attorney, decided to enter the race at the urging of many in the local business community. Mr. Haynes is a native of Ellisville, graduating from both South Jones High School and Jones County Junior College. After leaving Ellisville, Travis continued his education, receiving a Masters in Business Administration and a Law Degree. While in Jackson attending Law School, Mr. Haynes worked at the state Capitol as a clerk for the MS Conservative Coalition. Once finishing his education and gaining some valuable work experience, Travis moved back to Jones County to start his family. He, his wife, Tracy, and their two children reside in Ellisville.

Mr. Haynes' campaign is running on four simple principals: He is the candidate that will protect your Second Amendment rights; he will fight for lower taxes for working families; he will work to reduce both government spending and cumbersome government regulations; and Travis points out that what separates him from the other candidates is his flexibility with work, which makes him the only candidate that can be a full-time Representative for District 89. He will be in Jackson anytime the Legislature is in session and always available for in-person meetings with the residents of his district. He is also the only candidate with the educational and work experience that will allow him to start working for the voters day one.

Donnie Scoggin seeking election to the District 89 House of Representatives position

I, Donnie Scoggin, am honored to be running for the District 89 House of Representatives position. I was raised in Ellisville, educated in Jones County Schools, and have enjoyed continuing to live in District 89.

My purpose in seeking election for the District 89 House of Representatives position is simple. I believe that we all, as citizens, have a duty to serve others in some capacity. I do not view this as a career but as a service to the residents of District 89.

I have been married to Donna Grantham Scoggin for 35 years. We have two sons, Darren (Sarah) and Daniel (Hayley) and two wonderful granddaughters, Julie and Laura. I have been employed with South Central Regional Medical Center for the past 35 years and currently work as a nurse practitioner at the Ellisville Medical Clinic. I have served as a reserve deputy for the Jones County Sheriff's Department and as a scoutmaster for Boy Scout Troop 10 of Ellisville. I am a current member of the Jones County EDA and serve as a deacon at FBC, Ellisville. I previously received the honor as JCJC Alumni of the year.

One of the things that I learned growing up was the value of hard work and honesty. I am willing to work hard to serve and listen to the concerns of those whom I will be representing. I have tried to make as many visits as possible, and I wish that there was time to personally meet each resident in the district. However, with the election less than two weeks away, I know that may not be possible, so I am humbly asking for your vote and support.

I encourage anyone with questions or comments to contact me, Donnie Scoggin, at (601) 319-5421 or dscoggin1@gmail.com.

Swindall seeks District 89 State Representative position

Please vote Ron Swindall for State Representative in District 89 on November 8. Ron is a small business owner and a minister, a committed Christian and a community servant. He is a longtime resident of Jones County and a fierce Conservative. Staying true to his conservative values, Ron has actively worked for two decades to support and help elect conservative Republican leaders in Jones County. He is against raising taxes and believes that rather than continually picking taxpayers' pockets, government should be held accountable for wastefulness, abuse of funds and fraud.

As the husband of a teacher, he's seen firsthand the disservice being done to our students and educators, and he has highlighted the problems of a 'one size fits all' standard for students and of funding administration rather than classrooms. As an ordained Baptist minister who's served in churches all over the Pinebelt, Ron also understands the need for conservative Christian values in office. He is pro-life, pro-Second Amendment, and he believes that everyone who is able should contribute to the economy of our state. Remember, our Constitution guarantees equal opportunity and not equal outcome. He has seen firsthand in his small businesses the economic effects of big government entitlements, bureaucracy, and inefficiency, and once elected, he will hold our government accountable for the taxpayer money they spend.

Ron believes the future of Mississippi is in the hard work of individuals and local businesses. His greatest frustration is watching elected leaders follow the will of a party or special interest groups and not that of the people. A Representative's role is to be the voice of the people. As our Representative, Ron's connection to the community of District 89 - as a pastor, business owner, Conservative, husband, father, and friend - ensures the voice of the people will be deafening in Jackson, Mississippi.

