Perfect day for Ruttger's Bay Lake Lodge Oktoberfest

As the oom pah pah fades, continued season allows for s'more memories

By ANN SCHWARTZ
The scene was picture perfect... the middle of autumn and yet boats pulled in and out of the docks at Ruttger's Bay Lake Lodge during Oktoberfest, gliding through the sparkling blue waters of Bay Lake.

Vistors to Oktoberfest were treated to beautiful weather as they explored artisan booths, ate, drank and enjoyed the entertainment.

Kids were entertained by Mr. Fun on his hidden stilts; and Viking Cheerleaders posed for photographs and signed autographs.

In the music tent, the band Alpenstein and the Concord Singers kept everyone singing, dancing and raising their glasses.

masked heads, led party-goers around the tent, clapping to German drinking songs and forming bridges for other dancers to pass beneath.

Whether it is the harvest finished, the end of the long resort and construction season in the Northland, or thumbing their noses at winter -- the joy at Oktoberfest was tangible. Babes-in-arms danced alongside of children who were just little enough to not act too big and grandmas and grandpas with walkers and wheelchairs.

on the resort, operating it, along with his wife Ann, from 1955 until 1992 when their son Chris took over. Jack traded barbs with the musicians and played along with the good-humored spirit of the day.

Memories continue

Ruttger's Bay Lake Lodge will remain open through Thanksgiving weekend for the first time in recent memory. The resort's season normally ends after the Oktoberfest celebration.

Ruttger's will be open Thursdays through Sundays during November with traditional autumn activities for the entire family, including hayrides, bonfires, karaoke and much more.

"This year, we're going from lederhosen and beer to hayrides and bonfires. The longer season means s'more season and more fun," Ruttger's President Chris Ruttger said. "November in Minnesota is a beautiful time and there is little more enjoyable than eating a s'more by the bonfire on a crisp autumn evening."

Food is a highlight of any Ruttger's experience and that is no exception during November. Fall feasts are at the heart of Ruttger's November weekends. It begins with turkey feasts on Friday nights, from 4 p.m. to 9 p.m. in the Bear Pine Bar in the Main Lodge. The cost will be $10. The dinner includes turkey, mashed potatoes, stuffing and cranberries. This Turkey Feast was previously at Zig's.

The feasts culminate with a turkey, ham and prime rib buffet on Thanksgiving from noon to 3 p.m. All meals are open to the public. Reservations are recommended for the Thanksgiving Feast Buffet and can be made by calling 218-678-4644.

"Let Ruttger's do the cooking this Thanksgiving," Ruttger said. "The food will be great. All you'll have to do is show up and enjoy time with your family."

Jim Strehlke of Alpenstein plays his baritone atop a table at Oktoberfest.

In addition, every Saturday Night in November there will be karaoke at the Bear Pine Bar from 4 p.m. to 9 p.m., with menu service provided.

Also Auntie M's will be open Thursdays through Sundays from 7 a.m. to 3 p.m., serving an extended continental breakfast and soups and sandwiches for lunch.

Deerwood man arrested

Crow Wing County Sheriff Todd Dahl reports that Gordon Emerson Mattsen, II, 36, of Deerwood was arrested on October 22 after deputies recovered a stolen 2013 Polaris Razor ATV from a residence on the 20000 block of Cottontail Dr. north of Crosby.

The ATV was originally stolen a few days prior at a residence on Placid Lake Drive in rural Deerwood.

While deputies were at the residence, they also located additional stolen property from other residences including another ATV 4-wheeler, and a boat and trailer that had not been reported stolen yet as the owner didn't know it was missing until deputies contacted them.

Sheriff Dahl reports that this recovery was the direct result of the TIP411 program which was implemented about four months ago.

"The program works exactly as it was designed to do," said Dahl. "It allows people to submit anonymous tips through their phones or computers directly to our investigators. It's a great tool".

TIP411 is a web based program that people can get on their iPhone or Android phones or computers at no cost. They then can submit tips completely anonymously. A link to TIP411 can be found on the Crow Wing County Sheriff's home page.

