Military Time

My wife never quite got the hang of the 24-hour military clock. One day she called the orderly room to speak with me. The person who answered told her to call me at the extension in the band rehearsal hall.

"He can be reached at 4700, Ma'am," the soldier advised.

With a sigh of exasperation, my wife responded, "And just what time is that?"

Dear Veterans,

Those of us who have not served will never fully understand the sacrifices you've made both in times of peace and of war.

We will never fully understand what you were required to do or how you were able to do it.

We will never fully understand the depth of your scars.

But what we can offer you is this:

We see you.

We recognize your humanity.

And we send you Love that is gentle, patient and healing.

With Blessings and Gratitude, we ask that you remember you are loved.

Thank you.

HOCUS-FOCUS

BY HENRY BOLTIKOFF

Find at least six differences in details between panels.

Forty-five million Americans are currently living in poverty.

For these families and individuals, a warm coat is a budget extra they simply cannot afford. URW Community Federal is asking for you to help us make a difference in our neighbor's lives by donating coats during our upcoming coat drive! We are working to collect clean, gently used warm coats to support our coat drive program, between now and October 15th at all URW Branches. The process is simple: you drop off your extra coat(s) and URW takes care of the rest. All donated coats will be given to a local agency for distribution to local children in need. If you are a teacher and know of a child in your school that does not have a coat, please let us know. Our goal is that no child will be left out in the cold in the URW Community. Salome's Stars

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) This is a good time to let that intrepid Aries temperament take charge. Your strong leadership will help settle those still-unresolved situations. Support comes from a surprising source. TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) Your problem-solving talents shine as you move to cool down heated emotions. You also inspire trust in all parties when you act with careful consideration of their feelings. GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) That long-delayed commitment begins to look better to you. But there's still a crucial fact or two you need to know about it. A health problem needs to be taken care of. CANCER (June 21 to July 22) Don't waste time trying to learn why someone you relied on is wavering in his or her support of your stand on a workplace issue. Move on with the help of more steadfast allies. LEO (July 23 to August 22) Relationships enter a brighter period, both at home and in the workplace. Prospects also look good for single Leos and Leonas, who can expect a welcome visit from Cupid. VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) Those mixed signals that were complicating your life are giving way now to clear, definitive guidelines. This makes it easier for you to weigh your options and make decisions. LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) Ask your partner for an explanation of what seems to be a sign of strain in your relationship. The sooner you understand the problem, the sooner you can both act to resolve it.	SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) A new challenge in the workplace holds an exciting promise for the future. But be aware of the fact that you haven't been told about all the demands you might have to meet. SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) Your financial picture brightens as you get into sorting out realistic goals and those that are not reachable at this time. "Caution" remains your fiscal watchword. CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) You're deep into your new project, and that's just fine. But don't neglect your family and friends. Spending time with people you care for is always a wise investment. AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) Past feelings are suddenly reawakened. This could make you emotionally vulnerable. Be careful about decisions you might be asked to make at this time. PISCES (February 19 to March 20) You've come to a place where you'll be facing important decisions that can affect your future. Rely on your strong moral compass to guide you toward making the right choices. BORN THIS WEEK: You're gifted with both natural wisdom and wit -- a good combination for success as a writer or teacher and, most importantly, a parent. (c) 2016 King Features Synd., Inc.

Ken grew up in the Tunstall community, playing football and baseball at Tunstall High School and baseball at UNC Wilmington. He graduated from Averett College with a Bachelor's degree in Health and Physical Education, and Lynchburg College with a Master's degree in Health and Physical Education. He returned to the area after college to spend his life as a teacher and coach. Ken spent his professional career as a teacher and head football coach at Gretna High School, Dan River High School, Bartlett Yancey High School, Bluestone High School, and as an adjunct professor at Danville Community College. He was known for his dedication to family, friends, players and students, and his rousing half-time talks that spurred many a team to victory. He loved life, living each day to the fullest and bringing laughter to all who knew him. He enjoyed playing golf, collecting model trains and slot cars, going to auctions with his wife, and spending time with his daughters, granddaughter and family. Rarely was he found without a large sweet tea, a smile, and a great story to tell.