Counted cross-stitch, pastels, acrylics in new show at OLLI gallery

A show featuring the works of two OLLI artists, Linda Foshee and Dr. Tim Orsi, is currently hanging in the gallery at the Peck House, headquarters for the Osher Lifelong Learning Institute (OLLI). The gallery is located at 3601 Pearl St., Hattiesburg. The show will remain in OLLI's Gallery through December 30. Daily viewing times are Monday thru Friday, 1:00 until 4:00 p.m., except on holidays. There is no admission charge.

Foshee's presentation in the show consists of two stamped cross-stitch patterns and one counted cross-stitch pattern. She offers a word to anyone who may be thinking of beginning counted cross-stitch: "Begin simply with stamped cross-stitch patterns before moving up to counted patterns. Counted cross-stitch allows for more color variation and finer gradients of color and detail which causes the resemblance to a painting."

Foshee is a native of Laurel, Mississippi. After earning a Bachelor of music education degree from The University of Southern Mississippi (USM), she taught music in the elementary classroom for ten years. In 1975, Linda returned to her alma mater, where she worked for twenty-eight (28) years as administrative secretary to the director of the School of Music. She retired from USM in 2004. Linda is married to Jamie Foshee, a retired band director.

Dr. Orsi's presentation in the OLLI show consists of over 20 pieces in a variety of media including watercolor, graphite, pastel, and acrylics. In his professional career, Dr. Orsi traveled and worked around the world in a number of positions, the last being geology instructor at USM. His more recent interests have been in the fine arts. Having no experience in the arts, he began drawing exclusively in graphite in December 2013 before incorporating color (acrylics and pastels) in 2015. His influences are numerous but some of the more influential include the contemporary abstractionists Katherine Chang Liu and Alexander Nepote and the watercolorist Gerald Brommer.

Dr. Orsi is essentially self-taught, although he is an active participant in OLLI's SIG (Special Interest Group) and has received additional training from Brandi Downs and Tasha Messer at Art Cetera in Hattiesburg. Most recently, he began to study creative photography and is presently being mentored by the international life style and travel photographer Steven Vote from Australia.

OLLI offers programming geared toward individuals 50 years of age or older, with any level of education, working or retired. The premise behind OLLI is that learning at any age is fun and a great way to keep mind, body and, spirit healthy. All offerings are presented in a relaxed atmosphere with break time to socialize. Individuals interested in finding out about OLLI should call the OLLI office at 601.264.2780, visit the web site at: www.usm.edu/olli, e-mail at olli@usm.edu or visit the OLLI headquarters at 3601 Pearl St., Hattiesburg, during normal office hours. New members may join at any time.

Surging North Forrest looks to derail Taylorsville

By Zac Chamblee

The playoffs are right around the corner. For some of our area teams, they'll start next week and for the rest, the week after that.

With most of them in heavy contention for the postseason, the rest of the way will be all about positioning. That continues this week with another great slate of games. Here's how I see things shaking out.

PCS (10-0) @ Copiah Academy (9-1): The Bobcats are a win away from capping off an undefeated regular season. Who could've predicted that before the season? Not me. If they're gonna prove me and more than likely everyone else wrong, they'll have to beat what has to be one of the better teams they'll face this season in Copiah Academy. The Colonels, who have won six in a row, have pitched four shutouts this season. One of their closer games came two weeks ago in a 24-21 win against Parklane Academy, the same team that PCS blasted 45-0 in week three. Simply put, the Bobcats are on another level right now, and they'll continue to show that this week.

Copiah Academy - 21*

Pearl (6-3) @ Oak Grove (4-6): The Warriors have lost three of their last four and are in danger of missing the playoffs for the first time since 2012. Pearl, on the other hand, is playing lights out right now, having won four in a row heading into this matchup. They've outscored opponents 185-47 in that span. Oak Grove's offense has failed to score more than 14 points in five games this season. They'll eclipse that mark this week, but it will not be enough.

