TRUST.

Trust is more than a word, it's a bond between an individual and a cause.
During this campaign I have shared my beliefs, my convictions, and my optimism for our state's future. I'm not a politician, I'm just a small businessman who loves his family, his community and above all his faith. And it's that faith that has strengthened me throughout this entire campaign. The journey has been long, but the difficult path has been worth it.

Trust is something that I have never taken lightly, and I never will.
If you give me the honor to serve you, I will fight for you each day, because that's the tradition of Tennessee Volunteers.

I humbly ask for your vote on Nov. 8th

ASKINS, EDWARD CLIFFORD "ROOSTER" 90, Fayetteville, TN. Funeral service, 2 p.m., Saturday, October 29, 2016 at Higgins Funeral Home with Rev. Jimmy Miller officiating. Burial in Riverview Memorial Gardens. Mr. Askins passed away October 25, 2016 after a long battle with Multiple Myeloma blood cancer. A native of Lincoln County, Mr. Askins was the son of the late Manley and Louella Ables Askins of Taft. Mr. Askins was married for 68 years to the late Carrie Evelyn Askins who passed October 31, 2012. Mr. Askins retired from Kraft General Foods after 48 years, was a member of First Baptist Church and served in the United States Army. After he retired from Kraft, he assisted "Nanny Mama", who owned the Smiling Faces Pre-School for 35 years. Mr. Askins was beloved by the daycare children, who lovingly called him "Paw-Paw". Many of the children stayed in touch with "Nanny and Paw-Paw" throughout college and their adult life. Mr. Askins' legacy among many, is that he made it known to his children that he had goals he wanted to achieve in his time on earth: get to heaven, never say an unkind word about anybody, be a Godly man, for all three children to put God first, have faith in God, and for each to obtain a college education. He achieved all his goals. He is fondly remembered by the grandchildren as loving, always smiling, happy and holding them in his lap, and reading the Bible to them starting when they were babies. In one Bible to a twin daughter, he wrote, "Make every minute count", and cited his favorite Bible verses. He was preceded in death by brothers, Johnny, Manley, Jr. and Robert P.; and sister, LouAnner, who died as a baby of diphtheria. Survivors include children, Larry Edward Askins of Fairfax Station, VA, Fonda Askins Blair of Murfreesboro and Wanda Cavaliere of Mission Viejo, CA; six grandchildren;