He is survived by his wife of 40 years, Helen Whitt Meadors; his daughters, Whitney M. Morrison of Vienna, VA and Carter Meadors of Nashville, TN. He is also survived by son-in-law, Richard Morrison and granddaughter, Carter Laird Morrison of Vienna and his mother, Hazel T. Meadors of Danville. He was predeceased by his father, Oscar S. Meadors and brother, Ronald C. Meadors. Memorial services will be held Wednesday, November 2, 2016 at 2 pm at Townes Memorial Chapel with the Reverend Allen Thompson officiating. The family will receive friends at the residence. In lieu of flowers memorials may be sent to the Danville Life Saving Crew, 202 Christopher Lane, Danville, VA 24541.

Kodell J. Loftis, Sr.

He was born November 23, 1924 to parents, Robert Percy Loftis and Corrie Rumley Loftis. His childhood and young adulthood were spent on a farm in Providence, NC where the family was members of Providence Baptist Church. After graduating from Cobb Memorial High School, he worked at Dan River Mills of Danville prior to entering U.S. military service in 1944. He served in the United States Army Air Corps from 1944-1946 where he was a tailgunner in B-17 and B-24 bombers. His duty stations included The Aleutian Islands of Alaska. He met the love of his life in Danville, Virginia, Jacqueline Rivers Blalock Loftis. They were married July 2, 1943. His loving wife predeceased him in 2012. They were dedicated members of Shady Grove United Methodist Church in Providence, NC where he served as Sunday School Superintendent and as a member of the United Methodist Men. He was also a dedicated member of the church choir. After 22 years with Dan River Inc., he became employed with the State of North Carolina Department of Corrections as Maintenance Supervisor, initially for five state prisons. His responsibilities expanded to include the entire maintenance operations for eleven state prisons. He enjoyed a distinguished career and retired from state service in 1990. In addition to his wife, he was predeceased by his parents, one brother, Percy Elree Loftis, and one sister, Alease Loftis Carroll, all of Providence, NC. He is survived by one daughter, Martha Loftis Hupp of Providence, NC and husband, Larry, and one son, Kodell J. Loftis, Jr. and wife, Judy. He is also survived by three grandchildren, Adam Christopher Hupp, Sarah Elizabeth Hupp Williamson and husband, Thomas, and Joseph Paul Loftis. He has a number of nephews and nieces. Funeral services will be held on Saturday, November 5, 2016 at Townes Memorial Chapel at 2:00 PM, with the Reverend Daryl Joyce Officiating. Interment will follow in Danville Memorial Gardens. The family will receive friends from 1:00 to 2:00 PM prior to the funeral at Townes Funeral Home. In lieu of flowers, the family suggests that memorial donations be made to Hospice & Palliative Care Center of Alamance-Caswell, 918 Chapel Hill Road, Burlington, NC 27215.

Faye Triplett Moore

Faye Triplett Moore, age 75, went home to be with her Lord Friday, November 4, 2016. She was born August 12, 1941, to the late James Triplett and the late Minnie Triplett. Faye worked as a registered nurse for 35 years. On October 8, 1966 she married Robert Lee Moore. She was a faithful member of Faith Memorial Baptist Church.

In addition to her husband she is survived by her children, Keith Moore and wife Stephanie, Robin Wright and husband Charlie Wright, and her grandchildren; Cory Moore, Anna Wright, Stephen Moore, and Rebekah Moore. She is also survived by her sister Jean Graham and husband Lewis and Carolyn Pearman and husband Kenny. She is predeceased by her brothers Hillary Triplett, Edward Triplett, Oakie Triplett, Frank Lowe and sisters; Ruth Triplett, Doris Earles, and Delores Cas-sada. The Funeral service will be held on Monday, November 7th at 11am at Faith Memorial Baptist Church with Reverend Daniel Lackey officiating and interment will follow at Anderson Chapel United Methodist Church Cemetery in Axton. The Moore family will also receive friends at Faith Memorial Baptist Church one hour before the service and at other times at the residents, 145 Granville Ct, Dryfork. In lieu of flowers donations can be made to Faith Memorial Baptist Church.

