THE ORIGIN OF THE TEXAS FLAG

Tumbleweed Smith

“Montgomery County is the birthplace of the Lone Star Flag,” says Sally Copley, executive director of the Montgomery County Heritage Museum in Conroe. The museum has a copy of the original sketch of the Texas flag done by Dr. Charles Stewart, who lived near the present town of Montgomery. The original drawing is in the state archives.

“He designed that in 1839,” says Sally. “It was signed by the Republic of Texas President, Mirabeau B. Lamar. It became the official state flag in 1845 when Texas joined the United States.” When Dr. Stewart handed his sketch to President Lamar, it was facing Dr. Stewart. President Lamar, sitting at his desk across from Dr. Stewart, signed it without turning the page to face him, so President Lamar’s signature is upside down on the sketch.

One-third of the flag has a blue perpendicular strip on the left side with a five-pointed star in the center. Two horizontal stripes complete the flag, the upper white and the lower red. The red, white and blue of the flag represent bravery, purity and loyalty.

Dr. Stewart also designed the Texas state seal that consists of a star with five points encircled by olive and live oak branches and the words THE STATE OF TEXAS. The design came from a mother of pearl pin that had been in his family for generations. Sally says the pin was brought to the United States from England by Dr. Stewart’s father in 1798 and handed down to him.

Sally knows some facts about Dr. Stewart. “He was born in 1806, originally from South Carolina. He moved to Texas in 1830 and became a resident of Montgomery County after the Texas revolution. He was a medical doctor and a pharmacist and was one of the first in the United States to discover the effects of sun-rays on man. He served with the Army of the Republic of Texas and acted as interpreter between General Sam Houston and General Santa Anna at the battle of San Jacinto. He was on the committee of 21 to draft a constitution. He signed the Texas Declaration of Independence and served in numerous Montgomery County and city offices. He was a deputy sheriff, postmaster and tax collector. He served in the first, fourth and fourteenth Texas legislatures. He was also the first secretary of state in Texas.”

The Texas legislature has issued a proclamation naming Montgomery County as the birthplace of the Texas flag. The Texas Almanac says Texas is one of only two states that has a flag that formerly served as the flag of an independent nation. The other is Hawaii.

When flown from separate flagpoles, the national flag and the state flag should be the same size and on flagpoles of equal length. The national flag should be on the observer’s left. When flown from the same flagpole, the United States flag should be above the Texas flag. No other country’s flag should be placed above the Texas flag. If outdoors, the Texas flag should be flown from dawn to dusk unless it is illuminated.

Tumbleweed Smith was born in Waco, raised in Fort Worth and now lives in Big Spring. Contact him at ts@tumbleweedsmith.com

This run of Indian Summer weather has been a memorable feature of the Autumn of 2015. It's been awfully dry though, and Hopkins as well as surrounding counties have issued bans on outdoor burning. Weather forecasts often include High Fire Danger alerts on days with gusty wind and low humidity. Some places in Texas have been devastated by wildfire. Please, please don't toss your cigarette out your car window! And please watch over outdoor machinery carefully, as these can spark a fire that you never meant to start! Rain will surely come one day soon, so let's keep everyone and everything safe until the threat of wildfire is over.

Autumn Trails "Trail Ride Weekend 2015" was a well-planned success. In fact, there were two rides instead of the traditional one. The newly-added Saturday ride, held on October 17, was huge with about four dozen wagons and teams as well as many, many more outriders. I spent a portion of Sunday October 18 getting to know some of the campers and vendors that came to Autumn Trails.

I met Brittney Giles of Gilmer who is a contestant for Rodeo Queen at the CRRA Finals at Ft. Smith, Arkansas. She and her mule Daisy made friends and sold raffle tickets during the 3-day weekend in Winnsboro's City Park.

Brittney Giles & Daisy

Freeze-branding horses and mules is quicker and less expensive than hot branding. Lee Conway of Bonham, Texas sets up at trail rides in three states. He carries a variety of metal shapes and symbols that can be combined to create a personalized design for the brand.

Lee Conway

Garland Hays handles saddles and tack as well as harness for teams. His harness wagon is fully stocked with collars, hames, traces and most anything that might get damaged or need replacing during a trail ride. It's also a good place to "window shop" for a complete new set of harness that Santa may be asked to deliver.

Garland Hays

Horseshoeing and trimming are services that Oliver Jetton provides for both regular customers and at trail rides. Oliver has been a farrier for many years in the Winnsboro area and is a familiar face at Autumn Trails.

Oliver Jetton

I met a new friend who shares my name, sort of! Gaylynn and Kevin Ford of Roamin' Ranch own a good number of horses and enjoy trail riding as a hobby. Their campsite at Autumn Trails provided a welcoming stop for trailhands and greenhorns alike because it was actually a working site. The historic stagecoach was mostly for show but the pole corral was a necessity. Music from Western movie soundtracks wafted on the air from their camp, providing the perfect atmosphere.

Next on the trail ride circuit is the "Saddle Up for St. Jude" annual ride planned for Como, Texas on November 14. Plan to come out and enjoy the food and fellowship, for a good cause. The public is welcome and all proceeds will benefit St. Jude's Children's Research Hospital in Dallas.

Here's some equine wisdom to ponder: "never look at gift horse in the mouth", "don't change horses in the middle of a stream" and "that's a horse of a different color". You may understand the lessons taught by these time-worn phrases, but would your children or grandchildren know the meanings? Til next week, I'll watch for you at the corral gate and on the road. See you down the trail!