*Pearl - 35
Oak Grove - 21*

Forest Hill (4-6) @ Petal (5-4): If you're looking for a game featuring two teams that are struggling as of late, look no further than this contest. Forest Hill has lost four of their last five and Petal, two of their last three. Not all is bad for Petal though. In terms of their playoff hopes, they control their own destiny. If they win out, they're in. And after facing the likes of Meridian and Brandon the last three weeks, the competition will get a lot easier against a Forest Hill team they've historically dominated. All signs point to a Petal bounce back.

*Petal - 41
Forest Hill - 17*

Purvis (6-3) @ FCAHS (4-5): One of the area's biggest rivalries is back and better than ever. After an 0-3 start to the season, the Aggies have won four of their last six, while Purvis had won six straight up until last week's loss to Poplarville. This is two teams playing well down the stretch, and they meet in a rivalry game: Doesn't get much better than that! Folks can expect to see a contrast of offensive styles in this game. Purvis' bread and butter has always been their running game. Sixty-six of their offensive touchdowns this season have come on the ground. FCAHS, on the other hand, has feasted through the air, especially the last two weeks. Evan Clark and Roy'Quez McNair have combined to toss seven touchdowns in that span. Purvis has faced a passing offense capable of consistently putting up those type of numbers once, and it was against Sumrall and quarterback Rhett Harvey. Harvey was held to his worst performance of the season in that game, and Purvis won in a blowout. I do not think this game will be that, but I do think Purvis will win.

*Purvis - 28
FCAHS - 21*

Wayne County (5-4) @ South Jones (7-3): Having lost two in a row after their 7-1 start, the Braves are in danger of narrowly missing out on the postseason for a second straight season. Even if they win this week, which I do not think they will, the Braves are not guaranteed a spot. The team has just not been able to get over the hump against the big boys like Wayne County or Laurel. The Braves are a combined 0-3 against those teams the last two years and have been outscored 154-25 in those games. Add the fact that Wayne County is back to playing like the Wayne County we're all used to seeing, and I think South Jones is back to square one.

*Wayne County - 34
South Jones - 17*

Raleigh (10-0) @ Morton (7-3): Fireworks will be on display in this game. Raleigh and Morton have combined to score 40 points or more 13 times this season. The architect behind Morton's offensive success has been quarterback D.D. Bowie, an Ole Miss commit. On the other side, junior tailback Kris Moncrief has led the way for Raleigh. The difference in this one though could be centered around the defenses. On that side of the ball, Raleigh has played pretty well, giving up only about 15 points a game. Morton on the other hand is giving up about 26. Advantage, Raleigh.

*Raleigh - 42
Morton - 35*

Hattiesburg (7-3) @ Pearl River Central (4-5): The Tigers are coming off a 40-7 win over Gautier, the same team that a month ago beat Pearl River Central 55-26. And even last week, Pearl River Central lost to Pascagoula, who Hattiesburg clobbered 49-14 in week nine. The common opponents suggest an easy Hattiesburg win.

*Hattiesburg - 49
Pearl River Central - 24*

Laurel (8-1) @ Provine (5-5): In their last three games, all losses, Provine has scored a total of seven points. In that same span, Laurel, who has won seven in a row, has scored 151 points. This one will be over at the end of the first quarter.

*Laurel - 56
Provine - 3*

Sacred Heart (5-4) @ Bogue

Chitto (0-9): The Crusaders got a nice bounce back win last week against Richton. They should be able to build off that win this week against a Bogue Chitto team that has been outscored 370-79 this season.

*Sacred Heart - 45
Bogue Chitto - 10*

North Forrest (3-6) @ Mize (4-6): North Forrest has quietly put together one of the better turnarounds you'll see. After an 0-6 start to the season, the Eagles have won three in a row and find themselves in the driver's seat for the district 8-2A crown. A win this Friday will lock that up. The Eagles are coming off a 27-21 win over Taylorsville, who beat Mize handily just a few weeks ago. North Forrest is up to the task to get the job done.