SENIOR NEWS LINE

How Not to Run Out of Retirement Money

One big fear of many seniors is that they will run out of retirement money. Chuck Price, president of Price Financial Group Wealth Management Inc., has some ideas about how to stretch out the money we do have.

* Keep working. Even if it's a part-time job, perhaps in your own career or in a new one, every dollar you earn is one dollar you don't have to take out of your retirement savings. Consider signing up for temporary employment, perhaps with an agency, to make more money.

* Create alternate income streams. If you've always wanted a small side-business that produces income, this might be the time to create one.

* Cut your costs. This is always easier said than done, but cutting costs will keep more dollars in your savings. Consider selling a vehicle you don't absolutely need, pocketing the money and saving on the cost of insurance and maintenance. Another idea, keeping a tally for one month of every dime you spend. At the end of the month, review how many times you went out for dinner, how much you spent on incidentals or entertainment. Decide where you can cut back. If your grocery bills are high, look at ways to cut those costs.

* Think about the financial help you give others. If you regularly give money to children and grandchildren or to charity, this might be the time to stop and reconsider whether you can continue to do that. If your own financial survival is at stake, saving your money is more important.

Chuck Price is the author of "Investing Simplified: What You Don't Know Can Hurt You." Look for more advice on his website www.pfgwm.com.

* Towels gone through the wringer a few times, and maybe don't smell so good anymore? No worries. Here's something to try today: To get more absorbency and get rid of the mildew smells, just run the towels through two cycles, both in hot water. To the first add 3 cups of vinegar, and to the second add a full cup of baking soda.

* Keep stray hair ties (elastics) corralled with a carabiner clip. This will allow easy access to the color you want, too. -- K.S. in Florida

* Do you have hydration goals? Using a large plastic refillable bottle, mark off the times by which you should have consumed your water. Halfway down the bottle by 10 a.m.? OK! Then you will know when you need to play catch up.

* "Add hooks to the inside of your cabinet doors to hold lids for your pots and pans. Make sure there are no shelves obstructing the lid when the door is closed. Use a short wire rack to hold the bottom, and attach a bungee cord across the top to hold them in place." -- C.P. in Arkansas

* "Here's a fun sleepover or camping hack: Attach a headlamp to the side of a gallon jug of water. It makes the whole jug glow, creating a nightlight or tent light." -- E.X. in New York

Remembering Our Veterans

The men and women who defend the liberties and freedoms of the countries they represent hold a special place in people's hearts and an eternal spot in their countries' histories.

Any opportunity is a good time to commemorate the bravery and selfless deeds of military personnel, but certain prominent holidays in November make this an especially important time to thank veterans for their service.

November 11 is Veterans Day in the United States and Remembrance Day in Canada. It's also known as Armistice Day in other parts of the world. These holidays honor all military veterans who have provided service to their countries, and that each falls on November 11 is no coincidence, as the day commemorates the anniversary of the end of World War I on the 11th hour of the 11th day of the 11th month of 1918.

Many places around the world pause and remember fallen veterans on November 11, but a good majority of Veterans Day and Remembrance Day commemorative events focus on past and current veterans who are still alive. There are many ways to honor the military at home and abroad in time for the November festivities. The following are just a handful of ways to show appreciation for military men and women.

- When dining out, ask your server if you can pay the tab for a soldier or veteran you see in the restaurant.
- Attend a military parade with your family and explain the significance of the day to children in attendance.
- Draft letters and send care packages to soldiers currently in service far away from home.
- Ask your company if Veterans Day or Remembrance Day can be an observed holiday at your place of business each year to pay homage to servicemen and women.
- Visit a military memorial in a city near you. Your town also may have its own memorial.
- Petition town officials to erect a memorial if your town does not already have one. Such memorials can be a source of inspiration for your community.
- Support a military family in your town who may be missing a loved one stationed elsewhere. Make meals, mow the lawn, help with grocery shopping, or simply provide emotional support.
- Volunteer time at a veterans' hospital. You may be able to read with veterans or engage in other activities.
- Get involved with a military support charity that can provide much-needed funds to struggling families or disabled veterans.
- Have children speak with veterans in your family, including grandparents, uncles and aunts or even their own parents. It can help them gain perspective on the important roles the military plays.
- Ask a veteran to give a commencement speech at a school or to be the guest of honor at a special function.
- Drive disabled veterans to doctors' appointments or to run any errands.
- Support a local VFW organization.
- Create a scrapbook for a veteran in your life.
- Cheer for or thank military personnel each time you see them.
- Visit the veterans' portion of a nearby cemetery and place poppies or other flowers on the graves.
- Always keep the military on your mind and never forget those who have served and didn't return home.