Mattsen is currently on probation through Crow Wing County for 3rd degree sale of controlled substance and has a lengthy criminal history.

Guardianship workshops

The Crow Wing County Adult Protection Team will be offering two different workshops on Guardianship and Conservatorships on Tuesday, November 1.

The first session will be "Alternatives to Guardianship: Person Centered Options" from 3:00-5:00 p.m. The presenter will be Natasha Merz from the State Ombudsman Office. She will discuss the wide range of substitute decision making tools in Minnesota, including the legal authority for those tools.

The second session will be a "Community Workshop on Guardianship" from 6:00-8:00 p.m. This session will be focused on when and why someone would need a Guardian. What are the roles and responsibilities of Guardians and Conservators? Are there alternatives to Guardianship? Legal responsibilities to Guardianships/Conservatorships. Presenters for this session include: Bill O'Hara, Attorney at Law; Lutheran Social Services - Guardianship Programs; Natasha Merz, State Ombudsman Office and Member of WINGS and Laura Bendson from the Minnesota Judicial Branch.

Both session will be in Meeting Room 1 of the Crow Wing County Land Services Building, 322 Laurel Street, Brainerd. For more information please contact 218-824-1186.

Cuyuna Lakes Chamber dinner

The Cuyuna Lakes Chamber hosted its annual dinner titled "What's Brewin' in Cuyuna" on Tuesday, Oct. 18, at Ruttger's Bay Lake Lodge. Over 145 people were in attendance to celebrate another great year in the Cuyuna Lakes.

During the dinner, the Cuyuna Lakes Chamber announced the election of two new members to its board of directors. Board members will each serve a three-year term beginning January 2017. The board welcomed Ted Abear of Deerwood Bank and Shellie Wynn of Range Disposal Services.

"We appreciate our newest board members for their willingness to serve and share their knowledge, expertise and passion toward accomplishing our Chamber Mission to improve the business climate in our Cuyuna Lakes communities," said Jessica Holmvig, Chamber director. According to Holmvig, the Chamber board members bring with them a breadth of experience from a variety of business backgrounds. They are owners or active leaders in businesses both large and small.

Retiring from the board is Todd Craven of Abbey House and Hallett House Antiques and Jim Mayne of Deerwood Technologies.

"On behalf of the entire Cuyuna Lakes Chamber Board, we want to recognize our outgoing board members," Holmvig continued. "Todd and Jim's dedication to the Chamber and the Cuyuna Lakes area has truly inspired all of us. We hope to continue building on the successes of the Chamber and make you proud of our accomplishments in the upcoming year."

Also at the event, Julie Mohs of Deerwood Bank was recognized as the 2016 Chamber Volunteer of the Year and Jill Mattson of Holy Spirit Holy Yoga was recognized as the Chamber's Entrepreneur of the Year.

For more information about Cuyuna Lakes events, visit www.cuyunalakes.com or call 218-546-8131.

Jim Mayne owner of Deerwood Technologies received a Certificate of Recognition as retiring Cuyuna Lakes Chamber treasurer.

Johnna Johnson owner of Mixed Company A Kava House received the Best Table Sponsorship Presentation Award, which was voted on by dinner attendees.

Cities meet about fire protection

There was a meeting of some city officials, fire department heads and police department heads serving Crosby, Cuyuna, Deerwood and Ironton at the Crosby City Hall on October 24.

Topics discussed were public safety, mutual aid, response time, training, volunteer firemen availability, large scale evacuations, management of resources including manpower, contracts with townships, option of a fire district and dispatch protocol. It was recommended to have the fire chiefs meet to work out some details relating to these issues and keep the police informed.

Crosby City Council talks trash again

There were two residents that spoke during the public comments section at the Crosby City Council meeting on October 24.

The first resident was Gina Hanson. She commented on the Comprehensive Zoning plan. Hanson had concerns about the land use designations in the area of her home. Later, Hanson spoke about a reoccurring issue relating to Cuyuna Regional Medical Center with respect to an agreement for fence color and tree specifications.

Justin Burslie, Planning and Zoning, said he was going to review the agreement details.