*North Forrest - 28
Mize - 24*

Greene County (3-6) @ Sumrall (5-5): To this point, Greene County has faced two offenses with an above average passing attack, FCAHS and George County. The Wildcats gave up a combined eight touchdown passes in those games, both of which were losses. Now they have to deal with Sumrall quarterback Rhett Harvey, who statewide ranks in the top ten of most passing statistics. Harvey and company will be too much for Greene County to deal with.

*Sumrall - 38
Greene County - 17*

Other Scores:

- *West Jones (4-5) @ Natchez (1-8): West Jones 24, Natchez 14
- *Northeast Jones (5-4) @ Newton County (3-7): Northeast Jones 28, Newton County 20
- *Bay Springs (7-3) @ Clarkdale (2-8): Bay Springs 42, Clarkdale 10
- *Stringer (7-3) @ Noxapater (5-5): Stringer 34, Noxapater 20
- *Richton (1-9) @ Taylorsville (3-6): Taylorsville 21, Richton 14
- *Wayne Academy (5-5) @ Prentiss Christian (9-1): Prentiss Christian 35, Wayne Academy 13

Ole Miss, MSU stumbling on the gridiron

By Dale McKee

Thank you, Major League Baseball! We finally have the World Series that America wanted -- the Chicago Cubs and the Cleveland Indians. For the Cubs' fans, it has been 108 years since their last World Series title, and it has been 71 years since they last appeared in the World Series. You can blame the Cubs for not getting back to the Series on their bad luck, bad management or sins of the Billy goat owner. Who knows, but I am glad they are in the fall classic. I just hate that Ernie Banks and the '69 team are not playing. The Indians have had to wait only 29 years since their last World Series appearance, and their last WS title was way back in 1954.

Jackson. The tournament began play on Thursday and will run through Sunday. The field has 132 players, led by past champions Scott Stallings (2012) and Will MacKenzie (2008). David Duvall, the winner of 13 PGA Tour Tournaments, will also be in action. Experts say this is shaping up as one of the best tournaments ever.

What is wrong with Ole Miss?

Wasn't this team a Top 10 in the pre-season? Didn't they have a possible Heisman candidate? They are a team that has several problems that will be hard to fix in the middle of the season. First, they have a hard time stopping the run. Second, if they can't run the ball then they are asking for trouble in the SEC. LSU made the Rebels' run defense look pretty silly at times last week. Leonard Fournette set an LSU school record as he had his way against the Rebels. The Rebels' offense can take some of the blame as they struggled in the second half and laid a goose egg against the ever-improving Tigers. Quarterback Chad Kelly almost has to play a perfect game for OM to win. Though he is a gifted runner and passer, at times he does make bad decisions. Ole Miss has to win three games to go bowling. Auburn and A&M should be heavy favorites over Ole Miss (3-4) in the coming weeks. Most think the Rebels should win over Georgia Southern, Vandy and MSU. These wins, however, may not be a given anymore after last Saturday's performance against LSU. The Egg Bowl may be the only bowl for these Rebels this season.

Bulldogs lose again in final seconds

MSU (2-5) for the third time this year lost a game in the final seconds. First there was the opener against South Alabama, then the overtime loss to BYU, then another loss last Saturday night in Lexington, Kentucky. UK kicked a field goal with three seconds left to down the Bulldogs for the first time since 2009. Without those three losses, MSU would have been 5-2 heading into Saturday's game against Samford. The November slate is not kind with top 20 teams Alabama and A&M looming in the future with previous top 20 teams Arkansas and Ole Miss.

Better take notice, Bama

The surprise SEC game last week was the Auburn crushing of Arkansas. The Tigers scored on their first play and before the night was over had run up and down the field for 543 yards in their 56-3 win over the Razorbacks. Auburn appears to be over their early season losses to Clemson and Texas A&M. The 543 yards rushing was astonishing against Arkansas, but holding the vaulted Razorbacks to 25 yards on the ground was unbelievable. In the end, could Auburn challenge Alabama in the SEC West?

Alabama took care of A&M in their big showdown last weekend. The Tide has passed every test so far this season. Playing LSU in Baton Rouge might be their biggest test to date. Let the hype begin.