Armistice Day, Remembrance Day and Veterans Day are great ways to honor past and current military for their service and sacrifice.

Welcome to Lennox Valley, my hometown!

Kevin Slimp's
The Good Folks of Lennox Valley

Undoubtedly, the two chief forms of entertainment in my hometown in 1998 were politics and church, in no particular order. If we wanted to bowl or play miniature golf, then a trip to Springfield, the county seat, was required.

Professional wrestling came to town a couple of times each year. Most of the wrestlers were from Springfield or some other nearby town, and we'd recognize them if their masks happened to slip. My favorite wrestler was "Lightning" Hugh Light.

Light was a master in the ring. Tall and wiry, he used every ounce of his 170-pound frame to outmaneuver his more sinister opponents. In April of 1998, I ran into Lightning at the Rexall drugstore in Springfield, as he filled the racks with the latest magazines.

I asked why he was putting magazines on the rack and he told me that was his job. In an instant, professional wrestling lost some of its luster and it's never been quite the same for me since.

We did, however, have one other form of entertainment in the Valley: The Majestic Theater. With only 1,200 residents, there wasn't enough business to keep a theater open every night, but on Friday and Saturday nights plus Sunday afternoons, the good folks of Lennox Valley could plop down $2 ($1 for children) and spend two hours escaping reality.

With only one screen, movies came and left quickly. Most movies played only one weekend at the Majestic and were replaced with a new title the following week. An exception to that rule was "Saving Private Ryan," which was in its third week – a record in the Valley – in August 1998.

Callers to "Renderings with Raymond" had come to refer to their hero as "Gen. Cooper," as "Saving Private Ryan" infiltrated the minds and hearts of Valley residents during the movie's run. Cooper, having never served in the military himself, was happy to take on the honorary mantle.

"I cannot compare to the heroes in that great movie," Raymond would say. "But like them, I've

Gen. Cooper gets help from Private Ryan dedicated my life to fighting the forces of evil and destruction right here in our Valley."

With the election just two days away, and the debate of the century only a few hours away, Cooper was in his prime during the Tuesday show.

Asked how he felt about a poll being conducted by an unknown organization in Springfield, Raymond reminded the group there were many "outsiders" who hoped to disrupt his campaign and he was sure this was another ploy by the elite media to steer attention away from the issues.

Now that egg prices were no longer discussed on Raymond's show, no one was quite certain to which issues he referred. Whatever they were, his faithful fans wouldn't let anything or anyone dilute their enthusiasm.

While most good folks of the Valley were glued to Cooper's show, Iris Long was busy pasting up pages of the Lennox Valley Hometown News which would hit the stands the following day. She had already decided the main headline would relate to the debate, now only five hours away. She would have a four-column photo of the candidates behind their podiums with the main headline across the top of the page. Underneath the photo, she left plenty of space clear for a detailed report.

Other than the debate story, Iris left room for only one other piece – an article detailing the results of the just-completed survey of Valley voters. Iris wasn't as young as she once was, and sometimes she found it necessary to stop whatever she was doing and take a breath. This was one of those moments.

While Iris thought about the huge story about to take place, Raymond used the last hour of his Tuesday show to remind listeners to consider their options wisely. He had recently begun referring to Mayor "Silver Tongue" Dick Bland as "Sliver Tongue."

"He is as sneaky as a snake," Cooper liked to say about his rival.

He ended the show by reminding his listeners, "It wouldn't be right for me to use this radio platform to influence your voting decisions." Then, after a pause, "Just vote your conscience, remembering two of the candidates in the field have no conscience."

Danville Parks and Recreation is searching for a few groups to develop, build and set up light displays for the Annual Community Holiday Light Show, Dec. 10-25 in Ballou Park.

