Ad Correction

Ad title "Time for Change", on page 9 of the October 19th Fayetteville Exchange, incorrectly said Alderman Shelton approved a capital outlay note to benefit the city school system in a Special Called Meeting August 19, 2011. Alderman Shelton was not an alderman in 2011 and did not vote for the capital outlay note. We apologize for publishing this ad with incorrect information.

QUESTION..

Is Beverage Alcohol Better or Worse for Our Families and Communities?

In this election, the people of Fayetteville and Lincoln County have a choice to make concerning beverage alcohol. The wise person will seek the counsel of God on all matters and know what God has spoken in His word.

Proverbs 20:1

"Wine is a mocker, strong drink is a brawler, and whoever is led astray by it is not wise."

Proverbs 23:20-21

"Do not mix with winebibbers, or with gluttonous eaters of meat. For the drunken and glutton will come to poverty, and drowsiness will clothe a man in rags."

Proverbs 23:29-30

"Who has woe? Who has sorrow? Who has contention? Who has complaints? Who has wounds without cause? Who has redness of eyes? Those who linger long at the wine, Those who go in search of mixed wine?"

Galatians 5:19-21

"Now the works of the flesh are evident, which are these: Adultery, Fornication... Hatred... Strife... Envyings, Murders, Drunkenness... as I have told you in time past, that they which do such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God."

1 Corinthians 6:9-10

"Do you not know that the unrighteous will not inherit the kingdom of God? Do not be deceived. Neither fornicators nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor homosexuals, nor sodomites, nor thieves, nor coveters, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners will inherit the kingdom of God."

It's Time For Our City to Move Forward.

Donna Hartman ALDERMAN

Contrary to political propoganda I am NOT against the city school system, my son attended there. I am NOT for Metro Government, this is not even an issue in this election. Nor am I anti-Fayetteville, I want to see our city grow. These folks are just trying to use scare tactics to get their way. I am ashamed of such actions by a few in our small city.

Fayetteville Needs A Change!

I believe it is time for a change and to elect new Fayetteville City Aldermen. We need aldermen that will represent all the city taxpayers, not just the few. If my name were connected to the vulgar, harmful ads, I would write an apology to the voters and the new people that have stepped up for their community and are willing to run for public office.

Here are other things to consider:

This election is not about the city school system. It's about being a better city. A better place to go to attend a great variety of quality educational options; a better city to live and raise a family; a better city that is inclusive and welcoming.

I have been told by many that our city is difficult to work with and deters small businesses from locating here. Many local builders now refuse to build in the city limits because the planning and codes department is uncooperative and creates roadblocks rather than being informative and helpful. New housing in the city limits is and has been very low compared to other cities of our size and location. I hope, if I am elected, that we can improve the communication to new and existing businesses.

We have some current aldermen who belittle the Industrial Development Board's director and board members and never want to support them. It is critical that we have a strong IDB to grow and prosper our community. I believe we are fortunate to have a director who is having great success in attracting new business and a board of very qualified citizens to support and help lead the IDB. Their track record at a critical juncture in our economic crisis is an indicator of their actions and management.

I do not hide behind a Political Action Committee that cowardly writes lies and conspiracy theories anonymously. I sign my name and stand behind what I do and say. I am proud of the community leaders that have supported my campaign. I have not been bought for any amount of money nor will anyone tell me what to do if I am fortunate enough to be elected.

I am humbled and appreciative of the outpouring of love and support that has been shown to me during this campaign. For every negative thing written, there have been hundreds of comments reminding me of my worth by family friends and even strangers.

I would consider it an honor if you vote for me for Fayetteville City Alderman.