The second resident was John Radinovich. Radinovich said he came before the council in June about the garbage issue and the rental agreement issue.

"And at that time mayor," said Radinovich, "you said you would have the rental agreement done prior to the garbage and in fact you said it would be done in July. It's now the end of October."

Radinovich said that when he came in front of the council in June, he told them not to vote on the garbage ordinance until they had the ordinance for the rentals approved.

"Right now you have no safeguards, none," said Radinovich. "In fact, I believe it was at the last council meeting when Range stood up and said you really don't want to [allow] self haul. Somebody... said that Range was in the business of hauling garbage so they really shouldn't have the input. I look at it as... Range is more concerned about the citizens than other people in this room."

"If you're going to have self haul garbage, then what are the safeguards of that self haul garbage? Back when, three quarters of the people had burn barrels. Now, you can say you can't have burn barrels. What are the safeguards? You can't pass that ordinance and until that ordinance says your going to stop it at that time..."

The issue is enforcement for rentals and who gets fined. Building inspector Scott Sadusky stated that the property owner would be fined. Sadusky indicated there were over 90 garbage violations this year and a majority of them have been cleaned up. If self haul garbage was allowed, Radinovich indicated he could deal with three vehicles in the yard, but not sacks of garbage, especially in the summer. He said there is a big difference between trash and garbage. There are health concerns and rodents associated with piles of garbage.

Sadusky indicated he didn't know anything about the self hauling. The self hauling of garbage was discussed at the last council meeting and approved to be added to the language in the city ordinance.

Since the city will be transferring the billing to Range Disposal, Radinovich indicated there wasn't anything the city could do to renters that piled up garbage. In the past, the city could shut off water service, if payment was delinquent.

The solid waste ordinance was tabled due to the problems with self hauling considerations.

Alan Woods owner of Range Disposal asked for an extension for taking over the refuse billing from the city until January 2017, because of file size limitations a new software was installed and needed to be tested before they could begin. The council approved this extension.

The council approved the hiring of three part-time substitute library aids.

Council approved the election judges.

The council approved the use of the Crosby Memorial Park for 10th Annual Christmas in the Park.

The Cuyuna Community Center update was provided by Kurt Porter, Severson Porter Law. Porter indicated that the Cuyuna Community Center had closed and they needed to find a suitable organization to donate the building to. Porter said they may have found that organization.

Building inspector Scott Sadusky said he had inspected the Cuyuna Community Center building. Depending on the intended use it could have problems with meeting code, since it was an old building.

Police Lieutenant Kevin Randolph spoke about a surveillance in the park and by the city garage.

The finance committee had met about the invoicing error from the Abrams and Schmidt Law Firm. There was an entry on September 17, 2013 for an 18.9 hour phone call, at an hourly rate of $145 per hour and a total payment of $2740.50. Mayor Lattery read aloud the contents of a letter from Abrams and Schmidt Law Firm explaining the billing that was made by the attorney. The amount was correct, but the time period it encompassed was several days instead of one day. The letter closed with "... but we accept the responsibility that we should have been more complete and detailed with our invoice. We apologize for any inconvenience. Tiffany Smith."

Councilman Paul Heglund said, "We terminated a police officer not to long ago. And it got turned around where it was all about Lisa Sova. And I was uptown the other day and everybody's throwing Lisa Sova under the bus. And that's pretty unfair."

The council agreed with Heglund's statement.

After Mr. Laughlin went before the zoning board, a land use proposal was brought before the council for future consideration. Building inspector Sadusky advised him about code requirements for a single family dwelling vs. a garage.

Planning and Zoning Justin Burslie spoke about the comprehensive plan. Council approved the plan.

City Engineer Phil Martin talked about suspending operations on the utility project in North East Crosby. There is some issues with funding of the Third Street utility project because of a suspension of business at the State Legislature.

After considering and approving filling a coal bin under the sidewalk on First Avenue SW, the council reversed their decision and ultimately decided to fence around the opening on the sidewalk. The council approved the chain link fence installation to lessen the potential liability. City Attorney Tom Pearson said they could negotiate with the property owner and start the abatement process.