Displays can be store bought or homemade. There is no cost to enter a display. During the show, displays will be judged by visitors to the park. Prize money will be donated in honor of the winning entries to a local non-profit organization of the winning group's choice.

Now is the time to register and begin building. We are right at a month away from the beginning of the show. Call (434) 793-4636.

VETERANS POST

Bicycles Banned At Arlington

Bicycles will no longer be allowed in Arlington National Cemetery, unless being ridden by people with family passes who are there to visit a loved one's grave. Commuters, weekend exercisers and cycling clubs are no longer welcome. To which I give a big thumbs-up. Arlington National Cemetery holds upward of 30 funerals a day. Some of these involve long streams of cars of attendees and escorts; some involve the military band or horses pulling a caisson. The last thing funeral-goers need is to have to navigate around cyclists, or have them whiz by during a funeral service. Of course, cyclists were upset when the news came out, and they started a petition, claiming they don't disrupt anything. The cemetery's response to that was, "Previous trial periods with bicyclists in the cemetery showed bicyclists did not typically stop for these processions." Enough said. Some state veterans' cemeteries seem to ban bicycles as well, such as the Connecticut State Veterans' Cemetery. Others aren't as vigilant, with one state suffering from horseback riding, picnics, fireworks and hunting at their veterans' cemetery. Another had to ban bicycles after multiple bike crashes disrupted funerals. Some places aren't so fussy. There apparently is an annual ride at the Chattanooga National Cemetery in Tennessee. The Willamette National Cemetery in Oregon allows bicycles and is on a list of places to ride, complete with helpful GPS printable maps. Having buried a grandfather, father, mother, two uncles, a spouse and multiple friends in national cemeteries, I can say this: If you're a cyclist who lives where a national cemetery allows bicycles and you spot an ongoing procession or funeral service, stop. A cemetery isn't just a convenient shortcut for you. It's the end of the line for our loved ones.

The Garden Bug
 By the time European settlers arrived in America in the early 1600s, native tribes like the Iroquois had been growing corn, beans and squash (the "three sisters") together for centuries. They considered the support the plants gave each other a divine gift. The stalks of the corn plants support the bean vines, while the leaves of the beans pull nitrogen from the air and bring it to the soil for all three. The squash plant's wide leaves protect the soil while their prickles discourage foraging pests.

Piedmont Shopper FAVORITE RECIPES

Cornbread Dressing

- 6 cups crumbled, day-old cornbread
- 3 cups seasoned, dried breadcrumbs
- 2 cups sauteed vegetables (see recipe below)
- 3 to 4 cups seasoned broth (see recipe below)
- 1 tablespoon poultry seasoning
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 1 teaspoon freshly ground black pepper
- 2 eggs, lightly beaten
- 3 ounces unsalted butter, softened for greasing pan
- Cooked turkey neck meat, chopped gizzards and livers, optional (see recipe below)

1. Heat oven to 400 F. In a large mixing bowl, combine cornbread and dried breadcrumbs. Combine sauteed vegetables with bread mixture. Stir in the cooled, seasoned broth and any vegetables, using enough to moisten the bread mixture, without making it too wet or soupy. Reserve the rest of the broth.
2. Mix in the poultry seasoning, salt, pepper and beaten eggs, blending well. Add in the diced turkey meat, livers and gizzards, if desired.
3. Lightly grease a large shallow baking or roasting pan measuring about 10-by-15 inches with the butter. Spread the dressing mixture in the pan. Bake for 20 to 30 minutes until the top is lightly browned and a crust has formed around the edges of the pan.

SEE IF YOU CAN make this math expression correct by adding seven plus signs and one multiplication sign between the numbers 1 through 9.

$$9 \ 8 \ 7 \ 6 \ 5 \ 4 \ 3 \ 2 \ 1 = 100$$

Answer: 9 x 8 + 7 x 6 + 5 + 4 + 3 + 2 + 1 = 100

DON'T BLOW YOUR TOP ON THIS ONE! At the right is a Word Square grid. Can you find the four five-letter words that match the definitions below? All words used must read the same both across and down.

1. Found on hats.
2. A type of number.
3. A mental picture.
4. Molten volcanic rock (given).
5. To move in a stealthy manner.
